Better Days Are Coming . . .

to all children under the guidance of Irene Donohue, (U. of Iowa '40), Speech and Hearing Consultant for the University of Illinois, Division of Services for Crippled Children. This program makes available services and resources which will allow all physically handicapped children to reach adult life as happy, well adjusted and self-sustaining individuals. For her service to handicapped children, we salute Irene Donohue!

University of Manitoba Nears Its 75th Anniversary

THE University of Manitoba is coming of age as a modern University in a modern world, as it approaches its 75th anniversary. Established in 1877 by act of the Manitoba legislature, it has grown up in the "Gateway of the Canadian West," along with the city of Winnipeg, then a sprawling boom town.

In its salad days, the University was just a handful of affiliated church colleges—St. Boniface, Roman Catholic, St. John's, Church of England and Manitoba College, Presbyterian. Other colleges, sponsored by the various churches and an Agricultural College and Pharmacy school were added in a process of incorporation which has not ended yet.

In 1900 Science, Medicine and Engineering comprised the faculty list. By 1910 Arts had been added, and later came the Law School, Medical college, Home Economics, Commerce, Education, Architecture and Social Work. Just recently a school of Music and a degree course in Interior Design became part of the faculty roll.

Manitoba has its share of extra-curricular activities covering a wide range of interests. For the musically-minded there is the Glee Club, which produces an operetta each year, the Choral Society, the Symphony Committee and the band. For the stage struck there is the Dramatic Society which produces one big play a year and a host of one-act plays and variety shows. For book worms we have many faculty clubs and for those with writer's itch, there is the paper, "Manitoban," "Creative Campus," published each term and "Brown and Gold," a year book. There is U.M.S. Radio with its own daily news broadcasts and Saturday variety revues. Tea Dances and pep rallies foster the U. spirit, and to complete the list is Public Relations and the Debating Union.

Of course, sports play an important role in the University life. Manitoba offers inter-faculty and inter-varsity basketball and football, when our teams play both American and Canadian colleges. On the sports roster are fencing, track, badminton, skiing, volley ball, tennis, swimming, golf, curling, bowling and hockey.

Manitoba has its share of sororities and fraternities, which have contributed greatly to the growth of the University. University business is conducted by the board of governors and the student council.

The University was originally situated in the heart of Winnipeg, but in 1929 it was officially moved out to join the Agricultural college in the suburb of Fort Garry, ten miles from the city. It is a very beautiful campus overlooking the historic Red River, with large, grassy lawns, many faculty buildings, an administration building and a Men's and Women's residence. The enrollment reached 6,000 during the influx of war veterans, but it is expected to drop this year.

The church colleges and the junior division in Arts and Sciences remain in Winnipeg. The split campus is the "bête noir" of Manitoba and it is hoped that the campus will be unified at Fort Garry this fall. D D D

HELEN REA CRAWFORD, Alpha Kappa

Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae Become National Osteopathic Auxiliary Officers

WHEN the national Convention of the American Osteopathic Association was held in St. Louis in July (1949) Mrs. Douglas D. Waitley of Evanston, Illinois, was installed as national president of the Auxiliary to this organization. Mrs. Roy L. Brown of Topeka, Kansas, was appointed to serve as Hospitals and Clinics Chairman for the coming year and Mrs. Morris P. Briley of Tallahassee, Florida, was nominated for a three year term as a Director.

Mrs. Waitley became a Gamma Phi Beta at Northwestern. Her name was Marian Drew. She won a freshman scholarship award and was head of freshmen, rushing chairman and vice-president of the chapter. She wrote the popular song, "You Can Spot a Gamma Phi."

While at Northwestern she met a young pre-medic student named Doug Waitley. As Junior class Social chairman she led the Junior Prom with this young man, and after her graduation in 1923 they were married.

Mrs. Waitley has been an officer in the Chicago alumnae chapter and the North Shore alumnae chapter.

She has held offices in civic organizations, in the Northwestern alumni association, Women's Society of the Methodist Church, P.T.A., and is active in the Infant Welfare Society of Evanston.

Some years ago she took up writing and studied under James Weber Linn of the University of Chicago. Some of her things were published in Outdoors magazine, but the responsibilities of her family and her outside interests prevented concentration on this hobby.

Marian Drew Waitley (Northwestern '23) is the newly elected national president of the Osteopathic Auxiliary.

A Career in Home Ec? Take a Train to Omaha!

HOME ECONOMISTS rank high in Omaha, particularly with the Omaha alumnae association because six of Omaha's leading home economists are Gamma Phi Betas.

1 You have all heard of the Martha Logan of Swift and Company. To us here in Omaha and surrounding territory, Martha Logan, the trade name for Swift's home economist, is in reality Patricia Anderson. Pat received her bachelor of science degree from Iowa State College in 1946, and came to Omaha in January of 1948 after a year with Colonade restaurants in the east. Pat's duties include product testing, recipe development, appearing on the radio and traveling throughout Iowa and Nebraska conducting cooking schools before various women's groups. Pat, in her busy life, finds time to attend the Home Economic Women in Business meetings where she takes an active part as treasurer and she belongs to Altrusa, an internationally known professional women's club.

