In Memoriam

Airdrie Kincaid Pinkerton

1891-1966

Editor, THE CRESCENT 1938-1948

Airdrie Kincaid Pinkerton, former editor of THE CRESCENT, died in Santa Barbara, California, on June 26, 1966, two days after she had undergone heart surgery and after many years of unstinting service to her family, her community and to Gamma Phi Beta.

Airdrie Pinkerton was born on April 24, 1891, at Olympia, Washington, where her father had established a pioneer medical practice upon his discharge from the Union Army. Because both of her parents were native Scots, she was named for a small town in Scotland where her mother's family had been prominent in village life. The unusual name is being perpetuated through her daughter, Airdrie Paula (Polly) Pinkerton Martin (Alpha Epsilon) and her granddaughter, Airdrie Marie Martin. Other survivors include her husband, Roy, two step-sons and seven other grandchildren.

Airdrie attended the University of Washington where she pledged Gamma Phi Beta, following in the footsteps of her sister Zoe Kincaid Penlington, a founder of Lambda chapter. Her first writing for THE CRESCENT was during her undergraduate days when she was CRESCENT Correspondent and a member of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary.

In 1923 she married Roy Pinkerton, then editor of the Seattle Star. The years between have taken her from Seattle to Cleveland to San Diego to Ventura, always actively at her husband's side in his various newspaper enterprises.

In 1938 she was appointed international chairman of publicity, during which time she originated and edited Flashes, a Gamma Phi Beta newspaper published twice a year. She served for 18 months as an associate editor of THE CRESCENT under Lindsey Barbee before she was named editor-in-chief in July, 1938. For the ten years that she led THE CRESCENT, she changed the format to its present size, increased the photographic coverage and concentrated on biographies of prominent alumnae.

Airdrie devoted herself to many civic and community projects. She was chairman of the Home Service department of the Red Cross during World War II; she conceived and planned the first Debutante Ball in Ventura; she was founder of the Ventura County Forum of the Arts; she always worked with her husband's newspapers as a reporter, editor or coordinator.

Old issues of THE CRESCENT make frequent references to the many sides of Airdrie Pinkerton: her love for unusual and dramatic earrings; her collection of branding irons; the more than 200 dolls she brought from almost every land on the globe during her travels; her green thumb that she employed so lovingly around the Pinkerton's Ventura ranch; and the love and devotion she lavished on her comfortable livable book-laden home.

Many have paid tribute to her through the years and each bespeaks a facet of the personality of a great woman.

Lindsey Barbee once said, "She lives on a ranch—because she's Airdrie, she can live any place. She fits on the ranch that is her home as easily and as naturally as she would fit on Fifth Avenue, or the Rue Royale."

When she was appointed editor, a childhood friend, Margaret Meany Younger (Lambda), wrote: "She has a professional type mind, enormous bump of curiosity, dynamic spirit, infectious sense of humor, abiding loyalty for friends, ideas and ideals."

When she retired as editor, Alice Wieber Fitzgerald, past Grand President, wrote: "She is vivacious but never silly, she has wit and humor in large quantity but never uses it to the discomfiture of others, she is completely loyal without being mawkishly sentimental."

Harold Bachmann, still the account executive who handles the printing of THE CRESCENT for George Banta Company, says: "She was always one of my favorite Gamma Phis and I worked closely with her for a long time. I also spent some time at their Ventura ranch and found them to be delightful hosts. She was an avid letter writer and we carried on an extensive correspondence even these many years since she left the editorship. I shall miss her deeply."

Perhaps the most glowing tribute to Airdrie appeared in the editor's column of the Ventura County Star-Free Press. It was written by her long-time friend and editorial associate, Julius Gius, who eulogizes: "She had a heart so big there was love for those of all ages and all colors in all economic strata. Among those in deepest mourning for her are the legions who remember warm and simple acts of affection—words of condolence in time of strife, a suggestion for meeting a problem, a small gift for a special occasion, a smile always."

Many of the world's people and all of Gamma Phi Beta will miss the wise counsel and the lasting devotion of this truly great leader, Airdrie Kincaid Pinkerton. D D D

Message of the Grand President

by Orra Spencer Reid,
International Grand President

Traditionally, it is the duty of the Grand President to review the past biennium. The reports of all the International officers will be found in the printed convention booklet. My summary, therefore, will not be in detail.

One of the most time-consuming responsibilities of the Grand President is the handling of extensive correspondence. Reports come to her from all departments of the Sorority and it is of utmost importance that she be informed on all facets of our work. Much of the correspondence requires research, careful appraisal and considerable thought before it can be correctly and adequately answered.

Travel and attendance at various meetings are important facets of the office. There have been four semi-annual meetings of Grand Council, each lasting for more than a week, meetings with the Philanthropy and Endowment-Crescent boards and with the Centennial chairmen. There have been five installations of new Greek-letter chapters in which the Grand President has taken part, several speaking engagements and eleven chapter visits. One Province Conference was attended and one Officer Training School. There have been two meetings of the National Panhellenic Conference, two annual conventions of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors and two other conferences of sorority and fraternity leaders.

One of the most outstanding achievements of the biennium has been the re-location of Central Office. Improvements in service to the membership have become possible through larger quarters, better and more modern equipment and a larger staff.

Distribution of the new Manual which clarifies and coordinates our ritual was completed in 1965 and our distinguished new Guide for Pledges was distributed last September. The new edition of the History of Gamma Phi Beta is a companion volume and third book on standards will be published this fall.

For a long time, Gamma Phi Beta has benefited from the work done by a traveling secretary and in recent years we have increased the number from one to three. They provide, through their reports to Grand Council, a liaison with the chapters which has not been available under any other program. This closer communication strengthens our unity; members of Grand Council are better informed and can, therefore, be of more help, if help is needed.

In August 1965 an Officer Training School was held at the Alpha Xi house in Dallas. An expanded program of this type of training is recommended to include more officers for refresher courses and with special consideration given to more facilities for help and training of advisory personnel.

We have problems, as do all other sorority and fraternity groups. No report to you can be complete without dwelling on them for a few moments. In the first weeks of the biennium, we were faced with the California deadlines for signing certificates pertaining to membership policies. Every effort was made to carry out both the letter and spirit of the 1964 convention resolutions, but, on those campuses where we could not successfully implement a decision to remain as non-signers and when the interpretation of our legal counsel was that we could sign and remain within the provisions of our bylaws, we have permitted our chapters to sign the certificates, usually under protest and always with reluctance. The requirements for statements of membership policies increased markedly after the pronouncement of the Commissioner of Education in the summer of 1965 that federal funds would be withheld from institutions harboring any organization with discriminatory practices or any which might be interpreted as discriminatory. The inclusion in the Higher Education Act of 1965 of an amendment which prohibits any interference with the internal operations and membership policies of fraternities and sororities and other private organizations was a tremendous accomplishment. Many of you responded quickly to the requests for letters and wires to senators and congressmen and the combined efforts of members of many fraternal organizations resulted in the passage of the Act with "our" amendment included. We still face problems of implementation of the provisions of this amendment and it appears to be unknown or ignored by some state commissions, but fraternity leaders are actively at work on ways to make this legislation useful to us. Grand Council will continue to keep you informed as fully as possible on these vital matters.

Solutions for our many problems and success for our many hopes are dependent upon two things: womanpower and funds. More of our members must assume militant roles in the preservation and improvement of the fraternal system. To take such parts, the membership must be fully informed, officers must have adequate training, pledges must have the finest, inspired pledge education possible.

Womanpower. Numerically we have it and we have many who have given of themselves for years. But the hard truth is that too few actively take part, actively share and fully rejoice in the beauty and warmth and worth that is Gamma Phi Beta. Try to carry home with you the message of sharing, of taking part, of enjoying together the enrichment which comes from working together toward our goals.

Funds. With more sharing in the financial support of the Sorority, a less heavy load will be borne by existing trusts and funds. It would not be difficult to take the directory page in THE CRESCENT and, department by department, give sound examples of what could be accomplished with more revenue. These would not be frivolous things, but constructive and helpful improvements which would give us a firmer unity and emphasize the stature of the Sorority in the eyes of its detractors. Not only is additional revenue needed for progress, but it is imperative just to maintain all we have now and attempt to do. There is no household, no business, no organization which can function as it should in 1966 on a 1958 income.

