Gamma Phi Beta

Fall 1976

GOING GREAT TO '78 . . .

this is Gamma Phi Beta's theme for the next biennium. That we're off to a great start is obvious from the convention and honor reports in this issue. Let's keep up the momentum. Support your local chapter and International by paying dues . . . contribute to camp and scholarship programs . . . back our magazine program for chapter profit . . . report to the CRESCENT. Presidents will be alerted to program directives via THE COMMUNIQUE, published in January, April and September each year. Don't fail to pass assignments along to the proper officials.

STATE OF THE SORORITY MESSAGE

Highlights of the Grand President's Report to the Seattle Conclave

Betty Luker Haverfield (Missouri)

Here we are in Seattle, on the far west coast of the United States and just a stone's throw away from Vancouver, the site of one of our camps, one of our great Greek Letter chapters and with many outstanding, hard-working alumnae. It seems especially appropriate, way out west, that the theme of this convention is "From Sea to Shining Sea." Not only does it bring to mind the bicentennial celebration of the United States, but the bicentennial celebration of the Greek system.

Did you know that Phi Beta Kappa was the first social fraternity and it was founded at the College of William and Mary on December 5, 1776?

Here, today, representatives of Gamma Phi Beta are assembled—from Montreal to Pasadena, from Tallahassee to Honolulu. We are truly represented—from Sea to Shining Sea.

As Grand President it befalls me to report to you about the changes and accomplishments of your Grand Council during the past biennium. I hope you won't think me braggadocious when I say, I believe we have accomplished a great deal.

Answering Kansas City Mandates

First, I will answer the eight resolutions presented to us by the 1974 convention assembled in Kansas City:

Resolution 1: reword Article X, Section 4—voting body—of our bylaws so that there is no misunderstanding about those chapters eligible to send voting delegates to conventions. This has been included in our proposed bylaw changes to be presented at this convention.

Resolution 2: set up guidelines for the formation of Crescent Circles. Grand Council has decided there could be no cut and dried rules. Designed primarily to bring together alumnae, on an almost purely social basis, in communities where there were few Gamma Phi Betas, Crescent Circles came into being about four years ago. The preceding Council had a number of six to eight to form a Crescent Circle. This, generally, remains true. But there are exceptions. We have a group of more than 30 alumnae in a California retirement center. They want to meet and share experiences but should not be burdened with the regulations and paper work set down for an alumnae chapter. Therefore, we have granted them Crescent Circle status. For this, and other reasons, we have decided that each application must be considered individually.

Resolution 3: provide swap shops for alternate delegates and non-delegates to be held during business sessions instead of late at night. If you will consult your program, you will note these provisions have been made.

Resolution 4: encourage every member to be alert to the possibilities for expansion. Elna Magnusson Dimock, Director of Expansion, has alerted PCDs and PADs to be ever watchful for new colonization sites. Elise Berthon, coordinator of State Membership Chairmen, has asked her workers to do likewise. We have had excellent results from information forwarded through them.

BETTY LUKER HAVERFIELD, Grand President. (left) At the Carnation Banquet, more than 600 assembled raised their glasses in a toast to Alpha Phi Sorority. Mrs. Haverfield used the golden goblet sent to the Sorority by Alpha Phi in commemoration of Gamma Phi Beta's 100th anniversary. The cup was lost at the hotel during the Kansas City conclave. Hence this belated act of appreciation for fraternal affection. (Right) ELNA GIVES WAY TO BERTA. Signifying the only change in Grand Council membership, Elna Magnusson Dimock (Idaho) relinquished her badge as Director of Expansion to Roberta Moore Sorensen (Washington). One beauty replaced another.

Resolution 5: continue the Ad Hoc Committee to study our camps with a view to expanding our camping program. This committee was headed by Bennie J. Wilson Burkett (SMU—Wichita Falls Alumnae). Other members are Lynn Russenholt MacFarlane (Manitoba—Winnipeg Alumnae); Nancy Yount Reberger (Idaho—Northern Virginia Alumnae), and Mary Lou Thompson (Colorado College—Chicago Alumnae).

Among their many recommendations were: 1) that the present philanthropic combination of camps, camperships and local endeavors be continued; 2) that we adopt a more ambitious promotion of camping among members by making camp slides available with more emphasis on the non-fun side; 3) send out a brochure detailing various ways alumnae chapters could incorporate camping into their local philanthropies and generate more favorable publicity; 4) that Vancouver investigate possibilities for maximizing the use of its facilities, such as leasing to school camps, retreats, etc.; 5) that because of the question of an available campsite in Colorado, the Colorado Board pursue the possibility of alternate camp programs such as wilderness-primitive camps, sharing an existing campsite, etc.; 6) that consideration be given to including in the Sorority bylaws a provision for an annual gift to the Foundation; and 7) that there be a review, at least every four years, of our entire camping program because of changing ACA and federal regulations.

Resolution 6: study the possibility of substituting a quarterly newsletter for the many bulletins sent from Central Office. The CRESCENT COMMUNIQUE was issued for the first time in January, 1975, and appears three times yearly in January, April and September.

Resolution 7: the HISTORY OF GAMMA PHI BETA be updated every 10 years. Under the editorship of Charlotte Hamilton Mason (Michigan—Jackson Alumnae), the update is now available.

Resolution 8: consider a bylaw amendment waiving the annual tax for 50-year members. The Research Committee felt this bylaw should not be considered. Each alumna has the option of paying taxes and most of our older members, who have given up volunteer service work, feel this is the only contribution they can make to the Sorority.

Other Exciting Happenings

- Title IX came across my desk. This was the act that prohibited discrimination for reasons of sex on any college campus—the penalty to be withdrawal of federal funds from any college or university supporting organizations not open to members of both sexes. Gamma Phi Beta and many other sororities and fraternities went to work protesting this movement. Thousands wrote their congressmen in support of an amendment that would exempt sororities and fraternities from Title IX. The effort paid off.

- In the fall of 1975, Grand Council was overwhelmed when it became necessary to appoint 25 new Province Alumna and Collegiate Directors. It is a joy to report all new appointments have been extremely successful.

- In the spring of 1975, Eleanor Sieg announced her planned retirement. Pat Denton, a member of the Endowment-Loan Board, accepted the task of heading a search committee. They found Mary Margaret Moxley, a graduate of the University of Evansville and a professional administrator for volunteer organizations. She assumed her new duties in Central Office on July 1 and the Grand Council is still amazed at the rapidity with which she became familiar with the Sorority and its policies. Not being a member, she was initiated in time for the National Panhellenic Conference last fall by Epsilon Chapter.

- Perhaps one of the greatest accomplishments of the biennium is the update and revision of eight manuals. This was achieved via the services of an expert Publications Chairman, Lynn Thompson (Memphis State), a former Collegiate Consultant. Finished and in use are the PROVINCE ALUMNAE DIRECTOR'S MANUAL, THE RITUAL MANUAL, COLLEGIATE CONSULTANT'S MANUAL and the PRESIDENT'S HANDBOOK.

GOING GREAT TO '78!

THAT'S THE SLOGAN for the next biennium as set by International Public Relations Chairman, Sally Erikson Lewis (Bradley) . . . seen charging through Olympic Hotel corridors to deliver her message at collegiate and alumnae swap shops.

