Vigorous, steady growth of sororities and fraternities is demonstrated again as Gamma Phi Beta installs two new chapters . . . Gamma Delta at the University of Wyoming and Gamma Epsilon at the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Washington.

The phenomenal progress of fraternities, in spite of the pressure groups who would change and ultimately destroy the system, may be attributed to this statement by a wise historian, written a century ago . . .

"It is the good in a social institution that causes it to persist."

A memorable moment for Gamma Delta chapter president, Nita Hacker, is this, as she accepted the Gamma Phi Beta charter from Grand President, Mrs. H. E. Wittenberg.

A warm welcome is extended to Gamma Phi Beta by Dr. Franklin Thompson, President of the University of Puget Sound. Gamma Epsilon charter members, president Barbara Greenfield and Diane Wotton, and Mrs. H. E. Wittenberg complete this foursome.

A Visit to the University of Manitoba

The University of Manitoba was founded in 1877. It began as an Agricultural College on the grounds in Fort Garry with other colleges in the downtown area of Winnipeg. As the years went by the various faculties began appearing on the Fort Garry site which now include the University of Manitoba, St. John's College, and St. Paul's College. The University and the affiliated colleges offer a high standing in scholastic learning as well as a quite varied sports and social programme.

Gamma Phi Beta was the first sorority on the campus when Alpha Kappa chapter was installed in 1925. There are now eight international sororities and many fraternities, both international and local. Since the membership of all eight sororities is restricted to about thirty the independents far outnumber the Greeks on our campus. Fraternities however, not being under the surveillance of a Panhellenic organization or the university, have no limit to their size, and maintain houses off the campus. Plans for a Panhellenic house, in which each sorority would have an apartment, seem to have been once more buried by the problem of finances.

One of our chapter traditions is the annual Grandmother's Luncheon. Each new pledge is the guest of an alumna or "grandmother" at a luncheon. It proves to be a very interesting few hours for both the pledges and the alumnae as they get to know each other and hear about the "good old days." Sorority camp, another tradition, which is an annual weekend escape after final exams, saw thirteen members play bridge and charades until at least five in the morning. Usually this weekend sends us home sunburnt, however, the weather would not co-operate and we went home lily white and awfully tired.

Alpha Kappa can be proud of all her members who have helped to win the scholarship cup for the third year. This is a competition between sororities for the highest sorority average. This year we only won by a tenth of a point so we will have to pull our socks up if we expect to make it tradition. The night of the Panhellenic Dinner and Sorority Song Fest proved to be a big one for Alpha Kappa. Jocelyn McDonald won the athletic award for Gamma Phi Beta with Joy McDiarmid, another member, surrendering it to her. This year we also managed to tie for second place in the song fest so there were many happy Gamma Phis after the evening. This year Lynn Walters was president of Wakonda (women's organization on campus) following two other Gamma Phi Betas to the presidency. Other girls who brought credit to our sorority are Marcia McEwen who won the Bronze Medal for Interior Design, Carol McElwain who was co-editor of the Brown and Gold (campus year-book), and Carol Beattie who was a hard worker on Panhellenic and first winner of the chapter's "Gamma Phi Beta girl of the month award." We are also privileged to have among our ranks two lady sticks; Heather Stratton of the faculty of Arts, and Linda Eastwood of Interior Design.

Although we may be small in the size of our chapter we seem to make up for it in spirit. We know that this year we will again fill our quota of pledges who will help maintain the spirit of Alpha Kappa chapter of Gamma Phi Beta.

CHERYL YATES

So-o-o pretty, and scholars, too! These lovely young ladies comprise the Alpha Kappa chapter at the University of Manitoba where they have won the scholarship cup three years in a row.

Barbara Murchie Carter

Wife of a Doctor . . .

Mother of Two . . .

Pianist . . .

Composer . . .

Producer . . .

AND President of the PTA!

She Wears Many Hats!

Recording of an original production by Barbara Murchie Carter (Northwestern) was featured at the state convention of the Auxiliary to the Illinois Medical Society. Barb, who is the wife of Dr. Thomas W. Carter of Moline, Ill., wrote the narrative and lyrics and is the accompanist for the "Styles in Stereo" recording, a style show parody. The program was given in January at a dinner-dance of the Rock Island County Medical Society and Auxiliary. This program and a program from Joliet were chosen as the best of auxiliary programs given this year in Illinois.

On May 18 Barb spoke before the Auxiliary convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, giving this humorous autobiography of her married life.

"It's wonderful to return to Chicago—Tom and I know Chicago well, for we courted on her 'El' platforms. At the Loyola stop, beneath the street light one night, he held my left hand tenderly and exclaimed, 'What veins! I'd love to start I.V.'s on you!' Six months later we were married leaving the North Shore for our honeymoon apartment, just off of Lake Shore Drive—12 blocks due west, beside Cook County Hospital. We knew what class distinction was. There we were in our apartment; all of our neighbors lived in swell housing projects and were on A.D.C. I cried when I learned that A.D.C. didn't mean Aid for Doctor's Children.