Gamma Phi Beta's future is bright, her possibilities are limitless if together we act with wisdom, with unity of purpose and with love in our hearts.

At the opening session of Gamma Phi Beta's fifty-second international convention, Orra Spencer Reid gave her biennial report to the delegates. The above is a condensation of her address of the Grand President.

A Change Of Administration

On June 23, 1966, the Convention assembled unanimously elected Aleene Carter Thieme (Sigma) International Grand President of Gamma Phi Beta.

In the Dallas air terminal, en route home to California, Mrs. Thieme suffered a vitreous hemorrhage of her right eye and complete loss of vision in that eye. On arrival in Redlands, her ophthalmologist advised that it was imperative that she withdraw from all activities which would involve eye strain. By following his directive, she has been assured that eventually her vision will be restored. It was, therefore, impossible for Mrs. Thieme to assume the Presidency on August 1.

As provided in the bylaw procedure of Gamma Phi Beta, the Grand Council-elect has unanimously chosen Ardis McBroom Marek (Epsilon) as International Grand President to succeed Mrs. Thieme.

Mrs. Thieme attended Smith College for two years before transferring to the University of Kansas where she was graduated in 1927. Through the years she has served Gamma Phi Beta in many capacities: as province director of old Province VII N; as publications chairman under Grand Presidents Elizabeth Arnold, Beatrice Wittenberg and Orra Reid. She was elected Director of Expansion at the 1962 Convention and upon the resignation of Barbara Termohlen Cooper, she became Collegiate Vice President.

It was through her persistent efforts that many Gamma Phi Beta manuals have been revised. Some of the publications on which she has worked are the manuals for province alumnae directors, province collegiate directors, alumnae recommendations committees, alumnae advisory committees and the A-200 section of the President's Book. Last fall the new Guide for Pledges was published under her direction and this fall the new Membership Chairman's Manual will be available.

With gratitude for her many services and with deep regret, Gamma Phi Beta accepts the resignation of Aleene Carter Thieme.

Ardis McBroom Marek was graduated from Northwestern University in 1937 and has worked with Gamma Phi Beta consistently during her alumna years. She served as an assistant editor of THE CRESCENT for many years before she became editor-in-chief in 1948, a position she held with distinction until her retirement in 1964. During her term of office she worked with nine Grand Councils and developed THE CRESCENT through changes in format policies and procedures to keep pace with the changing times. She never wavered in her desire to produce a top-notch magazine which would hold a high place among fraternity publications. She served on the Editors' Conference of the National Panhellenic Conference and was in demand as a public speaker among both sorority and fraternity groups.

Since Mrs. Marek left her post as editor of THE CRESCENT, she has served as co-chairman of the Centennial committee where she and Ruth Bartels Fox have laid the first long-range plans for our 100th anniversary celebration in 1974.

There is probably no one more completely informed on sorority matters, no one more devotedly loyal to our aims and principles, and no one more closely in touch with the current campus scene.

It is with confidence and a great deal of pride that THE CRESCENT presents Ardis McBroom Marek, International Grand President.

A Message From Ardis McBroom Marek

With deep humility do I accept the position of Grand President of Gamma Phi Beta, profoundly grateful to my family who have willingly offered to share extra responsibility, and with a quiet inner desire to serve wisely and well, that the Sorority may prosper.

Fate, which brings me to the Presidency, and fortune must go hand-in-hand. At no time in the recent past have we been so adequately and completely staffed with excellent and experienced officers in every position, nor have had such a fine and efficient Central Office. Diverse opinions, so healthy for a growing organization, should be forthcoming from six Grand Council officers who represent six different collegiate chapters and a wide geographical spread. Careful and deliberate consideration of all views in an atmosphere of friendly discussion will surely guide us in making wise decisions for the days ahead, as we continue the steady growth pattern of this dynamic decade.

To the greatness of Gamma Phi Beta shall I dedicate myself and my abilities as your President.

ARDIS MCBROOM MAREK

Orra Spencer Reid, retiring Grand President, pins the full-diamond badge of office on Aleene Carter Thieme shortly after her election to Grand President on June 23.

CON

That Was The Week That Was

CONVENTION '66

The Arkansas sun shone brightly on Sunday afternoon, June 19 and the Hot Springs air terminal was teeming with happy young faces as delegates from 82 collegiate chapters of Gamma Phi Beta arrived for the fifty-second international convention. The airport bus and many taxis carried the girls and tons of brilliantly-colored luggage to the welcoming verandas of the Arlington Hotel. The hostess Province Director, Mary Kay Dorman Kabler (Kansas), convention chairman, and her committee were on hand to greet the arrivals. Gamma Gamma chapter's mode and brown satin banner fluttered from the mezzanine. The strains of Gamma Phi Beta songs recorded by Beta Upsilon filled the lobby. The air of true Southern hospitality was all around.

Collegiate delegates and visitors and alumnae members representing 208 alumnae chapters registered with the hotel in the main lobby and checked in with the Gamma Phi Beta registration desk on the mezzanine. Members of the registration-reservations committee, the regional chairman and the convention secretary and treasurer manned the desk until midnight, and with remarkable cheer (despite their weariness) handed out the handsome brocade convention kits and explained all the little details to the first-timers. They issued name tags, hats for Carnival and badges for Honors night.

Happiness is Being a Gamma Phi Beta

An informal banquet opened the festivities in the main dining room at six o'clock. Shocking pink Parisian umbrellas centered each table proclaiming to the world that "Happiness is being a Gamma Phi Beta." Menus repeated the color of the centerpiece and under one chair at each table was another shocking pink folder stating "Happiness is . . . winning the centerpiece." Hostesses were members of Phi, Alpha Delta, Columbia and St. Louis chapters, under the chairmanship of Kathryn Kraus Schwarting (Wisconsin and St. Louis). Nathalie Irwin Hise (Illinois) opened the program singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and Lynne Logan Clawson (Kansas) sang "The Canadian National Anthem." Kathy Schwarting, toastmistress, welcomed the 364 members present. Dorothy Stone Haren (Kansas) introduced her fellow province collegiate directors and Lela Smith Weirich (Oklahoma) presented the province alumnae directors. Mary Kay Dorman Kabler introduced the convention committee chairmen and Mary Ann Bulla (Oklahoma) led the singing of a new song written by members of Phi chapter "Happiness Is Being a Gamma Phi Beta." Each guest received a brown and brass memo pad engraved with the sorority's name.

After the dinner members adjourned to a lobby meeting room, where Elizabeth Wheeler Olsen (Michigan) housing chairman, showed slides of new Gamma Phi Beta chapter houses, lodges and suites.

Later collegiate and alumnae gathered on the pool patio for a rousing songfest. The old favorites were in popular demand and new songs were introduced.

At 9:00 collegiate and alumnae directors entertained their individual provinces at coke parties, where members renewed old friendships and met the new conventioners.

The Sound of the Gavel

At 8:45 on Monday morning Orra Spencer Reid (Michigan), International Grand President, led the assembled delegates and other members in formal opening exercises and the gavel sounded to open Gamma Phi Beta's fifty-second convention.

Eleanor J. Sieg (Iowa) Executive Secretary-Treasurer, called the roll of delegates and Mrs. Reid introduced the convention parliamentarian, Miss Clara Weigel of Denver. June Mathews Jubelt (Illinois), regional chairman, gave the address of welcome to the convention. After committee appointments were announced the international officers were formally introduced. Official pages for the day were collegiate non-delegate Gamma Phi Beta daughters.

Mrs. Reid presented "The Message of the Grand President" in which she reported on the accomplishments of the last biennium and outlined the plans for the future. "We have been given a great opportunity," she said, "and a solemn responsibility to preserve, enhance and pass on all that which has come to us, to pass it on with its significance undimmed, its success demonstrated by our example." (A longer report of Mrs. Reid's message appears on page 2.)

Following a coffee break on the mezzanine, the convention reassembled to hear the formal reports of international chairmen: Barbara Westover Sheldon (Washington) camp chairman; Janet Milligan Heaton (Denver), philanthropy board chairman; Dorothy Stark Kenney (Syracuse), magazine chairman and Mary Glendon Trussell (Northwestern), Director of Expansion. Mrs. Trussell paid special tribute to our "baby" chapters which had been chartered during the last two years. Engraved silver baby cups were presented to Gamma Nu (Lamar State College of Technology, Beaumont, Texas), Gamma Xi (University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee), Gamma Omicron (University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky), Gamma Pi (Mankato State College, Mankato, Minnesota) and Gamma Rho (Wisconsin State University, Oshkosh, Wisconsin).