AND TO NASHVILLE!

LUCILLE CORKRAN NABORS (Vanderbilt) was the busiest of women at Seattle. She was researching all facets of convention to prepare for her role as chairman of the 58th Sorority convention in Nashville, June '78. Roberta Moore Sorensen (left), Seattle chairman, advised her to "Hang in There Baby."

To be printed and ready for distribution this fall are THE EXPANSION MANUAL, THE ALMUNAE ADVISORY COMMITTEE'S MANUAL, THE PLEDGE DEVELOPMENT MANUAL. Besides these, Lynn has written and edited THE CRESCENT COMMUNIQUE.

Because Gamma Phi Beta has concentrated on Leadership Training for the last three years, the Grand Council feels blessed to have found Nancy Parker, (Moorehead), another former Collegiate Consultant. She developed a leadership manual, a 107-page booklet titled "Chapter Dynamics."

Goals and Objectives

- Another innovation of the biennium has been a special presentation on goals and objectives which sprang from the fertile brain of our Director of Expansion, Mrs. Dimock (see December, 1975 CRESCENT). As a result of this work calling for emphasis on Public Relations, Sally Erikson Lewis (Bradley), International Chairman, has swung into action. She has handled the alumnae tax mailing, developed press releases for chapters, sent news releases on new Grand Council appointments to local newspapers and alumnae publications and initiated the Province Public Relations idea. She's also designed a new slogan to promote the 1978 convention in Nashville—"Going Great to '78" (More this issue.)

- Another new appointment made—a new International office, is that of Assistant to the Director of Finance in Charge of Policies. Martha Everett Bowman (Ohio State) holds the position and is concentrating on alcohol and visitations policies within the Sorority.

- We are most proud of our continued Collegiate Consultant program and we have enlarged the graduate program. This year nine young women will move into chapter houses across the country to assist those who need more than a yearly visit from a collegiate consultant.

- We have established four Ad Hoc Committees to pursue our current concerns. I have already reported on the work of the Camp Committee. The Rituals Committee says several changes will be made to bring ritual in accord with present day standards. Another has delved into the possibility of entering two year (Junior) colleges. This committee was headed by Kay Conrad, Panhellenic adviser at Oregon State. She was assisted by Karen Sweeney (Kansas), Dean of Women at Drury College, Springfield, Mo., and Janice Graves. The committee has decided that the climate is not yet ideal for Gamma Phi Beta to initiate or support a recommendation that NPC consider this subject with the intention of implementing necessary guidelines for expansion into two-year college campuses.

The fourth committee was one to study the advisability of a relocation of Central Office. This committee is chaired by Eleanor J. Sieg, assisted by Lennea Searls, Housing Chairman; Mary Jane Hipp Mithos, executive vice-president, the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation; and Mary M. Moxley, Sorority executive secretary. This committee is still at work and has no recommendations at this time. They plan to thoroughly investigate Fraternity Park, Indianapolis, where many organizations now have their headquarters.

Additions and Subtractions

- Perhaps the happiest thing that occurs during any administration is the establishment of new chapters. During the biennium we have installed four new chapters at California

Polytechnic University in San Luis Obispo, Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind., Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pa., and the University of California at Riverside.

But with the sweet must inevitably come the bitter. We have lost several chapters during the last two years: Beta Nu at the University of Vermont, Alpha Kappa at the University of Manitoba, Gamma Sigma at Western Michigan University at Kalamazoo and Delta Gamma at the University of Nebraska, Omaha. Just a few days ago, Grand Council accepted the charter of Gamma Rho, Wisconsin State University at Oshkosh. All of these chapters have become inactive because the campuses on which they existed were not supportive of the fraternity system.

Subjects to be Pursued

As Grand Council, we offer these ideas for the new leaders to pursue during the next biennium:

- 1) Continuation of the Ad Hoc Committee to study the relocation of Central Office.
- 2) Publication of a new song book.
- 3) Place greater emphasis on public relations and chapter development.
- 4) Continue to stress gearing all local philanthropies toward camping.
- 5) Develop a scholarship program designed to help chapters with low GPA's.
- 6) Update the following manuals: Membership Chairman, PCD Manual, President's Book—Greek-Letter Section, and Housemother's Manual.
- 7) Restructure the Chapter Development Committee—develop a manual for use by CD chairmen.
- 8) Continue using the Goal and Objective Setting process for the Sorority.
- 9) Improve the graduate counselor training program.
- 10) Devise a more comprehensive expansion questionnaire to be used in investigating prospective fields for colonization.

In Conclusion

All of these suggestions take money. We must be selective and we must continue to be innovative. We have assumed a place of prominence in the Greek World and we should strive to maintain this position of leadership through our already established programs and those we develop through thought and research. We urge each of you to volunteer or, if called upon, to serve in continuing Gamma Phi Beta excellence throughout our countries.

THE 1976-78 NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Seattle delegates elected six members from different areas of the country to serve on the nominating committee for the 1978 Convention. Similarly, alternates were named.

And from then on . . .

HARD WORK INTERSPERSED WITH FUN!

More than 450 full-time and part-time conventioners signed aboard for Gamma Phi Beta's 57th international conclave at Seattle. Appropriately titled "From Sea to Shining Sea", it drew delegates from as far away as Vermont and Alabama. Hawaii did not go unrepresented. Alumnæ there sent orchid leis to Sorority leaders.

But even before most delegates were registered on Sunday, June 20, the paddlewheels of Sorority business were turning. Grand Council had convened on Wednesday; international chairmen and province directors arrived on Saturday to firm up programs. As a result, delegates and officials sailed through a crowded four-day agenda and achieved an early "docking" Wednesday noon. This gave some members unexpected "shore leave" for sightseeing and shopping.

Christmas in June

The first full gathering of conventioners was at the Sunday banquet hosted by the Spokane Alumnæ. Appropriately the program opened with a prayer and the national anthems. Louise Haydock Miller (San Jose State) sang "America, The Beautiful" and Beverly Clarke Berge (Washington), the Canadian Anthem.

Delegates, seated at holiday decorated tables, were warmly welcomed by Grand President Betty Luker Haverfield (Missouri); Patricia Jukes Woodruff (Washington), Seattle Alumnæ president; and Roberta Moore Sorensen (Washington), 57th Convention chairman.

Beverly Cummings Adams (CSU), Supervisor of Camps, introduced the Sorority's new colored slide presentation, "Pitch a Tent, Fill a Heart". It showed not only the beautiful aspects of Gamma Phi Beta camp life but the ugly neighborhoods from which the children are released for a period of carefree life. Delegates, who had been asked to bring small gifts to fill Christmas stockings for summer campers, did not only that but added $444.50 in cash as well.

Later in the evening, memorial services were conducted for all sisters who had died during the last biennium. In a departure from the norm, one was singled out for special tribute. Marjorie Speidel Lundin (Washington) spoke in loving memory of Barbara Burns Hiscock (Washington), past grand president.

Marian Corley Hulsey (Oklahoma City), International Rituals Chairman, conducted not only the memorial service but an exemplary ritual of initiation. She was assisted by Mary Newlands Isaccson (British Columbia) and members of Kappa Chapter.