"Tom is a surgical genius. In his last three months as chief surgical resident at Cook County Hospital, he passed both his written and his oral examinations for Board Certification, becoming one of the youngest men ever certified by the American Board of Surgery. Impossible?—almost! Our two little girls passed notes to Daddy under his study door; our Ludwig (dachsund) barked in cathedral whispers.

"To the old question, 'Do you like being married to a doctor?' there is the old answer, 'I like the doctor!' The neighbors would ask, 'Do you like being—are you—married?' Such financial growth! We began with $15 a month and zoomed to $100 a month ($8 deducted for the hospital retirement fund). It all went to the A&P Store—look what it did for Huntington Hartford!

Happiness, then, is found in your point of view. For instance, we run the American Medical Association. They don't recognize it, but the world knows. A-M-A—a Ma; and that's as happy a Mother's Day thought as I can give you."

At the convention she met several of the state and national auxiliary officers, some of whom are going to Moline on January 13, 1962 for her new original musical, "Key Club." At that time a song Barb wrote years ago, which Northwestern members will remember as "Interim," (until lyrics came) will be introduced. She has now written lyrics, the title "Orlando."

On March 14, 1961, Barb was installed as president of the Tri-City alumnae chapter by Mrs. George F. Lull, Alumnae Director of Province V.

On November 9, Mrs. Lull will be the guest of honor and speaker at the Tri-City Alumnae dinner. The program will be "Styles in Stereo." The following day Dr. Lull will be an A.M.E.F. Auctioneer at the "Bizarre Bazaar" Barb has planned for the Medical Auxiliary. Dr. Lull, the President-Elect of the Illinois State Medical Society is a retired Army major-general, a former secretary of the A.M.A., and the head of the American Medical Education Fund for years. He is one of the best-known, best-liked doctors in the United States.

Where music is concerned with Barb, it's all improvisation. Her "lessons" from George Sontag usually consisted of twin piano-playing. A former pianist with Orrin Tucker's orchestra, George arranged "Oh Johnny" for Wee Bonnie Baker.

Words are her greatest fascination. Quite a scope of vernacularisms is to be found in going from graduate English studies at the University of London; back to Northwestern for a Master's Degree in English; off to the slum areas by Cook County Hospital; south for two years at Orlando (Florida) Air Helen Berg Kline, author of this article and International Chairman of Scholarship, shows German students how to "Swing your partner" at a Christmas holiday youth conference. Mrs. Kline is well qualified to discuss the subject of studying abroad, since she was a Fulbright Scholar and teacher in Dusseldorf, Germany in 1954-55.

Studying Abroad

So you want to study abroad? What to do? Go to see the Fulbright foreign exchange scholarship faculty chairman on your campus; he will have advice and literature for you.

Then, decide on a project that you can study better at some foreign university than at home; select the country where you want to study, this will depend upon the foreign language which you must understand, read and speak fluently; and know something of the foreign educational system because it is different from the American. Also, add an unselfish interest in other peoples and a genuine desire to develop mutual understanding with friends and colleagues in your host country. As an American abroad you need to have training for international responsibility, by acquiring a wide and far-reaching knowledge of the history, politics, religion, culture as well as the language of your country. Wherever you go, it will not be like home, so you must always remember: "I am the guest here." If you can give an affirmative answer to all these ideas, your project "Studying Aboard" will be a success.

What requirements will you need to meet? Again, language, a B.A. degree, since most scholarships are awarded at the graduate level only; high scholarship and maturity to meet whatever situations arise. If you wish to go as an undergraduate, there are the well-known junior year abroad programs and excellent summer study opportunities offered especially for American students by foreign universities. This summer, 20,000 American students participated in this program.

During the year 1959-1960, more than 30,000 American students engaged in academic travels abroad; of these, 1490 students and 117 specialists studied in 47 countries. The majority of the scholarship grantees study in Europe and the United Kingdom, although increasing interest is being manifest for study and research in Asia, Africa, the Middle East and the Latin American countries. There are also scholarships available which are offered to Americans by foreign governments, universities and private donors.

The Institute of International Education, 1 East 67th Street, New York 21, is the administrative agency for most exchange of persons programs. There are regional offices in Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., San Francisco and Houston where Alice Reynolds Pratt of Psi chapter is director. The 1961 HANDBOOK ON INTERNATIONAL STUDY: FOR U. S. NATIONALS, at $3.00, is available at any of the IIE offices.

Fourth Generation Illinæ

Marianna Brown graduated in June from the University of Illinois as the first fourth generation woman. Her mother received her degree in 1931; her maternal grandfather received a law degree in 1904; and her great grandfather attended Illinois in 1889-90 and served as a Methodist clergyman.

A member of Torch, Mortar Board, and Zeta Phi Eta, Marianna plans to do graduate work in speech, following her summer marriage to James Riley (Illinois '61).

