It happened at French Lick!

PLAY DAY . . . A putting contest, among other planned activities for the free afternoon, attracted these two entries. At left is Janyce Beiriger Foster (Miami U. and Indianapolis alumna) watching Suzanne Bealle of Texas Tech try for a deuce.

ARRIVAL . . . The cool, cool lobby of the French Lick-Sheraton was an oasis for those who traveled by train, plane and car to convention. Efficient bellmen saw to the luggage and weary travelers were soon refreshed and ready for the big week.

HOOTENNANY TIME . . . Imported from Iowa U. was this terrific trio which entertained at luncheon with folk songs, community singing, and a specially written Gamma Phi folk song.

"MUSIC MAN" . . . Theme of the Iowa State dinner paid tribute to Meredith Willson and featured music from that fabulous show. Eleanor Hemminger congratulates Toastmistress Marilyn Park Hawthorne of Ames alumnae, and Barbara McMahon of Iowa State.

THE 51st INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Gamma Phi Betas from across this country and Canada gathered in June at the French Lick-Sheraton Hotel to celebrate the sorority's 90th year and to make dynamic plans for the next decade.

Happy reunions of old friends and the joy of making new ones marked the arrival of delegates and visitors. Quickly registered and refreshed, everyone gathered for dinner, hostessed by the Champaign-Urbana alumnae and University of Illinois. One of the many memorable luncheons and dinners which followed clever themes, this one featured "The Girl Behind the Gamma Phi Beta Pennant."

The first general session of convention that evening, June 22, graciously conducted by Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, Grand President, set the tone for the week's program. Each day brought important business to the floor . . . early morning classes in parliamentary procedure . . . informal buzz sessions . . . committee meetings . . . and rare, spare moments for visiting.

Enthusiastic applause greeted the newly elected members of Grand Council at the final session of business, and the convention closed with the traditional Carnation Banquet.

"Symphony in Pink," theme of the banquet, was carried out with beautiful pink carnation and candle arrangements. Developing the theme to show how Gamma Phi Betas can make delightful, harmonious, and meaningful music were Barbara Burns Hiscock, U. of Washington; Noreen Linduska Zahour, Illinois; Ene Koivastik, North Dakota State collegiate; Jocelyn Birch Burdick, Northwestern.

Donna Schramm, Northwestern, thrilled her audience with beautiful, beloved Gamma Phi Beta songs, ending with the inspiring, "In the Heart of a Pink Carnation."

Ardis McBroom Marek, Northwestern, Toastmistress, then presented the Past Grand President's badge with these words:

"If the lamp should burn out because the oil of mediocrity could not keep it bright . . . if the Book is banned because man has lost his faith . . . if the carnation should be crushed beneath the coarse boots of conformity . . . let us be grateful that for nearly a century, we have been instilled with an inner glow that can never be extinguished. Let us be grateful to the many fine leaders of the past, and especially at this moment to our beloved Grand President, Beatrice Hill Wittenberg."

The Grand Council

Grand President, Orra Spencer Reid (U. of Michigan) from Essex Fells, New Jersey.

Alumnae Vice President, Virginia Forsyth Vint (U. of Missouri) from Dallas, Texas.

Collegiate Vice President, Barbara Burns Hiscock, (U. of Washington) from Seattle, Washington.

Director of Finance, Betty Heflin Egbert (U. of Arizona) from Tucson, Arizona.

Director of Expansion, Mary Glendon Trussell (Northwestern) from Lake Forest, Illinois.

National Panhellenic Delegate, Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, (Stanford) from San Marino, California.

Message of the Grand President

At the opening session of Gamma Phi Beta's 51st International Convention, delegates heard Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, Grand President, deliver her biennial message. Its importance to all members of the sorority is such that excerpts from that message are herewith reported.

It is necessary now to mention the problem which has continued to plague us during the biennium—the continued attacks on fraternities and sororities. They have been unending, and there are few campuses which have not been touched by the poisonous tentacles of this octopus. Efforts have been made to maintain our identity as an international private, social, voluntary organization, and as such, to be able to select our members according to standards of our own choosing. But overwhelming pressures are being brought to bear and the issues are reaching an impasse.

Let us pause for a moment and ask the question, "What is the Sorority and what does it stand for?" Many explanations of the college fraternity have been given and there have been many comments on its place on the campus and in our society. But I like the explanation given in the opening paragraph of the most recent edition of Baird's Manual in which the editor, John Robson, states: "The American college fraternity is an American institution and the chapter in the form in which it ideally exists on the college campus, is a miniature of the larger American democracy. . . . The good fraternity chapter follows the principles, traditions, and ideals on which America was established by her founding fathers, under God, with the good fraternity man and the good fraternity woman being cast in the pattern of the good citizen. It is an entity of freedom." These last six words encompass a significant meaning of fraternity—and establish a basis for the reason why we, your officers, are expressing our loyalty through the giving of our time, effort and interest for the preservation of the Sorority—"it is an entity of freedom," and it expresses that which we hold most dear—"OUR FREEDOM!"

Within the chapter walls are found those elements upon which our nation was founded. Here our collegiate members experience and learn one of the early tenets of a democracy—that of submitting to the will of the majority. Here the chapter establishes a relationship akin to that of a family in a home, which John Robson describes as a place "where hearts are of each other sure." Here is found a ritual, the very heartbeat of the Sorority, and from which is received that something which sets it apart as a Sisterhood. Here is provided an altar, where under God, is established freedom of religion, and not freedom from religion. Here the members have been chosen "by mutual selection, based on congeniality and common purpose." And here the chapter learns it is but one segment of the whole under the jurisdiction of the international organization. Yes, the Sorority is a training ground in democratic living. "It is an entity of freedom."

FREEDOM IN JEOPARDY

But something has been happening to this freedom. Today the Sorority is being challenged and this freedom is in jeopardy. From the founding of Phi Beta Kappa in 1776 until the early 1940's, there had only been some ripples and some criticisms, but not planned opposition. But since 1946 there has been planned opposition, with the first direct attack being made on the Amherst campus and where the right of the fraternity's freedom of choice was challenged. From that day until this, we have been steadily badgered and pressured to become something which we were never intended to be. We are an international friendship organization composed of two classifications of members—collegiates and alumnae. Each has certain rights and privileges and the one cannot be divorced from the other, and if we attempt to do so, we are no longer an international organization. We must have a clear understanding of our basic rights as a private, social organization. "Our private associations are not properly a matter of legislation or government concern," was stated by the former President of the United States. And just recently a member of the clergy, Father McNerney of Chicago, who is a fraternity man, stated, "Fraternity is strictly a personal act of association. It is not a thing; not a commodity, not a service to the public, over which civil administration must exercise control to prevent injustice, deceit or crimes against the rights of the community or other persons. Fraternity of its nature is strictly and essentially personal."