The Gavel Sounds

At 8:30 a.m. Monday morning, Mrs. Haverfield called the convention to order. Following opening exercises, she introduced Jennie Curtis (Northern Arizona) as parliamentarian, and Mary M. Moxley, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, called the roll. Highlights of the session were the Grand President's message (see page 2) and the unveiling of a new Gamma Phi Beta Foundation logo by its executive vice president, Mary Jane Hipp Misthos (CSU). Elna Magnusson Dimock (Idaho), Director of Expansion, reviewed the addition of four chapters to the Sorority's roll in the past biennium, and also reaffirmed Sorority goals and objectives (see December '75 CRESCENT).

Dr. Margaret Chisholm, vice president, University of Washington, was guest speaker at a Panhellenic Potlatch Monday noon. Seattle representatives of other National Panhellenic Conference sororities were special guests at this festive Indian-style luncheon hosted by the Pullman Alumnæ. In a speech entitled "Reflections in a Crystal Ball", Dr. Chisholm commended Gamma Phi Beta for establishing goals and objectives. With planning, she said, "the future will provide for all of you unlimited opportunities."

While Gloria Swanson Nelson (Oklahoma), Director of Finance, reported to the general session and Ernestine Dobler McDonald (Northwestern) hammered out amendments to the bylaws, other delegates and visitors filled the afternoon with workshops and swapshops. Soon it was time to dress-up for the Honors Banquet (reported elsewhere).

Food and Food for Thought

Tuesday's schedule was highlighted not only by food and fun but food for thought. It picked up where Monday night's post-banquet workshops left off . . . with more workshops. Elizabeth Sloan Phillips (Washington-St. Louis), Alumnæ Vice President, had scheduled the topics for alumnæ members; Karen Wander Kline (Iowa State), Collegiate Vice President, for Greek Letter members. Subjects ran the gamut from chapter development to for-

FOR PURPLE MOUNTAIN MAJESTIES

Squeals of delight and tears of joy reverberated from the walls of the Olympic Grand Ballroom when Boise Alumnae hosted the traditional Honors Banquet. As Toastmistress Marian Corley Hulsey (Oklahoma City), International Ritual Chairman, aptly put it, "this is the happiest night of any convention." She also called attention to the royally potted mums pointing out that "purple is the symbol of honor."

Shown here and on the next two pages are many of those who accepted honors for their chapters.

HOUSTON became the second chapter inducted into the Sorority's Alumnae Hall of Fame. Its president, Barbara Foster Templin, accepted the symbolic gavel. Sue Dorsey Durrett belatedly received one for Greater Kansas City Alumnae.

OMEGA CHAPTER at Iowa State, represented here by Deanna Stone, was awarded the first Mary A. Bingham Award for overall Greek Letter Chapter excellence.

RECOGNIZED by Grand Council for chapter development programs were: Omaha Alumnae, Phyllis Donaldson Choot (left) accepting, and St. Louis, Margaret Godbold Briscoe.

mal rush, public relations to membership selection and strategy. In the course of things, Lynn Thompson (Memphis State) introduced a new pledge program.

A refreshing fruit and cheese plate accompanied by tempting bread provided a delightful break in the day's work schedule. Moscow Alumnae hosted this "Amber Waves of Grain" luncheon and used bread, breadboards, ribbons and strawberries to whet appetites. These centerpieces and all others were sold in the Sorority boutique.

Still another culinary treat awaited members who boarded "The Goodtimer" at 4 p.m. But first they cruised Puget Sound. Enroute to Blake Island, they were given a running commentary of the sights (Space Needle, etc.) by the ship's captain, and joined in a song fest led by Louise Miller.

On arrival at Kiana Lodge, everyone spent a gay half-hour drinking clam broth and shooting pictures. The lovely Indian garden setting was a photographer's dream.

Following the succulent salmon potlatch, Virginia Forsythe Vint (Missouri) served as toastmistress for a fun-packed program of songs, skits and awards. Beta Sigmas cracked up the crowd with their hilarious Indian-style rush skit and Delta Lambdas led a rousing cheer for the Sorority's new slogan, "Going Great to '78." Before reboarding, Virginia led a "snake dance" of Confirmed Conventioneers (those who have attended 5 or more conclaves). Gwen Boulden Riggs of the Des Moines Alumnae had too many to pin on her official red-and-white checked cap. She wore hers via an inverted flower pot.

Elections and More Honors

The third general session became the final one as delegates moved swiftly to act on business at hand. First was the report of the Nominating Committee headed by Barbara Westover Sheldon (Washington) . . . then that of the Awards Committee as announced by Mrs. Haverfield.

Named to the Sorority's most coveted Honor Roll was Mary Glendon Trussell (Northwestern). Accorded Carnation Awards were Florence Louise Phillips (Texas Tech), Alice Reynolds Pratt (Oklahoma) and Florence Roy White (Illinois).

Former Grand President Lois McBride Dehn (Washington) presented the Resolutions Committee report. Most actions called for already are covered in the State of the Sorority message. In addition, the committee asked for an update of the House Corporation Board manual and also directed Grand Council to appoint an ad hoc committee to study the collegiate fees and dues structure.

Before adjournment, election results were announced and the officers were introduced. For the only change in Grand Council's membership, Roberta Moore Sorensen (Washington) replaced retiring Director of Expansion, Mrs. Dimock.

Relieved of responsibilities, happy delegates gathered for a luncheon hosted by the Portland Alumnae. Entitled "Patterns for Living", the event included a vintage fashion show with clothes from Goodwill Industries. Jean Foster Radford (Washington) was toastmistress.

BREADBOARD CENTERPIECE from Moscow Alumnae's "Amber Waves of Grain" luncheon caught the eyes of boutique shoppers Amy Bickford Tower (Vermont) and Mary Jean Lauvetz Hart (Nebraska). Writing the order: Tonita Thompson Hensley (William and Mary).

CINDY DONALSON, Oklahoma U. Panhellenic president, and Melissa Landers, Psi Chapter president, accepted the Greek Letter Panhellenic Award from Marjorie Speidel Lundin (Washington), the Sorority's National Panhellenic Delegate.

And Crown Thy Good With Sisterhood

Over 600 members and guests, dressed in their party best, filled the Olympic Hotel's Grand Ballroom for the traditional Pink Carnation Banquet hosted by Seattle Alumnae. It was a time for toasts and pretty speeches . . . also a time for exchanging gifts and badges. Toastmistress Mary Babbit Bilby (Arizona), second alternate National Panhellenic Delegate, provided a happy balance between the light-hearted and the serious as she guided the convention to its beautiful conclusion.

Serving, too, as the banquet's key speaker, Mary recognized America's bicentennial. Asking members to reflect on "all that we have in this great country that is denied to millions of others in the world," she pointed out: "We may choose where we wish to live, and to what profession we will devote our lives. We may rear our children as we see fit, sharing freely with them our political and religious views. Within reason, we may say what we wish. . . ."

"There are other freedoms that are especially important to us as Greeks. Without a free society, our organization could not exist. We have the freedom to assemble and to hold a private meeting—to travel across the country to conventions such as this without special permits or harassment—we are free to promote within our organization the goals and ideals we believe in.