2 With another nationally known company, Omar bakeries, we find Barbara Whelan Stulp, who also received her bachelor of science degree from Iowa State. Barbara is the Omar home economist for Omaha and is known in the professional world as Omar's Mary Baker. She took her dietetics internship in Los Angeles at the famous Cedars of Lebanon hospital. Barbara has been with Omar two and one-half years and her duties entail service calls, quality control of products and the development of new items. She too is active in the Home Economic Women in Business organization.

3 At Omaha University, students credit the good food service to Gladys Black who is the director of the food service. Gladys manages the cafeteria, faculty club lounge and the snack bar. She received her bachelor of arts degree with a major in home economics at the University of North Dakota. After college, Gladys took her dietetics internship under civil service at O'Reilly General hospital in Springfield, Missouri. She then served in the army two years as a dietitian aboard a hospital ship holding the rank of lieutenant. In her free time Gladys participates in the activities of the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae group, the Omaha Dietetics Association, the Womens Overseas League and the work of the Women Veterans of the American Legion. Gladys is also a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary.

Two newcomers to the home economics field in Omaha and Council Bluffs are Ann Reckert and Catherine Becker. Ann and Kate both received bachelor of science degrees from Iowa State in 1948.

4 Ann is associated with Homec Service which was organized in Omaha last March and has graduated from a one room office to a large $6,500 kitchen and office. It is an independent organization of home economic graduates which acts as a liaison between the manufacturer and consumer by offering their services to companies without home economists in Omaha. Ann gives demonstrations of the latest home equipment and writes the radio script and appears on their Saturday morning radio show "The Homemakers Roundtable."

5 Kate is home economist for All detergents, a synthetic detergent used in automatic washers. Kate travels throughout Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota demonstrating All's cleansing powers, making home service calls, and promoting the sale of All. Kate just arrived in Council Bluffs in January after spending a time with International Harvester demonstrating their home freezers.

6 In the teaching field we find Alice Buffet who received her bachelor of science degree at the University of Nebraska. Alice teaches the various phases of homemaking such as child care, family life and clothing at Benson High school in Omaha. She is on the executive council of the Women's Chamber of Commerce of Omaha.

Yes, we are proud to say that these women who are prominent in the home economics professional world wear the pin of Gamma Phi Beta and are active in the Omaha alumnae chapter.

VIRGINIA CARTER MOLL, Iowa State '45

Jeanne Paris, Kroger's "Jean Allen"

Cincinnati Has Its "Jean Allen" of Kroger Fame!

CINCINNATI alumnae chapter is proud to welcome Jeanne Paris (Fargo 1940), who came here in June of 1948. Jeanne is the Kroger Company's "Jean Allen" and Director of the Home Economics division of the Kroger Food Foundation in Cincinnati. She has degrees in home economics from North Dakota State College and the University of Nebraska, and was formerly assistant professor of home economics and director of Home Management House at West Virginia University.

At the Foundation, Jean Allen heads a staff of three home economists and directs thousands of food tests in the Foundation's testing kitchens. She and her staff supply homemakers with information on food preparation. This includes recipes, menus, quantity food service and buying information to many groups. Tested recipes that appear on Kroger packaged items also are developed under her direction.

The Kroger Food Foundation, founded in 1931, is a scientific food testing laboratory said to be the only one of its kind in the world. It is responsible for quality control of Kroger manufactured products and other items handled by Kroger stores. The laboratory also works on improvement of foods and processing techniques. » » »

Lora Stone

Joins Editorial Staff of "Country Gentleman"

LORA STONE (Ohio Wesleyan '41) has recently joined the editorial staff of Country Gentleman Magazine as Home Furnishings Editor. Country Gentleman, America's foremost rural magazine, is a sister publication of Ladies' Home Journal, Saturday Evening Post and Holiday, all of the Curtis Publishing Company family. Considering the fact that she gave no vent to her writing yen during undergraduate days at Ohio Wesleyan, her rapid rise to this position of responsibility has been remarkable.

After giving dietetics a try for two years, Lora enrolled as a graduate student at Iowa State College while her husband was overseas. After receiving her Master's Degree in Foods and Journalism, she became Assistant Director of Home Economics for the National Broadcasting Company in New York City, and, later, Home Economics Director for an advertising agency in Philadelphia. She has devoted some time to free lance writing, and you have probably seen or will see her articles in Successful Farming, This Week, Food Industries, Farm Journal, Good Housekeeping and Hearth and Home. Her first by-line appeared in the Country Gentleman in March.

Active in various professional organizations, her offices include the presidency of the Philadelphia alumnae chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national honorary journalism sorority, and membership chairman for the Home Economists in Business of Philadelphia.

She is known as Mrs. Walter Graul in private life, and her husband is completing a three year residency in orthopedic surgery at the University of Pennsylvania hospital. D D D

At Home In The Orient With Yvonne Moore Spence

WHETHER it is Korea, Japan, or the other side of the globe, Yvonne Moore Spence (Birmingham-Southern '30) keeps her stay-at-home friends well informed of life and living abroad. Birmingham Gamma Phi Betas have so thoroughly enjoyed their mail from the Orient, that they have sent excerpts from Yvonne's letters to share with other CRESCENT readers.

At present, Yokohama is home to the Spences although until recently they were stationed in Korea where Mr. Spence was sanitary engineer for all American occupied Korea.