After the morning business session members lunched in the hotel dining room, or had box lunches on the pool patio.

"What's Your Advice?"

The second business session at 2 o'clock opened with Elizabeth Fee Arnold (Colorado State), Past Grand President, introducing the National Interfraternity Council film "What's Your Advice?" This film, produced on the campus of Butler University in Indianapolis takes its audience on a tour of fraternity and sorority activities and points out the common aims and purposes of fraternal existence.

Formal reports from additional international chairmen followed: Cherie McElhinney Olsen (Iowa), Gamma Phi Beta Foundation; Ardis McBroom Marek (Northwestern) and Ruth Bartels Fox (Northwestern), centennial committee; and Mary Jane Hipp Mithos (Colorado College), Endowment-Crescent Board.

In presenting the sorority budget, Bette Heflin Egbert (Arizona), Director of Finance, used an original and graphic display to show the sorority's growth. A large hand-made wall hanging, six by nine feet, depicted "The Gamma Phi Beta Family Tree." Designed and hand sewn by Mrs. Egbert and her daughter, Helen (Arizona), the display is made on a background of sky blue felt appliquéd with monograms, pledge pins, lamps and scrolls. On the brown tree branches the pink carnations represent the Greek-letter chapters; the dark green leaves the alumnæ chapters; the light green leaves the projected growth in the number of alumnæ chapters; and the pledge pins superimposed on pink carnations indicate the Greek-letter chapters of the future. Mrs. Egbert used this dramatic device to explain the proposed budget increase necessitated by the continuing growth of both Greek-letter and alumnæ activities.

Angels in Gamma Phi Beta

Peanuts and olives were featured at the formal banquet on Monday evening, which honored our Founders and members of past Grand Councils. Four past Grand Presidents seated at the speaker's table were Elizabeth Fee Arnold, Elizabeth Wheeler Olsen, Beatrice Hill Wittenberg (Stanford) and Lois McBride Dehn (Washington). All those seated at the head table, the seven members of past Grand Councils, and the thirteen who had held international offices in the past received beautiful orchid corsages.

Kathryn Riley Hood (Oklahoma) was chairman of the hostesses from Psi, Beta Omicron, Norman and Oklahoma City chapters. The theme, "Angels in Gamma Phi Beta" was carried out with centerpieces of 16-inch papier-mâché angels in pastel robes carrying Gamma Phi Beta books. These were given as table prizes. The base of each statuette was encircled with blue angel hair, and a smaller angel nestled in the blue angel hair decorated each place.

Fay Davis Deupree (Oklahoma) was toastmistress for the evening and introduced Bonnie Allen (Psi) who toasted our Founders and Tresa Hall (Beta Omicron) who spoke on the dedication of our past officers. The Grand President introduced Dr. William Zerman, executive secretary of the Fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta, who outlined the many challenges facing fraternity members today. He commanded the undergraduate students for facing up to these problems and encouraged them to set the pace in standards, scholarship and service for the rest of their college campuses.

Following the banquet more than 400 Gamma Phi Betas and guests met Dr. Zerman and the members of Grand Council at a formal reception. The punch table was laid with a brown taffeta cloth, silver candelabra held brown tapers, and the centerpiece was a lovely crescent of pink carnations and brown foliage. Topeka alumnæ chapter was hostess for the reception, with Dorothy Smith Gabel (Kansas) as chairman.

On Tuesday morning Miss Weigel conducted the first course in parliamentary procedure using illustrated flash cards to emphasize her points. Kathie Spiss (Gamma Delta) gave the devotions, and the remainder of the morning was devoted to voting on proposed revisions of the constitution, by-laws and standing rules. Pages were collegiate non-delegates who are members of Mortar Board.

Rendezvous With Original Chapters

At noon Ruth Ann Olson Kana (North Dakota) and the Bartlesville alumnæ, entertained the convention delegates and guests at a luncheon entitled "Rendezvous with Original Chapters." Each table was centered with a gaily decorated rocket bearing pennants of each Greek letter chapter. Guests sat at tables with other members of their original chapter. Individual favors were rocket nose cones and again the centerpieces became table prizes. Throughout the luncheon impromptu entertainment was provided by different tables as they sang rousing choruses of their college songs. We all felt unable to compete with Psi, Beta Omicron and Beta Psi and their rendition of "Oklahoma!" . . . no one else had a school or state song written by Rodgers and Hammerstein!

In the afternoon a joint meeting of Greek-letter and alumnae round tables was held. Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, reviewed the new Panhellenic handbook, and pointed out the recent changes. It was particularly noted that the creed has been changed.

Edith Doughty Hindley (Stanford), National Panhellenic Conference alternate delegate, spoke on "The Challenge for College Panhellenics." She pointed out that the three most prevalent problems she encounters are: 1. community public relations; 2. lack of Panhellenic spirit and cooperation; and 3. indifferent choice of Panhellenic delegates by individual sororities.

Marjorie Speidell Lundin (Washington), international membership chairman, spoke briefly on membership policy.

A panel of Joan Christianson, Pi; Cleve Youngblood, Alpha Chi; and Ann Pollack, Alpha Lambda, explained the rushing methods used in their chapters.

While the joint meeting of collegiates and alumnae was being conducted in the convention hall, the Business Management Conference was underway. This conference (described in length on page 16) considered the problems pertinent to the work of house corporation boards. Directing the discussion were Bette Heflin Egbert, Director of Finance; Elizabeth Wheeler Olsen, housing chairman and Ruby McMurtry Foster (Vanderbilt) counselor to house corporations.

Later in the afternoon the round table group divided into two sections to discuss those questions of special interest to alumnae and collegiates.

Alumnae Round Tables

At the alumnae round table, under the direction of Virginia Forsythe Vint (Missouri), a group of experts presented a panel discussion entitled "A Successful Alumnae Chapter: a Composite Picture." The topics discussed were:

Betty Althouse, Organization: The importance of good officers, committee chairmen, working notebooks, bylaws, budgeting and well laid plans for the entire year.

Audrey Shafer, Membership: The transition from collegiate to alumnae membership, increasing paid memberships and maintaining chapter and alumnae files on members.

Connie Spanier, Programs: Suggested programs of interest to all age groups.

Ruth Dawson, Ritual: The effectiveness of employing the use of our rituals at regular meetings and on special occasions.

Beth Wheeler, Public Relations: Pointers on good public relations within Panhellenic and public circles, with tips on those stories which will be of interest to the news media.

Virginia Bear, Public Relations: The importance of good relations within our own membership through newsletters, telephone reminders and notes to members on special achievement.

Virginia Douglass, Philanthropies: The importance of participation in our national and local philanthropies, listing successful local philanthropic projects.

Dorothy Darling, Greek-letter-Alumnae Relations: The responsibility of each group to the other in building a line of communication and understanding between the two groups.

Lucy Forman, Womanpower: The need for active participation on as wide a scale as possible of all alumnae in an area, each contributing in her own measure through her own special talents.

Money-Go Round: Many representatives of alumnae chapters described tested fund-raising ideas. A new booklet is available from Central office listing the most successful ideas and is available for $1.00.

Mothers Clubs: A general discussion of how mothers clubs help Greek-letter chapters and how more interest can be engendered in this facet of Gamma Phi Beta.

Greek-Letter Round Tables

In the afternoon a panel presentation by Greek-letter delegates brought new ideas for rush week to the collegiates. International officers addressed the Greek-letter round tables on phases of activity of particular interest to the undergraduates. The following presentations were heard on Tuesday and Wednesday:

Standards: Eleanor Evenson Ericson (Minnesota), international standards chairman.

Scholarship: Helen Berg Kline (Oklahoma), international scholarship chairman.

Preparation for Initiation: Sally Gray Cass (Iowa), international ritual chairman, and Mary Lou Jordan Smith (Arizona), assistant to the collegiate vice president.

Philanthropy: Barbara Westover Sheldon, (Washington) international camp chairman.