"It becomes the duty as well as the privilege of organizations such as ours to help form in our members the traits of character that will enhance and enrich our free society." These, as she drew an analogy with a beautiful crown, encrusted with precious stones, include the jewels of love, integrity, cooperation, service, fidelity, courage.

"There are many, many other glowing gems that will make up our unique crown—leadership, knowledge, tolerance, understanding, consideration. We are constantly aiming for finer womanhood and for a higher spiritual, mental and social culture. In doing so, we are enhancing and enriching our wonderful countries."

Asking Canadian sisters to join in a birthday message to America, Mary said:

"God Bless You and keep you, America, from sea to shining sea. We're thankful and proud to be helping you grow. With much love in faith and goodwill from the sisters of Gamma Phi Beta."

And join the Americans the Canadians warmly did as nearly 600 Gamma Phi Betas clasped hands in the Mystic Circle.

KIANA LODGE OUTING

Song fest aboard The Goodtimer.

CONFIRMED CONVENTIONEERS: Mary Jane Hipp Misthos carried 14 carnations; Elna Magnusson Dimock tucked hers behind an Indian headdress; Virginia Forsythe Vint wore her carnations Hawaiian style; Lois McBride Dehn managed to pin her many flowers on the official red-and-white checked cap.

Clam broth on the beach.

Chow line for succulent salmon.

GAMMA PHI BETA . . .

GOING GREAT TO '78!

by SALLY ERIKSON LEWIS (Bradley)
International Public Relations Chairman

GOING GREAT TO '78! This is our new public relations slogan for the next biennium! It was worn on lapel buttons at Convention, cheered by our newest sisters at Delta Lambda and will be written about in various ways in issues of THE CRESCENT from now until June, 1978, when we will meet in Nashville for our 58th International Convention.

How we treat each other is the beginning of good public relations, and then "good" public relations extends to others far beyond our chapter circle. Each of us forms the total Gamma Phi Beta image as well as the image of a sorority woman. Each day, in action and conversation, we face our many publics, and what we do and say reflects on all of us.

To create good public relations, we must first define who our "publics" are, what they think about us and, importantly, what we want them to think about us. Then, we can proceed to modify, change or reinforce their attitudes through a public relations program of effective communications and actions. Each "public" must be considered a separate entity in the GOING GREAT program.

Greek-Letter Programs

Collegiate GOING GREAT in-chapter ideas . . . theme parties or dinners, a member talent show, a well-planned inspiration week, retreats, bulletin boards, scrapbooks, newsletters, courtesy to all guests and house staff.

Collegiate GOING GREAT in Panhellenic . . . interesting programs or seminars for all women students, informative rush workshops, fund-raising events for local philanthropies, exchange affairs with other Panhellenic members, such as dinners, parties or coffees.

Collegiate GOING GREAT ideas on campus . . . dinners or coffees with faculty and administration personnel, being involved in campus politics, clubs and organizations, good scholarship, participating in all-school fund-raising events, cultivating a positive attitude toward Greeks by the school publications.

Collegiate GOING GREAT in the community . . . volunteer at a day care center or hospital, collect food or clothing for the needy, serenade at hospitals or rest homes (at other times besides Christmas), be involved in community projects where the entire chapter or just a few members can participate.

Collegiate GOING GREAT public relations extends to our parents, the parents of our new pledges, the Mothers Club and, of course, to the local alumnae chapter and boards where joint collegiate-alumnae activities are lots more fun!

Alumnae Chapter Programs

Alumnae GOING GREAT in-chapter ideas . . . a special welcome to new alumnae (especially the graduating seniors), having an informative and interesting newsletter, welcoming new pledges and their parents, including husbands or dates in parties and interesting evening programs.

Alumnae GOING GREAT in Panhellenic . . . present a high school seminar to explain sororities, present an annual award to an outstanding high school senior, sponsor an annual fund-raising project for a local philanthropy, work with your collegiate Panhellenic on joint projects.

Alumnae GOING GREAT ideas on campus . . . get-acquainted sessions with the local faculty and administration with coffees, special program meetings or informal get-togethers.

Alumnae GOING GREAT in the community . . . sponsor fund-raising events for a local charity or institution and volunteer as a group for a project or have just a few members volunteer.

Alumnae GOING GREAT public relations extends to your local Mothers Club as well as parents and the local collegiate chapter with joint activities, special programs and welcoming parties for new pledges.

These GOING GREAT ideas for collegians and alumnae are just a sample of what's in the Public Relations Handbook which was distributed to everyone at Convention in June and then mailed to those chapters not represented at Convention. There's lots more ways to make the GOING GREAT for Gamma Phi Beta and all her members—just put on your thinking caps!

GAMMA PHI BETA . . . GOING GREAT TO '78!

MEMBERS OF DELTA LAMBDA, the Sorority's newest chapter (California-Riverside), raised a rousing cheer, "Going Great to '78" at the Kiana Lodge outing. Sally Lewis egged them on.

Personalities)

Doris (left) with Lois Haarde (Penn State).

UNDAUNTED DELEGATE Doris Bird Gorden (Bowling Green)

They said it couldn't be done, but she finally did it!

When the Gordon family visited the Seattle World's Fair 14 years ago, they felt it would be impossible for Doris to get on the monorail for the 90-second ride to the Space Needle. This summer Doris and her convention roommate, Lou Haarde (Penn State) discovered that the monorail station could be reached by ramps readily accessible to a wheelchair visitor.

It was 1954 (a year before the vaccine was developed) when Doris was stricken with polio. Three months later (two in an iron lung), her third child was born. Michael is now a senior at Lenoir Rhyne College in Hickory, N.C., and vice president of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Doris has raised three other children: David, 26, a lieutenant in the SeaBees; Janet, the mother of three; and 11-year-old Robbie.

Traveling is second nature to Doris. She was an airline stewardess 30 years ago, flying in a DC-3 from Washington, D.C. to Chicago, with six or seven stops inbetween. The Gordens travel widely—their latest adventure a trip to New Zealand last spring.

Doris gives a great deal of credit for her active life to her husband, Bill, a Sun Oil executive. And she's grateful for the help of Gamma Phi Betas. Members of the Cincinnati Alumnae saw to it that she was out and about as soon as possible after her illness. (It took a team of four to handle her in braces.) When she moved to Philadelphia, she found the same warm response—and a very good friend in Lou.

In addition to representing the Philadelphia West Suburban Alumnae at the Centennial Convention and at Seattle, Doris has served the chapter as president, vice president, ARC and magazine chairman.

She saw a slightly different side of convention from most Seattle delegates. Because of the location of banquet rooms on a mezzanine floor, Doris was routed to meals via the kitchen. On the last night—Carnation Banquet—she was serenaded by the kitchen staff with a silverware concert.

Doris would encourage anyone else in a wheelchair to consider attending Convention. It is best to write ahead to make any special arrangements necessary, she says. For a post-convention jaunt to San Francisco, she reserved a car with hand controls.

For a successful travel experience, she points out, one needs patience, optimism, advance planning, an adventurous spirit—and a good friend like Lou.

Gamma Phi Beta salutes you, Doris.

