ELIZABETH FEE ARNOLD
GRAND PRESIDENT OF GAMMA PHI BETA

Charming, gracious Elizabeth Fee Arnold will again serve Gamma Phi Beta as Grand President. Re-elected unanimously to the highest position in the sorority, Elizabeth has the warm wishes of all Gamma Phi Betas for a successful term of office and their appreciation of her splendid leadership during the past biennium.

GAMMA PHI BETA'S 47TH CONVENTION

IF THERE were a formula for successful conventions, Gamma Phi Beta discovered it at the 47th conclave! Ingredients included a magnificent location, The Greenbrier Hotel at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia; a charming, gracious presiding officer, Elizabeth Fee Arnold, Grand President; an efficient convention marshal, Delphine Andrews; well-informed convention committee chairmen; energetic hostesses for luncheons and dinners; and an enthusiastic band of Gamma Phi Beta delegates and visitors.

Preceding the formal opening banquet, a reception was held in the Garden Terrace honoring Grand Council and honored guests. Following dinner, Miss Lora Lee Pederson, Director of the School of Social Work at the University of Texas, addressed the convention. Her talk was entitled, "The Mark of a Gamma Phi Beta," and challenged her listeners to provide leadership and give greater service to those less bountifully endowed. Miss Pederson urged members to acquire a positive philosophy of life and to develop an ability to relinquish vices and prejudices. Her concluding mark of a true Gamma Phi Beta was the capacity for loving kindness.

Miss Pederson is a member of Beta Omicron chapter, Oklahoma City University.

Throughout the busy week of convention, little meetings were sandwiched between big meetings and committees met through the wee, small hours to ready their reports for general sessions. Even the "free" afternoon found Gamma Phi Betas scurrying back from the Golf and Tennis Club to attend the Alumnæ Advisors' School, to confer with a Province officer or to take care of some unfinished business.

In spite of the work load, or perhaps because of it, every conventioneer became a part of Gamma Phi Beta International, experiencing the broad scope of the sorority's business, learning the relationship between local chapter work and international accomplishments and acknowledging the importance of working together at every level for the growth of Gamma Phi Beta.

Climaxing the final business session was the election of officers with a unanimous vote of the delegates for the nominating committee's slate. Officers for the next biennium are:

Grand President, Mrs. Gerald Arnold, Philadelphia
Alumnæ Vice-President, Mrs. Joseph L. Picard, Tucson
Collegiate Vice-President, Mrs. C. J. Olsen, Ann Arbor
Director of Finance, Mrs. G. Russell Page, Baltimore
Director of Expansion, Mrs. George Davis, Jr., Berkeley
NPC Delegate, Mrs. Cicero F. Hogan, Silver Springs, Md.

Grand finale to grand convention was the traditional Carnation Banquet on Friday evening. Decorations by the Washington, D.C. alumnæ and U. of Maryland chapters featured pink taffeta table cloths, gold cornucopias filled with pink carnations and surrounded by clusters of pink grapes and gold leaves. A fresh pink carnation was affixed to each gold foil program and a pink be-ribboned favor at each place was a handsome address book.

As 285 Gamma Phi Betas rose to sing "Fidelity," the curtain fell on the 47th convention, a great convention which joined hearts and hands of Gamma Phi Betas as they stride purposefully toward a bright tomorrow. D D D

Mrs. Dippell's name was added to Honor Roll on approval of this 47th convention.

DAY BY DAY AT CONVENTION

July 2, 1956

OPENING NIGHT found veteran conventioneer, Alice Camerer, chatting with Kay Ellen Robertson, left, of Oklahoma U., Virginia Glass and Sue Wormhoudt, both of Iowa University, Alice's chapter. It was the collegiates' first convention . . . Alice's 14th.

SCRAPBOOK WITH SPARKLE was that entered by University of Southern California. Marion Haddad accepted the engraved silver tray, first prize in the scrapbook competition.

THERE'S AN IDEA! From the Rushing Center which Florence Henke, right, International Membership Chairman, organized. Gilded driftwood with tiny parasols attached for an Oriental party. Idea-getters are Donna Fisher of Nevada U., Mary Helen Ruark of Oklahoma U. and Ann Curry of Oregon U.

ARRIVING at the Greenbrier early Monday morning, delegates welcomed the hot coffee served in the lower lobby as they waited to register. Whisked off to their lovely rooms (there are 600 rooms at the Greenbrier, each decorated differently under the expert hand of Dorothy Draper), there was time to unpack, freshen up and enjoy a leisurely breakfast before the Province meetings at 11:30.