Yvonne writes: "You ask what we can buy here in groceries. The only fresh vegetables in Korea are frozen cabbage and lettuce, which is O.K. sometimes, Irish potatoes, onions and celery. They have canned vegetables and fruits, fresh oranges, lemons and grapefruit. Their loaf bread isn't very good, so I usually get dry yeast and do my own baking. Once in awhile we get creamed or cottage cheese, and then I make salads."

And in another letter: "Yesterday was as lovely an Easter as I have ever seen. Not many flowers, but the sun was bright and warm and the air was full of spring.

I am beginning to believe those who say that spring and fall are beautiful in Korea, although I had my doubts when we had 18 inches of snow last January. Sue Lynne, my 8 year old daughter, says the Koreans like her; I think because when we walk down the street we may have 10 to 15 children following us—her blond hair, I guess, as there are few American children in this sector."

Yvonne wrote later of attending a Pan-hellenic meeting. "There were four Gamma Phi Betas at the meeting. I have the son of a Gamma Phi Beta in my second grade at school. We had about 230 children in the school this year. In my grade were two children born in China, one in Korea, one in Russia, one in France, one in Turkey and one in England.

"Seoul is a city of a million people but it could hardly be called a city in any other respect. There are a few old street cars and taxis left, but mostly the streets are littered with bicycles, ox-carts and man-pulled carts."

From Yokohama, Japan the Spences write that the country is very "stateside" and that one does not have the oriental air that was apparent in Korea. "The

All Roads Lead to New York!

Business engagements often prevent regular attendance of our career women at Gamma Phi Beta alumnae meetings in New York City, but once a year the chapter pays tribute to those who "go to business" (a New York expression that amuses westerners). At the December meeting, each person told of "My Day" at the office, and we thought it would be fun to share these career experiences with CRESCENT readers.

STELLA BLANCHE BREVOORT

Gloria Johnson (Illinois '48)

No, I wasn't born with a paint brush in my hand; it was only after four years of art at the University of Illinois that I was graduated a potential industrial designer.

Not too many years ago the term "industrial designer" applied only to those who were concerned with the functional aspect of any object designed. Today, the field has broadened to include the aesthetic phase also. Things are not only made to serve their purpose better but they've also been endowed with a touch of art.

In industrial design, one can specialize in textiles, packaging, products, interior decorating, and many other aspects of design. My choice was products. Yes, we're the "crackpots" who design cars which are longer, lower, and more streamlined, clocks with invisible gears, and vacuum cleaners which are self contained. We put the "special features" on products.

At the present, I am with the firm of Ken White Associates, New York City. I have designed display fixtures, food choppers, mail boxes, and I have even strayed from my specialized field of product design to attempt store modernization, window displays, and packaging. Sometimes I sketch; other times I build models, but I always enjoy my work. It gives me a great sense of satisfaction to know that I have developed something new, be it just an external design or the complete interior details of an object.

While in school I majored in the option of industrial design which not only required an art background but several engineering courses as well. Knowledge of drafting is essential and a mechanical ability is desirable.

Designing is a fascinating field and without any regrets, I'm glad I chose it as my career.

Betty Booth Trempe (Illinois '37, Northwestern, M.S. '39)

IT'S A GREAT business, that of greeting cards! But, no, I don't have to write the verses! My job is that of advertising manager for Gartner and Bender, Inc. and manager of their New York office. The work includes liaison with advertising agencies on trade paper advertising, creation and production of a direct mail program and the myriad of duties involved in the advertising department operation of any manufacturer.

To keep in tune with the times, I teach a course in "Fundamentals of Advertising" at City College of New York, evening sessions.

Ours certainly isn't a "marriage versus career" problem, as my husband is eastern manager of the Davidson Publishing Company, so we talk the same language. D D D

Jean Marie Grimm (Penn State)

"B.B.D. and O." rolls off your tongue so automatically, once you try it, that I forget some people may think I'm talking a foreign language. Those letters stand for Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, a well known and highly respected advertising agency. My boss! My work is with two account men who handle the Remington Arms, Patterson Screen, X-Ray film, Home and Garden Products, Polaroid and Kinetic Chemicals. Agency work is high pressure and hurry-up, and nearly everyone can boast of an ulcer or two. But it is exciting to watch a campaign from its embryonic stage, develop into a great national force when it finds its way into every medium of advertising all over the world. D D D

Gamma Phi Beta Career Women

Mary W. Moore (Illinois '33)

DESCRIBING my job is rather difficult, as my work is so varied. I am employed by a New York City firm of industrial consultants, which specializes in export to the Far East. One day we may be arranging for shipment of trucks, or herring, or upholstery fabrics to Siam. The next day, preparing quotations on aeronautical or electronic equipment for our domestic customers. But it's all interesting and fun. Mother and I live in the Hudson View Gardens apartments and, like other transplanted midwesterners, we claim to be better boosters of New York than the natives. D D D

Dorothy Holmes (Missouri)

WHEN I resigned the chairmanship of the French department in a large New Jersey high school in 1938 to raise my family, I considered my career days ended.

Little did I know that the Coty Company, for whom I had worked at one time, would call me in to be trained as a key punch operator with International Business Machines.

One of the most pleasant phases of I.B.M. work is its personnel. The organization has high standards in its choice of personnel, and I would say to young college women, that if they should have an opportunity to take I.B.M. training, they should seize it. It is certainly more interesting than clerical work, it pays better salaries and working surroundings are most pleasant.