YOUTHFUL PARLIAMENTARIAN Jennie Curtis (Northern Arizona)

Quick on the uptake and thoroughly knowledgeable, Jennie proved a collegiate member can serve as a Gamma Phi Beta convention parliamentarian. She was the first! For a job well done, she has been designated permanent parliamentarian by Grand Council.

Jennie Curtis

A senior with a duo major in recreation and graphic arts, Jennie is president of Beta Omega Chapter and past president of campus Panhellenic. This hard-working young woman has been tapped by Mortar Board, Kayettes, Archons and Delta Psi Kappa.

Already a member of the American Institute of Parliamentarians, Jennie has taken the certified parliamentarians examination. Prior to Seattle, she was parliamentarian for the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students convention. Upon certification, she hopes to earn other such assignments.

"I enjoy the strategy of parliamentary procedure. It's fun," says Jennie. "You never stop learning because there are always finer points of order." She has studied two main sources in addition to Robert's famous rules. Her favorite is Sturgis Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedures because of its simplified explanations.

Honor Bright

Forty-five young women have received gold coats-of-arms charms in recognition of their 4.0 scholastic for the 1974-75 academic year. Posting these names for the Sorority's illustrious "A" List is Peggy Larson Stromer, International Scholarship Chairman. (An * designates seven repeat winners from the 1973-74 period.)

Mary Elizabeth (Leila) Straub Stafford (Oregon '01, MA '02) was a remarkable woman. She was remarkable, according to an Oregon University journal, that "she earned two college degrees and went on to do further graduate work in Europe at a time and in a place where women were not yet citizens." It was remarkable, too, that until a year or so ago, she lived by herself in a house two doors from campus and remained active in university affairs.

A long time booster of her alma mater, Mrs. Stafford helped organize the first sorority on campus. The group, founded in 1904, later became Gamma Phi Beta's Nu Chapter. But this was only one of her "firsts." She was the first president of the Patterson School PTA, the Campus YMCA Advisory Board and the Eugene Branch of the University of Oregon Mothers. She also was the first area Girl Scout commissioner.

The daughter and wife of university deans (Oregon's Straub Hall is named for her father), Mrs. Stafford is survived by two sons and a daughter, Miriam Stafford Hamilton, also of Nu Chapter.

ALUMNA OF ACHIEVEMENT

A woman who has been honored many times for her contributions to education, the welfare of people, and the promotion and strengthening of family life received an honorary Doctor of Science Degree from her alma matre, the University of Idaho, last spring. She is Verna Johanneson Hitchcock, whose tributes include membership on Gamma Phi Beta's Merit Roll.

A native of Idaho Falls, Verna served in home economics extension and welfare management positions in both Idaho and Wyoming during a career that spanned almost 50 years.

Upon completion of her degree in home economics at Idaho in 1918, Verna became a high school teacher in Tonopah, Nev., then a U.S. Department of Agriculture extension home economist in Booneville County and the Boise and Moscow areas. In 1929, she was appointed Extension State Home Economics Leader for Wyoming.

Her marriage in 1930 to Wilbur Hitchcock ended abruptly with his death and by 1933 she was back at work—as the first director of Albany County (WY) Welfare.

In 1942, Verna was re-appointed Extension State Leader of Home Economics at the University of Wyoming. From 1951 until her retirement in 1963, she was head of that school's Division of Home Economics. The home management house on campus is named for her.

Verna's honors include one in 1970 from the UNICEF for her efforts in reviewing projects in Lebanon, Thailand and Pakistan. In 1974 she received Laramie's Community Service Award for making "thousands of Wyoming homemakers aware of their potential for directing their families toward productive lives."

GAMMA PHI BETA ALERT!

This eight-page insert on tinted paper constitutes your Sorority directory for the upcoming year. It includes a listing of all international, province and local officers. It also contains a list of Gamma Phi Beta collegiate and alumnae chapters, a Province roster, the list of officers' duties, TranSISter services, CRESCENT deadlines and other important announcements.

Please lift the staples in the center of this section, remove the pages and insert them in permanent officers' notebooks for ready reference throughout the year.

Historical Film Great for Founders Day Program

If members in your area have not yet seen Gamma Phi Beta's historical film, "From Yesterday for Today", act today. There's still time to schedule it for Founders Day gatherings.

This educational yet entertaining film, prepared especially for the Sorority's Centennial celebration, remains a timeless piece for rush, pledge education, chapter development, Panhellenic meetings and many other occasions.

It is a fast moving, lighthearted overview of Gamma Phi Beta's first 100 years with a narration that is interspersed with amusing and philosophical quotes from the four founders.

Here are some pertinent details:

Time: 12 minutes, 16 mm, color, sound print

Producer: Joyce Brooke (Michigan State)

Price: $165 for purchase; $20.00 rental

Mail orders to

Summus Films

333 Margareita Drive

San Rafael, CA 94901

Order the film 3 to 4 weeks ahead of planned showing. Indicate alternate dates if possible. Rental rate applies to per day showing. No telephone orders. Authorized purchasing signature is required on all sales and rental requests. Summus Films will forward a written confirmation of the show date.

Handle film with care. There's a minimum charge of $5.00 for damage to rental prints. On a happier note: the more the film is used, the greater the funds dedicated to the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

Help Cut Costs

Postal rates, as everyone knows, have gone up. There's talk the price of stamps will go higher. So this special plea:

Send all reports and notices to the proper party. Check this directory for guidelines. Especially remember that—

- all changes of address should be sent to Central Office.

- all deaths of members should be directed to Central Office and accompanied by a newspaper clipping or obituary. C.O. will notify the CRESCENT.

- CRESCENT correspondents should send material to the editor specified. For example, Greek Letter honors should go to the Collegiate Editor; Alumnae Chapter letters to the Alumnae Editor. When they are not directed properly, such materials have to be re-addressed . . . a waste of postage, envelopes and time.

All Gamma Phi Beta departments work on a tight budget. Your help is needed in keeping costs in line.

SPEAK UP FOR GAMMA PHI BETA

On odd-numbered years, Grand Council appoints Sorority Province Directors. Recommendations are requested from the general membership to assist in this important action.

You may recommend your current PAD or PCD . . . you may recommend YOURSELF . . . you may recommend anyone else you think would make a strong contribution. Only by your participation in this selection process can you be sure your Province will be well served.

WRITE CENTRAL OFFICE TODAY FOR THE NEW ALUMNA PERSONNEL DATA FORM.

TRANSISTER SERVICES EXPANDED

TransISter numbering 222 have volunteered to help their Gamma Phi Beta sisters with a variety of services as they move from one part of the country to another . . . be this as a tourist or a permanent resident.

Just recently, TransISter Ann Cline (Penn State), Philadelphia North Suburban Alumnae, filled a delightful request from Gamma Phi Beta Foundation member, Sharon Reisig Green (CSU). Sharon's husband, David, was traveling to Philadelphia on business bringing their 7-year-old daughter with him. Dana wanted to visit the Franklin Institute. So while Dana worked, two daughters of Jean Lauvetz Hart (Nebraska) showed Dana the marvels of science.