Luncheon was hosted by the Ames and Des Moines alumnae chapters, with an "Iowa State Fair" theme. Each guest received a prize ribbon of gold, red, white, green or purple, and matched her ribbon to the centerpiece. The head table featured a cornucopia filled with Iowa field corn, while individual places were marked with small feed troughs filled with candy corn. Arline Wiegand Nelson of Des Moines was chairman of the luncheon while guests were welcomed by Gwen Riggs of Des Moines and Amber Stow of Ames.

The first general session convened at 2:00 P.M., with Grand President Elizabeth Fee Arnold presiding. Following roll call, delegates were welcomed by Delphine Johnston Andrews, Convention Marshal. Convention committee appointments were approved, and officers were introduced, after which Mrs. Arnold presented her Grand President's message. An informal discussion of Revisions of the Constitution, By-Law and Standing Rules followed the formal session.

Monday evening's formal reception honoring Grand Council and Honored Guests preceded the formal opening banquet, arranged by Gamma chapter and Madison and Milwaukee alumnae chapters. Carla Nolting Smith served as toastmistress and introduced Lora Lee Pederson, Director of the School of Social Work at the University of Texas, who spoke on "The Mark of a Gamma Phi."

July 3

A school on Parliamentary Procedure was held each morning at 8:15 under the direction of Mrs. W. Glenn Suthers, Parliamentarian. The general session following was devoted to a presentation of the Proposed Revisions, by Marion Bebb Howe, chairman of the Revisions Committee.

"From the Land of the Pennsylvania Dutch" was the luncheon theme, arranged by the Philadelphia alumnae chapter with Marion Doty Bickford as official hostess. Table decorations included red barn centerpieces and red and yellow tulips in black pots decorated with Pennsylvania Dutch motifs. The lucky number at each table allowed its owner to take the centerpiece home.

A joint round table of Greek letter and alumnae delegates in the afternoon was under the direction of Betty Wheeler Olsen and Olive Galatin Picard.

Kappa chapter and Minneapolis-St. Paul alumnae were hostesses for the formal banquet at 7:30 which honored International Committee Chairmen and Province Officers. Utilizing a Paul Bunyan theme, the hostesses brought a life size statue of Paul, made of Styrofoam, along with smaller replicas of Paul and Babe, the blue ox, for table centerpieces. In the program dedication to the Big Wheels, we read, "Paul Bunyan was so large he used big wheels from a wagon as buttons on his shirt. Gamma Phi also needs big wheels to hold its large organization together. We salute our Big Wheels!"

A model initiation, under the direction of Rosemary Sundberg, International Chairman of Ritual, was held at 9:00 P.M., presented by Omega chapter. Honor initiate was Mary Ann Pahl of Beta chapter, who received her pin from Grand President Elizabeth Arnold.

July 4

It hardly felt like a holiday, as delegates met in general session to vote on revisions and hear a report on our Philanthropies by Grace Merrill, president of the Philanthropy Board. Fay Davis Deupree, International Chairman of Expansion also reported that two Greek letter chapters were installed during the biennium, Beta Sigma at Washington State and Beta Tau at Texas Tech.

A beautiful buffet luncheon was served at the Golf and Tennis Club, followed by a free afternoon which found Gamma Phis playing tennis and golf, swimming, horseback riding and sight-seeing around the beautiful hotel grounds.

At five o'clock, the traditional Memorial Service was held at St. Thomas Church in White Sulphur Springs, under the direction of Rosemary Sundberg, assisted by Helen Bush Mills. Alpha Chi chapter presented the readings and choral singing.

Holiday spirits burst forth at the informal "Firecracker Bust" dinner, sponsored by Alpha Delta, Phi and St. Louis chapters. Table decorations included Uncle Sam hats, American flags and giant size firecrackers filled with confetti, planned by the committee whose chairman was Mrs. Arthur Hemminger.

"Pheasant en plumage" was the featured item on the dinner menu, and was so beautifully served that the Gamma Phis started chanting, "We want the Chef!" He appeared shortly in a handsome hat, surely two feet high, and a wide grin, pleased at the ovation he received from the Gamma Phis. Beatrice Locke Hogan spoke, following dinner, on "We, The Fraternity Women," explaining the role of National Panhellenic and the responsibilities of fraternity women everywhere to their own groups and to all groups.

