SUSAN HOWARD

One of the few "good guys" on the television show Dallas is Susan Howard (Texas), who stars as Donna Culver Krebbs. Born Jeri Lynn Mooney in Marshall, Tex., she is the only cast member who grew up in the state.

Susan appeared once as a guest star the first season of Dallas. The episode was written especially for her by the producer of Petrocelli, a series she starred in. Network executives were so delighted with her portrayal of the bright, career minded Donna Culver Krebbs, they asked her to return to Dallas the next season. After four shows, Susan became so popular she quickly became a regular.

Dallas begins its sixth season this fall.

Susan always wanted to become an actress. She performed in short plays and operettas in grade school and staged plays in the family garage.

Susan says that during this time, her family supported her dream.

"I grew up with my father telling me that I was talented and beautiful and wonderful. I respected and loved my father so I believed him—until I grew up and looked in the mirror and saw that daddy had lied. But by then it was too late. I was hooked.

"Both my parents instilled confidence in me. I knew I would be an actress."

She excelled in dramatic arts at Marshall High School and ultimately won the Texas Balfour Award for Drama. She was a drama major for three years at the University of Texas, then made her first move to Hollywood. There was the discouragement of a lack of offers to act, so she returned to Marshall (and sold shoes). She returned to Hollywood in less than a year, determined more than ever it would be a permanent move.

Susan joined the Los Angeles Repertory Company, working both in front of the lights and backstage. She contacted an agent and said she was ready for work. Impressed by her confidence, the agent called her in for an interview and promptly arranged for a screen test.

She signed a contract with Screen Gems and began appearing in television programs such as Flying Nun, The Outcasts, I Dream of Jeannie, Bonanza and others.

Susan was named Hollywood Deb Star of the Year in 1968.

Then a big opportunity came; she won the co-starring role in Petrocelli. Her two year portrayal of Petrocelli's wife, Maggie, won her nominations for an Emmy and a Golden Globe.

Susan starred in several movies for television, including Countdown to Super Bowl, Killer on Board, Indict and Convict, Man With A Gun and House on the Hill. Other movie credits include Moonshine County Express and Sidewinder 1.

Her television characters include the memorable Kingsfield's daughter in Paper Chase, a role CBS wanted to expand had the series continued.

In real life, Susan is married to Calvin Chrane, an independent motion picture executive. They have a daughter, Lynn, 20, and live in Studio City, Calif. The Chranes, with Susan's parents, own a cattle ranch in Marshall.

The Opportunity Fund was created to give sisters the opportunity to further promote, improve and expand Gamma Phi Beta.

Each donation makes a significant contribution to the establishment of Gamma Phi Beta collegiate chapters. During the 1982-83 school year, chapters were colonized and installed at the University of Georgia, California State College-Bakersfield and California State University-Sacramento. Colonies were established at the University of California-Santa Barbara, Oakland University and La Salle College.

Collegiate Consultants were able to make extra visits to collegiate chapters in need of special guidance and officer training. And, each colony benefitted from having a Collegiate Consultant in residence during the pledge period to guide the new sisters in their discovery of the opportunities in Gamma Phi Beta.

Gamma Phi Beta's exciting new Special Rush Advisor Program provides the expertise needed by some collegiate chapters to develop their full potential in rush. Your donations provide training for these volunteer alumnae advisors and enable them to visit chapters for pre-rush planning and rush week.

Alumnae chapters and crescent circles are an opportunity for sisters to enjoy Gamma Phi Beta friendship. They also serve as the all important support groups for collegiate chapters. The six alumnae chapters and four crescent circles established in the past year are listed on the back cover.

Your donation says you care enough to share in the achievements and future of Gamma Phi Beta. THANK YOU for being a special sister!

Opportunity Fund donors whose contributions were received in Central Office by June 1, 1983 are listed here.

Gamma Phi Beta sets the Trend, becomes first sorority at Bakersfield

Smiles were abundant in Bakersfield, Calif. on April 23, 1983. On that date, Delta Phi Chapter was installed amid much excitement at California State College-Bakersfield.