Since May's TransISter Directory was published, two names have been added to the list:

NEBRASKA

Kearney
Mrs. Brad Bigelow (Karen)
1510 West 36th Street
Kearney, NE 68847

JAPAN

Tokyo
Mrs. Janet Schleper Austin
39-34 1 Chome
Tama—Machi—Fuchu shi
Tokyo, Japan 183

Three other changes in the listing also have been made:

CALIFORNIA

San Francisco (Remove Zimmerman)
Miss Lynne Ponzini
1427 Balboa
San Francisco, CA 94118
Phone: 415-387-9575

TEXAS

Houston (Remove Anderson)
Mrs. B. M. Greenwood (Judy)
1302 West Brooklake
Houston, TX 77077
Phone: 713-497-7705

San Antonio (Remove Crouch)
Mrs. Robert A. Hein (Nancy)
413 Ridgemont Avenue
San Antonio, TX 78209
Phone: 512-824-8229

Three continuing TransISter report changes in address from their May listings:

Carmel, CA (Bernhardt)
From Box 2993 to 79 High Meadow Road
Granville, OH (Hood)
From 202 E. Elm St. to 135 Granview Road
Dallas, TX (Vogel)
From 9066 Longmont to 9914 Larchbrook

HOUSE EXCHANGES

Six Gamma Phi Betas responded to a request for exchange on the Mexican home listed in the May issue. These included Mrs. C. E. Prevatt of St. Petersburg, FL; Mrs. Joe Cunningham, Littleton, CO; Ginny Taylor, South Laguna, CA; Lee Hansen, Tigard, OR; Mrs. R. E. Cowin, Greenwich, CT; and Mrs. Helen Dudley, Hinsdale, IL, who offered her summer home on Crystal Lake, MI.

Under this program, two members and their families can exchange homes in two divergent locales to the mutual enjoyment of all.

B & B PROGRAM

"Bed and Breakfast" is designed especially for members over 65 but many chapter have extended it to other traveling sisters. Consult the May directory to find those chapters offering free-of-charge overnight accommodations.

For details on all TransISter services, contact the new chairman:

Theora Kurt Schonberg (Mrs. D. J.)
12205 Leavenworth
Omaha, NE 68106

Scant months after colonists signed the Declaration of Independence, a group of William and Mary students gathered December 5 at the Raleigh Tavern in Williamsburg, Va., to found America's first Greek Letter society—Phi Beta Kappa. Established “to foster friendship, morality and literature”, it set a precedent for others to follow.

“In addition to contributing basic purposes and objectives for fraternal groups, it possessed other characteristics to be adopted by subsequent groups,” reports The Operation Brass Tacks Committee of the National Panhellenic Editors Conference. These included “a degree of secrecy, an initiation ceremony, a motto, a grip, a badge, a tradition of high idealism and a strong bond of friendship.”

Phi Beta Kappa established branches at Harvard and Yale in 1779 but by 1781, as Revolutionary armies became more active in Virginia, the parent chapter closed down. Then during a flurry of anti-fraternity agitation in 1831, Phi Beta Kappa changed its structure and since has existed strictly as an honorary society.

By that time, however, other groups had organized in emulation of Phi Beta Kappa's original concept. The first of these was Kappa Alpha Society, founded in 1825 at Union College where Phi Beta Kappa had established its fifth chapter in 1817.

In the early part of the 19th century, women as college students were very rare. Georgia Female College (later Wesleyan), founded in 1836 in Macon, granted the first degrees to women. It was there that the first women's fraternities were founded: Alpha Delta Pi in May, 1851, and Phi Mu in January, 1852. Today the college fraternity world has an estimated five million living members.

On December 1-2, leaders of both general and professional fraternities will gather in Williamsburg to celebrate the Greek Letter Bicentennial. Gamma Phi Beta will be represented at the festivities by Marjorie Speidel Lundin (Washington) and Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri), National Panhellenic Delegate and first alternate respectively. Grand President Betty Luker Haverfield (Missouri) will be the Sorority's representative at a special Greek Letter Bicentennial program December 5 at Louisiana State College in Baton Rouge.

New in Phi Beta Kappa

Twenty-one Gamma Phi Betas merited the coveted Phi Beta Kappa key this bicentennial year. Gamma Beta Chapter at Gettysburg boasts five initiates: Nancy Bruun, Sally Hardesty, Kathy Hewitt, Sue Kelly and Deb Nardi.

At Vanderbilt, three Alpha Thetas were tapped for scholastic excellence: Barb Goss, Dinah Grashot and Sue Keller. Similarly, Beta Rho Chapter (Colorado) saw three rewarded: Jonette Crowley, Debbie Deeg and Connie Scott. Kathy Duffy and Julie Fosgate merited the honor for Beta Alpha (USC).

Other key holders are: Stephanie Dale (St. Louis), Nancy Herman (Minnesota), Diane Hurwitz (Washington-St. Louis), Annabel Jones (Oklahoma), Kathryn Meade (San Diego State), Melinda Pearson (Illinois), Aimee Sanders (Kansas), Kristine Schwan (Kentucky).

PHI BETA KAPPA IS GREAT... BUT IT'S NOT THE ONLY HONOR

There are scholastic honoraries in commerce, Romance languages, medicine, home economics, communications, agriculture, even criminal justice—to name but a few. And those coveted memberships in organizations that recognize service, leadership and activities. Musical talent, athletic skill and beauty are further attributes for which Gamma Phi Betas earn honor. So read with pride about some of those Greeks who have brought distinction to themselves and the Sorority during the past school year.

ELIZABETH HUNT (Midwestern) served as co-chairman for the school's annual Greek Week.

JOYCE MAE FALBO (West Virginia) represented her state as Cherry Blossom Princess at the annual Cherry Blossom Festival, Washington, D.C., in April.

GRAND COUNCIL PRESIDENT Betty Luker Haverfield (Missouri) congratulates Annabel Jones (Oklahoma) as she was named Greek Woman of the Year. National officers of all sororities and fraternities were among the 400 attending a Greek Week Banquet which celebrated "The Bicentennial of the American College Fraternity System."

MAUREEN GLEASON (St. Louis '75) received a silver medallion for scoring the highest grade on a C.P.A. exam. She's the first Missouri woman to do so.

CHERYL MCINTOSH (Northern Iowa) received the Kimerlee Ann Harry Award as the most outstanding member of Gamma Psi Chapter.

MICHELLE POND (Idaho State) was selected as Greek Woman of the Year. She's also a member of Mortar Board.

Chi Sigma?? Fish Fans?? Psi Chi??

As your CRESCENT Editor worked her way through a seemingly endless Honors List last year, she wondered much of the time, "What in the world does this mean?"

In one instance, she came across the term "Shorter Board." A typing error, she decided; surely the correspondent mean Mortar Board. But to play it safe she called the first Omicron member in St. Louis that came to mind—Marian Kaiser Piper, holder of a Carnation Award.

"No," Marian said, "it's not a mistake. That's an organization that pays tribute to Illini women who just missed making Mortar Board."

So, for those of you whose curiosity has been aroused by the preceding Honors List, we offer this glossary.