About Our Authors and Others

Mary Orr Denham

In your book store right now is a fresh, new novel by Gamma Phi Mary Orr Denham (Syracuse '33). Titled "A Place to Meet," the book is a love story with a New York background. The principal characters are a well-known television panelist who becomes involved with an exiled South American cabinet minister from a fictitious Latin American country.

As both are happily married to other people, there are many complications to the love affair. The book puts forth the premise that it is possible for a woman to love two different men in different ways and it has a rather sensational and unconventional ending.

Mary's first novel, "Diamond in the Sky" was extremely successful, enjoying two editions, publication as a paperback, and publication by Cassell's of London. Reprint rights of "A Place to Meet," her second novel, have been sold to Pocket-books by the publishers, Bobbs-Merrill.

Winner of the Screen Writers Guild Award for the original story of the film, "All About Eve," Mary has also appeared as an actress on the New York stage, most recently in "The Desperate Hours."

Mary's husband is the well-known stage director Reginald Denham, who directed "Dial M. for Murder," "The Bad Seed," "Janus," and many other successful plays.

Author Holly Wilson (Helen Finnegan, U. of Michigan '32), president of the Topeka alumnae chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, has been elected to membership in Theta Sigma Phi, National Honorary Sorority for women writers, because of the worth of her accomplishments in the field of children's literature. She was initiated at the University of Kansas on August 19, 1961, during the National Convention of the honor society.

Holly Wilson is the author of Stranger in Singamon, The Hundred Steps, and other Teen-age novels, published by Julian Messner, Inc., New York.

Girl Skipper Is Honored

Yachting magazine has named Lynn Woodward (San Diego State) Yachtswoman of the Month. A dedicated sailing instructor, Lynn has taught over 175 youngsters to sail since she started her Sabot Sailing Class for Juniors.

In addition to her sailing classes, Lynn has done considerable racing, winning first place for the 1958 season's racing of Starlets, as well as the Good Sportmanship Trophy.

In 1960, Lynn with a crew of two other girls, raced in the Adams Cup semi-finals in Seattle, coming in third.

This past winter Lynn has been racing Lehman 10's for the San Diego State College team and is their only girl skipper.

Her greatest ambition is to find a berth on one of the big boats for either the Honolulu or Tahiti races. "I can cook, mend sails, steer a compass course . . . and don't need much sleep," she remarks. "But, of course, I couldn't go until I have provided a stand-in for my sailing classes next summer."

Small World Department

On a recent world tour, Mrs. Vernon Grant, Jr. (former Province Collegiate Director) was walking in a park on the island of Bali. When she spoke to a friend about the many monkeys in the park, a passing Chinese girl overheard her.

"You are an American?" she asked. "Where do you live in America?"

"In Iowa," said Mrs. Grant.

"Do you know Mrs. Edmund McCardell of Newton?"

"Yes—we were sorority sisters at the University of Iowa," said the astonished Mrs. Grant.

The Chinese girl, called Lany, works in Jakarta, on the neighboring island of Java, for a firm that has done business with Newton's Winpower Manufacturing Co., of which Edmund McCardell is president. Lany has handled correspondence between the two firms.

When the McCardells took a world tour, they went to Jakarta and Lany and Mrs. McCardell became friends.

MRS. BRUCE LEFLER

INSIDE NSA

By HOWARD PHILLIPS*

Do most American students favor a unilateral disarmament program for the United States? Do they condemn former President Truman and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover for suggesting that the sit-in movement was communist-inspired? Are they all united against the loyalty oath and disclaimer affidavit provision in the National Defense Education Act? Do they support Japanese students who rioted against President Eisenhower because of "social and economic pressures" in Japan?

According to the National Student Association, a confederation of more than 300 college student governments, claiming to represent "over a million" students, this is exactly what U.S. students believe, for their resolutions, adopted at national congresses every year, are touted as being the expression of a national student viewpoint.

But there are probably not a million students who have even heard of NSA, and the number of individuals who can correctly identify it at all is most likely in the thousands.

Not Very Close

NSA officials will occasionally admit that their organization is not as close to American students as it pretends to be, but such admissions are generally accompanied by the qualification that students active in NSA reflect student opinion nationally and comprise the "real vanguard of the 'student movement' in the United States."

According to NSA thinking, the American student, sharing his persecution with young scholars in other countries, is regarded as a member of an "international student movement." As such, NSA participants are urged to consider issues, not on the basis of American interests, but in the light of their usefulness to "the cause." As a result, every resolution adopted by the unwitting delegates is colored in some way with this theory.

But how can students, traditionally rebellious, and always idealistic, be so regimented by other students? Pamphlets, "working papers," and background literature provided by the NSA staff for congress delegates leave little to the imagination as to how the powers that be within NSA feel about any given subject. Add a few left-wing speakers and professorial authorities and you have an undiluted dose of liberalism most unprepared students would find easy to assimilate.