These basic principles need to be understood in trying to find answers to the problems which confront us. The questions are asked, "What is our future? Do we have a future?" Yes, we are certain there are answers. We believe the pendulum will turn and that the rights of the individual to have freedom of choice in the selection of friends will be reaffirmed. But this will not be accomplished without a firm determination on our part to bring this to pass.

TIME FOR RE-DEDICATION

We need to defend and to preserve that which was given to us by our Founders ninety years ago. I wish that each one here could sometime go to our Alpha chapter in Syracuse. One cannot go there without having a deep sense of appreciation of the founding of our Sorority. The home itself is a beautiful one—traditional in manner, which is in keeping with the campus. Everything about it tells of the loving care of the devoted alumnae. There is an all white chapter room where life-size portraits of the Four Founders are hung on the walls. These are done in beautiful pastels with indirect lighting over each one to enhance the beauty of these lovely women. There are shadow boxes on the walls which hold a collection of old badges, and copies of some of our original documents. A sweeping sense of gratitude surged through me as I realized more fully than ever before how important it is to keep the intent of our beloved Founders ever before us, and how important it is to remember our vows—to remember our objectives—to place first things first, such as our spiritual values—our love for each other—and our belief in God. We need to make our organization a true sisterhood—in which each member realizes what it means to belong to our international organization. We need to give love and loyalty freely and certainly to each member. We need to lay the ground work for these everlasting friendships. The Bible states "A faithful friend is a strong defense; and he that hath found him hath found a treasure." These are the treasures given us through the Sorority—and it is for us to seek and

Convention Diary

Monday, June 22

Gamma Phi Beta's 51st International Convention was called to order by Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, Grand President, at 8:00 P.M. Sally Gray Cass, Convention Regional Chairman, welcomed delegates and visitors to the first Indiana convention. Following the appointment of committees, International officers were introduced. Message of the Grand President (reprinted in part on the preceding page) was followed by a report of the Honor and Service Rolls Committee. Three names were added to the Honor Roll, after approval of the convention. They were: Olive Gallatin Picard of Tucson; Mary T. McCurley of Baltimore; Ruth Folwell Studley of Bethesda, Md.

Serving as hostesses for the buffet dinner preceding the first session were Omicron and Champaign-Urbana alumnae chapters, with Dorothy Potter Swindell serving as toastmistress. The world famous Assembly Hall of the University of Illinois served as the leading decorative theme, with miniature replicas of the Hall centering each table. Pennants of the various sororities on the campus edged the centerpieces.

At 9:30, Greek letter members gathered for a songfest and coke party while alumnae visited in the Hospitality Center.

Tuesday, June 23

Up early in the morning for the 8:00 A.M. Parliamentary Procedure class with Mrs. Glenn Suthers, delegates then met in Convention Hall for a Panel presentation on "Mounting Pressures." Participants were Louise Haydock Miller (San Jose), Edith Doughty Hindley (Sanford), and Ardis McBroom Marek (Northwestern). Buzz sessions followed for collegiates to discuss Scholarship, while the alumnae discussed membership endorsements.

At luncheon honoring the Founders, Penelope Murdoch Simonson, former Grand President, and present Historian, FOUNDERS DAY LUNCHEON was highlighted by Penelope Murdoch Simonson's talk which dipped briefly into events of the past. Pictured with Penny are Linda Irwin (seated) of Bradley U., toastmistress of the luncheon, and Patty Flanagan (Bradley), luncheon chairman.

was the main speaker. Hostesses were Beta Eta and Bradley alumnae chapters, with Linda Irwin (Bradley U.) serving as Toastmistress. Styrofoam circles of pink carnations holding a silhouette of a lady of the 1870's centered each table. Patty Flanagan (Bradley U.) was chairman of the luncheon.

Informal buzz sessions continued throughout the afternoon, breaking in time for delegates to change for the formal Opening Banquet, hosted by Gamma and Madison alumnae chapters. Charlotte Whalen (Wisconsin), toastmistress, set the mood for the "Wisconsin Woods" theme, which was carried out in the table decorations of pine trees and silver crescents. Chairman of the banquet was Virginia Hill Thayer (Kansas U. and Madison alumna).

Guest speaker, Mr. Sherwood Blue, president of Theta Chi Fraternity Foundation, gave the keynote address, stressing the importance of individual freedom, and charging his listeners to protect that freedom. The Grand Council's reception for Mr. and Mrs. Blue was held in the Governor's suite following dinner.

Wednesday, June 24

Fresh, young voices of the choir lent beauty and dignity to the impressive Memorial Service as tribute was paid to those beloved sisters who have departed this life. Rho chapter of the University of Iowa presented the service, under the direction of Edith Herrin Watt, assisted by Karen Tucker (Memphis State) Ritual Song Chairman.

Sally Gray Cass served as reader, while candles were lighted for Memory, Love, and Influence by Frances Schrauger, Maryann Ruud, and Patricia Carlson, all of Rho chapter.

The Second General Session at 9:30 A.M. was devoted to revisions of the Constitution, By-laws, and Standing Rules.

It was Honors Day at convention and excitement ran high at the Royalty Luncheon when awards were announced. Hostesses were Gamma Gamma and Milwaukee and Fox River Valley alumnae chapters, with Elise Bossort Bell as chairman and Joanne Kohlhausen as toastmistress. The scene was set with royal purple satin pillows, topped by gold crowns, on each table. A special "Queen Bea" crown was presented to Bea Wittenberg, which she wore during luncheon.

After recognition of members of honorary societies, the following awards were made:

The Chancellor E. O. Haven Award for Scholarship—Theta (Denver U.), Alpha Phi (Colorado College), Alpha Theta (Vanderbilt), Beta Sigma (Washington State U.), and Beta Omicron (Oklahoma City U.). The latter two chapters are two-time winners, having received the award at the 1962 convention.

Alumnae Chapter Awards—Greatest percentage increase in membership: Birmingham, Ala. Largest paid membership: Kansas City, Mo.

Efficiency Award—Theta (Denver U.).

McCormick Medallion for outstanding chapter and individual activities—Alpha Omicron, North Dakota State.

Scrapbook Awards—Beta Kappa (Arizona State U.), first; Alpha (Syracuse U.), second; Lambda (U. of Washington), third. Honorable mentions went to Kansas U., Northwestern, and Puget Sound. Settling down for the afternoon business session, delegates heard the Grand Council's presentation of the budget. An interesting report on Expansion was given by Mary Glendon Trussell, Director of Expansion, while Helen Berg Kline gave a brief travelogue on the Gamma Phi Beta 1963 European Tour. The Resolutions Committee report was given by Nadine Cullison Page, chairman.