July 5

The fourth general session was devoted to a report of the Endowment-Crescent Board by Margaret Donovan Herland, Presentation of the Budget by Nadine Cullison Page and a report of today's demands by Harriet DeWolf Alden. Dorothy Bateman Guetzlaff, chairman of the Nominating Committee presented the committee's slate of officers for the coming biennium, which was accepted by the convention.

PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH theme was employed by Philadelphia alumnae for their luncheon. Martha Houston sets the weather vane straight on the bright red barn. Others are, from left, Hazel Pease, G. G. Skelly, Marion Bickford and Evelyn Hodge, luncheon chairman.

A PEEK IN THE PRESS ROOM found the Crescent Moon staff at work all day and half the night. From left, clockwise, are Beverly Stein, Rollins College, Editor Geraldine Epp Smith, St. Louis, Florence Daugherty, St. Louis, Cary Apple and Casey Martin of Miami U. and Betty Sue Wrenn, Florida State.

Honors luncheon was hostessed by Omicron and Champaign-Urbana alumnae chapters on the theme, "Land of Lincoln," with Dorothy Potter Swindell as toastmistress.

The Chancellor E. O. Haven Awards for Scholarship were awarded by Mary Thom McCurley, International Scholarship Chairman. Based on scholarship ratings according to the number of Sororities on campus, the Awards went to Lambda, U. of Washington, Alpha Beta, North Dakota U., Alpha Lambda, U. of British Columbia, Beta Alpha, U. of Southern California, and Beta Omicron, Oklahoma City U. Beta Alpha scored twice in the win column when their scrapbook was awarded first prize, a beautiful silver tray, by Pearl Van Horn, International Public Relations chairman. Beta Kappa at Arizona State took second place and Alpha Xi at Southern Methodist placed third. Honorable mentions went to four chapters; for originality, Beta Gamma at Bowling Green; for neatness, Epsilon at Northwestern, for public relations appeal, Eta, U. of California, and inclusiveness and clarity of presentation, Tau of Colorado A. and M.

The informal dinner was called "Hoe Down Jamboree," with Alpha Theta and Epsilon chapters as hostesses. Pipe cleaner figures representing square dancers decorated the tables, and cans of popcorn were favors. Lucille Corkran, president of Alpha Theta, was chairman.

A special session of convention was called for the evening, followed by a coke party in the Spring room. Cokes were served in special crested glasses, which became personal souvenirs for the guests.

July 6

Final day of convention! It was hard to believe we were nearing the end, for the week had flown by on wings. Morning session consisted of reports from the round tables and committee reports.

The Founders' luncheon was sponsored by Alpha, Rochester and Syracuse alumnae chapters and featured centerpieces of gilt crescents and pink carnations. Program covers of traditional brown and mode were designed by Jeanne Greenhalgh of Alpha. Following luncheon, chairmanned by Mrs. Kenneth Erskine, Alpha presented its skit from the formal rushing party.

Election of officers highlighted the afternoon general session. All Grand Council officers succeed themselves with the exception of one, Mrs. Edwin A. Deupree, who did not wish her name to be placed in nomination, due to the press of personal business. Mrs. George Davis, Jr., of Eta chapter and Berkeley, California, was elected International Director of Expansion.

Reading of the Scriptures, Matthew V, 13-17, brought to a close the 47th convention of Gamma Phi Beta.

Always the supreme moment of convention comes at the very end . . . the traditional Carnation Banquet. LaVenia Tinnon Garvin, former Council member, served as toast-mistress, introducing honored guests, former Council officers and the new Honor Roll member, Evelyn Gooding Dippell, former Grand President.

A toast to the four Founders was given by Pearl Van Horn, and Virginia Glass of Rho chapter sang, "In the Heart of a Pink Carnation." Mrs. Gerald Arnold introduced the members of the Grand Council-Elect, followed by the closing ceremony with 285 Gamma Phi Betas singing "Fidelity." D D D

HOME AGAIN

"What Convention means to me?" Asked that question in June, one might have answered, "The Greenbrier, of course. Luxury! Glamour!" During Convention week, the reply could easily have been, "The people. Aren't they wonderful?"

Now that time and space intervene, the 47th Convention is half a month, half a continent, an entire climate away; there is an opportunity to meditate, to evaluate. First impressions remain true, but are only part of the larger picture. This greater panorama includes recognition of the deeper meanings portrayed in the symbolism of model initiation, a knowledge of the influence of Gamma Phi Beta during our formative years and the foundation it provided for the years that followed.