In pretending to be presenting "both sides of the story" on the question of the House Un-American Activities Committee and the film "Operation Abolition," an NSA letter sent around the country wound up by demanding abolition of the committee. A background paper on international affairs treated the Algerian question as having only one valid viewpoint—and it was certainly not the French viewpoint.

Careful Selection

But NSA does not trust leftward-slanted pamphlets, working papers, liberal speakers, and careful indoctrination to do the job. The congress workshops which produce the controversial resolutions are the meat of the organization—and workshop leaders are carefully selected by NSA officials.

At the congress last August, a subcommittee chairman, designated by NSA, voted illegally in his own committee to prevent the defeat of a motion favoring the abolition of HUAC and was backed up by the NSA parliamentarian. In the full committee, two persons produced as "research personnel" included a professor who was an avowed enemy of the committee, and a student who took part in the San Francisco riots. When a member of the full committee pointed out that both parties were hostile to HUAC, and therefore should not be presented as "impartial," he was called out of order by the chairman, and condemned as "impolite." (Perhaps "impolitic" was the word the chairman meant to use.)

In the case of NSA's campaign for the "right of student government officials to take positions on issues of national scope," NSA devotees at the University of California found themselves torn between opposing loyalties. For the president of the university, Clark Kerr, had issued a directive forbidding such statements by student leaders at the Berkeley campus. What did NSA do?—censured him of course, over the opposition of the University of California delegates, who had the greatest admiration and respect for the president of their university.

At last summer's congress, NSA sponsored a panel discussion on the sit-in movement, held at the University of Minnesota's largest auditorium, with all delegates attending. Panel members included a left-wing professor who helped organize the sit-ins in North Carolina, several student participants, a lawyer representing the viewpoint of a liberal lawyers guild, and various NSA officials. There was not one representative of the opposing viewpoint, nor any reference to the possible violation of the right of property. The whole ordeal lasted about two hours, and most delegates, squirming in their seats, were relieved to hear the announcement that NSA had organized a songfest immediately afterwards.

There is a vast amount of NSA activity which could bear investigation. One is the manner in which the annual million dollar budget is determined and expended. Another is why the National Executive Committee, "the power elite" is allowed to operate without any checks and balances. Some study should be made of the "thirty-ish" professional students frequently found in top positions in the organization, and of the salaries they receive.

Unfortunately, when legitimate objections and constructive criticism have been offered in the past, they have been dismissed by NSA with circumlocutory filibusters, whitewashes, and blanket denials. It appears now that no satisfactory replacement of the present bureaucracy of NSA will be possible until students themselves remake the organization which purports to represent them.

THE MONTH of September means many things to many people. For the collegiates it means the beginning of a new school term; for the fraternity world, the enrollment of a new class of members—the pledges; and for Gamma Phi Beta the offering of sorority membership to approximately 2000 young women who have been selected from all sections of the country.

It is timely then, for Gamma Phi Betas everywhere to consider the importance of this pledging season, and to determine the responsibility for implanting within these young women an understanding of what it means to belong to a friendship organization such as ours.

To the collegiate members falls the responsibility of creating an immediate atmosphere of loving acceptance through a sense of belonging; and to the alumnae advisers, the responsibility of placing in the hands of collegiate officers, a well planned pledge training program, designed to explain the basic aims and fundamental principles on which we were founded.

In the beginning this training will emphasize what membership really entails. First of all, it is not just a local membership, but an international one; not just a temporary affiliation, but a privilege which will be enjoyed for a life-time. Since we have chapters in all sections of the United States and Canada we are inter-related—inter-related because of our membership selection policies which are based on qualities of congeniality, compatibility, and common backgrounds. That by maintaining these membership standards, local memberships may be an acceptable and congenial part of the international organization every place. And that to deviate from these policies and procedures will defeat the purposes, benefits, and privileges which are now enjoyed by approximately 38,000 members, including 252 alumnae and collegiate chapters.

Following an understanding of these membership fundamentals, the training program should include an explanation of our basic aims. It is important to know that as a private, social group, we are organized for the purpose of joining friends together for the furtherance of certain ideals and aims, and for the advancement of a higher spiritual, mental, and social culture. In pursuit of these aims, we stress the importance of attaining and maintaining high scholastic averages; of developing leadership potential; of being a contributing citizen to campus and community; of learning how to enjoy group living with an emphasis on cultural interests and social graces; of establishing high moral standards of conduct; and of incorporating into our lives the tenets offered in our ritual.

And finally, our newest members must have an understanding of the spiritual benefits which are received through the bonds of membership and friendship. Through the cultivation of loyalty and love these qualities become the embodiment of that something which we call the spirit of Gamma Phi Beta. They must know that we are not as much concerned about the problems of outer space as we are with those of inner space—that space between their ears, and that area immediately surrounding their hearts. For each new member, the very most we can wish for them is that they, too, may become imbued with that innate something which we know to be attached to the heart and carried through the spirit of every dedicated Gamma Phi Beta.