At dinner, the theme, "Minnesota—Theatre of Seasons" was carried out in table decorations depicting spring baseball and the Minnesota Twins; summer sailing; fall football with

IT WAS A FAMILY AFFAIR for these mothers and daughters attending convention. Daughters (seated) and their mothers were, from left: Ann Guetzlaff (Minnesota) and Dorothy Bateman Guetzlaff (Wisconsin); Mary Kline Maley (Arizona U.) and Helen Berg Kline (Oklahoma U.); Sue Phillips Hirsch and Ruth Vetter Phillips (both of Iowa U.); Marjorie Myles and Gladys Hecker Myles (both of Washington U.); Earla Stieler and Jean Orr Stieler (both of Michigan U.); Judy Jones and Betty Fornof Jones (both of Northwestern); Fran Voris and Frances Knight Voris (both of Illinois). the Minnesota Gophers; and winter, with snow by the foot instead of the inch, and the Winter Carnival. Kappa and Minneapolis-St. Paul alumnae chapters were hostesses, with Dorothy Bateman Guetzlaff (Wisconsin) as chairman.

Toastmistress Marjorie Anderson Adams introduced guest speaker Edith Huey Shelton of Alpha Phi. Mrs. Shelton's service to Alpha Phi as their NPC Delegate is matched only by her extensive community service. A skilled public speaker, she used a flannel board presentation and cited as the objectives of fraternity, the development of character, the promotion of scholarship, and the preservation of traditions. "We reach these objectives," said Mrs. Shelton, "through chapter programs, alumnae guidance, and group influence." She went on to point out that the fraternity or sorority seeks to develop the individual, not the masses; to be of service to others; to be a contributing citizen.

In brief informal sessions after dinner the alumnae discussed alumnae chapter organization, while collegiates met with alumnae advisers.

Skit Night found convention hall with standing room only, as collegiates and alumnae of the hostess provinces cavorted through their acts with professional aplomb. Thus a long, busy day ended with a laugh.

Thursday, June 25

But it was back to work, as the third Business Session brought reports from the Special Gifts committee, the Philanthropy Board, the Camp Chairman, the Magazine Chairman, and from the committee on the Sale of Notes on a National Scale.

Everybody got into the spirit of things at the Hootenanny luncheon. Donning red and white polka-dotted kerchiefs, guests enjoyed the folk singing of a trio imported from Iowa

U., and joined in to sing about Tom Dooley and the Gamma Phi Folk song, written especially for convention. Karen Dybdal, Convention Song Chairman, had been warming up the delegates' vocal chords at mealtimes, and by Thursday they sounded pretty good! Hostess chapters were Rho, Cedar Rapids, Iowa City, and Waterloo, with Suzanne Phillips Hirsch (Iowa U.) as chairman.

Play Day afternoon found Gamma Phis swarming over the golf course, entering the putting contest, swimming, riding horseback, and generally enjoying the many facilities of the hotel. Meanwhile, back inside, some people were working. A business management conference was in session; the Foundation Directors held their biennial meeting; alumnae advisers held round table discussions; and the Crescent Moon staff continued to gather news. This excellent convention newspaper was delivered to delegates at breakfast each morning, which gave readers the opportunity to look over the day's events, check yesterday's happenings, and find what tomorrow would bring. Carnations to Editor Mary Jane Lundy, Assistant Editor, Gracee Palmer, and Reporters Cynthia Pfarrer, Carol Harrison, Kathie Spiss, Ann Mutrie, and Carole Johnson.

Continuing through dinner in a musical mood, Omega, Ames and Des Moines alumnae chapters paid tribute to Meredith Willson, local Iowa boy who made good, by featuring "The Music Man." Centerpieces were miniature instruments with carnations spouting from the horns, while the orchestra played tunes from the hit show. Marilyn Bird Albright and Marilyn Nelson Kern served as chairmen, with Marilyn Park Hawthorne as toastmistress. Introduction of the Convention committee was followed by the presentation of Grand Council.

Later in the evening, Convention Hall was the scene of the beautiful pledge and initiation service which brought into membership six new Gamma Phi Betas. They are: Annette Cacioppo, Gamma Lambda; Nancy Merret, Joann Calek, Marty Hutchens, Gunta Lapsa, and Mary Hughes, all of Omicron. The service was presented by Omicron chapter under the direction of Edith Herrin Watt, International Ritual Chairman.

Friday, June 26

Important business of the Fourth General Session included the report of the Nominating Committee by Betty Gold Malkerson (Minnesota); a report of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation by its president, Delphine Johnston Andrews (Michigan U.); and the Resolutions Committee's final report.

Friday's luncheon, hostessed by Chicago West Suburban and Northwest Suburban, and Aurora alumnae chapters, had "Friendship" as its theme. Chairmen were Shirley Johnson Christopher (Northwestern), who also served as toastmistress, Sally Worst Bloom (Illinois), and Betty Bruner Buckman (UCLA). Table centerpieces were blocks of silvered balsa bearing silver letters of the Greek alphabet. Guests were seated according to their chapters and received fresh miniature orchids as favors.

At the final afternoon General Session, a report of the Credentials committee was followed by election of officers. A

Initiated at Convention

A rare honor came to these members as they were initiated into Gamma Phi Beta at Convention and received their badges from Grand President, Beatrice Hill Wittenberg. unanimous ballot was cast for the slate presented earlier in the day, and a standing ovation was given to the new members of Grand Council who will guide Gamma Phi Beta through the next biennium.

With the reading of Scriptures: Matthew V; 13-17, the 51st International Convention was adjourned.

Entering the banquet hall on this last evening of convention, guests found the decor in perfect keeping with the theme "Symphony in Pink." Tall pink tapers glowed in a circular setting of pink carnations on each round table, while the speakers' table was skirted in pink satin and net, and bore long, low carnation arrangements interspersed with silver candelabra. The soft glow of candlelight served to enhance the charm of the formally-gowned guests. At each place, gift-wrapped in pink and white, was the banquet favor . . . a silver bread and butter plate with the Gamma Phi Beta monogram engraved in the center. Hostesses for the banquet were Epsilon, Evanston-North-Shore and Lake County alumnae chapters, with Polly Grove Haliday (Alpha Sigma and Epsilon) serving as chairman.

Following introductions of honored guests, gift presentations from the Grand Council were made. To Penelope Murdoch Simonson was given a heavy gold charm bracelet with two handsome charms, one for her Grand Council service and the other for her service as Historian, in compiling and publishing the 1962 edition of the History of Gamma Phi Beta.

A second charm bracelet, presented in absentia, was for Elizabeth Fee Arnold, former Grand President and NPC Delegate. Since she was half way around the world in the Philippines, Kay Trostle, Province II Collegiate Director, accepted the gift for her.

The beautiful McCormick Medallion was formally presented by Aleene Carter Thieme to Ene Koivastik, delegate from Alpha Omicron chapter at North Dakota State University.