Public Relations: Beth McCallon Wheeler (Southern Methodist), international public relations chairman.

Citizenship: Barbara Burns Hiscock (Washington), Collegiate Vice President.

After each presentation a lively, informative and probing interchange of ideas between alumnae and collegiates ensued.

The Spirit of Genius

On Tuesday evening the Arlington dining room was festive with papier maché replicas of the tenth daughter of Zeus and Mnenosyne who embodies the "Spirit of Genius" to personify the intellect of Gamma Phi Beta. White and gold pens, wrapped as dipolmas were the favors, and a large gold muse holding fresh pink carnations was spot-lighted in front of the speaker's table. International committee chairmen were honored at the head table, while members of the Honor and Service Rolls were seated at other tables of honor.

Joyce Vallandigham Kennalley (Wichita) was general chairman of the banquet, assisted by Diane Wolff, Beta Upsilon; Pamela Drake, Beta Chi; Judith Bartlett Clark, (Kansas), Dorothy Berry Hunter (Kansas State) and Kathleen House Thomas (Wichita). Mary Jane McAdow, president of Beta Upsilon, acted as toastmistress and presented those national officers who made special awards to outstanding members of Gamma Phi Beta.

Awards presented were:

Efficiency Awards: Tau (Colorado State) and Beta Phi (Indiana), presented by Bette Heflin Egbert, Director of Finance.

Chapter scrapbook and newsletter: Greek-letter scrapbooks: Gamma Gamma (Wisconsin-Milwaukee), Beta Gamma (Bowling Green), Gamma Eta (California at Long Beach). Phi (Washington-St. Louis) received honorable mention.

Alumnae scrapbooks: Kansas City, Missouri and Beaumont, Texas.

Convention '66

Newsletters: Epsilon (Northwestern), Toledo alumnae chapter, Tucson alumnae chapter.

Public Relations: Nashville alumnae chapter, Gamma Alpha (Memphis State).

These presentations were made by Beth McCallon Wheeler, public relations chairman.

Magazine Subscription Sales:

Greatest volume of sales: Greek-letter—Beta Theta (San Jose State), Psi (Oklahoma). Alumnae—St. Louis, Missouri and Dallas, Texas. Largest increase in sales: Greek-letter—Beta Theta (San Jose State) and Beta Kappa (Arizona State). Alumnae—Dallas, Texas and Kansas City, Missouri.

Largest per capita sales: Greek-letter—Beta Theta (San Jose State) and Beta Alpha (Southern California). Alumnae—Everett, Washington and Muskogee, Oklahoma. These awards were made by Dorothy Stark Kenney, magazine chairman.

And Still More Awards

Alumnae Chapter awards: Largest paid membership, Seattle. Greatest percentage increase in membership, Beaumont. Largest increase in province membership, Province I first, Province VIII second. Awards were presented by Virginia Forsythe Vint, Alumnae Vice President.

McCormick Medallion awards for outstanding individual and chapter service: Psi (Oklahoma) and Gamma Zeta (East Texas State). Presented by Barbara Burns Hiscock, Collegiate Vice President.

Lindsey Barbee Fellowship: Donna Eichelman, Pi (Nebraska).

Foundation Awards: Nu (Oregon) and Gamma Kappa (Kearney State). Presented by Janet Milligan Heaton, president of the Philanthropy Board.

Scholarship Awards, presented by Helen Berg Kline, scholarship chairman: Chancellor E. O. Haven awards (presented for top scholastic rating for four semesters)—Omicron (Illinois), Theta (Denver), and Alpha Kappa (Manitoba). Beta Omicron (Oklahoma City) was presented with a special Haven Award, having been a three-time winner. It is interesting to note that these groups had all won previous Haven Awards—Omicron in 1962, Theta in 1964, and Alpha Kappa in 1960.

Runners-up for the Haven awards missed the larger award by only one semester for one quarter. Beta Sigma (Washington State) received a special trophy, having won the Haven Award in 1962 and 1964 and missing by only one semester this biennium. Other runners-up awards went to Beta Gamma (Bowling Green), Gamma Gamma (Wisconsin-Milwaukee), Gamma Zeta (East Texas State), Beta Upsilon (Kansas State), Lambda (Washington), and Beta Omega (Northern Arizona).

Panhellenic award: A new award presented for the first time by Beatrice Hill Wittenberg, National Panhellenic Delegate, for outstanding contribution to Panhellenism to Gamma Delta (Wyoming).

Philanthropy award: Presented for the first time by Janet Milligan Heaton to the chapter with the most outstanding service record was awarded to Alpha Theta (Vanderbilt).

First time awards: Presented by Orra Spencer Reid, Grand President, to those chapters having, in the last biennium, initiated 100 per cent of their pledge classes. Engraved silver trays were presented to Pi (Nebraska), Sigma (Kansas), Beta Alpha (Southern California), Beta Sigma (Washington State), and Beta Upsilon (Kansas State).

Helen Berg Kline called attention to the fact that 23 of Gamma Phi Beta's 82 chapters ranked first in scholarship of their campuses.

After the presentation of the awards campus honoraries were called from the podium and members in attendance stood. Each wore a badge replica of her honorary society or campus office. The 29 members of Mortar Board and the 13 members of Phi Beta Kappa present received a well-deserved round of applause. Toastmistress McAdow closed the banquet with an inspirational selection titled "Just for Today."

Monogrammed Blouses and Play Day

Blouses ordered from Central Office were worn by all Gamma Phi Betas at The Arlington to the Wednesday meetings. Following the close of the Wednesday morning round tables collegiates enjoyed an interval of play—a three-hour break before the reconvening of the general session at 3:15 in the afternoon. Three bus loads of Greek-letter girls journeyed to the scenic Majestic Lodge on nearby Lake Hamilton for a rustic barbeque, pontoon boat rides and a general session of relaxing and getting acquainted. As they returned to the hotel Little Rock alumnae in charge of Play Day presented them with Gamma Phi Beta tote bags. Alumnae members and guests, meanwhile, enjoyed a delightful al fresco buffet at poolside. Everyone returned refreshed for the afternoon reports from the resolutions and revisions committees. Helen Berg Kline, tour leader for the European tours, gave a report on last year's tour and announced that in 1967 Gamma Phi Beta tour would extend around the world. Following her report she flew to New York, to meet the Gamma Phi Betas accompanying her to Europe this summer.

"Carnival" and Conventioneers

On Wednesday evening Beta Psi, Stillwater and Tulsa alumnae under the chairmanship of Gladys Hughes Heath (Oklahoma State) entertained the convention at an informal dinner, titled "Carnival." The dining hall was gaily decorated with hand made harlequin masks, clowns and the gay colors of the carnival theme. Favors were vials of perfume. Each member of Grand Council had her own tree of masks, decorated with symbols of office. Betty Krebs Payne (Oklahoma) was toastmistress and introduced the guest speaker, Elmer Wheeler of Dallas. Mr. Wheeler, noted author, lecturer and public relations consultant entertained his audience with his famous talk on how to sell yourself. His five points for putting your best foot forward were: 1. Don't sell the steak, sell the sizzle; 2. Don't write, telegraph; 3. Say it with flowers; 4. Don't ask "if," ask "which"; and 5. Watch your bark.

Following Mr. Wheeler's talk the Psi chorus under the direction of Mary Ann Bulla, sang the winning numbers in the original song contest. Fifty-two songs were submitted from 22 chapters. The winners were:

Light: First place, Gamma with "Surely the Time"; second place, Psi with "It's the Members".

Serious: First place, Psi with "Where Are You Going?"; second place, Beta Eta with "The Light of Love".

Most Original: Alpha Epsilon with "My Dear, Dear Gamma Phi".

The speaker's table honored international officers and representatives of the Endowment-Crescent Board, the Philanthropy Board and the Foundation. At the lower level table of honor were seated all the members of Gamma Phi Beta who had attended six or more conventions. Gaily-chapeauxed in white felt hats trimmed with one pink carnation for each convention attended, these Confirmed Crescent Conventioneers paraded among the tables. Convention Chairman Mary Kay Dorman Kabler presented the Confirmed Crescent Conventioneer award to Ruth Bartels Fox (Northwestern) who was attending her 17th convention. Lois McBride Dehn (Washington) won the second place award with 14 meetings attended.