Love, labor, learning, loyalty and laughter were the themes for Inspiration Week. Gamma Phi Betas from other Province XVIa chapters were "secret sisters" throughout the week. Their notes of congratulations and best wishes created a special feeling of sisterhood for the Delta Phi members.

The colony hosted a reception for Grand Council members, international officers and alumnae on Friday evening. It was a time for sharing songs and sisterhood in anticipation of the next day's initiation and installation.

The Arena Room of the Dore Theater on campus was the setting Saturday for the beautiful initiation ceremonies. Members of Delta Lambda Chapter at California State-Riverside and Alpha Iota Chapter at UCLA conducted the ritual under the direction of International Ritual Chairman Cindy Partain Farrell.

That evening, 150 parents, friends and new initiates celebrated at the installation banquet held at the Rode-way Inn. Province Collegiate Director XVIa Judi Nesbitt Abbott (Cal. St.-Long Beach) served as mistress of ceremonies. She began the long awaited evening with a warm welcome to all and the introduction of those seated at the head table. Judy Prell, Greek advisor at Bakersfield, welcomed Gamma Phi Beta to campus on behalf of the Student Programs Office and the College.

Expansion Supervisor Beth Happe (N. Iowa) introduced each Delta Phi charter member. She presented the Outstanding Pledge Award to Naomi Dolohanty, colony corresponding and recording secretary.

A beautiful badge, with all three letters in turquoise was presented to Anna Lencioni, Delta Phi president. A gift from the Sorority, the badge will be worn by each succeeding chapter president. Province XVIa and the local Phi Mu alumnae chapter presented gifts to Delta Phi Chapter, also.

Diane Lang Bryan (UCLA), alumna field representative, and Merry Hyde McCalley (Nevada), pledge advisor, received crystal flower vases in recognition of their commitment and dedication throughout the colonization.

As the evening came to a close, there was yet one more anticipated event. Grand President Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.) presented the Delta Phi charter to Anna Lencioni. To complete the week they will cherish always, chapter members sang their pledge song to the tune of "Day By Day."

Charter members of Delta Phi Chapter are: Sandy Barber, Ann Beecher, Lisa Crowe, Regan Davis, Naomi Dolohanty, Valerie Evans, Joan Jelaca, Kathy LaBrie, Kaye Lemmon, Anna Lencioni, Katie Long, Cheri Mangold, Bonnie Nielsen, Divina Pizano, LisaJo Peterson, Lenora Smith, Ilene Taylor, Denise Tafoya, Holly Thomas, Lynda Younger, Kelly Walton and Kathy Wilhem.

Delta Chi Chapter

Delta Chi Chapter's installation on May 14, 1983 at California State University-Sacramento was the culmination of three months of enthusiastic sisterhood. During the pledge period, the colony won many first place awards in campus activities and received outstanding Panhellenic support.

A weekend retreat to San Andreas, Calif. preceded the beginning of Inspiration Week. Days dedicated to love, labor, learning, loyalty and laughter led the pledges to the excitement of installation weekend.

Although the Friday evening reception was shortened due to poor weather conditions causing the late arrival of visiting international officers and Grand Council members, initiation day dawned sunny. The white stucco, mission style Carmichael Presbyterian Church was the setting for the afternoon initiation conducted by Eta Chapter at the University of California. International Ritual Chairman Cindy Partain Farrell (Bowling Green) directed the ceremonies.

Initiation was especially memorable for Cindy Christensen as her mother Carol Cooper Christensen (San Jose St.) was in attendance. Each new initiate was given a pink carnation from the Sacramento Valley Alumnae Chapter, and a crescent shaped Christmas ornament from Caroline Froid Osborne (California), assistant rush advisor. Wishing to continue a tradition from her chapter, Caroline made the ornaments for each of the 53 initiates.