Providing initiation service music was the trio of Betty Minto, president of Gamma Zeta, East Texas State; Jean Fletcher, Alpha Zeta, U. of Texas; and Karen Tucker, Gamma Alpha, Memphis State, who is Ritual Song Chairman. She also directed the Memorial Service choir which included this trio along with Connie Sachse, Susan Lee Halsted, Patty Flanagan, Carolyn Harshbarger, Sandy Miller, Margie Myles, Beverly Bowers, Vicky Olian, and Dianne Dettmer.

ALLEGRO . . . ANDANTE . . . SCHERZO . . . RONDO!
"The symphony, not unlike Gamma Phi Beta, is composed of four distinct units . . . each perfectly attuned to the other . . . each constituting a necessary part of the whole, grand design." Developing Gamma Phi Beta's Symphony in Pink were Barbara Burns Hiscock, Noreen Linduska Zahour, Ene Koivastik, and Jocelyn Birch Burdick from whom the true spirit of Gamma Phi Beta flowed in their thoughtful remarks to enfold every listener.

Beatrice Hill Wittenberg presented the Grand Council-Elect, and Orra Spencer Reid, new Grand President, responded with her hopes for unity and progress in the dynamic decade ahead.

Closing with the Mystic Circle, 345 Gamma Phi Betas joined hearts and hands in a renewal of their vows to the Sorority, each dedicated to meeting the challenges of the future and lending her best efforts to the growth and prosperity of Gamma Phi Beta International.

To capture the excitement and magnitude of an international Gamma Phi Beta convention through words and pictures is an exacting chore, and one never quite fulfilled. Only by being there can one really know Gamma Phi Beta International . . . its spirit, its heritage, its accomplishments, its pattern for the future, and above all, its wonderful people.

Moved by the inspiring atmosphere of convention, one collegiate had this to say: "I know that I speak for all collegiate members here at convention when I say I have never been privileged to associate with women who are so poised, charming, intelligent and so very, very attractive, as those alumnae members here tonight. Thank you all for the wonderful example of femininity and womanhood."

Would that every member of Gamma Phi Beta could attend at least one International Convention! You are all invited, you know, and the next biennial gathering will be at the Arlington Hotel, Hot Springs, Ark., June 19-25, 1966. Your hostesses will be Greek-letter and alumnae chapters of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma.

Alumnæ Awards

Orra Spencer Reid, Alumnæ Vice President, presents the award for the largest paid membership in an alumnæ chapter to Mary Stout Firner (Kansas), delegate from Kansas City, Mo. Greatest percentage increase in membership was achieved by Birmingham, Ala. alumnæ chapter.

"Schnitzelbank" featured guitar-playing Karen Dybdal (North Dakota U.), Evon Bolstad (Minnesota), Sue Lundeen (Moorhead State), and Ene Koivastik (North Dakota State).

Popular spot after sessions and on Play Day was the Cabana pool. Cooling off here were, from left, Joice Morrall (San Jose), Patricia Hallin (Oregon U.), Vicky Olian (Washington U.), Marilyn Francis and Sue Wagenknecht (both of Missouri U).

A ride through French Lick's surrounding hills was enjoyed by Virginia Harris and Carol Cobb of Colorado U., and Carolyn Sanford of Oregon U.

Carnation Banquet Climaxes Convention

Formal presentation of a new award, the McCormick Medallion, was a high point of the final banquet. Aleene Carter Thieme, Collegiate Vice President, presents the handsome plaque to Ene Koivastik, delegate from Alpha Omicron chapter, North Dakota State University.

An award for outstanding chapter and individual activities, the McCormick Medallion, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. McCormick, will be awarded biennially at convention. Mrs. McCormick is the former Anne Wolman, Zeta and Baltimore chapters, and Mr. McCormick is a Phi Gamma Delta.

Team-play, on the field and in the plant, has become a McCormick and Company byword. Mr. McCormick once wrote, "If team-play spirit can be engendered and developed in youth, then this, fused with the wisdom of maturity, becomes an invincible combination."

FOUR GRAND PRESIDENTS were seated at the speakers' table for the Carnation banquet and hardly need an introduction except to new members. From left they are Penelope Murdoch Simonson, Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, Orra Spencer Reid, and Betty Wheeler Olsen.

FOUR SPEAKERS developed the Carnation Banquet theme, "A Symphony in Pink." They were Ene Koivastik, speaking for the collegiates; Barbara Burns Hiscock who told of our philanthropic services; Ardis McBroom Marek, toast-mistress; Jocelyn Birch Burdick, giving the charge for the future; Noreen Linduska Zahour, who spoke of the importance of ideals in a materialistic world.

The Grand Council of Gamma Phi Beta

Gamma Phi Betas who will serve as members of the Grand Council for the coming biennium are pictured on the final night of the 51st Convention. Left, seated, is Eleanor B. Sieg, Secretary-Treasurer, and retiring Grand President Beatrice Hill Wittenberg who returns to Grand Council as NPC Delegate. Standing are Virginia Forsyth Vint, Alumnæ Vice President; Barbara Burns Hiscock, Collegiate Vice President; Orra Spencer Reid, Grand President; and Mary Glendon Trussell, Director of Expansion. Elected to serve as Director of Finance is Bette Egbert, pictured below, who was unable to attend convention.

Bette Heflin Egbert Director of Finance

Although not in attendance at convention, Bette Heflin Egbert has such a considerable background in finance that she was the perfect choice for the Grand Council position of Director of Finance.

A graduate of the University of Arizona, Bette has for the past 15 years been a member of the Alpha Epsilon chapter Building Corporation, serving as treasurer of the Corporation and chapter financial adviser for the last nine years.

Past president of the Trowel and Glove Garden club, Bette presently is chairman for the club's project of landscaping and planting blooming flowers at the Arizona Children's Home. An important part of her life is the Broadway Christian Church which she serves as Deaconess.

Family life centers around husband, Henry, an SAE and School Administrator, and daughter, Helen, who enters the University of Arizona this month as a freshman.

Our Rights Are Challenged . . . Our Decision Is Made

DEAR SISTERS IN GAMMA PHI BETA—

We live in this period of unequalled experimentation, conflict, and decision. We perform the experiments. We resolve the conflicts. We make the decisions. Our Sorority is exempt from none of these. Gamma Phi Beta delegates to the 51st International Convention made a decision to resolve one of the major conflicts the fraternity system has faced and to allow further experimentation in the future. Every Gamma Phi Beta will want to share and support this decision.

Let us begin, then, with the resolution that received a unanimous affirmative vote.

"WHEREAS, Gamma Phi Beta has existed for ninety years as a private, voluntary social organization, embracing both collegiate and alumnae members, working together in a closely-knit, family type relationship to develop the aims and goals of our Founders, and

"WHEREAS, Continuous and well organized pressures are being exerted to alter the fundamental structure of our membership selection procedures, enforce progressive stages of local autonomy, and thereby drive a wedge between our alumnae and Greek-letter members, therefore

"RESOLVED That we reaffirm the reciprocal relationship which we have always enjoyed between Greek-letter and alumnae members with respect to membership selection and international solidarity."