At present I am working on an installation of the Branch Motor Express Company, and truly, there is never a dull moment. D D D

Ellen Kuhn (Vanderbilt)

THIS year I began teaching at Adelphi College in New York, in the department of Speech and Dramatic Arts. Adelphi has grown tremendously and now has 535 freshmen.

Mary W. Moore

In February I took on another part time job, teaching speech at Katharine Gibbs Secretarial School. This is different from other speech teaching only in that we emphasize the immediate applicable speech situations, such as telephoning and interviewing. Squeezing my housewifely duties in at odd hours, and increasing my efficiency, I find I have time to be wife and career woman, too. D D D

Gamma Phi Beta to Celebrate Another Birthday

By Margie Marr Marvin

LAST year we entered our Diamond Jubilee year as Gamma Phi Beta began its 75th year of service! This year, on November 11, we complete our 75th year and enter on our 76th! Think of all the things which have happened in those eventful years . . . the wars, the political and economic upheavals, the change in social customs, the advances in living! Surely Gamma Phi Beta is founded on a solid rock of Truth to have survived, and grown during those revolutionary years!

So Founders Day this year has an added significance. Now we have faced the world for 75 full years and prospered. We are larger, stronger, more united than we have ever been before. We face the future with confidence! At the same time we realize fully that new problems will arise, which must be met with understanding and with intelligent planning, and that each individual and group will have to accept new and greater responsibilities.

But in addition to its functional importance, Founders Day has another purpose which ranks equally high. It will give you an opportunity to meet other Gamma Phi Betas in your community and to renew friendships.

If you live in a community where we have a Greek letter chapter or an alumnæ chapter, there'll be a Founders Day party you'll want to attend. Already many groups have announced plans for breakfasts, luncheons, teas, suppers and banquets. Some of them expect to have several hundred Gamma Phi Betas present, with many chapters represented.

Other Gamma Phi Betas who live in small communities or in rural areas have adopted the plan of forming a smaller group for a Founders Day party. Some of these parties are only twosomes or foursomes, but it's the spirit that counts and from reports these intimate get-togethers prove to be lots of fun. So wherever you live, plan now to join other Gamma Phi Betas for a celebration on November 11.

Grand Council Appointments

Dorothy Potter Swindell, Director Province III

THE MEMBERS of Champaign-Urbana alumnæ are proud and pleased to know that Dorothy Potter Swindell (left), Omicron and Champaign-Urbana alumnæ, will be the new director for Province III.

Dorothy's professional experience, her organizational ability, her capacity for hard work, and above all her honest enthusiasm for people and their activities combine to make the Council's choice a happy one.

Dorothy received an A.B. in English and M.A. in Education from the University of Illinois, and for the past seven years has been a teacher of English in University High. Previously she had accumulated wide and varied experience with young people as a member of the National Girl Scout staff in New York; as executive of Champaign-Urbana Girl Scout activities; as a member of the board of directors of the University Y.W.C.A.; and as camp director for such well known summer camps as Timber Trail at Munising, Michigan, Camp Juniper Knoll at Elkhorn, Wisconsin and others.

Dorothy rounds out her busy life as a teacher with an amazing number of extra-curricular activities. These include managing an efficient and happy household of husband and two foster daughters—Jeanne Potter Saalwachter, a bride of June, and Dorothy E. Potter, senior at the University and both Gamma Phi Betas; by participating in the local AAUW where she pioneered the Children's Theatre movement; and by taking vital interest in the events and progress of Omicron. For the past two years she has been president of Champaign-Urbana alumnæ, and in the fall, after a summer with her husband on their Cuivre Creek Farm in Missouri, Dorothy will assume the presidency of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary educational sorority.

Summing it all up—Dorothy, like a good United States Marine, always has the situation well in hand. And whether it is making angel's wings for rushing favors or implementing the innumerable details of a Carnation Banquet for a Jubilee Convention, at no time does her enthusiasm outrun her ability to present a job well done. Mary Newland's Isaacson, Director Province VI

MARY ISAACSON (Mrs. F. Theodore) (at right) began her Gamma Phi Beta career at the University of British Columbia, after two years transferred to the University of Washington, and served one quarter as co-organizer at Oregon State College. In 1946 Mary served as delegate to the Gamma Phi Beta convention. During the Province VI conference in 1947, she acted as the very able chairman of this successful conclave. Mary was president of the Seattle alumnæ chapter in 1947-48 and drew together this large membership into a purposeful group . . . a real job after the war had caused membership to lag and interest to drop.

In January of 1949 Mary was appointed to her Province Directorship and began her term by presiding over the Province Conference.

Mary's "leisure" time is kept full with a varied list of activities. For six years she served on the Girl Scout Council, served three years on the Visiting Nurse Service Board, served on the City Panhellenic Board and was chairman of the 1949 fund raising fashion show. During the war years she spent many hours as a Gray Lady for Red Cross and each year is active in the Community Chest drive, Red Cross and other civic projects.

The Church of the Epiphany is fortunate in having her interest, also, where she is a member of the Altar Guild and on the board of the Church Women's League.

Her hobbies include gardening, knitting, collecting old china and reading. In addition to this busy life, Mary is the efficient manager of a beautiful home in Seattle where she puts to work many of her artistic talents.