Wednesday closed with the model pledge and initiation service given by Beta Psi, under the direction of Sally Gray Cass, ritual chairman, assisted by Frances Atwater Lindloff (Oklahoma) ritual music chairman. Joy Cranford Tanner (Arizona State) was a soloist for the program.

Surprise for Mary Trussell

A surprise party for Mary Glendon Trussell, Director of Expansion, was given by the five baby chapters. Cake and cokes were served and Mary was presented a gold charm bracelet in appreciation for her helping the five new groups become chapters in Gamma Phi Beta.

After the parliamentary procedure class on Thursday morning Gamma Phi Beta collegiates and alumnae gathered to honor their deceased members at a memorial service. The program, presented by Psi chapter, was read by Sally Gray Cass. A chorus of twenty members was directed by Frances Atwater Lindloff.

Following the Memorial Service, Betty Jean Arbon (Beta Lambda) gave the devotional that opened the fifth and last general session. Evelyn Gooding Dippell (Illinois), chairman of the Honor and Service Roll committee announced the new addition to our Honor Roll. This award is made to a member who has created and developed a service for Gamma Phi Beta that has contributed notably over a period of years toward the fulfillment of the aims of the organization.

Frances Lindloff Honored

In bestowing the award on Frances Atwater Lindloff, Mrs. Dippell said: "To Frances Atwater Lindloff of Psi chapter, University of Oklahoma, for keeping Gamma Phi Beta music alive and memorable through her careful and original editing of the Song Books of 1952 and 1964, and in which she was responsible for innumerable arrangements of our songs and also for her composition of the descant for the Hymn used in the Memorial Service.

The suggested revisions to the bylaws were read to the assembly. Background information and current developments relating to membership selection policies were given by the National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, Beatrice Hill Wittenberg. She traced the demands for the filing of private papers which began in 1946, to the present time when deadlines have been set for granting local autonomy for some of our Greek-letter chapters. She presented some possible solutions for the handling of current demands.

A New Grand Council

After the final report of the resolutions committee, the slate of officers was presented to the convention assembled by Gladys Hecker Myles (Washington-St. Louis), nominating committee chairman. There being no nominations from the floor the following members were unanimously elected to the Grand Council of Gamma Phi Beta for the biennium 1966 to 1968:

Aleene Carter Theime (Kansas), International Grand President; Virginia Forsythe Vint (Missouri), Alumnae Vice President; Barbara Burns Hisock (Washington), Collegiate Vice President; Bette Heflin Egbert (Arizona), Director of Finance; Elna Erickson Simons (Birmingham-Southern), Director of Expansion; Beatrice Hill Wittenberg (Stanford), National Panhellenic Conference Delegate.

At the unprecedented hour of 11:30 Thursday morning, the gavel fell and the fifty-second international convention of Gamma Phi Beta was adjourned. D D D

The Pink Carnation Banquet

The soft glow of hurricaned candlelight flickering above tall graceful balustrade candleholders . . . sparkling white linen table covers . . . an immense colored replica of the Gamma Phi Beta coat-of-arms high above the speaker's table . . . miniature lights twinkling among trellises of greenery . . . and everywhere, everywhere pink carnations!

The Crystal ballroom of the Arlington Hotel had been transformed into a veritable Gamma Phi Beta wonderland for the climax of convention, "The Pink Carnation Banquet."

Sixty round tables seated the 379 formally-gowned collegiates and alumnae. More than 1000 fresh pink carnations flown in from California set the tone for the traditional evening. Marguerite Ater Cooper (Texas), convention social chairman, made 81 crescent-shaped corsages, one for each international officer in attendance. Barbara Barott Lentz (Nevada), chairman of the banquet hostesses, and her committee made wrist corsages of pink carnations, net and ribbon on silver elastic bands for each collegiate and alumna at the banquet. More pink carnations entwined amidst huckleberry leaves encircled the base of the antique white candleholders on each table, and three large arrangements of carnations in silver pedestaled vases graced the speaker's table.

All Gamma Phi Betas found pink carnation sachets in their mail boxes on Thursday morning inviting them to the banquet. Members of Sigma chapter passed favors from an antique wicker hood basket decorated with our flower. Favors were sterling silver key chains with the coat-of-arms on silver discs.

Dignified pink programs, decorated with the coat-of-arms engraved in silver marked each individual place. Place cards at the speaker's table and those places reserved for national officers bore hand-painted pink carnations. Silver match boxes were decorated with seals bearing the coat-of-arms.

All decorations and arrangements for the evening were made by the hostesses Sigma, Lawrence, Kansas City, Kansas and Kansas City, Missouri. Barbara Lentz chaired the committee staffed by Sigma members attending the Convention, and two Sigma alumnae, Anna Marie Sellers Brenneisen of Kansas City, Kansas and Eugena Donahue Russell of Lawrence. It was not coincidence that the featured item on the menu that night was broiled Kansas City sirloin steak!

After the last bite of individual pink baked Alaska, Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri), toastmistress, greeted the guests in a formal speech of welcome. She introduced Mary Kay Dorman Kabler who presented gifts to members of Grand Council. These gifts were wrapped in silver and pink, and tied with hand made pink ribbon carnations. The hand-engraved eleven-inch silver Revere bowls expressed the appreciation of the sorority for the many hours of service donated by these seven outstanding members.

The toastmistress introduced the six former Grand Presidents to the group and Clarice Braker Morrison (Oklahoma City) sang "In the Heart of a Pink Carnation" accompanied by Mary Ann Bulla.

The theme of the program was the coat-of-arms of Gamma Phi Beta and each facet of our emblem was interpreted by a selected member. Nancy Johansen (Gamma Pi) spoke on "The Pink Carnation"; Judy Davis Warner (Minnesota) spoke on "The Crescent" and Elizabeth Fee Arnold (Colorado State) told about "The Book."

Audrey Shafer introduced Grand President Reid, who in turn presented the Grand Council-elect. She pinned the new Grand President's pin on Aleene Carter Theime and explained that the old badge of office of Grand President was being retired. The pin which has been used belonged to Helen M. Dodge Ferguson, and will now be on display in Central office. The new president's pin features the white crescent, worn by all Grand Council officers, and is set, full-jeweled, with diamonds.

Personal Grand Council badges were presented to two retiring officers, Mary Glendon Trussell and Orra Spencer Reid. Jackie Reid Allee, daughter of Mrs. Reid, presented her mother with a vacation in a cabin in the North Woods. Members of Beta chapter at Michigan presented an arrangement of pink carnations to Elna Simons for the help she has given them at Ann Arbor. A member of Sigma chapter presented a balustrade candlestick to Mary Kay Kabler.

At the conclusion of the program and impromptu presentations, 379 Gamma Phi Betas joined hands for the formal closing ceremony. The podium was crowded with members extending congratulations to the new officers, and collegiates seeking autographs for their programs.

In the alcove adjoining the banquet hall, collegiate members waited for Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Theime to leave the hall. When the two presidents emerged arm-in-arm, all members turned to Mrs. Theime and serenaded her with "Gamma Phi Girl." After the applause and a few words of acknowledgement from the Grand President-elect, the girls turned to face the retiring Grand President and sang "Remember Gamma Phi Beta."

As the two presidents disappeared into the elevator, the remaining members sighed with remembrance. The highlight of the fifty-second Gamma Phi Beta convention was over. D D D

Elizabeth Wheeler Olsen, housing chairman, tells the Business Management Conference about new building projects.

Missing Links Become Connecting Links

by Ruby McMurtry Foster, Alpha Theta
Counselor to House Corporation Boards

The first Business Management Conference of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, initiated at the 1962 Convention, proved so beneficial that it has since become a regular feature of each convention program. Approximately 40 alumnae and 3 Greek-letter representatives attended the third such conference held at the 1966 International Convention in Hot Springs.

Startled to hear themselves referred to as "Missing Links," the conferees were relieved to learn that the local house corporation's existence has proved to be so necessary to improved relationships between alumnae and Greek-letter chapters that the "missing links" are now considered to be "connecting links" when house boards fulfill their complete responsibilities.