Wisdom of choice is evident. When Gamma Phi Beta chose us and we chose Gamma Phi Beta, the pact was for life. For us who live at a distance from organized chapters, privileges of membership are newly portrayed. Wonder dawns as we realize that a choice made in the days of our youth has enriched a lifetime. We strive to find a way of serving the order that it may be to future members the true sisterhood which it has been to us.

Somehow, whether they come from the east or the west, whether accents are the gentle ones of the deep south or the clipped, rapid speech of the north, these are our own people. Each member, active or alumna, can find her own niche. Convention has been a homecoming, a family reunion. Again, and always, we are a part of that mystic circle,

"Where love is so constant, and hearts are so kind."

By PEARL GRIFFIN KLINE

A GREAT HONOR came to Mary Ann Pahl, U. of Michigan, when she was chosen honor initiate for the convention initiation ceremonies. Seated with her is Harriet Willcutt, former Chairman of Standards, who flew down from Boston for the last two days of convention.

Finding three convention committee members together and holding them for two minutes to garner a picture was quite a feat. Each committee member, with her own numerous responsibilities, was at her post to insure a smooth-running convention. On the final night, Dotty Darling, in charge of Arrangements and Properties, Delphine Andrews, Convention Marshal and Maureen Wilson, vice-chairman of convention could relax, knowing that their efforts throughout the past year had paid off . . . the memorable 47th convention was coming to a close.

SERVICE ROLL

Created to honor members for long, devoted and constructive service to Chapter, Province and Sorority.

The following Gamma Phi Betas were approved for Service Roll membership by the 1956 convention:

Thelma Marion Campbell, Omicron '24

Alice Mulroney, Rho '28

SIDELIGHTS AT CONVENTION

When Jo Warner, Minneapolis-St. Paul delegate, was persuaded to enter the Mason-Dixon tennis tournament at the Greenbrier, only the mixed doubles were open. A gentleman from Florida was available as a partner, and Jo asked that the first match be scheduled during the luncheon hour, as she was a delegate and couldn't miss any of the meetings. Continuing to win each match, Jo's lunches were a fast sandwich until it was necessary for her to change her reservations for going home. She played in the finals on Saturday.

"If every Gamma Phi Beta sent in just one magazine subscription each year," says Gladys Myles, chairman, "annual profits to the Endowment Fund could reach $40,000." Let's renew our subscriptions every time through the Gamma Phi Beta agency!

Ella-Mae Reidy Manwarring, Los Angeles delegate, missed an important date on the coast by coming to convention. It was a performance of Harry Belafonte in "Sing, Man, Sing" . . . Intercity Gamma Phi Beta's annual Greek Theatre Premier. Ella-Mae originated this project to raise funds for Gamma Phi's Good Samaritan Hospital Nursery Guild and the latest report says they raised $5,000.

* * *

Alice Camerer of Detroit, former Grand Council member, arrived at the Greenbrier to make this her 14th convention. Asked about her new Ford Thunderbird, she replied it was white with red upholstery . . . but she limits herself to driving it only in a 175 mile area around home.

* * *

Another familiar face at the Greenbrier was that of Harriet Willcutt, Wellesley, Massachusetts, former Chairman of standards. Mrs. Willcutt wrote the Gamma Phi Beta Creed.

* * *

In addition to his appearance at the July 4th dinner, the Greenbrier's chef put on a real performance at the Carnation banquet. Following the main course, curtains on the great stage swept back, and on stage were four chefs playing with fire! It was Cherries Jubilee for dessert, and never had we seen cooking done with such a flourish . . . it was fun and delicious, too!

MARY JANE LEAVES CENTRAL OFFICE

It is with regret that Grand Council announces the resignation of Mary Jane Hipp Mithos as Secretary-Treasurer of Gamma Phi Beta. Replacing her will be Janice Gray Perrizo, appointed as acting Secretary-Treasurer. Janice has served as assistant treasurer in Central Office for the past five years and assumed her new duties August 1.

YOUR NEW COUNCIL MEMBERS

Lois Edbrooke Davis, elected as International Director of Expansion, brings to her new position a world of background for the job of adding strong new chapters to the sisterhood. Her most recent position in Gamma Phi Beta was as Province Collegiate Director of VII North, preceded by service in various offices of the Berkeley alumnae chapter and as president of the Eta Corporation Board.