We in Seattle were sorry to learn that Mary and Ted plan to make their home in Eugene, Oregon this fall, and we congratulate Eugene Gamma Phi Betas on their good fortune.

We point with pride to our new Province Director, for we know from her past performances that she will be a great success and will bring a wealth of new ideas to all of us in her province. D D D

DOROTHY S. O'BRIEN, Secretary-treasurer, Province VI

Carolyn Baldwin, Director Province II East

OHIO GAMMA Phi Betas take great pleasure in introducing the new director of Province II East, Mrs. James R. Baldwin. Carolyn is an old hand in sorority business, for she has been extremely active since her initiation into Alpha Nu chapter at Wittenberg College. She has served as president of the Toledo alumnae chapter and president of the Toledo Panhellenic, which was re-activated under her leadership. Since 1946 she has served as State rushing chairman for Ohio.

Carolyn's husband is a Lutheran minister, whose parish is in Oxford, Ohio. This makes Carolyn right handy to aid and assist the Miami chapter, Beta Epsilon, and you have only to ask the Beta Epsilon girls to find that she is a wonderful alumna when it comes to getting jobs done quickly and with perfection. Virginia Hill von Lehmden, Special Endowment Chairman

AH ME! The Navy was never like this" says Virginia Hill von Lehmden, Omicron '35, as she holds baby Peter in one arm and fends off three-year-old Mark with the other, while preparing copy for Gamma Phi Beta's magazine campaign this fall. Virginia is our new Special Endowment Chairman whose chief duty is to build up the Endowment Fund through national magazine sales.

Virginia was a journalism student at the University of Illinois during the last depression. "The bank in Champaign closed with all my funds for the school year in it. No wonder I understand what it must mean to a Gamma Phi Beta to get a loan from our Endowment Fund and be able to finish school!"

While at Illinois, Virginia was elected president of the Woman's League (women's governing association), and a member of student senate. She worked on the Daily Illini newspaper, sang in the Glee Club, and was a member of Mortar Board. She was named Secretary of the Class of '35 and for many years after graduation wrote a news column in the Illinois Alumni News. In '39, '40 and '47 she organized her class reunions at Champaign-Urbana.

Mrs. von Lehmden has served Gamma Phi Beta before, acting as a graduate counselor to Pi at the University of Nebraska in the fall of '35, and to Alpha Chi at the College of William and Mary in the spring of '36.

Virginia's journalistic career began in Chicago after graduation with a job at the Southtown Economist Newspaper (a large weekly) as society editor and feature writer. Her next position was as an advertising copywriter at Montgomery Ward and Company in Chicago for two years, where she wrote copy on everything from tombstones and wheelchairs to drugs and radios for the large catalog.

Her last position before entering the U. S. Navy was with the Chicago Tribune Newspaper where she wrote display advertising for more than four years.

When the WAVES were organized, Virginia was commissioned at Mt. Holyoke College with one of the early groups of officers. Most of her two and one-half years in the Navy was spent at Washington, D. C. where she served on the staff of Commander-in-Chief Admiral Ernest J. King, editing a highly classified magazine for the anti-submarine forces. She and members of the magazine staff received a Letter of Commendation from Admiral King, presented by him personally in his office at Headquarters. Virginia resigned from the Navy in June 1945 with the rank of Lieutenant (junior grade).

She is married to Ralph von Lehmden, advertising artist, and lives at 46 Myrtle Blvd., Larchmont, N.Y. She is an active member of the Westchester alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta.

Virginia Von Lehmden's typewriter makes a wonderful track for Mark's trucks, while baby Peter looks on.

WIN CASH PRIZES FOR YOUR CHAPTER!

Gamma Phi Beta's new Magazine Subscription Contest
Begins September 15th—Ends January 15th

Here's a contest that offers the easiest way we know for your Greek letter or alumnae chapter to make a great deal of money through magazine commissions while competing for the six cash prizes offered by Gamma Phi Beta.

How can you do it? Simply by sending new magazine subscriptions and renewals of any national magazine to our Gamma Phi Beta Magazine chairman, Mrs. James Studley, 604 Somerset Place, Washington 11, D.C., telling which chapter should be credited.

Gamma Phi Beta meets the lowest prevailing rates on all magazines. With each subscription, Gamma Phi Beta receives 20¢ out of every dollar! That means commission dollars for your chapter fund, as well as money to swell Gamma Phi Beta's renowned Endowment Fund.

What does the Endowment Fund do?

It's the financial backbone of our sorority. It makes long term loans to Gamma Phi Betas in school, and to chapters needing to redecorate, remodel, etc. It's the real PUSH behind Gamma Phi Beta PROGRESS, ready to lend a helping hand when it's needed most! Magazine subscription sales are one of the best sources of income to increase this Endowment Fund. Another well-known national sorority makes more than $7,000 a year in commissions from magazine sales. Gamma Phi Beta can top this figure if YOU do your part NOW!

Alumnae Organization Plans

By Margie Marr Marvin,
International Vice-President and Alumnae Secretary

AT THE 43d Convention in St. Louis, following an alumnae round table, the following resolution was adopted: "That at the discretion of Grand Council a Committee, headed by the Chairman of Finance, be appointed to evolve a plan whereby the expenses of a traveling secretary, or secretaries, are financed by the alumnae chapters and such appointment, or appointments, be made."