You may wonder why the Convention was concerned with such a resolution. Or, perhaps, you have been involved with the threat to the sorority system and have decided the time has come to do something. To be concise, the fraternity system is being put under a great deal of pressure to sign "anti-discrimination" statements. These demands have come to Gamma Phi Beta in varied lengths and two contrasting types.

The first type requests clarification of our policy on membership selection. Since 1957, similar statements have been presented to some forty administrators which include the following: CALIFORNIA, the University of California, the University of Southern California, the University of California at Los Angeles, California State College at Long Beach, San Diego State College, San Jose State College, the University of the Pacific; COLORADO, the University of Colorado, Colorado State University, Denver University; IDAHO, the University of Idaho; ILLINOIS, Bradley University, Lake Forest College; INDIANA, Indiana University; IOWA, Iowa State University, the State University of Iowa; KANSAS, Kansas State University, the University of Wichita; MARYLAND, the University of Maryland; MASSACHUSETTS, Boston University; MICHIGAN, the University of Michigan, Michigan State University; MINNESOTA, Moorhead State College; MISSOURI, the University of Missouri; NEVADA, the University of Nevada; NEW YORK, Syracuse University; OHIO, the Ohio State University, Bowling Green State University, Kent University, Miami University at Oxford, Ohio Wesleyan University; OREGON, the University of Oregon, Oregon State University; PENNSYLVANIA, Pennsylvania State University; TEXAS, Midwestern University; VERMONT, the University of Vermont; WASHINGTON, the University of Washington, Washington State University; WISCONSIN, the University of Wisconsin; BRITISH COLUMBIA, the University of British Columbia.

Gamma Phi Beta has consistently answered such requests with the following statement:

"Gamma Phi Beta has no clauses in its international Constitution and Bylaws which place restrictions in the selection of members because of race, religion or national origin.

Our chapters are free to choose their members from among the many who are endorsed."

The second demand is a direct challenge of our right to remain a private international organization. Here is a sample statement:

"I hereby certify that the student members of _____ Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta are free to choose and accept new members without discrimination as to race, religion, or natural origin." (Italics have been added for emphasis.)

The distinction between our statement of clarification and this demand for policy revision is rather glaring, isn't it? These are the schools which have presented our chapters with statements of this type: the University of California, the University of California at Los Angeles, the University of Southern California, San Diego State College, California State College at Long Beach, San Jose State College, the University of Wisconsin, Pennsylvania State University. Although each has a different wording and a different time limit, the implications of these certificates are the same.

We have two options. We can allow our chapters to function as they have successfully for ninety years or we can sanction the formation of locally autonomous groups.

As you can see by the resolution passed at Convention, Gamma Phi Beta does not wish to sign such statements. Let us discuss three basic reasons which influenced the Gamma Phi Beta decision.

The first concerns a series of steps. Several years ago, a copy of a carefully plotted program appeared on a campus and was sent to Eileen Blain Rudolph, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate for Delta Delta Delta, and was later published for distribution. This program included the following:

"Step No. 1—Arouse cognizance of racial and religious discrimination of the campus among the student body, in housing, social organizations such as fraternities and sororities, faculty, campus organizations and athletics.

"This can best be accomplished working through the medium of the daily or weekly campus paper. Militant sympathetic leadership help in student government, student senate or council as representing the entire student body to the administration of the university or college.

"Assistance in background material, bibliographies, films, recordings can be obtained without charge from U. S. National Students (sic) Association, Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, National Committee on Fraternities and Sororities in Education, National Association (sic) the Advancement of the Colored People, Urban League, American Jewish Committee.

"Step No. 2—When recognition that discrimination exists in any area is established and is a topic of general discussion among the student body, a program can readily be developed for administration action.

a) Campus organizations should agree to have no discriminatory clauses self-imposed on color, race or creed in addition to any selectivity restrictions of their own national organization.

b) Petition the administration department governing student organizations to bar establishment of any new organizations on the campus which have any discriminatory membership requirements.

c) Local groups should be required to notify their central organizations that they are not in sympathy with membership selectivity on the basis of race, color or creed, and inspired to work within their national structure to have such clauses deleted.

d) Gentleman's agreement in the unwritten laws on membership qualifications must be abolished, but first express provisions must be eliminated following steps No. 1 and No. 2.

"Step No. 3—In natural sequence, work to have university administration set a deadline date for all organizations on campus to remove restrictions based on race, color or creed or lose recognition on the campus.

"Step No. 4—As a criteria (sic) to prove no unwritten laws governing membership, campus groups can prove their compliance by integrating members from minority groups without protest from their national organization.

"Step No. 5—Potential goal is complete integration or absorption by all social groups of all students who are desirous of affiliating with the various groups and organizations on campus."

The end result of this program would be one hundred percent pledging—or complete obliteration of the fraternity system as you and I know it. You can see that policy restricting certificates like the sample which was quoted would put a chapter to step three with steps four and five in the probable future.

It would be naive to think this couldn't happen. In the fall of 1963, Portland State University's six Panhellenic chapters were given the option of following step four or being suspended and thereby losing administrative recognition. Because all groups refused to follow step four, they were suspended and are no longer recognized on that campus.

Alpha Psi Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta faced a decision in 1961. Our chapter, and the other four NPC sororities at Lake Forest College, were given an ultimatum demanding local autonomy which all refused to accept.

The Convention acted to avoid this first reason—undue pressure for local autonomy. Through this Convention action, the privileges of reasons two and three will be preserved. These privileges include the recommendations system and our privilege of belonging to a private social organization.

We belong to an organization of well over 43,000 members. Each of us has an equal opportunity to endorse prospective members of our sorority. To maintain this privilege we have a recommendations system. You have to have identification to cash a check, references to get a summer job, a transcript to be accepted in graduate school. Gamma Phi Beta has the equally justifiable privilege to obtain such endorsement of character before selecting a new member. Our alumnae endorsement form lists these six qualifications:

"Good character

Wholesome family background

Scholastic ability

Ability to assume financial responsibility of membership

Contribution to prestige of Gamma Phi Beta with consideration of special talents

Attractive personality."

On what grounds could any administration or group question these qualifications?