Gamma Phi Beta

PROVINCE CONFERENCES—1961

By MRS. GRAEME REID, International Alumnæ Vice President

GAMMA PHI BETAS from coast to coast accepted the challenge of "SHOOT FOR THE MOON" when they met at eleven Province Conferences held during late March, April, and May.

All of the Conferences began on Friday evenings with gay, informal meetings. Rushing songs and skits, original, amusing and lovely, presented by collegiate members provided delightful entertainment. Led by vivacious and able song leaders, many songs were sung, old and new, so that even the most sedate alumna was tapping her foot and joining in. In some places, this evening, or part of it, was used to run film or tape about the great threat to the Greek world today by Communist infiltration and pressures.

Our Conference theme was developed by means of four general headings or stages of power necessary for the successful orbiting of our rocket. The satisfaction and happiness which comes from collegiate and alumna members working in harmony to promote the strength and prestige of Gamma Phi Beta was again demonstrated as we discussed the launching and power stages of our rocket. We all realized again that through smooth and clear cooperation and communication from the newest pledges on through to the oldest alumna are to be found our strengths, our means of carrying out the precepts of our Founders, of fulfilling our vows, and of making more secure each member's pride and happiness in Gamma Phi Beta.

At Saturday morning business sessions, the even numbered Provinces elected members and alternates for the International Nominating Committee. Those which had previously adopted Province Scholarship plans reported on progress and accomplishments. Three additional provinces amended bylaws or passed resolutions which will implement scholarship plans within the next year while two others appointed committees to study such possible plans and to report on them not later than the 1963 Conferences. In keeping with the original proposal, each plan and contemplated plan is suited to the province in which it is to function and no two are alike, but all demonstrate that Gamma Phi Betas are actively participating in the promotion of high standards of scholarship.

Small discussion groups to discuss the rocket stages followed the business sessions. Starting with "Basic Research and Best Pledges," the Greek-letter groups discussed methods and mechanics of rushing, while alumna groups were able to exchange helpful ideas on ways to secure adequate recommendations—the very necessary basic research. This is the "launching pad" for our success and all reports emphasize the necessity for close communication between alumna and collegiate members. Various proposals were made for changes in the grading system for rushees and a variety of worthwhile suggestions were made for the handling of legacies during rushing. A very careful analysis of all conference reports shows an overwhelming approval and endorsement of our existing system of alumna recommendations for prospective pledges.

Another stage of rocket power was "Best Scholarship." In all groups there was particular emphasis on the need for improved scholarship and the maintenance of high standards of scholarship. If we want scholarship, we must pledge it. The attitude of each chapter toward scholarship is the underlying factor for success or lack of success. Building the right attitude must start with the alumna and their recommendations of girls who have demonstrated during secondary schooling the ability and determination to pursue successful college careers. Proper counselling at the time of registration so that no girl tries to carry more than she can handle, frequent checks on grades and various forms of awards for scholastic achievement were all discussed. The stress on scholarship and particularly on the important part alumna must play if the desirable standards are maintained was one of the outstanding benefits of the 1961 conferences.

"Best Standards and Best Citizenship" were additional stages of the moon rocket's progress. Many fine and thought provoking ideas emerged from these discussion groups, some of which were joint sessions of collegiate and alumna delegates and guests.

Why have we chosen to be sorority women? What are our responsibilities as members? One Conference group compared membership in a Greek-letter chapter to a priceless opportunity to live in a well equipped laboratory for the study of human relations, a warm, congenial atmosphere in which to study, test, compare and thus to prepare for future roles in society. Individual responsibility and pride as a sorority member must be instilled during the pledge period. Suggested ways to accomplish this were by selection of top-notch pledge trainers, the cooperation of alumna, talks by devoted and illustrious alumna to pledges and the overall atmosphere of each chapter, a spirit which must show the pledges, by example, that the initiated members respect and maintain high standards.

The less formal manners and forms of dress of today were not condemned but warnings were given that they are too often accompanied by carelessness in conduct which can create wrong impressions of the standards and ethics of sorority women. Each member must assume the responsibility for maintaining the ideals of our Founders as she reaps the rewards of membership. Alumna were reminded that they also stray at times from what is considered wise conduct and suggestions were made for including reminders of Gamma Phi Beta standards in newsletters and for having at least one annual alumna meeting with a standards program. Outstanding girls in all localities will be more interested in knowing Gamma Phi Betas on their campuses if they admire and respect Gamma Phi Beta alumna in their home communities.

There were new friends made and there were happy renewals of old friendships. There was fun and there were serious times and many problems to be worked on and solved. There were gratifying accomplishments and perhaps some disappointments that time was too short for greater accomplishments. However, each member who attended a conference felt amply rewarded, encouraged and stimulated by the discussions, thrilled by memorable Carnation banquets, and most of all thankful and proud that she is a Gamma Phi Beta. "Fork in the Road" Strikes a Blow for Freedom

Four women who care, co-workers at the Fred Sanders Co. in Detroit, got to discussing the Communist menace one day last summer. One of the group was Miss Gretchen Saam (U. of Iowa '36) who is personnel director for Sanders. Out of this session came the conclusion that Communism is a bum rap for the people, but that very little is really known about it.