Mrs. Howe had on her committee Mrs. Eugene Van Horn of San Francisco, Mrs. Frank A. Pence of Tulsa and Mrs. A. W. Gillespie of the Rockford-Belvidere alumnae chapter. Various sized chapters and different sections of the country were represented on this committee which worked diligently to evolve a plan of financing Province alumnae secretaries rather than a Traveling alumnae secretary which did not seem practical, or feasible at this time.

The result of the Committee's efforts, the alumnae Plan, was presented at most of the Province Conferences in the Spring, and an alumnae per capita tax of one dollar was considered the most satisfactory means of financing the Plan, for this trial year.

Rather than inaugurate this Plan in all Provinces this fall, it was decided to use the Pilot Plan, a recognized test policy for putting into action any new idea.

At the Spring meeting of Grand Council, following the Conferences, it was voted to use this Pilot Plan in Province VIII and Mrs. E. H. Schellenberg of Coral Gables, Florida, a former Province VIII Director was appointed as the Special Alumnae Director. Mrs. Schellenberg will work under the direction of the International Vice-President and Alumnae Secretary in the same way that Province Directors work with the Chairman of Provinces.

Under Gamma Phi Beta's present set-up, Province Directors have been unable to devote the desired amount of time and attention to alumnae chapters removed from Greek letter chapters, and to stimulate alumnae groups into organizing alumnae chapters.

Mrs. Schellenberg will give assistance to the present alumnae chapters and will endeavor to organize additional chapters. Clubs will be formed in communities where there are only a few Gamma Phi Betas so that more alumnae will enjoy the benefits of belonging to an organized group.

Another new alumnae organization plan was presented by Mrs. Hiscock, of Seattle, at the Province VI Conference. This plan involves a State Alumnae Worker.

The State Membership Chairman would act as the State Alumnae Worker and would endeavor to accomplish the same things in her State as the Province Alumnae Worker did in an entire Province. She would also increase her sources of recommendations by getting to know a larger group of alumnae.

Grand Council voted that Pennsylvania would be used as the "pilot" in testing this plan. As there is no State Rushing Chairman in Pennsylvania at the present time, Mrs. Richard Marvin will make a trip through the state in late September. Then a State Alumnae Worker will be appointed to carry on the plan.

International funds will be used to defray the expenses of both the Province and the State Pilot Plans. D D D

Grand Council Appointment

Gertrude Henderson Schellenberg
Special Alumnae Director,
Province VIII

WHEN it was announced that Gertrude Schellenberg had been appointed the first Special Alumnae Director for Province VIII, the news failed to surprise members of the Miami alumnae chapter. For most of them have two dates etched indelibly on their memories: 1926, the year of the Big Storm, and 1938, the year "Gert" descended on south Florida. The impact was identical, although the effect was different. For when she burst like a bombshell on Miami, she unearthed eighteen Gamma Phi Betas, most of whom didn't know the others existed.

Selling Gamma Phi Beta has been her hobby for a good many years now. It all started in 1918, when she entered the University of Nebraska. Here she met "Schelley" who had a positive knack for ringing Gamma Phi doorbells; and for answering them also, since after he met Gert, he spent a good deal of time at the sorority house. A recent article in a national magazine stated: "Any woman who wants to adopt a lapful of children, should first marry the kind of man who thinks it's a good idea." Adopting a whole sorority seemed to be Schelley's idea as well as his wife's, and for this generosity, we salute him! Not long after organizing the Miami chapter, Gert moved to Raleigh, North Carolina, where she repeated the performance. If you think she thereby got into a rut, you are right. Only hereafter the rut is going to have an official title, Special Alumnae Director. While in Raleigh, she functioned as Director of Province VIII, and during this period her daughter, Shirley, entered William and Mary where she pledged—you guessed it—Gamma Phi Beta. So hereafter it was a mother and daughter team who attended alumnae meetings in Philadelphia, their next home. And finally Gert went full circle, back to Miami.

One of her virtues is that she is not a fanatic on the subject of Gamma Phi Beta. She is active in many civic organizations. The past few years she has been working toward the establishment of a cancer clinic in Miami, and the building was recently dedicated. As a side-line she collects antiques. Furthermore, she refinishes them herself. D D D

In Memoriam

Christine McCracken Coffee Alpha Xi

Alpha Xi chapter and Dallas alumnae chapter have lost one of their best loved and most loyal, energetic and capable members, Christine Coffee. With her passing on April 25, 1949, memories are left of the many loving contributions she made to her sorority and the inspiration she gave to all who knew her. To know her was to love her and to be inspired toward the finer, more worthwhile things in life. The hearts of all Gamma Phi Betas in this vicinity are saddened.

She was a charter member of Alpha Xi, past president of Dallas Alumnae Chapter, past president of Alpha Xi Corporation, served as Alumna Adviser to Alpha Xi and was a member of long standing on the S. M. U. Panhellenic Housing Committee. To say she will long be missed is most inadequate to express the depth of the meaning her passing has brought to Gamma Phi Beta.

Besides her contributions to Gamma Phi, Christine held, at various times, important offices in all other clubs she belonged to. She was active in the Dallas Lawyers' Wives Club, the Dallas Classic Club, the Highland Park Methodist Church, the Parent Teachers Association, and numerous other organizations and clubs to which her husband's profession as an attorney carried her. She supported vigorously the many cultural projects that Dallas sponsors, the Symphony and Art Exhibits standing highest on her list.