A BEVY OF BEAUTIES WITH BRAINS! That's the only way to describe the young women who will be serving nine Greek Letter chapters as graduate counselors during the current school year. From left, front: Donna McGuire (Gamma Omicron-Kentucky) to Gamma Lambda (Louisiana State); Leslie Koepke (Beta Upsilon-Kansas State) to Beta Eta (Bradley); Joanne Volakakis (Delta Iota-Purdue) to Beta (Michigan); and Marguerite Tait (Beta Alpha-USC) to Beta Mu (Florida State). From left, rear: Elizabeth Carter (Beta Upsilon-Kansas State) to Alpha Gamma (Nevada); Jonette Crowley (Beta Rho-Colorado) to Alpha Delta (Missouri); and Katherine Vorisek (Omicron-Illinois) to Beta Kappa (Arizona State). Missing in this photo: Nancy Brink (Gamma Eta-CSU-Long Beach) to Alpha Iota (UCLA) and Dianne Clark (Beta Sigma-Washington State) to Beta Theta (San Jose State).

OUR AMBASSADORS ON CAMPUS

Three will roam these United States and Canada—giving assistance as needed. Nine will stay put on the campuses assigned them—providing aid and comfort to Greek Letter chapters temporarily in need of organizational skills. That all will do themselves and the Sorority proud there is no question.

Herewith meet Gamma Phi Beta's bright-eyed Collegiate Consultants. They will show up from "sea to shining sea" to lend their special talents for specific reasons.

Karen Hedine (Washington) is a former president of Lambda Chapter. A resident of Walla Walla, she was an English major with a minor in Russian and "an avid love of Norwegian." Holder of a B.A. in English with a 3.3 grade average, she will give the Sorority a year before pursuing a writing-teaching career.

An accomplished pianist, many of Karen's undergraduate chapter activities were slanted to the entertainment side. She was skit chairman for the Senior Breakfast, music co-chairman for rush, and she planned programs for Founders Day, Mother-Daughter Teas and firesides. She also was Lambda's Panhellenic representative.

"When I'm not tickling the ivories," Karen says, I'm out snow and water skiing, playing tennis, losing at racquetball, or inside curled up with a new book, writing poetry and losing at cribbage."

Recipient of the Margaret Meany Younger Award for loyalty, friendship and inspiration, Karen also worked in the Press Box for Husky Football, and was a member of Husky Honeys, the official University hostesses.

Mary Ruth Holloway (Minnesota) followed up her four years as a collegiate Sorority member with nine months of evening University extension classes. She earned the credits to complete a degree in Latin American studies while working days for a Savings and Loan Association. Now she's trading that job in for one with Gamma Phi Beta.

While still a collegiate, Mary had a hand in almost every aspect of the Greek system. Within Kappa Chapter, she served as rituals chairman assistant house manager and Campus Carnival chairman. During her junior year, she was hired by the University Greek Consultative Committee to be archivist for the Panhellenic Office.

"After sorting through and then organizing files of past reports, minutes and statistics from each of the 14 soriorities on campus," Mary explained, "I gained significant insight into sororities and the Greek system as a whole."

Like Karen, Mary is an accomplished musician. Her piano practicing "with its endless hours of scales will long be engraved on Gamma Phis' memories," she believes. She also was a singer—in the 300 voice University Chorus.

Acquiring a taste for travel as a high school American Field Service Exchange Student to Ecuador, Mary applied for and was accepted as a Minnesota SPAN (Student Project for Amity among Nations) student to Costa Rica for '75. This year she served as SPAN's president.

Deborah Kay Jones (Colorado College) is a June graduate with a B.S. in Geology. In connection with her major, she worked part-time as a Physical Science Technician at the U.S. Geological Survey.

A past president of Alpha Phi, Debbie also served her chapter as both social and activities director, and was a counselor at the Sorority's Vancouver camp.

A member of several student-faculty committees at Colorado College, Debbie was elected to the Blue Key Honor Society and made the Dean's List in both her junior and senior years.

"Sports and the out-of-doors have always been of special interest to me," writes Debbie, "and after four years in Colorado, the mountains have a special meaning for me." This Dallas resident favors skiing, kayaking, backpacking and skydiving.

In the past Debbie has worked as office manager for a tennis resort and as front desk clerk for a Ramada Inn. After her year in collegiate consulting, she plans to work for a masters in Hotel and Restaurant Management.

Graduate Counselors. Nine additional young women have been selected by Grand Council to be graduate counselors. While doing graduate work in fields as divergent as business administration, journalism and home economics, these members will live in chapter houses on their assigned campuses and serve as special advisors to their Greek Letter members.

THEY HELP BECAUSE THEY CARE

by MARY AGNES WELSH
CRESCENT Collegiate Editor

Gamma Phi Betas are sharing and caring women. That this is true is evidenced by the fact that philanthropy is fast becoming as important to Greek Letter members' development as scholarship and leadership.

Early each school year, most chapters begin gearing up for their philanthropic programs. Some have developed a calendar of monthly activities to help the less fortunate; others have one major fund-raising event for charity. Still there remain some who don't know yet what to do. So let's take a look at some successful programs—for inspiration—for future reference.

Camping: Number #1

Camping is Gamma Phi Beta's official philanthropy. The Sorority funds and operates two summer camps for underprivileged girls. At the 1974 Centennial Convention, a goal was set to get all chapters to participate in camping either through the international program or at the local level. The response has been good. Janet Milligan Heaton, International Philanthropy Chairman reports 100% participation on the part of all chapters submitting philanthropy reports in time for the Seattle conclave. (Keep in mind, however, many chapters did not fill out forms.)

Psi devotes most of its philanthropic efforts to camps since one of its members, Judy Graham (Oklahoma) became active in the Sechelt Camp program. Judy was named camp director at Sechelt last summer. Psi pledges make puppets and tee shirts for campers; the entire chapter raised $200 for campers' clothes.

Delta Alpha pledges at Wisconsin State-River Falls also make puppets as well as yarn dolls while the chapter treasurer disperses a check.

Sigmas at Kansas raised $125 for the Sorority's camps in 1975. Due to this success, the chapter held a second sale this year and a permanent fund has been established to sponsor an annual campship.

Ambitious Sigma Program

Sigma received special recognition at Seattle for its monthly philanthropic programs. Jeri Kodel says, "We are constantly looking for new projects. We find that we grow a little more attached to our special sisterhood with every project because our hearts are very much a part of our actions."

NANCY (GINGER ROGERS) PETERSEN (Syracuse) and her partner Louis Oliver (Theta Chi) were named "The Best Dance Couple" at Syracuse's Dance Marathon '76. Alpha Chapter placed fifth at the event, raising $2,114.15 for muscular dystrophy. Working with Theta Chi, Alpha sponsored a "Celebrity Seesaw" in which various community celebrities volunteered their time to sit on one of a seesaw. On the other end was a large fish tank in which the money was collected.

Like many other chapters, Sigmas collect for fund drives and stuff envelopes for the Heart Fund. And "give til it hurts" is the thought behind its "fast dinners" of soup and crackers. Money saved on each meal (about $50) goes to a local community center for the underprivileged.

Marathons of all kinds are popping up on campuses across the country. These are designed to raise money for national health organizations—Muscular Dystrophy, Multiple Sclerosis, United Way, etc. Lambdas (Washington) raised more than $40,000 for Epilepsy Foundation and National Foundation for Retarded Citizens. Phi Delta Theta, McDonald's Restaurants and a local radio station helped Gamma Phi Beta sponsor the 22-hour marathon. Other chapters sponsoring such a dance-a-thons include Gamma Upsilon (Drake) and Beta Pi (Indiana State).