At the University of California, Lois was president of Mortar Board and later served as section director for Mortar Board for eight years.

Her community activities have included the youth committee for the YMCA, Republican Party committee work, teaching first aid for the Red Cross, plus P.T.A., Cub Scout and Brownie activities which come to a mother of three.

Pack trips into the high Sierras are the summer highlight for the Davis family which includes husband George, the boys, Clarke 16 and Brian, 14 and their daughter, Brooke, 13.

Janice Gray Perrizo simply moves from the outer office to the inner office of Gamma Phi Beta headquarters, as she undertakes the duties of acting Secretary-Treasurer. Having served ably in Central Office for the past five years, Janice is familiar with procedure and operations promise to continue without a break.

Twenty years as an officer and member of the Chicago alumnae chapter have kept Jan in close touch with Gamma Phi Beta's progress, while her community activities have found her in responsible positions. She has served as vice-president of the Beverly Hills Woman's Club, in several official capacities for the Ridge Service Guild, as Brownie, Scout and Tri-Hi-Y leader at various stages of daughter Jan's growing up. . . . Jan is a Gamma Phi Beta at the University of Wisconsin.

Community drives for the Chest, Red Cross, Cancer and March of Dimes have found Jan as captain or major and she has also been Supervisor of Arts and Crafts at St. Paul's Vacation Bible School. All this, and she still had energy enough to give 21 pints of blood to the Red Cross!

When you write or visit Central Office, you will warm to the gracious charm of Jan Perrizo who manages to combine top efficiency with the most pleasant personality.

NEW CHAPTER AT KANSAS STATE

Colonization at Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas this fall will add another chapter of Gamma Phi Beta to the roster. Recommendations for entering freshmen and unaffiliated upperclassmen should be mailed immediately to Mrs. Robert H. Allen, 1105 Ratone, Manhattan, Kansas.

View from side steps of chapter house at the University of Oregon includes the huge weeping willow cascading over the Millrace. Highlighting Junior Weekend is the Millrace Float parade, when floats are built on barges and towed down the Race.

First national sorority on campus, Nu chapter's history is Closely linked to that of THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Finally in 1925, the chapter moved to its present location along the banks of the historic Millrace.

The University was actually founded 32 years before the founding of Nu Chapter, in 1876. J. W. Johnson from Yale College was the first president, and Deady Hall was the only building on the campus. Deady still stands with the original stone walls as sturdy as ever, but the inside was recently completely remodeled. Financial difficulty almost closed the doors of the University during those early years, but Henry Villard came to its aid by paying the building debt and contributing money for library books. In 1886, the second building, Villard Hall, was erected, and in the following years, the University campus has rapidly expanded. It now has some 25 buildings and a present enrollment of over 5,000 students.

It is a well-rounded university, consisting of many departments and schools, and offers a complete range of courses in liberal arts, architecture and allied arts, business administration, pre-medicine, education, health and physical education, journalism, law, music, and includes the medical school located at Portland.

Oregon Gamma Phi Betas of 1956 proudly look back upon both the history of the University and of Nu Chapter. Just a look around the spacious, green-lawned campus and its buildings tells a story of particular interest to Gamma Phis.

John Straub Hall, a men's dormitory (although during World War II, women inhabited its masculine halls, and still have lived in some sections of it during recent years), was named after the first Dean of Men who served 32 years in this position. He was the father of Leila Straub Stafford, one of the founders of Nu Chapter. Mrs. Stafford, a resident of Eugene, living just off the campus, is still an active alumna of Nu Chapter and the University.

In 1950, the Erb Memorial Student Union was opened and dedicated to the memory of the late University president and professor, Donald Erb. He was the husband of a Gamma Phi. Mrs. Erb is a member of the Eugene alumnae chapter, and his two daughters, Mrs. John (Barbara) Craig and Mrs. Frank (Betsy) Bliss are both members of Nu Chapter.

THIRTEEN is the lucky number for Nu Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta. It was the thirteenth chapter of Gamma Phi; the first chapter house was located on Thirteenth Street, and it had thirteen members at the time of its installation.