Despite their prime responsibility being restricted to owning and maintaining physical properties of the local house corporation, house board directors were challenged to new areas of service when Bette Heflin Egbert, Director of Finance, discussed increased efficiency in house management; use of up-to-date business procedures and modern bookkeeping methods; continued promotion of scholastic excellence through adequate provision of study facilities; fostering gracious living within the sorority houses by enforced house rules; training collegiates in correct corporate procedures; planning a sound, financial framework with long-range needs included; setting up of financial reserves to provide modern housing through realistic budgeting and sound advisory guidance of chapter finances.

Ruby McMurtry Foster, counselor to house corporation boards, pointed out variances in local house corporation bylaws with the international bylaws and gave detailed instructions on amending articles of incorporation and local bylaws when required. Emphasizing repeatedly that "A Greek-letter chapter's future success is dependent on the legal and financial structure of its house corporation" or "Competition with our Panhellenic friends, demands of university administrations for more and better housing, increased cost of living index, each or all, prohibit any effort but the best on the part of the local corporation officers. The importance of periodic studies and reevaluations of articles of incorporation and bylaws would result in officer duties being more clearly defined, more easily understood by alumnae and collegiate members of the house board. Legal mechanics for preparation of long range financial needs will create reserves for sudden emergencies and thus relieve the strain on international funds which are in such demand for the expansion program.

Increased collegiate activities and housing needs necessitate progressive actions to maintain an open line of communication between all groups of Gamma Phi Beta. The house corporation occupies the unique position of providing a meeting for both alumnae and the Greek-letter chapter, where the expressions of new ideas from the energetic and idealistic collegiates are generally merged with the practical, experienced maturity in modified action. To be a successful "connecting link" requires understanding from both points of view, faithfulness to an accepted responsibility; and a satisfactory rapport with the college administrators in order to be prepared for future needs.

Elizabeth Wheeler Olsen, chairman of housing, emphasized the necessity of following the correct procedures for that sudden moment of panic when informed by the Dean that sororities will be expected to provide chapter housing within two years. Her report on the various chapters having completed new houses was highlighted with slides. Those representatives with unfinished building projects or who are involved in a future building project exchanged ideas and experiences to the advantage of all concerned.

Improvement must be made in creating interest among local alumnae in their great value to the local Greek-letter chapter of volunteer alumnae to express willingness to serve within the corporate area. The great strength of Gamma Phi Beta has been due to the fact that someone will always come forward to fill that vacant spot when the true need is clearly defined and presented. "Connecting Links" must be continually added to the great chain being formed each day. D D D

Honor Roll

The Four Founders—

Helen M. Dodge Ferguson

E. Adeline Curtis Curtis

Frances E. Haven Moss

Mary A. Bingham Willoughby

- Blanche Shove Palmer, Alpha, for establishing our Endowment Fund.
- Lindsey Barbee, Theta, for developing a magazine of which we may be justly proud.
- Lillian Thompson, Beta, for helping to organize National Panhellenic and for maintaining over a long period of years Gamma Phi Beta's high position in that organization.

The 52nd International Convention of Gamma Phi Beta approved the last addition to the Honor Roll.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winchester

The Kathryn Herbert Winchester Award

Loyalty happens because Gamma Phi Betas cherish the values they receive from membership and work to assure future generations the same opportunities. Such loyalty is displayed in the selfless giving of time, talent and financial support to the growth of Gamma Phi Beta and the enrichment of its values.

Announcement of the Kathryn Herbert Winchester Award at the fifty-second Convention brought a standing ovation for Mr. Jack Winchester and his beloved wife, Kathryn, in whose honor the $10,000 Fund was presented to the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

As the Foundation grows through such generous gifts as this, the educational horizons of Gamma Phi Betas are widened and the Sorority is enabled to advance a higher spiritual, mental and social culture, which is its prime object.

For those who would join in sharing and strengthening Gamma Phi Beta for its tasks ahead, the Foundation is established to receive tax deductible gifts. The many methods of contributing to Gamma Phi Beta are described in the brochure sent to you in June. You may wish further information and are invited to write to the president of the Foundation Mrs. Eugene Olsen, 19 Maumee Drive, Adrian, Michigan 49221.

Kathryn Herbert Winchester

Kathryn Herbert Winchester was born in 1893 in Denver, Colorado, where she was educated privately through high school.

When she entered the University of Denver in 1911, she was pledged to Theta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta. Illness forced her to remain out of school during the year 1912-13, but she returned to be elected president of Theta chapter in 1915.

Early in the fall of 1915 she was requested to conduct the initiation service of newly-installed Tau chapter at Colorado State University . . . before she had ever conducted the service for her own chapter. No member of Grand Council could be on hand, so, after a sleepless night, she initiated the charter members of Tau.

In 1920 the Winchesters moved to New York City where she worked for Edison Electric Institute for 23 years and edited their Rote Book. During this period she served as treasurer of the New York City alumnae chapter for 23 years.

In 1951, Mr. and Mrs. Winchester moved to Phoenix, Arizona, where they still reside. She has always been an active member of the alumnae chapter and has served for the past two years as ticket chairman for the Christmas project of Gamma Phi Beta.

Happiness is Helping

Portland Landmarks Preserved For Posterity

Mrs. Albert H. Powers, Portland's "Woman of Accomplishment."

For the vital role she has played in the restoration and preservation of Oregon historical sites, Mrs. Albert H. Powers (Stanford '25) has been acclaimed Portland's "Woman of Accomplishment." A panel of five anonymous civic leaders considered more than 200 nominations before selecting those women who have contributed most substantially to community and human betterment.

Ruth McBride Powers was graduated from Stanford University where she was a member of Mu chapter of Gamma Phi Beta. She took some post graduate courses in law and moved to the Northwest with her husband in 1926. It was only then that she became seriously interested in the turbulent past of the picturesque old Oregon Territory.

As aware as she was of pioneer history in her early days in Coos County, her first 15 years in Oregon were devoted to her family and club work. She served on the national board of the General Federation of Women's clubs for 12 years as well as the board of the Oregon Federation. She helped to organize 20 junior women's clubs in Oregon and later served as national vice chairman of Junior Women's clubs.

Mrs. Powers helped to organize a youth committee, a volunteer group and forerunner of the Job Corps. She is a past president of Coos Bay Branch of the AAUW and past secretary of the Oregon association.

All this, however, was just a stepping stone to the path Mrs. Powers was to take in preserving the past. For the next 15 years she delved into Oregon history, in many instances taking an active part in salvaging remnants of a bygone era for the generations ahead. She has devoted a great deal of time and money to the restoration of historical old houses in Oregon.

She currently owns and is in the process of restoring two old homes in Oregon City. One, the General McCarver house, was brought prefabricated from the East by ship around the Horn in 1850.

When Mrs. Powers was regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, she presented the group with a house, school and jail, historic landmarks in Champoeg. The buildings were restored by the DAR with Mrs. Powers' help and are maintained as museums open to the public.

Always interested in the Oregon Historical Society, she now serves that group as membership secretary. Last year the Portland Women's Forum named her Woman of the Year and Governor Mark O. Hatfield appointed her associate director of Oregon Landmarks. Under her leadership the Landmarks group has published a series of booklets depicting the history of the state.

Mrs. Powers is vice chairman and membership chairman of McLoughlin House Memorial association and Mission Mill Commission in Salem. She is co-founder of the Powers Public Library in Powers and one of the original members of the Technical Institute Advisory Council. She has been active in legislative issues, a worker in the Republican party and a member of the Women's Legislative Council in Lake Oswego.

It is said of Mrs. Powers that "... she understands the philosophy of preservation—the saving of buildings and historical sites for use, not for private pleasure, but rather in terms of public good."

All of Gamma Phi Beta salutes this talented, energetic woman of many accomplishments.

Gamma Rho chapter of Gamma Phi Beta

Presenting

Mrs. Steinhaus, Panhellenic advisor, was an honored guest. With her are Mrs. Swenson, housemother; Mrs. Toland and Mrs. Warner.

Wisconsin

On May 14, forty-seven pledges and three special initiates of the Gamma Rho colony at Wisconsin State University—Oshkosh officially became the eighty-second Greek letter chapter of Gamma Phi Beta. The ceremony took place at the Presbyterian Church of Oshkosh under the direction of Mrs. John C. Trussell, director of expansion, and the installation team, Gamma, from the University of Wisconsin.