These four set out to research the subject, and from that research has come a little book with big information called "Fork in the Road." Among other things, it says:

"When we start pinning labels on ourselves, most of us say we are workers because we receive salaries and wages. But, once we start buying property, stock and life insurance, we become part owners of American industry and we are part of the group to which the Communists refer as 'dirty capitalists.'"

"The Communists believe that Communism will not be safe anywhere until it controls the world, and they say there will be no peace until Communism is triumphant and unopposed."

"The Hungarians tried to co-exist and found that this was much like putting a man into a cage with a lion. After the lion ate the man, the two then co-existed peacefully ever afterward."

"What is happening that so many people have no sense of duty to their country and feel no obligation or responsibility to protect it? One reason may be the way military life is degraded, ridiculed and otherwise disparaged in our movies, novels, magazine stories, even comic books. . . ."

There is much more to be gleaned from this straightforward document prepared by four women who are proud and loyal patriots. At one time it was considered corny to be patriotic. Today your very survival may depend on your patriotism.

Notes of Interest

Barbara Burns Hiscock (U. of Washington) captured the Seattle Women's Golf Championship in June, bringing the title to the Seattle Golf Club for the first time in over 30 years. Bunny's other interests are myriad and include work with the Seattle alumnae chapter, Junior League, sailing and fishing. Older daughter Bobbie is a Gamma Phi sophomore at the University of Washington who served as counselor at Sechelt camp this summer. Sally is a high school senior who received the "S" award as most outstanding girl in the high school based on leadership, sportsmanship, and scholarship.

Joan Metz Watterfield (Alpha Theta '55) wrote the editor recently: "My husband and I were both so pleased to see THE CRESCENT cover for March 1961. The picture was taken by my husband, Charles, a Phi Delta Theta, in his capacity as photographer for the yearbook while a student at Vanderbilt."

There's a second chapter to this story. The back cover picture was made by the editor's husband, Jim Marek! He is doing a series of eight pictures to illustrate the theme, "This is a Sorority." The March cover has been selected by Fraternity Month as a divider page for their magazine.

First $\Gamma\Phi\beta$ Chapter in Wyoming Is Installed

Installation of Gamma Delta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta took place on the University of Wyoming campus April 15 and 16. The week-end activities began on Saturday when initiation services for twenty girls and sixteen special alumnae initiates were held. Presentation of the charter was made to Miss Nita Hacker, president of the chapter, during the installation banquet in Knight Hall on Saturday evening. A reception which formally introduced Gamma Phi Beta to the Wyoming campus honored the newly initiated members on Sunday afternoon.

Preparation for the installation of the chapter began last October when a colony was formed. Throughout the year they have been assisted by Miss Heidi Schneider, a transfer student from the University of Texas, who has served as student counselor for the group. Welcome, Gamma Delta!

Newest Link in $\Gamma\Phi\beta$ Chain is Gamma Epsilon Chapter

Gamma Epsilon, the seventy first collegiate chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, was installed April 29 and 30 at the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash.

Sixteen girls, pledged in March, had covered a six week pledge training period and were invited by Lambda chapter at the University of Washington to their chapter house for initiation. It was a memorable time for the pledges, Lambda members, and alumnae who had all worked to make Gamma Epsilon a reality.

A lovely banquet Saturday evening, following initiation ceremonies, was planned by the Seattle alumnae, chaired by Rita Jean Hartung Butterworth. Pink candles in tall silver candelabra illuminated the party room of the Edmund Meany Hotel. In the pink carnation floral arrangements were slender rockets, pointing up the "Shoot for the Moon" theme of the dinner. International, Province, Seattle and Tacoma officers, and alumnae and collegiates attending the dinner gave the new initiates a warm welcome.

Highlight of the evening was an address by Gamma Phi Beta's Grand President, Mrs. Howard E. Wittenberg, and her presentation of the Gamma Epsilon charter to the chapter president, Barbara Greenfield.

Other speakers were Mrs. John Garrett, International Collegiate Vice President, Miss Mary Ann Dorsey, Traveling Secretary, Mrs. Lee G. Stettler, Province XII Collegiate Director, Mrs. Frank C. Hann, Province XII Alumnae Director, Gwen Roberts Carlson, Tacoma alumnae president, Rita Jean Butterworth, Seattle alumnae president, and Jane Cortelyou Galbraith, chapter adviser. Keeping everyone entertained between speeches was Toastmistress Joyce Herbert Syford.

The new initiates were thrilled with the wonderful gifts to the new chapter. The alumnae were proud of these new members who had worked so hard to make this chapter a strong, new link in the chain of Gamma Phi Beta. An account of their accomplishments and honors bestowed upon them individually and as a group will be found under the newest heading of chapter honors reports—Gamma Epsilon.