The third reason is most important of all. Gamma Phi Beta is a private, social organization. We are part of the unique social fraternity system of North America. For well over two hundred years this system has aided its members and made major contributions to the colleges of the United States and Canada. Obviously, we have no right to claim past laurels and achievements as reasons for existence. The fraternity system and Gamma Phi Beta must make continually important contributions to academics, to philanthropies, to ethical standards. As long as we continue to make these contributions it must remain just as obvious that no group or power has the right to challenge our existence. If our right to selection of members is challenged, the same statements can be issued to the Baptist Student Union in Abilene, Texas, or the D.A.R. in Quincy, Massachusetts, or the Lions Club in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

These are three reasons for our Sorority's decision. As a private organization we are protecting our right to select our own members. Without this right, we would not have Gamma Phi Beta. At best, we would have college girl clubs—each with its own rules, its own shaky future. With this right, Gamma Phi Beta will continue her international advancement. The Convention has aided each of us to make a brave and wise decision—the only decision that will allow Gamma Phi Beta to progress.

A Message from the President

When this issue of THE CRESCENT reaches you, your new Grand Council will have been in office just about a month, too short a time to have accustomed ourselves to our new roles or to have taken action on the matters before us. The necessary files have been transferred to new officers; every effort has been made to have the transition as smooth as possible with no interruption in the work of any department.

The many messages which have come to me from all parts of the country since Convention have brought encouragement, good wishes and valuable suggestions. Even more significant are the promises of hard-working support and the affirmations of unity. There are no obstacles too great for us to surmount if our hands and hearts are joined.

Convention decisions have pointed the way, your officers are prepared to implement those directives; we are honored by the trust placed in us and it will be our hope and aim to guide the destinies of Gamma Phi Beta as you wish us to during the next biennium.

Trojan Spirit Prevails At Southern Cal

Among America's academic giants, none is experiencing a more dramatic or dynamic period of emergence and development than the 84-year-old University of Southern California, oldest and largest independent, coeducational University in the West.

With impetus from its Master Plan, USC is moving swiftly forward under the direction of its seventh president, Dr. Norman Topping, who has called for "excellence with vigor and without compromise."

New buildings, rising on USC's campus at a surprising rate, are only one facet of the new image, behind which surges a rededication to enriching academic goals in keeping with the University's distinguished history of contributions to American education.

USC's Master Plan has two principal objectives:

- Able and eager students, wise and dedicated professors, imaginative and stimulating courses of study.
- The facilities necessary to make this possible.

Giant steps already have been taken toward achieving these objectives. Emphasizing excellence, USC is constantly elevating already high enrollment standards with the result that of those freshmen entering in the fall of 1963, approximately 88 percent had B grades.

Seeking the truly gifted scholar, USC inaugurated its Trustee Scholar Program in 1963, bringing to its campus the vanguard of 40 students of outstanding capabilities and promise.

As quickly as feasible, USC expects to increase its full-time faculty by as much as 50 percent, while adding junior faculty to reduce the number of part time instructors.

Among outstanding new faculty already attracted to the University in several disciplines are Maurice Pryce, as chairman of the Department of Physics; Myles Maxfield, Director of the Biophysics Program; Gerhard Tintner, Economics; John Laufer, in the School of Engineering, and Paul Weiss, School of Philosophy.

Jascha Heifetz, Gregor Piatigorsky and William Primrose joined the faculty of the School of Music two years ago to conduct master classes in USC's new Institute for Special Musical Studies.

Under a far-reaching curriculum revision plan, the University is abolishing course credits in an academic streamlining which will be completely operative this fall for the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School. This involves the institution of a four-course student program for each semester and the elimination of unduly specialized or fragmented courses from the curriculum.

In keeping up with the tradition and spirit of USC, Beta Alpha chapter of Gamma Phi Beta has also stepped up its programs of activities and educational growth. Chartered in September, 1938, Beta Alpha chapter was number fourteen of the nineteen sororities which have at one time or another been a part of Southern California's campus.

This past year the Gamma Phis have played a part in all activities both on the row and on campus. Both the junior and senior heads of Women's Judicial Court were Gamma Phis as also was the president of USC's school of education. Beta Alpha members also participated in both of the scholastic, honorary organizations on campus and belong to such national groups as Spurs, Mortar Board, and Amazons, with officers on the Panhellenic Council.

A new tradition was started this year at the Beta Alpha Orchid Ball and that was the selection of the Gamma Phi Beta Man of the Year. The annual dance, held at the Wilshire Country Club, ended with the crowning of Tom Lile, selected from among eight contestants all of whom were chosen for their spirit, personality and interest not only in the Gamma Phis but also in USC.

The USC 1964 Song Fest held at the Hollywood Bowl also put the Gamma Phis out in front for we won first place in mixed division and captured the trophy with the theme, "Songs from childhood."

Throughout the past 26 years Beta Alpha chapter has become an integral part of USC. Its membership has steadily been rising as well as its activities and scholarship. If ever the chance comes to visit our campus, the doors of Beta Alpha will always be open.

SUSAN PATTERSON

Pursuit of excellence and enterprise in education at USC is matched only by its outstanding athletic achievements which include five national collegiate sports championships in 1963. Their famous block section at football games always includes some Gamma Phis.

Winner of Barbee Fellowship Announced at Convention

The Lindsey Barbee Fellowship has been awarded to Lee Ann Cauley of New York City, a Gamma Phi Beta member from the University of Vermont. She will attend Simmons College in Boston to do graduate work. She was graduated from Vermont in 1963 and since that time has worked as Case Aide in the Cerebral Palsy clinic. She has also received from the National Health Foundation a grant of $500 for each of her last two years in college and $500 for each of her two years in graduate work coming up.

She served as House President of Gamma Phi Beta, was a member of Staff and Sandal, junior honorary and also a member of the synchronized swimming team.

Welcome to Gamma Mu, Moorhead State College

A memorable moment in Moorhead was the presentation of the Gamma Phi Beta charter by Grand President Beatrice Hill Wittenberg to Gamma Mu's chapter president, Sue Lundeen. Beaming approval at left are Gail Edwards, PCD, Mary Jane Monnig, PAD, and Edith Herrin Watt, International Ritual Chairman.

As each new chapter brings added strength, vitality, and enthusiasm to Gamma Phi Beta, so Gamma Mu chapter at Moorhead State College, Minnesota, brings her gifts to the Sorority.

A very gala weekend for Fargo-Moorhead alumnæ was that of April 25-26 when the new chapter was installed. Festivities began at the airport as the new initiates and collegiate members of Alpha Omicron at the University of North Dakota joined Karen Tucker, Traveling Secretary, and Gracee B. Palmer, Supervisor of the Colony, in greeting Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, Grand President, and Edith Herrin Watt, International Ritual Chairman, with banners and songs.

An informal meeting on Friday evening gave Mrs. Wittenberg the opportunity to greet all colony members. Saturday morning interviews with each candidate for membership were followed by a luncheon at Kise Commons. Installation ceremonies were conducted at Faith Methodist Church at 1:00 P.M., followed by a model chapter meeting, both conducted by Alpha Omicron chapter members under the direction of Mrs. Watt.