The Capitol Plaza Holiday Inn was the site for the installation banquet attended by nearly 250 Gamma Phi Betas, friends and family members. Laura Walker (Cal. Poly-San Luis Obispo), Sacramento Valley Alumnae Chapter president, served as mistress of ceremonies. She introduced Sally Berlant, Panhellenic advisor, who welcomed Gamma Phi Beta to campus and encouraged the charter members to continue striving for excellence. Dr. Sandra Barkdull, California State University-Sacramento executive vice president spoke about the women of today and the sorority experience as a vehicle for growth.

Expansion Supervisor Sandy Pursley (Moorhead St.) introduced the collegiate initiates and alumna initiate Pam Flynn. Janet Jones, chapter pledge director, received the Outstanding Pledge Award.

Cathy Jantzen, chapter president, expressed the colony's appreciation by presenting special gifts to Carolyn Tilton Cunningham (California), alumna advisor; Gail Haren McMichael (Arizona), alumna field representative; and Sandy Pursley.

Commemorative plaques were received from many of the other sororities on campus, and engraved silver trays were the gifts from Province XIII collegiate and alumnae chapters. Director of Expansion Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.) presented the Sorority gift, a turquoise jeweled badge to be worn by each succeeding Delta Chi president.

The most cherished gift of all, the chapter's charter, was accepted by Cathy Jantzen from Grand President Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.). Cathy expressed the pride and excitement of chapter members in becoming Gamma Phi Betas and pledged they would always strive to make their sisters proud of them.

Charter members and their families and guests then adjourned to the chapter's installation dance to treasure the excitement into the night.

Plan now for growth!

1. Determine why increased membership is desirable, set a specific membership increase goal and develop a specific plan to achieve that goal.
2. Keep members updated on progress made toward the goal. Plan a celebration when the goal is met, including a drawing for a Gamma Phi Beta gift, free Founders Day meal or refund of local dues.
3. Explain that additional funds will provide expanded activities and services for the membership.
4. Send an addressed envelope with the dues billing and include a statement of goals for the year.
5. Offer activities and services available only to dues paying members—newsletter, roster.
6. Follow up the initial mailing with a personal letter or phone call.
7. Recognize those who pay their dues on time by listing their names in the newsletter and drawing for a free Founders Day dinner or refund of local dues.
8. Assign representatives from each decade of initiation to contact a few members of the same age group who have not paid dues.
9. Begin to collect dues at May and June meetings for the upcoming year.
10. Offer complimentary local memberships to first year alumnae.
11. Consider forming auxiliary groups for night and day meetings and by geographical area to meet the needs of potential dues paying members.

12. Contact all members on the "strip" list at least once each year.
13. Stay in contact with collegiate chapters, other alumnae groups and international Gamma Phi Beta to develop a sense of broader purpose.
14. Plan ahead and base programs on the needs and interests of members as determined through a survey.
15. Divide the chapter into recruitment teams or challenge another alumnae chapter to a membership recruitment contest.
16. Emphasize the positive. A positive approach may not guarantee success, but a negative approach guarantees failure.
17. Appeal to a sense of prestige in being part of the alumnae chapter by using the strength of chapter activities, services and projects as the basis of a campaign for dues paying members.

U—Use your envelope.

POETRY — Pictures of words express what

Convention 1982

Please come and take my hand.
 I've given you my heart,
 And as I stand here—remember me

...
 As now we finally part.

One badge, one goal, but many paths ...

Unite us as we're here,
 And as I gaze around the room,
 The feelings are so dear

There's love here beating within these walls.

There's pride and loyalty, too.
 And as we touch each other's lives,
 I know we've pledged anew.

I thought I'd find a few sisters who

...
 I would really feel close to.
 But what I did not expect to find ...
 Was the feeling flooding my heart and mind.

So this is Gamma Phi Beta . . .
 Not just an organization . . .
 But a living, loving way of life . . .
 Spread farther than a nation.