The history of Nu Chapter is linked closely with that of the University of Oregon in Eugene, Oregon, where it is located. It was in April, 1904, when six girls formed the first local sorority, Tau Pi, at the University. The girls then became acquainted with Gamma Phi Beta alumnae and soon presented a petition to Gamma Phi. The six girls were Miss Mary Gray, Mrs. Caroline Benson Unander, Mrs. Olen (Helen McKinney) Arnsperger, Mrs. O. F. (Leila Straub) Stafford, Mrs. Jean Gray Powell, and Miss Bertha McKinney.

To continue its "firsts," Tau Pi became Nu Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, the first national sorority on the Oregon campus. Lambda Chapter from the University of Washington installed Nu on December 18, 1908. The president of the University, Prince Lucien Campbell, recognized Nu Chapter as a successful experiment in cooperative living and an excellent means of improving housing facilities for women on the campus. To further growth and interest in Nu Chapter in the memorable year of 1908, the girls often entertained the faculty, consisting of twenty professors. The student body then consisted of 300 students.

From its first house on Thirteenth Street, the chapter moved to a new house on the corner of Alder and Thirteenth, just a few blocks from what was then the center of the campus.

Distinguished alumnae of Nu chapter and actives were among those assisting at the Pauline Potter tea, an annual event on campus, named in honor of an Oregon Gamma Phi Beta. From left are, Marion Henderson Bergerson, Leila Straub Stafford, charter member of Nu, Mrs. N. P. Sorensen, Mrs. Robert Earl, Miss Mary Gray, also a charter member, Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, Mrs. Lloyd Thomas and Miss Kathy Seymour.

Earl Hall, a new men's dormitory was completed and opened in the fall of 1955. It is named after Virgil Earl, director of athletics and Dean of Men in 1931. He was the father of Mary E. Earl Maltman, also a member of Nu Chapter. Stafford unit, a section of Earl Hall, is named after O. F. Stafford, the late husband of Mrs. Leila Stafford.

The calendar of events throughout the school year at Oregon has grown with the school. Fall term is highlighted by Homecoming Weekend, and Oregon Gamma Phis actively participate in the Noise Parade, attend the football game, the Homecoming Dance, and entertain at open house for the weekend. Winter term ushers in house dances, Dad's Day, the Military Ball, and the Senior Ball.

Taking the spotlight Spring term are two big weekends, including Duck Preview when high school seniors visit the campus, and house dances. The big highlight of the year is Junior Weekend, during which all houses partake in the All-Campus Sing, the Junior Prom, All-Campus Luncheons, and the Canoe Fete, a float parade on the old Millrace. The Pauline Potter Homer Tea is held just before graduation each year in honor of alumnae graduating seniors. This tea is held in memory of Pauline Potter Homer, a Gamma Phi of Nu Chapter who took active interest in the literary field.

Each year the outstanding senior is selected by the girls in the house and her name is engraved on a recognition plaque. The plaque is named for and contains the Tau Pi pin of Leila Stafford.

ANNE QUAST, U. OF WASHINGTON

NEW Women's Western Amateur Champion golfer is Anne Quast, Gamma Phi Beta from the University of Washington.

Time magazine had this little quip to tell about Anne. . . . "A stubbed little toe—the result of indulging in the unusual pastime of trying to place-kick a hefty chunk of cinder block—caused University of Washington Sophomore Anne Quast, 18, considerable pain, but she limped through the 36-hole final of the women's Western amateur championship at the Guyan Country Club in Huntington, West Virginia to beat Defending Champion Pat Lesser 4 and 3."

Prior to Anne's tournament trip east, Everett, Washington business men had named her "Man of the Year!"

PAT GIBSON, U. OF WISCONSIN

ANOTHER Gamma Phi champion, Pat Gibson of the University of Wisconsin, four time winner of the national senior women's speed skating title, was honored by her home town, Madison, at a recognition dinner last spring. Sharing the spotlight with Pat was Bill Carow, fifth fastest speed skater in the world and, like Pat, a student of trainer Fred Milverstedt.

A resolution adopted by the Madison City Council praised Pat and Bill for the distinction they have brought the city, and a letter was read from the University of Wisconsin in tribute to the skaters' prowess. With 250 friends gathered about to honor her and Bill, Pat opened her gift from the Optimist Club . . . a chest of sterling silver flatware.

Pat graduated in June in physical therapy, maintaining above-average grades, in spite of her rigid training schedule and part time work in the women's sportswear department of a sporting goods store.

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

THE 1956 convention has come and gone, but lives in the memories of all who attended. In a fabulous setting we greeted old friends, made new ones, attended to necessary business, and received inspiration to go forward.