At the Installation Banquet on Saturday evening, Mrs. Graeme Reid, International Grand President, presented the charter for the new group to chapter president, Jane Jacobson. The Gamma Rho chapter of Gamma Phi Beta is the fifth NPC chapter on the Oshkosh campus. It originally was a local sorority founded in 1921 for the purpose of promoting dramatic interests on the campus. Until last year there were no NPC groups on the campus, however great gains have been made in this direction during the past year and now all the groups belong to NPC.

Wisconsin State University—Oshkosh has a long and distinguished academic history having served the needs of higher education in Wisconsin for nearly a century. The State Normal School enrolling its first students in 1871 became a State Teachers College in 1925. Upon the approval of curricula in the liberal arts in 1949, the school became Wisconsin State College—Oshkosh. A period of rapid growth in enrollment and programs followed in the late 1950s and early 1960s.

Recognizing the growth of the institution and the inauguration of several graduate programs, the college was designated as Wisconsin State University—Oshkosh in July, 1964. Enrollment at the University at the present time is approximately 10,000 students.

State University—Oshkosh

Besides Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Trussell, those on hand for the weekend events included Miss Eleanor Sieg, executive secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ellend Palmer, alumnae director of Province VI; Mrs. H. David Warner, collegiate director of Province VI; Mrs. Allan Williamson, president of the Fox Valley alumnae association, and alumnae from the Milwaukee, Madison and Fox Valley alumnae associations.

At the close of the banquet, Mrs. Trussell presented to the chapter a large silver tray, a gift from the Grand Council. The chapter also was presented with a gift from Mrs. McGuire, president of the Milwaukee alumnae association.

Miss Margaret Mills, traveling secretary, was presented with an engraved charm, a gift from the Gamma Rho chapter in appreciation for the direction and guidance given to the chapter during the pledge period.

Awards made during the banquet included: Bonnie McLaren, best pledge; Pam Davies, freshman with the highest grade point average; and Sue Jorgenson, senior with the highest overall grade point average.

On Sunday morning the members of the Grand Council and the members of the new chapter attended church services in a group at the Presbyterian Church where their ceremony took place on Saturday.

Climaxing the weekend activities, a reception was held at the Reeve Memorial Student Union. Receiving guests were: Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Palmer, Miss Sieg, Mrs. Trussell, Mrs. Elizabeth Toland, advisor of the Gamma Rho chapter, who was also a special initiate, Mrs. Harry Swenson, house-mother of the girls, and Jane Jacobson, chapter president.

Joliet, Illinois

The Joliet alumnae chapter of Gamma Phi Beta was installed on April 19 with Anne Broshar of La Grange presiding. Charter members of the group are, from the left standing: Ann Robson Wright (Northwestern), Edna Luke Shreffler (Northwestern), Marjorie Lasker Carey (Northwestern), Margaret Vaniman Bauer (Illinois), Carol Lynn Hermann (Bradley), Jeanne Louise Henry (Bradley), Jeanne Gamauf Laue (Bradley), Judy Watson Geisen (Bradley) and Adrienne Stainfield Barrett (Northwestern). Seated are Helen Whiting Meyer (Michigan), Finch Juhre Hoffer (Lake Forest) and Beverly Kallman Geissler (Northwestern).

New Chapter House Dedicated In Colorado Springs

Alpha Phi chapter of Gamma Phi Beta at Colorado College in Colorado Springs, chartered in October 1932, now boasts the newest of the sorority houses on campus.

Sheltered by tall trees and protected from the street by a high wall, the black-shuttered white brick traditional building adheres to the mood of the English traditional campus. The new house replaces a center which was built in 1934 and which was used until 1962 when it was razed to make room for a campus sport complex.

Completed in May, 1965 and dedicated last fall, Alpha Phi's new home was designed by Wayne P. Cooper, Colorado Springs architect and husband of Gamma Phi Beta Ellie Cooper. The outstanding feature of the new building is the spacious reception room with its Georgian fireplace and French doors opening onto a terrace and sunken garden facing the base of Pike's Peak.

On the first floor is the reception room, housemother's apartment, a formal dining room, kitchen, study, powder room and a formal staircase leading to a lower level. The staircase is accented by a chandelier of green and turquoise.

The lower floor of the two-level building houses a cheery paneled chapter-recreation room with a natural brick fireplace, a kitchenette, the chapter president's office, powder room and storage space.

The collegiate and alumnae chapters worked closely with the house corporation board members to make the new house possible. Members of the house board are Mrs. Harry W. McWilliams (Colorado College), Mrs. T. Matson Collier (Colorado College), Mrs. Morris Miller (Bowling Green), Mrs. Wayne Cooper (North Dakota State), Mrs. Jerry A. Smith (Colorado), Mrs. Norbert Socha (Colorado College) and Mrs. James D. Phillips (Colorado State).

A Giant Step Forward

With the establishment of our new Central Office and its streamlined facilities, we can now offer a new service to our alumnae.

Beginning in October, each alumna will receive a statement for $5.00 to cover international taxes.

Those members affiliated with alumnae chapters may continue to pay taxes through their local chapters. Those in outlying areas, may send checks directly to Central Office, Box 186, Kenilworth, Illinois 60043.

Grand Council Appointments

First Ladies of the Provinces

CAROL BURKHOLDER DRONBERGER, newly appointed PCD in Province III, began her Gamma Phi Beta career at Vanderbilt University where she was initiated into Alpha Theta and later transferred to Ohio State University and Beta Xi. Shortly after college days Carol was affiliated with the Southern Nevada alumnae chapter when it was first organized. Since returning to Columbus in 1957, she has served as president of the Beta Xi house corporation board, and as president, treasurer and vice president of the alumnae chapter.

Husband Hal (who has passed for Jack Lemmon) was graduated from the University of Colorado and is the design engineer for Westinghouse dishwashers. The Dronbergers have two children: Hal III, an athletic son of ten and Susan, a petite daughter of three. Besides her work for Gamma Phi Beta and the Lutheran church, Carol finds time to bowl twice a week and to play bridge as often as possible—once a month with an all-Gamma Phi Beta group.

PEGGY LARSON STROMER, Pi, is a licensed pilot, an instructor in Slimnastics, the wife of a state senator and the new PCD in Province XI. Peggy was graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1956 with a B.S. degree in physical education. While an undergraduate she served Gamma Phi Beta as a song leader, house manager and president. Since college days she has worked with the Lincoln alumnae chapter where she was president for two years. Husband Marvin holds a Ph.D. degree in political science and has served Nebraska as a state senator since 1961. Dr. Stromer is a professor at both Nebraska Wesleyan and Omaha Universities. The Stromers have two adopted children: Gretchen Elizabeth, 2, and Eric Adam, four months. Peggy has taught high school physical education classes for more than six years and has been a Red Cross swimming instructor for four summers, and has an adult class in "Slimnastics." Other activities include work with the St. Paul Methodist church, the Lincoln Community Playhouse and the pursuit of her favorite hobby—flying. She received her private pilot license in 1965.

PATSY HAYDEN BOWERS, new PCD in Province VII, is a native of Amarillo, Texas, and a charter member of Beta Tau at Texas Technological College. She brings to her new position a vast amount of experience in Gamma Phi Beta and Panhellenic work. She has served as president, treasurer and membership chairman of the Amarillo City Panhellenic association and state president of the Texas Association of City Panhellenics. She is currently serving as assistant alumnae vice president of Gamma Phi Beta and Panhellenic delegate in Amarillo. In April she conducted a workshop at the state convention of the Texas Association of City Panhellenics. Although a great portion of Patsy's time is devoted to sorority work, she still finds the hours to serve on the board of directors of the Amarillo Symphony Guild, as treasurer of the Garden club and organist for her church.

MARIAN BALL LIPPINCOTT, PAD in Province I, brings to her office a continental knowledge of Gamma Phi Beta. A graduate of Ohio State University where she was a member of Beta Xi, Meb soon found herself engaged in alumnae work in many areas of our country. She helped organize the Black Hills alumnae chapter in Rapid City, South Dakota, where she served in many offices including that of state membership chairman for a brief period before her husband was transferred to Texas.