On Sunday afternoon a reception was held in the Student Union lounge at the University of Puget Sound for faculty members, other students, families of the initiates, and Tacoma alumnae and friends. Letters and telegrams from Gamma Phi Beta sisters in all our international chapters added to the warm welcome extended to Gamma Epsilon.

New Chapter Colonized at Portland State College

The seventy-second chapter of Gamma Phi Beta was colonized on the campus of Portland State College, in Portland, Oregon during April.

Portland alumnae with the assistance of University of Oregon and Oregon State actives climaxed months of planning and a week of rushing with the pledging of eight lovely Portland State coeds.

The new pledges are; Margaret Galinat, Anne Trenholme, Judy Williams, Virginia Owen, Beth Johnson, Joanne Lapp, Penny Pickhard and Suzanne Lindberg.

Mrs. Thomas W. Edwards has been named adviser of the PSC chapter, and Mrs. Willis Warren is the rushing chairman. Alice Lehman, international camp chairman, and on the faculty of Portland State was also active in the new chapter's colonization. Karen Newby is the new pledge trainer. The Portland junior alumnae with all their enthusiasm were of great assistance during all of the rushing program.

The colonization was opened with a large reception at the lovely home of Mrs. D. C. Burkes for all rushees and alumnae. During the week parties were held at the homes of Mrs. Walter H. Evans, Mrs. John A. Brix, and Mrs. Paul Patterson.

On the campus during the week two international officers, Mrs. John A. Garrett, Collegiate Vice President and Mary Ann Dorsey, traveling secretary, interviewed the rushees and acquainted them with the background of Gamma Phi Beta.

Surfside Site of the 50th Gamma Phi Beta Convention

The Monmouth Hotel, Spring Lake, New Jersey

Convention Chairman, Eleanor G. Hemminger, says, "Come, join us by the sea for Gamma Phi Beta's golden 50th convention!" Ten college chapters and 26 alumnae groups are making ready to entertain you at the elegant Monmouth Hotel from June 18 to 23, 1962. It's none too early to start making plans to attend convention and to join the post convention tour of New England.

Let us meet the convention executive committee:

JANET MILLIGAN HEATON, Convention Vice-Chairman

Introducing Janet Heaton to Gamma Phi Betas is like introducing someone to her own family! Janet has been prominent in sorority affairs since she was initiated at Theta chapter, Denver University, as a member of the class of '26.

Married in 1927 to John H. Heaton, presently Eastern Division Sales Manager of Sonotone Corporation, Janet has been a loyal alumna in chapters in Denver, Billings, Seattle, Los Angeles, and for the past 14 years in Scarsdale, New York.

Three of the Heaton's four daughters are Gamma Phi Betas; three are married, and the grandchildren number eight. It follows that Janet has served actively in PTA circles and Sunday School work. She served as president of Scarsdale's Women's Service League 12 years ago, and, as she puts it, "have been working my way down ever since!"

On the international level, Janet served one unexpired term, two full terms, and one year (waiting for a replacement) as Province I Collegiate Director.

Janet's present position of responsibility is as President of the Philanthropy Board, and she has graciously accepted an appointment by Grand Council as Vice Chairman of the 1962 Convention of Gamma Phi Beta.

Mrs. Heaton

Mrs. Daugherty

FLORENCE JOHNSON DAUGHERTY, Convention Secretary

Well known to former conventioners is Florence Johnson Daugherty who will be attending her eighth convention in 1962. She served as chairman of the Elections committee in 1958, and as Secretary in 1960.

Following graduation from the University of Illinois, she served as Membership chairman for the Champaign-Urbana alumnae chapter. This led to her appointment as Illinois State Membership chairman in 1945; International Membership chairman 1946-50; Director of Province III 1951-53.

A member of the St. Louis alumnae chapter, Florence is the wife of Arthur C. Daugherty, principal of the Dupo Community High School, and mother of a son, Arthur Jr. who is a radio news director. Her community activities have included presidency of the Crawford county AAUW, chairman of Red Cross, president of the Dupo, Illinois Thursday club, and second vice-president of the 22nd District, Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs.

Reams of paper will roll through Florence's typewriter between now and the Carnation banquet, as she handles the tremendous amount of correspondence necessary to a successful convention, which is what the 1962 convention at Spring Lake, New Jersey promises to be.

BEE FERRING FREEMAN, Convention Treasurer

Another familiar face among this group of experienced convention workers is Bee Ferring Freeman (Washington U. '37), treasurer of the Edgewater Gulf convention in 1960. Her appointment to the same position for the 1962 conclave proves that she handles figures well. She also handles a zillion other interesting activities. Presently she is serving on the Board of Directors for the American Institute of Architects and was on their House Tour committee this past spring.