The former council members, with one exception, answered the call of convention to continue in office for the coming biennium. We shall strive to be worthy of the confidence you have placed in us, as we plan and work to make Gamma Phi Beta strong.

Lois Edbrooke Davis, Eta, of Berkeley, California, succeeds Fay Davis Deupree, Psi, of Oklahoma City, as Director of Expansion. Fay's family responsibilities would not permit longer service as an international officer, but the benefit of her experience will be given freely to her successor. It is thus that we continue to move forward.

The most time-consuming business of convention was the adoption of substitute constitution, bylaws and standing rules, which became effective at the close of convention. The new terminology may be difficult at first, but will become familiar with use.

Appointive offices are being filled, and announcement will be sent to chapters as soon as all appointments are complete. Meantime, officers as listed on the directory page will receive correspondence.

Fall is an invigorating time! Important plans are in the making—for expansion, for a survey pertaining to relocation of our central office, for a study of our financial structure, for a study of convention costs, and for adding to our Endowment Fund. All action of the convention is being implemented. As Grand Council works to carry out these plans, you will be kept informed of progress through letters to chapters.

Many of our Greek-letter chapters are in the midst of rushing. It will be a satisfaction to each alumna who has recommended a rushee to learn of rushing results. The sharing of good news welds the bonds of sisterhood as we work together to extend the benefits of membership to our younger friends.

And so we start another year. May it be a good one to add to the fine record of Gamma Phi Beta's past.

AT HOME WITH BETA XI CHAPTER, OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Upon entering the newly redecorated yellow brick Gamma Phi Beta house at Ohio State University, one notices the homey atmosphere of the rooms. The soft colors of pink and green predominate the color scheme of the house.

To the left of the entrance hall is the pink music room with its rounded sectional couch, and its baby grand piano. The salmon pink of the matching draperies and upholstery is accentuated by the deeper rose motif of ancient Greek architecture. The French Provincial style is carried out by the round pink marble coffee table and crystal chandelier.

The wall to wall pink carpeting flows across the entrance hall, past the open stairway, and on into the comfortable living room. All eyes immediately perceive the decorative pink clock above the mantel of sprayed green brick. The clock face itself is framed by a flowery design of gold flecked pink leaves and vines. In front of the mantel are a pair of soft comfortable love seats, with pink lamps on the end tables. Between the love seats is a pink marble coffee table. One corner of the living room has a pink rough textured sectional divan with a low corner table. There are two lounge chairs which match the upholstery of the couch in the sunroom.

The green walls of the living room are repeated in the sun room at the front of the house. Lighting is controlled through the use of loosely woven draperies of gray-green and pale green. These draperies diffuse the day light from all the windows in the living room and the sun room. In one corner of the sun room there is a comfortable pink divan with a print of big green coins as the motif. In another corner there is a permanent card table. Also in the sun room is the newly acquired 24 inch television set.

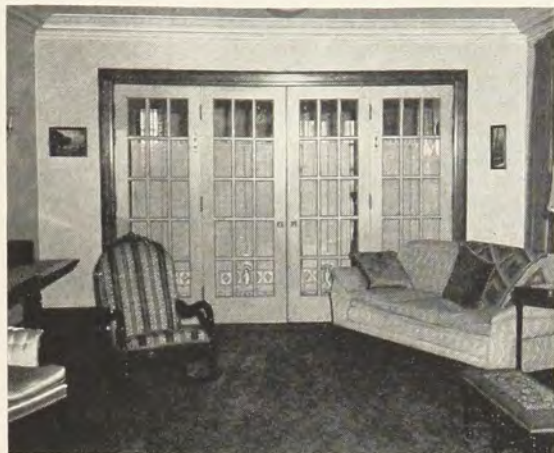

BEFORE . . . looking toward the sun room, and after, at right, where deft handling of color and furniture selection and placement achieves a feeling of spaciousness.

BEFORE AND . . . AFTER

View toward dining room in Beta Xi's chapter house at Ohio State before and after decorating.

The far end of the living room opens into the dining room. Pink is repeated on the walls of this room. There are six light cherry oval tables in the French Provincial Style with matching chairs. The center of interest in the dining room is the buffet which displays the silver tea service and candelabra. These are reflected in a large mirror which extends from the top of the buffet to near the ceiling. The loosely woven green draperies are repeated.