Again finding herself in new Gamma Phi Beta territory, she helped organize the Wichita Falls alumnae chapter and worked as director of colonization for Gamma Iota chapter at Midwestern University. Married to an aircraft commander (husband John flies B-52s), their activities have been many through the years. Wherever they have lived, they have taught Sunday school classes and she has been active in the Squadron Wives, AAUW, Gray Ladies and Campfire Work. The Lippincotts, who make their home at Pease Air Force Base, New Hampshire, have two adopted daughters, both Sioux Indians: Lyn, 14 and Janey, 8. Of her new appointment Meb says, "I have loved all the many experiences and close friendships that Gamma Phi Beta have given. In fact, I feel a bit selfish accepting these jobs because they are so much fun. 'Give the world the best you have and the best will come back to you' has certainly been true of all my work with Gamma Phi Beta."

The New Traveling Secretaries

GWENDOLYN TOLMIE, Xi, has served Gamma Phi Beta and the University of Idaho in many ways. At various times she has held sorority offices of magazine chairman, rush chairman, pledge trainer and president and she attended the last national Convention in French Lick, Indiana, and the Province XII conference in Vancouver. On campus she has chaired the Homecoming committee, the Idaho Hospitality committee and the Election board. As a member of the Idaho Speakers Bureau, Gwen has traveled over the state speaking to high school seniors about her University. She was honored by Mortar Board last year as one of Idaho's outstanding junior women. Not only a campus leader, Gwen also was recognized as a campus beauty when she was named Navy Color Girl; Dutchess of Intercollegiate Knights and First Princess in the Homecoming Court. Gwen was graduated with a degree in education last June, and after her term as traveling secretary, she plans to resume her education and receive her masters degree in guidance and counseling.

JEAN CLINE, Xi, received her degree in elementary education from the University of Idaho last June. During her four-year career in college, her campus honors have been numerous. She served as president of Mortar Board her senior year and holds two coveted Idaho titles: "Outstanding Senior" and "Outstanding Greek Woman of the Year." She has held offices in AWS, Panhellenic Council, and chaired committees for Homecoming, Junior-Senior Prom, Loyalty Day and Parent's Day. She was elected to Spurs and chosen to be a Pom-pom girl (cheerleader), Vandalette (marching group) and Helldivers (swimming honorary). She led Xi chapter as rush chairman, vice president and was named Pledge of the year in 1963.

SAMMY ZWANZIG, Beta Theta, is one traveling secretary to whom traveling is old hat. Beginning her college career at the University of Colorado in the fall of 1961, she spent the following year studying at the University of Maryland in Munich, Germany, and the Alliance Française in Paris, France. During vacation periods she traveled in Spain, Gibraltar, Switzerland, Austria and Italy. She spent the summer of 1963 in England with her family and traveled for a month in Wales and Scotland. In the fall of 1963 she transferred to San Jose State College where she pledged Beta Theta and was named a Princess for International Week. During her three years at San Jose she has served Gamma Phi Beta as historian, recording secretary and president. Sammy was graduated in January 1966 with a B.A. in psychology and has since been doing graduate work in elementary education.

Are You Gamma Phi Enough?

One evening I noticed that my hair had grown five inches since my first plane ride as a Traveling Secretary for Gamma Phi Beta. My luggage looked as friendly as the old pair of shoes I was wearing. I glanced at a calendar, and lo and behold, my ten months of traveling were coming to an end.

With a pang in my heart, I packed my suitcase for the last time and headed for home. The most exciting slice of life a girl could live, who had just one year ago graduated from college, was gone forever.

But, is it really? I've never once said goodbye to a chapter. It's always been, "I'll see ya!" And, chances are that we will meet again. If we don't, I'll still always have the memories of 25 fun, lively, friendly chapters whose members will be dear to me for the rest of my life.

Say, are you Gamma Phi enough to enjoy a year of travel, excitement, interesting and great people—and the most challenging job your Sorority has to offer? Gamma Phi Beta is now receiving applications for the position of Traveling Secretary for the year 1967-68. Send your letter now to:

Mrs. Robert Smith
4449 Ackerman Boulevard
Kettering, Ohio 45429

If you're accepted, be prepared for the most hilarious, happy, hectic and rewarding year of your Gamma Phi Beta life.

KATHY SPISS,
Traveling Secretary, retired

Chapter Honors

Section

Dr. Richard Harvill, president of the University of Arizona, presented the 1966 Merrill P. Freeman medal to Mary Elizabeth (Betsey) Bayless, Alpha Epsilon. This award has been presented annually since 1916 to the outstanding senior chosen on the basis of scholarship, character and leadership during the four year period.

Betsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bayless, Jr. (Pauline Hickcox, Alpha Epsilon '37), received a bachelor of arts degree in Latin American Studies and Spanish on June 1. She has served as vice president of Spurs, president of Chimes, vice president of Mortar Board, Angel Flight Drill Commander, delegate to the SCONA convention, student senator, Desert Queen attendant, Social Court justice and is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She is a member of Sigma Delta Pi (Spanish honorary), Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Beta Kappa.

Betsey served as activities chairman of Alpha Epsilon for two years, wore the Nellie Still pin as the outstanding junior and was noted most outstanding senior of Alpha Epsilon.

GAMMA IOTA—Midwestern

Gamma Phis at Midwestern University have enjoyed a number of top honors on campus this school year. Freshman Doris Mahoney was elected all school beauty, freshman woman of the year, Greek Goddess, and cheerleader. She served as Vice President of her freshman class and has just been re-elected for her sophomore year. She was nominee for class favorite and Phi Sigma Kappa moonlight girl and was chosen as sweetheart by the Delta Sigs and by the KA pledge class. In addition to these school honors, Doris was one of eight finalists in the Miss Cotton Pageant. Sherri Meredith, another freshman, was president of her class. Francis Westmoreland, sophomore, was also a school beauty. Other honors Francis took were Phi Sigma Kappa moonlight girl, cheerleader, class favorite, sweetheart for the men's new dorm, and Greek week chairman. Francis was also a nominee for outstanding sophomore woman and was recently elected Vice President of the junior class for the '66-'67 school year. Carolyn Jones, also a sophomore, was just elected secretary of the student body. Junior Kathy Elhert was Delta Sig pledge sweetheart and Delta Sig rose princess. Janice Hardy, a freshman, was also a Delta Sig rose princess. Senior Dottie Kennelly was Lady Midwestern, school beauty, homecoming queen, class favorite, sweetheart of Circle K, and secretary of the student body. Penny Baldwin, graduating senior, was elected outstanding woman of the year and president of Bea Wood dormitory. Penny, a member of Alpha Psi Omega, an honorary drama fraternity, has just received a teaching assistantship at the University of Arkansas. She graduated from Midwestern cum laude. Senior Judy Dinkfield was TKE sweetheart and AWS representative from Bea Wood. Senior Elaine Gentry, a charter member, has served both as Panhellenic president and as president of our chapter. A total of twenty Gamma Phis were nominees for school beauties. Judy Uncapher and Alice Gee won first in badminton in intramural sports, and Judy also took first place in tennis. We Gamma Phis were really proud of the western week trophy we won in March for participation and also for the number of events won.

March the 18 was sing song at Midwestern, and we tied for second place. On the 22nd we had pledge-active turnabout day. We gave the Chi Omegas a covered dish luncheon on April 16 in order to welcome their colony on our campus. The pledges helped out with finances by organizing a garage sale. Each active and pledge contributed items to be sold and the sale was quite successful despite rain. A Crescent Ball at Ramada Inn on April 29 was the biggest event of the semester. For favors each girl's date received a miniature paddle with a crest and the date of the occasion on it. On May 4 the pledges faked a style show which turned out to be a pledge cut. The actives suspected something of this nature, and the pledges were aware that the actives had not been fooled. They really gave the actives a surprise, however, with a second pledge cut on May 11, which was also song and paddle night. The whole semester was topped off with retreat on May 26 and 27. Everyone went to Gail Webb's cabin at Lake Graham where skiing and swimming became favorite pastimes.

Your Only Chance to Order!

Our double brown colors are used for the 1967 calendars—just right for the “extra” holiday gift—and, of course, how can you be without one!

Remember that each calendar you order helps add to the Gamma Phi Beta Endowment Fund. Buy your calendars from the Chicago Alumnae Chapter—we assume all handling and mailing costs.

Just clip this order blank, enclose a check or money order made out to the Chicago Alumnae Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta and MAIL IT TODAY! This offer will not be repeated.

The calendars are $1.00 each or 20 for $17.00 or 30 for $24.00.