Saturday night, amid flowing fountains filled with pink carnations, over 100 Gamma Phi Betas joined together to wish the new chapter success, and to enjoy a sumptuous dinner. The atmosphere was very festive as the congratulations poured in, and also very inspiring as Mrs. Wittenberg addressed the new initiates.

Attending Faith Methodist Church on Sunday in a body, the initiates were later guests of honor at a beautiful reception held at the Sun Lounge in Dahl Hall on the campus. Nearly 250 guests, including faculty members, students, and townspeople attended the reception, in spite of a spring blizzard.

Receiving with Mrs. Wittenberg and Mrs. Watt were Dr. John J. Neumeier, President of the college and Mrs. Neumeier; Mrs. Eileen Hume, Dean of Women; Mary Jane Monnig, Province VI Alumnæ Director; Gail Edwards, Province VI

Collegiate Director; Ene Koivastik, president of Alpha Omicron; Sue Lundeen, president of Gamma Mu, and the two special initiates, Mrs. Marvin Geib, and Mary Montgomery, faculty adviser.

A thrilling climax to many weeks of preparation, it was a weekend that won't soon be forgotten by any of the Gamma Phi Betas who attended. The love with which Mrs. Wittenberg surrounded us all was truly that of sisters in Gamma Phi Beta.

GRACEE B. PALMER

Dean of Women, Eileen Hume, and President John J. Neumeier of Moorhead State College offered a warm welcome to the new chapter of Gamma Phi Beta. Said Dean Hume: "The girls will now be looking to bigger horizons, as they will be part of a bigger unit. Any national sorority has firmer discipline as the girls must meet national requirements."

Telegrams and letters of congratulations from Gamma Phi Beta chapters across the country poured into Moorhead, as Gamma Mu chapter at Moorhead State College was installed April 25. Exhibiting some of them are, from left, Mrs. Ellend J. Palmer, supervisor of the colony; Karen Tucker, Traveling Secretary; Mary Glendon Trussell, International Director of Expansion.

GRAND COUNCIL APPOINTMENTS

LEE GIBSON COLLISON Province VIII Collegiate Director

Lee Gibson Collison, Rollins, has been named Province VIII Collegiate Director. A graduate of Rollins, she received her M.A. from the University of Florida and presently resides in Winter Park, Florida, where she has served as president of the Orlando-Winter Park alumnae chapter.

Her activities in the community include membership in the Orlando chapter of NSDAR, of which she is a Past Regent and is presently Florida State Public Relations chairman for this group; she is president of Christian Temple Manor Chapter of the Colonial Dames, 17th century, and a member of Dames of the Magna Carta, New England Women, and Colonial Dames of America. She was selected as outstanding Junior Mrs. DAR for the state of Florida this year.

Lee's husband, Harry Warren Collison, is also a graduate of Rollins and a physicist who is District Manager for Data Control Systems, Inc. They are the parents of a six-year-old son.

Her hobbies of collecting antiques and gardening may suffer some, but Lee looks forward to her work with the collegiate members of Province VIII as she begins her fall tour of the chapters.

BEVERLY MENZ FIGGE Alumnae Associate Editor, The Crescent

Proving that sorrows can be replaced with joys, we bid farewell to Jeannette Naglestad and warmly welcome Beverly Figge as the new Alumnae Associate Editor of THE CRESCENT.

Beverly Menz Figge, Omicron '56, majored in Elementary Education and after her marriage moved to San Francisco. While her husband Fred H. Figge served as a Naval Officer there, she taught kindergarten for one year in San Lorenzo. She retired to begin her own family which now includes three daughters, age 3, 5, and 7. Her husband is an accountant with Arthur Young and Company in Chicago. They have lived in La Grange since 1958.

Bev modestly lists her accomplishments in both church and P.T.A. but Chicago West Suburban Gamma Phi Beta alumnae who observed her term as president of the group cannot strongly enough applaud her zest, her thoroughness and above all, her Gamma Phi Beta charm.

Bev's primary duty will be to edit alumnae chapter letters and it is hoped that every alumnae chapter correspondent will note her name and address on page one of this issue and have chapter letters in her hands by October 1 for the December issue of THE CRESCENT.

It is difficult to express your Editor's deep appreciation to Jeannette Naglestad for the loyal, devoted service she has rendered over the past several years. Gamma Phi Beta's loss will be education's gain as Jeannette launches a new career in the teaching field in California.

Tea Honors Retiring Grand President

Five hundred southern California sorority women gathered at the home of Marguerite Streeter Hornung (Oklahoma U.) in Los Angeles April 29 to honor retiring International Grand President, Beatrice Hill Wittenberg.

Attending the gala tea were Panhellenic alumnae presidents and delegates, active chapter Panhellenic presidents, and delegates from USC, UCLA, and Long Beach State College together with Gamma Phi Beta alumnae. Dorothy Haines Winans (UCLA) was chairman of the event sponsored by the Inter-City Council. Assisting were Elizabeth Chambers Huck, Loray Jenkins Repp, and Dorothy Burrell Zeller, all of UCLA's Alpha Iota chapter; Beverly Smith Gosnell (San Diego State), Una Mae Brunskill Naulty (USC), and Mrs. Frank Meister, Council president.

International officers serving at the lavishly appointed tea table were Mary Garvin Schuster, June Mahon Meader, Dorothy Swatzlander Herold, Edith Doughty Hindley, Angela Funai Lombardi, Ruth Tucker Dawson, and Edith Herrin Watt.

Climaxing the tea, the guest of honor was presented with an engraved sterling silver jewelry box and a green chenille beehive. The beehive signified "Our Queen Bee" which Mrs. Wittenberg was fondly called by Los Angeles area Gamma Phis. When she initiated her reign as Grand President, Bea had received a miniature beehive, so the larger replica she received at the tea had special significance.

Among San Fernando Valley alumnae attending the tea for Bea Wittenberg were from left, Dorothy Burrell Zeller, Dorothy Haines Winans, chairman, Mrs. Wittenberg holding the symbolic chenille beehive, Lucretia Stephens Hegewald, and Elizabeth Chambers Huck.

Following the tea, Mrs. Wittenberg and her husband, affectionately nicknamed "Witt," were guests of honor at an "After Glow" buffet with 23 couples in attendance. The diners gathered in intimate groups throughout Mrs. Hornung's palatial home to partake of true gourmet fare.

Highlight of the dinner was the presentation of a pearl tie tack to Mr. Wittenberg, who, upon accepting it, beamed broadly and said, "At last I have become a Gamma Phi!"

Rushing and Founders Day—What Is the Connection?