Naturally, she has been a guiding force in the St. Louis alumnae chapter's Party Parade and House Tour which benefitted the Gamma Phi Beta camps and the Alpha Delta chapter house fund. Her own home, designed by her architect husband, Donald Liggett Freeman, was featured on the A.I.A. House Tour and the Gamma Phi's Party Parade.

Gardening is her first love, and she served as a major chairman of the 75th anniversary celebration for the St. Louis Garden Club Federation last fall. The Missouri Botanical Gardens and the State Historical Society both benefit from Bee's active participation. She is well known for her art work in ceramics, mosaics and watercolors.

As you read this, Bee will be busy as General Chairman of Women's events for the A.I.A. Central States Conference. She is, indeed, a charming, busy Bee!

Mrs. Freeman

FLOYE GRIMMETT OSBORNE, Convention Social Chairman

Floye Grimmett Osborne (U. of Oklahoma '33) brings to the Social Chairmanship vivacious energy and charming know-how with people, parties, policies and projects. Since her marriage she has lived as far east as Boston, as far west as Denver, and as far south as Waco, Texas. In 1950 Floye moved to Westchester County, New York where she has given generously of her time and talents to various organizations including Gamma Phi Beta.

Floye and husband Eugene, a buyer for S. H. Kress & Co. and a Lambda Chi Alpha, live in Scarsdale, New York with their son, Gene, Jr., a freshman at Scarsdale High School. The Osbornes attend the Hitchcock Presbyterian Church and are members of the Scarsdale Golf Club where Floye has served as Chairman of the Decorations Committee for their dances and parties. For the past two years she has written the script and personally directed the spectacular Aqua Show.

Another of her activities includes membership in the Scarsdale Woman's Club where she serves as her club's representative and secretary for the Scarsdale Recreation Council. In addition, Floye is Display Chairman for the 1961 Scarsdale Red Cross Campaign and is a volunteer for the Scarsdale Auxiliary of the White Plains Hospital and has appeared as a model in their annual fund raising fashion show.

With all her activities Floye has been a devoted worker in the Westchester alumnae chapter where she has served with good humor and skillful executive ability as vice-president, president, Panhellenic delegate, and Province I member of the International Nominating Committee at the 1956 Convention.

Gamma Phi Beta for Life?

Of course you are! Untold advantages have been yours through your membership in Gamma Phi Beta . . . pleasant and helpful relationships through your college years . . . a gracious home away from home . . . later, a warm welcome from alumnae members in a strange town . . . pride in belonging to one of the best sororities.

Now, perhaps, you are in an area which has no organized alumnae chapter. To help Gamma Phi Beta, as it has helped you, provision has been made for direct payment of alumnae taxes, necessary for the continued growth of your sorority.

Take time now to send $3.00 (Annual Alumnae Tax, $2.00; Philanthropy Tax, $1.00) to Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Central Office, 53 West Jackson Blvd., Chicago 4, Ill.

When you consider the time and effort expended by our alumnae members of organized chapters, in addition to their paying international and local dues, it seems little enough to ask that we pay a mere $3.00 to help Gamma Phi Beta retain her eminent position in the sorority world.

Be a member in good standing . . . send your check today!

Alumnae Philanthropies

Los Angeles alumnae contributed $100 this year to the Barbara Greenwood Scholarship Fund at UCLA. This amount is to be used to assist a person attending UCLA who is interested in early childhood education.

In 1925, Barbara Greenwood, a member of Gamma Phi Beta, established the first nursery school at the Southern Branch of the U. of Southern California, later known as UCLA.

Miss Greenwood was not only a pioneer kindergarten teacher and supervisor of training for teachers of the kindergarten and nursery school, but she was well known for her contributions in the field of Parent Education.

It is in her honor and memory that the Barbara Greenwood Lectureship and Scholarship Fund is sponsored by the Southern Section California Association for Childhood Education, Association for Nursery Education of So. California, Grand Council of Delta Phi Upsilon and Delta Kappa Gamma, and Chi State.

Lincoln alumnae produced a fashion show and luncheon for the benefit of the speech and hearing clinic at the University of Nebraska.

Mary Louise Babst of Pi chapter was the emcee for the show, which depicted 100 years of American fashion. Agnes Olson Anderson was in charge of arrangements and Nancy Odum Holloran and Joan Krueger Wadlow handled the ticket sales.

The table decorations, in keeping with the historical theme, included old-fashioned shoes and hats in which flowers were placed, arranged by Janice Fogerty and her committee.

Dr. Lucile Cypreansen, director of the University of Nebraska speech clinic, spoke expressing her appreciation for the aid the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae had given to the children.

*The long reward of sororities is the gift of alumnæ-ship.
As the light of the crescent moon shines on all Gamma Phi Betas everywhere,
you as a sister shall always be able to find the hand of warm friendship.*

In strange towns, in need, in comfort or discomfort, there shall nevermore be reason for emptiness, for loneliness.

*Serving the collegiate members in dozens of ways or serving the non-sorority world in thousands of philanthropies . . .
it is the alumnæ who are the roots of the eternal tree.*