Dallas, as well as Gamma Phi Beta, has suffered a great loss, to say nothing of the loss to her husband, Roy, and their two adorable sons, Robert, fourteen, and Roy, Jr., eleven. D D D

BESS MAYO SPRAGUE

Sarah Seeber Ivins Gamma

Last spring the members of the Milwaukee and Madison alumnae chapters were saddened by word of the death of Sarah Seeber Ivins (Wisconsin '02), at her home in Milwaukee. Sallie, as she was affectionately known to all those of her day, was prominent in both campus and chapter activities. Not long after her graduation, she married the Reverend Benjamin F. P. Ivins, now the Bishop of Milwaukee. Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, Frederick, also of Milwaukee, to both of whom we extend our sympathy.

Sallie's going leaves a gap in the lives and memories of her friends which nothing can quite fill. D D D

Livonia Kay Epsilon

Epsilon regrets the passing of Miss Livonia Kay (Northwestern '91) a charter member of the chapter, at her home in Watseka, Illinois July 2, 1949. A quotation from the newspaper account reads: "Miss Kay's closest friends have said they were most impressed by her high standard of living and thinking." A fitting tribute to a fine woman and loyal Gamma Phi Beta! Northwestern chapter has accepted Miss Kay's badge, presented at her request by her survivors. D D D

RUTH B. FOX

Alumnae Become Osteopathic Officers

Dr. and Mrs. Waitley have three sons. Doug, Jr., is 21, and graduated from Northwestern in June, 1949. Drew is 19 and has just finished his freshman year at Dartmouth. Alan is 12 and in grade school in Evanston.

Two other Gamma Phi Betas hold high offices in the Auxiliary to the American Osteopathic Association. Mrs. Roy Brown of Topeka, Kansas, and Mrs. Morris P. Briley of Tallahassee, Florida.

Mrs. Brown was Jesintha Thomas and belonged to Alpha Delta chapter at the University of Missouri, after attending the Starrett School for Girls and Stephens College. She won the treasured pledge ring as a Gamma Phi Beta pledge. Later she became president of the Topeka Gamma Phi Beta alumnae (1939), and is now president of the Topeka Stephens College alumnae club.

She became interested in osteopathy after her marriage to Dr. Roy Brown in 1936, and has served as local auxiliary president and president of the State auxiliary of Kansas. She has been on the national Auxiliary Executive Board as Ways and Means Chairman this past year, and is now Chairman of Hospitals and Clinics at the Convention in St. Louis in July.

Dr. and Mrs. Brown have a son, Tom, 11 years old, and a daughter, Belinda Sue, just 5. Mrs. Brown finds time to be active also in the Kansas Council of Women, the Junior Social Service Club, the Three Arts Club and the Topeka Country Club.

Mrs. Morris P. Briley, of Tallahassee, Florida, was formerly Helen Morrow, a charter member of Alpha Mu chapter at Winter Park, Florida. She and Dr. Briley have two sons and a daughter between the ages of twelve and two.

Carolyn Allen

Campus Honors at North Dakota State

MEET ALPHA OMICRON'S triple-threat president, Carolyn Allen. This personable new Gamma Phi president also heads the Edwin Booth Dramatic Club and Kappa Delta Pi, education fraternity. Both are honorary groups.

Senior Staff (comparable to Mortar Board) asked Carolyn to membership and elected her vice-president. Panhellenic Council entrusted its funds to her. She also is treasurer of the board of public programs of the Student Commission. She is a member of the Women's Senate.

Dramatic abilities have earned this dark-eyed brunette parts in four Little Country Theatre plays, Ghosts, Joan of Lorraine, Years Ago and Ah, Wilderness. She has participated in the Bison Brevities, all-college musical show, for the past 3 years.

This year, Carolyn was the driving force on Panhellenic council in the reorganization of the campus rushing system. In her freshman year, she received the Irene Leimbacher memorial scholarship.

As receptionist at WDAY, local NBC station, Carolyn is getting a start on a radio career. You'll be hearing from her, someday soon!

MARY RANNEY, rushing chairman for Alpha Omicron at North Dakota State, rushed judges off their feet and captured the 1949 Jack Frost Winter Carnival queen crown and was selected Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

Mary is prominent in musical circles as a pianist, singer and dancer. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, was co-director of the Gamma Phi Beta act for the 1948 Bison Brevities, all-college musical show. Her other activities include W.A.A., Newman club, N.D.S.C. badminton team, 1947 Brevities, Barn Dance queen candidate, Spring Sing, Little Country Theatre production staffs, cheer leader, Y.W.C.A. and Guidon. She is a member of the Fargo-Moorhead Winter Club and has skated in two of the ice reviews. And when the ice melts, Mary is still on hand; she's a strong swimmer who has appeared in several water carnival shows.

At the Minneapolis Winter Carnival, Mary represented Fargo and Gamma Phi Beta. She was sponsored by Swanston Nash Company.

PROVING HERSELF to be a bit of an Einstein is Marjorie Sebens who has been elected to Phi Kappa Phi. Marg, who is a Zo major here at North Dakota State, was our prexy last year. This year she is kept busy with Little Country Theatre productions.