I finally just now understand . . .
 With loyalty that we share,
 And I've never been prouder to display

This loving badge I wear.
 Iva Nicholson Deobald
 (Idaho)

To My Sister

Just a note to my sister
 who's more than a friend
 We'll stick by each other our bond has no end

Though sometimes it seems
 I'm not always there
 Please believe and remember that I really do care

The times that we've had the trying—the fun
 Are only a shadow of those yet to come

So stay with me sister
 we'll see 'round the bend 'Cause you're more than a sister and much more than a friend

Linda Kloiber
 (Illinois St.)

Gamma Phi Beta

What does it mean to be a Gamma Phi Beta:

The feeling goes much deeper than meets the eye

We're not just members—we're sisters thru and thru

Hopefully there'll be Gamma Phis from one generation to another
 As sister, daughter, niece or mother

Gamma Phi Beta means to Gamma Phi Betas

Gamma Phis and their husbands meet for good times,
 But helping others is a goal most prime

A camp for children, helping a new chapter and aiding others in need Brings joy to our hearts when we succeed

Keeping in touch makes the bonds grow stronger
 And memories of college days live longer.

Helen Strickland Roberts
 (Northwestern)

Blurred But Better

My once perfect vision blurred by extensive study.
 All nighters spent with loyal hot pots and buddies.

Friends had warned me I would need to study a lot,

That my first and only need would go to one thought.

Did I study enough?
 Should I drop it? I think it's too rough.

No, I'll stick it out, I'm tough.

Then I think I deserve a break,
 So I treat myself to a nice big steak.

But then it comes in one big grip,
 The horrible feeling of "The Guilt Trip."

There are few ways to get over the inevitable guilt.

But I've found a way that won't knock it over but will cause a tilt.

I'm in a Sorority, Gamma Phi Beta to be exact.

And it has been this Sorority that has put me on track.

When my improvement begins to fall toward non-existent,

 Is when my sisters get the most persistent.

They don't bark and scream or slap
 my hand,
 But rather help me find out where I stand.

They had been there before, just like me.
 And it was their older sisters that helped them see.

My perfect vision may have gone out the door,
 Lost in some law book or music
 score.

But now I see more than I have ever before,
 With the help of my sisters, my mind shall soar.

Think About This

Are you an active member
 The kind that would be missed
 Or are you just contented
 That your name be on the list?

Do you attend the meetings
 And mingle with the flocks,
 Or do you stay at home
 And criticize and knock?

Do you take an active part
 To help the work along,
 Or are you satisfied to be
 That kind that just belongs?

Do you ever go to visit
 A member who is sick,
 Or leave the work to just a few
 And talk about the clique?

Think this over, member
 You know right from wrong,
 Are you an ACTIVE member,
 Or do you "just belong?"

Academic excellence earns fellowship and scholarship awards for outstanding sisters

Lindsey Barbee Fellowship

Karen Johnston (Arizona) graduated with a 4.0 grade average in biochemistry and this fall begins medical school at Vanderbilt University. Her goal is to become a pediatric reconstructive surgeon and to eventually support a public clinic for children in need of corrective surgery.

"To be able to establish such a clinic," she said, "offering my services to a broader group of patients, would not only allow me to achieve a fuller potential for myself, but also ideally allow me to incorporate a holistic philosophy of practice in offering a psychological follow-up to my patients and especially to those who have already been emotionally burdened by their physical deformity."

Karen's many honors include the Howard Award (most outstanding member of Phi Beta Kappa), the Plaque Award (most outstanding member of Phi Kappa Phi), Who's Who and the Roble Gold Medal Award, given at graduation to the most outstanding seniors at the University of Arizona. Phi Kappa Phi awarded her a national fellowship and she also received the Kathryn Willis Mortar Board Fellowship.

Named her chapter's outstanding senior, Karen served as treasurer and president. She was awarded the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation Kathryn and John F. Winchester Scholarship in 1981. ## Brass Letters

Bloomington-Normal alumnae are raising funds for a new chapter house at Illinois State University by selling original design brass letters to be used as paperweights or wall hangings. They are approximately  $5\frac{1}{4}'' \times 5\frac{1}{2}''$  and are \$10 plus \$1 postage and handling. Available through Sue Quane, 1107 W. College Ave., Normal, IL 61761, they would make great gifts for seniors, big or little sisters or advisors.