More Ideas to Borrow

*Beta Upsilon*s (Kansas State) and Acacia co-sponsored a Cardathon. Playing in two hour shifts, members stayed at their cards for 150 hours at tables set up under a tent outside the student union. A pledge booth and door-to-door solicitation raised the Cardathon's profits to $2,000 for several charities.

Alpha Zetas (Texas) have learned the main symbols of sign language so they can communicate with patients at Austin State Hospital for Deaf. In addition to testing hearing and tutoring, they give parties. Many other chapters give holiday parties for orphans, shut-ins and retarded children. Beta Pis visited a nursing home to sing patriotic songs as a Bicentennial project.

Omicrons (Illinois) play cupid for campus lovers on Valentine's Day while also making money for the Heart Fund. They make greeting cards of red and white construction paper—then deliver them on campus for a quarter each. They also supply a verse book for less poetic senders. Last February, they created 3,000 valentines and had to hang a "Sold Out" sign on their Student Union booth before the 14th arrived.

Beta Gamma joined other sororities and fraternities for a Housemother Kidnap at Bowling Green State. Canned goods, paid as ransom, were donated to the local Welfare Department. At Wisconsin, Gammas sponsor a Slave Day. Members are sold to high bidders to do work for their new "masters." Proceeds provide a local campship.

These have been some fun ways to help others. But philanthropy is much more . . . it's working on campus blood drives . . . visiting sick, elderly or lonely alumnae . . . or "running for those who can't" in a Muscular Dystrophy Superstar Track Meet. That's what Chis at Oregon State did.

What is your chapter doing?

If your chapter is selling an appropriate item, THE CRESCENT will be happy to give you advertising space. The Good Buys column will be published in the Fall (Deadline, June 1) and Spring (Deadline, March 1) issues. All pertinent information should be sent to Mrs. Phil Riske, Alumnae Editor, 429 James Court, Falls Church, VA 22046.

In accordance with Rules 104 and 106 of the International Rules and Procedures, all items to be sold on an international scale must be approved by the Sorority's Grand Council. Requests for approval should be sent to Mrs. Allen T. Phillips, Alumnae Vice President, 1118 Westerly Parkway, State College, PA 16801. Enclose a photograph of the item or a sample if it is small. Only one chapter may be granted approval to sell a specific item internationally. Please advise THE CRESCENT when your chapter wishes to discontinue sales.

A Great Deal for Delta Alpha

Be proud of your sisterhood. Wear a distinctive Gamma Phi T-shirt. Made of brown cotton (100%) with the large words GAMMA PHI BETA written across the front in pink, you can't be missed. T-shirts sell for $4 postage paid, sizes S, M, L, and XL. Send orders to: Gamma Phi Beta, Hagestad Student Center, River Falls, WI 54022.

Crewel Kit—Crest Motif

Oklahoma City Alumnae offer a crewel kit featuring the Sorority crest. Kit includes stamped linen, quality wool yarn and complete instructions. Priced at $7 postage paid. Mail checks payable to Gamma Phi Beta to: Mrs. Richard M. Jennings, 6721 Willowridge Dr., Oklahoma City, OK 73122.

GOOD BUYS FROM GAMMA PHI

Founders in Needlepoint

The striking cover of the March '75 CRESCENT, depicting the Sorority's four founders, has been reproduced in a needlepoint kit offered by the St. Louis Alumnae. The complete kit, 13 x 15" finished size, in brown, black and white, with handpainted canvas and Persian yarns is priced at $25 postage paid. The canvas only is $10. This would make an ideal gift for an outstanding alumna on Founders Day, or to a chapter. Each canvas can be custom designed to include a name or chapter.

The Founders also are available in sets of four individual portraits, each 10 x 12", for $25 postage paid (four canvases only). Order from Mrs. D. W. Bond, 12 Bayberry, Florissant, MO 63033.

Handy Post Cards

Brown and mode post cards, symbolically printed with a crescent moon and carnation emblem, come plain for use in writing personal messages, or in meeting notice form to remind members of the date, place, etc. Offered by the Fort Lauderdale Alumnae, both styles are available in packets of 100,

$4 per pack, postage paid. Order from: Mrs. James R. Hyatt, 5778 N.E. 17th Ave., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33308.

"Nostalgia" in Book Form

Mary Kay Dorman Kabler's "Nostalgia" articles, which ran in THE CRESCENT as a prelude to our Centennial, have been published in booklet form by the Denver Alumnae. This limited edition, bound in a soft pink cover, is available for $2.50 postage paid. Order from: Mrs. Earl T. Pinney, 6915 S. Garfield Way, Littleton, CO 80122.

Bibs for Gamma Phi Babies

Mothers and grandmothers won't be able to pass this one up! Each bib, printed in brown, shows a happy, chubby baby perched on a crescent moon. Boston Alumnae embroider the tiny pink carnation the baby holds. Two styles available: "My Mommy is a Gamma Phi" or "My Grandma is a Gamma Phi". Price $3 postage paid. Order from Mrs. W. F. Burt, Longmeadow Rd., Lincoln, MA 01773.

Attractive Playing Cards

Cards with a Sorority theme and a brown and mode color scheme are available from the Calumet Area Alumnae. Gift boxed, they sell for $3.75 per double deck; $3.25 in lots of 10, postage paid. Order from Mrs. Robert Bielfeldt, 6329 Moraine, Hammond, IN 46324.

Commemorative Window Decals

San Antonio Alumnae still have replicas of the 100-year emblem on car window decals. Fifty cents each or three for $1. A great gift for a new pledge or your oldest member. Order from Mrs. James R. Welsh, 15102 Encinito, San Antonio, TX 78232.

NEW ON OUR BOOKSHELF

There are two new books on the GPB Bookshelf. One involves the adventures of a black cat living on Mallorca in Spain's Balearic Islands, Entitled Me, Picaro! (Vantage Press), it's by Florence Hartman Hollister (Oregon).

Picaro, a native of the area, tells of the unforgettable characters in his life—the Doctor and his family, the servant girls, an old man nicknamed "Old Leopard Pants," and his own family, an American couple.

Picaro's delightful adventures also are intriguing. He discovers a smuggler's hideout and subsequently finds himself on the front page of every newspaper as a hero. It's a must for every cat lover.

Florence is a former librarian for the Belmont-Hawthorne Library, Portland, Ore. She also worked with Air Intelligence and did travel writing for American Express. She has a previously published book entitled Ozzie.

So Long, Chris

During her first marriage, Gene White Joyce (Texas) and her husband adopted two children, Chris and Lisa Streit. Her book, mainly devoted to the story of Chris' death at age 19, shares with the reader Gene's thoughts and beliefs about death—and more importantly, about life.

The book (Carlton Press, Inc., New York) begins with Gene's early life in Texas, her career in the newspaper field and as a stewardess for Braniff and her marriage. Through her many experiences, Gene shares her thoughts—be glad for the gifts loved ones make during their lives and accept their passing on to a better existence after death.

Currently, Gene resides in Richardson, Texas, and her chief interest the past six years has been teaching, organizing and arranging study groups for URANTIA religious fellowship.