At the top of the open stairway is the town girls room, which is decorated in the same style and color scheme as described in the room of the lower floor. There are four bedrooms and two baths on the second floor, a pink powder room, and a dorm which sleeps sixteen girls. There are four bedrooms and a bath on the third floor.

All of the girls of Beta Xi Chapter are very pleased and happy with their beautiful new home.

HATS OFF TO ROSEMARY SKINNER OF OKLAHOMA UNIVERSITY!

ROSEMARY SKINNER

Pride in the accomplishments of Rosemary Skinner prompted Oklahoma University Gamma Phis to request a special article for this outstanding member. Her list of honors, scholarships, chairmanships and services to the University filled a page of single space typing, so here's to Rosemary!

Honoraries include Alpha Lambda Delta, Theta Sigma Phi, Mortar Board and Phi Beta Kappa, having been on the Dean's Honor Roll for her entire four years. Rosemary was selected as the Outstanding Freshman, one of ten outstanding Sophomores and received both the Eaton Journalism Scholarship and the Alumni Development Fund Scholarship.

She was one of two Oklahoma U. delegates to the National Students Association convention, one of four delegates to the Big Seven Student Council convention, and one of four members of the Student Press Association. Chairmanships galore included Homecoming, Conference on Religion Buildup committee, Student Senate Finance committee, and she was named outstanding Student Senator. She directed Sooner Scandals, all school revue and the Engineers' Show, was chosen for Matrix Table, B.W.O.C., Student Publications Board and Westminster Foundation. She was first place winner in the O.U. Intramural Debate Tournament and served as News Editor of the Oklahoma Daily.

Topping off her four years of active participation in campus and sorority affairs, Rosemary was named the outstanding senior woman of Oklahoma University. D D D

GRAND COUNCIL APPOINTMENTS

Mrs. R. P. Kline

PEARL GRIFFIN KLINE—

PROVINCE IV ALUMNAE DIRECTOR

Having served as State Membership Chairman for six years in North Dakota, Pearl Kline now moves into the position of Province IV Alumnae Director.

Her life in Williston, where she came "for one year" in 1925 has been a busy one. In addition to raising four children, and running the gamut of Girl Scout, Cub Scout and Boy Scout work, she presently serves on the city library Board of Trustees, Board of Directors of the Zonta Club, Williston League of Women Voters and the Williston Little Theatre.

In Pearl's own words, "When I collected a list of my activities, I was quite impressed. It seems to me that most of my time was spent in the kitchen, with the croup kettle or at the washing machine. Apparently, when I did attend meetings I gave helpful suggestions at the wrong time and achieved chairmanships!"

With two daughters married, and older son, Tom, an Ensign in the Navy AOC program, Dr. and Mrs. Kline find themselves with just high school junior, Ted, at home. But there is never an idle moment for Pearl, as she substitutes at the high school, does some tutoring, and usually is taking a correspondence course from the University of Minnesota, "in an effort to systematize my constant, but haphazard reading."

Pearl lists her hobbies as swimming, science (she majored in chemistry in college), astronomy, travelling, children, young people, reading and just living!

The ability to do everything well with little apparent effort, and a delightful sense of humor make Pearl Kline an ideal choice for Province Alumnae Director.

GRACE HUMPHREY EMRY—

PROVINCE VI ALUMNAE DIRECTOR

The Spokane alumnae chapter is very proud to have Grace Humphrey Emry (Colorado State and Stanford) represent us as our Province Alumnae Director. For two years Grace was president of our alumnae chapter and did a most admirable job.

Grace attended Colorado A. & M., now Colorado State, for two years. She was initiated into Gamma Phi Beta there, where her sister, Mrs. R. R. Robinson of Phoenix, Arizona, was a charter member having presented the petition for charter at the 1916 convention at Asilomar. She transferred to Stanford in the fall of 1927, and was affiliated with Mu chapter. She served as treasurer of Mu in her senior year.

She married Merle F. Emry and they have three children. Susan is a junior at the University of Idaho; Frederic and Mary both attend Lewis and Clark High school. Grace and her husband moved from California to Spokane, Washington in 1933. Mr. Emry is an assistant agency manager for Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York.

She is secretary of the Inland Empire Council of Camp Fire board, which she has held for six years. She is treasurer of the Lewis and Clark P.T.A., and has been an accompanist to the Lewis and Clark minstrel show for six years.

Grace has been a loyal and enthusiastic Gamma Phi, and she will do an outstanding job in her new and important job as Province Alumnae Director.