Cross Stitch

Enterprising collegians at Northwestern University are offering the 1896 monogram and crescent design in cross stitch. The monogram can be ordered in kit form for $12, or, if there is sufficient demand, the graph only for $5. The complete kit includes the design graph, 14 or 18 count ecru aida cloth, brown embroidery floss and a needle. Order both items from Gamma Phi Beta, Northwestern University, 640 Emerson, Evanston, IL 60201.

Suncatchers

Catch the sun and the heart of a Gamma Phi Beta with a hand painted glass suncatcher from the St. Louis alumnae. The hand poured glass is collared in lead, and hand painted pink carnations and delicate leaves border the message, Sisters are Special—ΓΦΒ. Perfect for hostess gifts, stocking stuffers and thoughtful remembrances, the suncatchers are $6 plus $1 postage and handling. Send orders to Carol Johnson, 1892 Shoettler Valley Dr., Chesterfield, MO 63017.

Sisters Speak

Dear Sisters,

As a rush advisor to a collegiate chapter, I feel some alumnae are not in touch with the intricacies involved with rush today. Sororities are becoming more popular and offering many more opportunities. As our numbers grow so do the number of legacies.

Ideally we would love to have the opportunity to accept every legacy into a special bond with Gamma Phi Beta. This is not possible now, as it was very often in the past, because in some instances the legacies outnumber the available pledge-ships or at least a goodly portion. I feel each legacy is given an extra special consideration during membership selection, but must understand it is no guarantee to becoming a pledge. They must compete with the other rushees and offer the qualities needed to maintain Gamma Phi Beta as the outstanding organization it is today.

To help ease the pressure upon your legacy and the prospective collegiate chapter, it would help to have a pro-Greek attitude. From campus to campus, personalities, goals and opportunities vary or can change over the years, thus making it nice to encourage the rushee to pledge the sorority she feels most comfortable with and/or the one that has chosen her. Of course it never hurts to be a little prejudiced toward Gamma Phi Beta.

Please remember to send in your Sponsor Forms to the Alumnae Recommendations Chairmen early. Also, call your local collegiate chapter to find out how you can help share in the excitement of rush.

*Yours in IKE,
Sandy Peck Carey
(Cal. St.-Long Beach)
Advisor, San Diego State*

Camping Corner

Camping is more than swimming, hiking and arts and crafts! Throughout the United States and Canada there are hundreds of year-round and seasonal camps providing psychotherapy, physical therapy, special education and more for children, adolescents and adults. Gamma Phi Beta Camp Sechelt for "special girls" is one of these camps.

Gamma Phi Beta's "Adopt A Camp, Camper, Counselor" program is the means for every alumnae and collegiate chapter to support camping for "special girls" through a local philanthropy.

Adopt a camp by: providing transportation, clean-up crews equipment, staff, monetary grants, camper recruitment and processing.

Adopt a camper by: providing necessary physical examinations, clothing and gear, camp fees, letters to campers, follow-up services and care packages.

Adopt a counselor by: providing training fees, transportation, care packages, letters and scholarships.

Many creative alternatives are available to groups through the "Adopt A Camp, Camper, Counselor" program. Use your imagination!

In order to locate a camp for "special girls" in your area, contact your local Mental Health Association, United Way, Community Chest or Welfare Department. Both publicly and privately funded agencies, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, YWCA and YMCA sponsor programs. For additional help in locating a therapeutic camping program, contact International Camping Chairman Judy E. Graham, 4712 Lemmon #4, Dallas, TX 75219. Good luck in finding your "special girl!"

Charters Relinquished

With deep regret, Grand Council has accepted the charters of Gamma Upsilon Chapter, Drake University, and Gamma Phi Chapter, Auburn University. It is the hope of Grand Council that future conditions will warrant Gamma Phi Beta returning to these campuses.