PROUD WE ARE that Dorothy Abrahamson placed second in the "Miss North Dakota" contest. Dorothy was the Interfraternity Council's candidate in this contest sponsored by the Disabled American Veterans and competed with beauties from the entire state. Dorothy's activities include Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary; Art Club; modeling and designing clothes; Barn Dance Queen candidate; Homecoming Queen candidate; and Queen of the Brush during our tournament time with the U of North Dakota; Phi Kappa Phi.

ALPHA OMICRON presents Eunice Lundquist, a personality girl who really gets around. Eunice's services are much in demand on the N.D.S.C. campus.

She was a member of the Freshman and Sophomore Y.W.C.A. commissions. Her first year's service rated her the presidency for the second year. Eunice was also a capable member of the Bison, yearbook, staff and quite a shark on the badminton team, besides helping on the production staff of several Little Country Theatre plays. This good work earned Eunice such positions as president of Guidon, treasurer of Kappa Delta Pi, and election to Senior Staff.

Eunice's piano playing is tops. That's why she has been chairman of the program yearbook and this year's president of S.A.I. Eunice is the accompanist for the men's and women's glee clubs. For three consecutive years she has had an active part in the Bison Brevities, an all-college musical.

The Orient With Yvonne Spence

Japanese nearly all dress in American style clothes and the town buildings are western too.

"Most of the people seem to be out for a good time. The resort hotels are beautiful and it doesn't cost much to go for a week-end where one may have hot spring baths, skiing, fishing and hunting.

"We had a fine and decorative Christmas, as Japan is the maker of most ten cent store decorations, which can be bought here for practically nothing."

In Yvonne's latest letter she tells of a delightful week-end at

Mt. Fuji. "We stayed at the Fujiya Hotel, the finest in the Orient. There were hot spring baths, indoor swimming pool, recreation room and side trips. All this cost 15¢ a day! The three meals a day were $1.35. As our bill for a four-day week-end was $18.00, we found it was cheaper than living at home."

"We will be glad to get home to our friends and family this summer. You can stay over here too long and then life will seem hard back in the states."

Yvonne Spence's mother is also a loyal Gamma Phi Beta and is listed in "Who's Who in American Education" and "Who's Who in American Women." She taught several years at Birmingham-Southern where she was Dean of Women. D D D

Our return to school brings a new experience to Oregon State Gamma Phi Betas in the person of Erika Zvirbulis, a twenty-two year old Latvian girl, who will continue her studies at Oregon State. She is being brought to the campus by the Displaced Persons Committee, and Chi chapter has offered board and room for fall term. We feel very fortunate, indeed, to be given the opportunity to share all that we have with another that has so little. She is a junior, majoring in chemistry, and speaks Latvian, German, and English fluently.

Money Maker Suggestion For Alumnæ Chapters

A profit of $200 from a successful Easter Bazaar given by the Evanston-Northshore alumnæ chapter on April 14 enabled them to send a sizeable sum to the Gamma Phi Beta camp at Denver, Colorado, and a contribution to the local project of Ridge Farm Preventorium for maladjusted children.

Regular monthly meetings were used as a means of cutting and sewing materials bought for place mats, bridge sets and aprons. Informal groups met at homes preceding the sale, making clever and original puppets, "shmoos" and Peter Hunt designed jars, bottles and salt and pepper sets—all of the material used being the odds and ends a housewife always has tucked away to use some day!

A table of tempting home made cakes, cookies, baked beans and spaghetti sauce was a remunerative attraction.

An afghan of knit blocks of pastel colored yarns was donated by our former grand president, Honta Smalley Bredin, Northwestern. The beautiful work was particularly admirable because Mrs. Bedin knit it, even though blind.

A wardrobe of doll clothes with its doll and trunk coveted even by the grown-up girls was sewn by another clever needle woman, Mildred Leritz Worthy, also of Northwestern.

The crowd of members and guests were entertained by Hope Summers Witherell, who told of new and amusing experiences in television work.

The financial success was coupled with the genuine pleasure of the members of a new alumnæ chapter made better acquainted through a work-together project.

Jeanne Alexandre returned to the University of Maryland campus after spending her junior year in Switzerland. She studied under the Junior Year Program which was established by the American Council of College Study Abroad. This program provides that a student may study at special centers under the council's authorization and thus receive credits which can be transferred back to the student's college in the United States.

Living with a Swiss family and attending classes which were taught in a new language, was at first a difficult task for Jeanne. Within a few months she realized she was beginning to understand the language and customs.

School life in Switzerland was quite different from that here in the States. The Swiss professors are very aloof and seem to feel as though they are far superior to those whom they teach and therefore have no personal contact with them. They merely walk into the lecture room, lecture, and leave immediately afterwards. The student has no opportunity to answer questions or have a discussion with them. Another difference is the fact that the Swiss professor never takes roll, it does not seem to concern him in the least whether or not the students attend class. The Swiss students never have tests, pop quizzes, or exams but rather at the end of their four years must appear before an examining board. However the American students are compelled to take exams made up by their advisors so they are able to transfer their credits. Exams and term papers are all written in German.

Jeanne's travels took her to Italy, France, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and Holland. Since she has returned to the States, Jeanne realizes how nice it is to be able to understand and to be understood by everyone. Her junior year is one that Jeanne will always remember and she has been overheard saying that she is ready to return to Europe again sometime.