When this issue of THE CRESCENT is delivered, most of the membership is involved in some phase of the mammoth job of fall Rush: working to provide necessary recommendations, actively assisting a Greek letter chapter, or planning traditional parties to celebrate combined efforts which resulted in the pledging of another outstanding group of young college women to Gamma Phi Beta. All across the land these new pledge classes should serve as a pertinent reminder of the importance of our next all-Sorority activity, Founders Day celebrations which will be held only two months from now. For just as each year's pledge classes add to our growth and prestige, so do our annual contributions on Founders' Day add to our ability to provide necessary funds for the housing needs of all our college chapters. Each of these two all-Sorority functions complements the other. They are both necessary for our continued growth and they both require the genuine interest and whole-hearted co-operation of the entire membership.

Founders Day offers a specific opportunity to make personal birthday gifts in honor of our four founders, and these gifts are all credited to the Endowment Fund.

Our last Founders Day per capita donation of 98 cents was the highest we've ever achieved and makes the recommended minimum of $1.00 per person seem within the realm of possibility.

Chapters should begin now to plan their Founders Day celebrations and members must begin to plan for their individual financial contributions. With over two months to plan and budget, this Founders Day should be the finest we've ever had.

Just one dollar from every member would put

$43,000 in the Endowment Fund by November 1

hold them. A favorite verse from an unknown poet states:

*Give me the love of friends
And I shall not complain of cloudy skies
Nor little dreams that fade and die.
Give me the clasp of one firm hand,
The lips that say, "I understand,"
And I shall walk on Holy Land.
Fame and fortune—burdens bring,
But friendship is a God-like thing.*

Yes, the Sorority has given these to us—lasting friendships—intellectual and cultural development—understanding—inspiration—loyalty. Are we to preserve these gifts? It is for us to decide. Let us pledge anew our belief in Gamma Phi Beta, and rededicate ourselves to the high principles of our Founders which have been reflected through the years as our heritage.

In Appreciation . . .

Serving the Sorority as the Grand President is an experience which has broadened and enriched my life. It is an honor which does not come to many members. That it came to me for two terms is cause for sincere pride and deep humility. But the work of the Grand President could not be accomplished alone. It takes the combined efforts of everyone, and especially the other members of Grand Council. To those dedicated women who served with me, to the international officers, and to the entire membership goes my sincere gratitude for the support, cooperation, and understanding which has been given to me the past four years. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to share in the leadership of Gamma Phi Beta.

Change of Address for Magazine Agency

The Gamma Phi Beta Magazine Agency which operated out of Central Office will now be handled by the new chairman, Mrs. C. W. Kenney. All subscriptions should be mailed to Mrs. Kenney at 109 Ardsley Dr., DeWitt, New York 13214.

According to the convention report on the Magazine Agency, sales have decreased slightly in each of the past three years. This easy way to contribute to Gamma Phi Beta at no cost to the membership is being neglected! If each CRESCENT reader would send one subscription of $3.00 to the agency, our sales would be close to $75,000 per year . . . almost double the present sales.

The chairman does not ask that you send additional money . . . she asks that you give Gamma Phi Beta the opportunity of earning a commission on the magazine orders that you place regularly elsewhere.

Orders for magazines are placed within four days of receipt and the service of the Gamma Phi Beta Agency is equal to that of any other agency.

Why not get the habit of ordering all your magazines through Gamma Phi Beta? You can start now by ordering Christmas gift subscriptions . . . do it early and be assured that your gift subscriptions will start with the January issue! It's a two-way gift when you order through our agency . . . a gift to a friend and a gift to the Endowment Fund . . . a great way to help Gamma Phi Beta!

Policies of Membership Selection

Pressures in various forms are being exerted on collegiate chapters of all Greek-letter fraternities and sororities to make membership available to all who wish to become members of such organizations. Therefore, it behooves every Gamma Phi Beta to understand and to defend, if necessary, our policies regarding membership selection.

Although there was no restrictive clause in the first constitution of Gamma Phi Beta, nor is there one now, membership has always been by invitation, following unanimous election.

Our standards of membership are not based on race, religion, or nationality, but on social acceptability to the chapter and the sorority as a whole. Any girl of good character and adequate scholarship who is wanted by the chapter and the Gamma Phi Betas in her home community may be invited to membership.

Fraternal association implies a degree of social intimacy but one step removed from that of the family. Selectivity in connection with the admission of new members into the sorority is therefore to be desired. It is not to be expected that all girls admitted to any colleges will be desired as sisters by any one sorority. Further, optimum chapter size limits the number who can be invited. The chapter chooses from those who are interested in membership, those for whom its members feel the greatest attraction. The international sorority does not tell a chapter that it must accept certain girls, nor do we look with favor on pressure toward this end from any other source.

The closeness achieved by unanimous selection of members is responsible for the effectiveness of sorority membership in influencing the lives of its members. Anything done to destroy this close relationship of the members of a chapter would weaken the college sorority, and make it less effective as a force for good on the college campus.

Gamma Phi Beta over the 90 years of its existence has been a valued part of every college campus on which we have a chapter. We stand ready to serve the college in any way that lies within the scope of a voluntary organization.

Living Abundantly

By The Reverend Charles D. Spotts, National Chaplain of Phi Kappa Tau

Automation and technology are making it possible for those of us who are fortunate to live in America to increasingly reduce the time required for doing necessary work. Today's undergraduate will probably live to see a 25 hour week, with corresponding increase in free time.

Leisure is not hours free of work, or even weekends or months of vacation or years in retirement. Leisure is not a time concept. It is a state of being. Leisure is a state of being free of everyday necessity. Therefore, the activities of leisure are those one would engage in for their own sake, not as a means to an end.

Climbing a mountain for the sake of climbing it would be an activity of leisure. Writing poetry for the sake of writing it, composing a piece of music as an end in itself, improving the genetic qualities of gladioli in order to enhance their beauty, reading assiduously the works of Søren Kierkegaard that one might really be able to understand him and be uplifted by him, facing danger in attempts to photograph nests of the Bald Eagle for the sake of getting the pictures and for no other reason, spending tiring hours in art museums in search of the meaning behind the canvas, kneeling daily in prayer and contemplation merely to practice the presence of God—these are all activities of leisure which help the sensitive person to live abundantly.

To live abundantly is to live creatively. To live creatively is to live in freedom from necessity. To live in freedom is the mark of a cultured person who has cultivated the free mind, who has a deep dedication to truth, for whom the glory of human existence has in the dimensions of creative freedom.

This high dimension of freedom is not an accident. It comes only to those who prepare for it discovering wholesome "extra-curricular," non-profit producing, inherently valuable interest. Undergraduate days present tremendous opportunities for such discovery. For most of you, never again will such magnificent resources be available—libraries, concerts, art galleries, museums, natural resources and especially, mature men and women who have learned how to live abundantly in various ways.

Now is the time for each of you to lay the foundations for a life-long interest in some aspect of creative leisure that, as you grow older, you will also become more mature. One mark of maturity is the capacity to live "loosely," to live in freedom, to live for the sake of living, to live abundantly.
