Opinion

As I was thumbing through the Alumnae Directory I was truly overwhelmed and impressed with the variety of backgrounds of our Sorority sisters. I found many sisters in the most fascinating positions in major companies around the world and the number of traditional professions also stood out. I keep thinking of how often I hear the cry for a sister who might have this or that background or expertise and am hopeful SisterLink might help us with this.

Among our sisterhood we have the talent to literally run a city, a state or even the world. We have sisters who have skills in everything from construction to finances, to lawyer, doctor, entrepreneur, teachers of all specialties, ministers and even the marketing director for 2-Alarm Chili. The potential is truly overwhelming.

KOLBE

Featured in Money, Family Circle, U.S. News & World Report and Time magazine's 1985 Man of the Year issue, she told Time the secret of her success: "I enjoy a challenge."

Her letterhead says "Resources for the Gifted, Inc.," but behind that title is Kathy Wonderlic Kolbe (Northwestern) whose name is followed by several titles: president and owner of Kathy Kolbe, Inc., a national learning network of educational consultants who spread the word of her products; president and owner of Resources for the Gifted, Inc., largest international publisher of materials for gifted education; chairman of the board of Think, Inc., a non-profit educational foundation that conducts research and seminars related to the learning process; partner in Quality Management Concepts, Ltd., consultants for business and professionals; consultant to schools, state departments of education and national educational organizations; and career counselor to aspiring women in business and the professions.

Kathy wears other hats, too. She is a specialist in the design of educational materials, author or co-author of 27 educational books and "manipulatives" designed to develop critical and creative thinking skills, and editor of 108 educational books to teach students in pre-school through university levels.

Her enterprises, about to celebrate their 10th anniversary, have taken an astounding leap from a small mimeographed order form business she operated from a bedroom closet to a $3.5 million concern in a Phoenix office building she owns. Kathy employs a full time staff of 30 and oversees a worldwide network of writers, artists and educators who come up with ideas to challenge critical and creative thinking for youngsters in more than 30,000 classrooms throughout the country. Now, through her Kathy Kolbe, Inc. Learning Network, hundreds of teachers are finding supplementary careers as independent business people who spread the word to public and private schools, libraries, hospitals, camps, educational conferences and neighborhood parent groups.

Getting back to Resources for the Gifted and its "Think-ercises"—What is a Think-ercise? According to Kathy, they can help children reach a higher level of thinking. Publications offer youngsters practice in meeting challenges head on. "I write activities that cause students to go back and forth between the left-brain, logical, critical thinking approach, and the right-brain, intuitive or creative track. With our non-threatening exercises, youngsters can try techniques that build on their intellectual strengths."

She tries to give students intellectual challenges, to build their self-image, learn how to solve problems and to think both critically and creatively. Her approaches vary: activity books that get children actively involved in the process; games, some competitive, some non-competitive; learning center materials; hands-on construction sets; and kits to be used either at home or school. Kathy said, "Think-ercises reinforce all the basic skills, because children find they're a necessary ingredient for problem solving. To plan a campaign to protect 'Nessie,' the Loch Ness monster, children will need to learn geography, history—even international law!"

"A brilliant mind is caged if it cannot communicate. Think-ercises get children writing, taping, drawing and/or acting to give them practice in communicating ideas."

---

In addition, Think-ercises stress multi-sensory techniques. Children can build with recycled objects like cogs, sprockets, music box innards, fabric and other odds and ends scavenged from a variety of manufacturers. Each box of industrial remnants is different. All are hand assembled.

Kathy's concept also includes the vital sharing of findings. "Once a child has discovered a truth, he must communicate. A brilliant mind is caged if it cannot communicate. Think-ercises get children writing, taping, drawing and/or acting to give them practice in communicating ideas."

Kathy credits her two gifted children for getting her started in the business. They were not being challenged by their public school system and when she approached the school district as a frustrated parent, she was told she could head a committee to start a gifted program. She found little to read on the subject, so she spent a year interviewing parents, students,

"I had to be creative. I couldn't just memorize and follow instructions."

educators and psychologists. Before starting to implement her own ideas and concepts, Kathy set up a test summer school for 200 children each summer for five years. It was so successful that without formal training as an educator she taught graduate level courses in the subject at Arizona State University. At the same time she started the State Association for the Gifted and Talented.

Kathy took $500 earned from teaching seminars and put it into the "inventory," purchasing the few available games and other materials for the gifted (defined as one with an I.Q. of more than 130). At first customers came to her house with mimeographed order sheets and Kathy filled orders from the bedroom closet. As orders multiplied, she added a shed to her home and later enclosed a carport to make another storeroom-office. Between 1975 and 1979 she had accumulated enough money to send out her first mail order catalog to 3,500 parents and teachers who had attended her classes and seminars. The response rate was so good that she knew she had discovered a tremendous need.

She found a printer who would give her extended time to pay bills, allowing her to sell books before she had to pay for the printing. The key to her success in those early years: "Keep your overhead low. I was profitable from the start because I didn't rush out and buy new office furniture or rent a fancy office when the orders started coming in." Her tools were the kitchen table for writing books and creating games, a family ping pong table for shipping, a seed bin for storing inventory and the bathroom scale for weighing materials for mailing. Later, when forced to expand from her home, Kathy went to a bank and secured a line of credit enabling her to buy a building.

"Keep your overhead low. I was profitable from the start because I didn't rush out and buy new office furniture or rent a fancy office when the orders started coming in."

The second force encouraging her in her business enterprise was her own handicap, dyslexia and dysgraphia. She sees and writes everything backwards to the extent that it took her a year to learn how to write her name. But, she was gifted, and with her father's encouragement and reinforcement that she was special, Kathy persevered, learning how to read in third grade. Her survival technique was learning how to speed read and she can still write backwards as fast as she can write frontwards. To her, having a learning disability was a challenge. Right answers often looked wrong, so she was forced to analyze alternatives, synthesize different methods and evaluate each step along the way. "Lucky me," Kathy said, "I had to be creative. I couldn't just memorize and follow instructions."

Kathy has been honored as Arizona's Small Business Person of the Year by the Small Business Administration and represented her state at a ceremony in the White House Rose Garden—a fitting spot for a person whose survival skill while living at a frenetic pace is to have something totally relaxing, totally different, to do. In her case, this is gardening. "I work in my garden 18 to 20 hours a week. During that time business is never on my mind."

ΓΦΒ's financial structure

Alumnae taxes . . . Opportunity Fund donations . . . Foundation gifts.

Three kinds of gifts for one Sorority? Are they different? Is it necessary to contribute to all?

Gamma Phi Beta's financial structure can be compared to a coin. On one side is the General Fund and on the other is the Foundation. Each fund exists in order to comply with U.S. Internal Revenue Service regulations governing gifts to not-for-profit corporations.

The General Fund is funded primarily by collegiate and materials fees, alumnae taxes and Opportunity fund gifts. It finances the programming, growth and day-to-day operation of the Sorority. In part, the General Fund is used:

- to pay the salaries and travel expenses of eight Collegiate Consultants and Extension Supervisors during the 1985-86 school year;
- to establish eight new collegiate chapters and 21 alumnae groups in the past two years;
- to develop programming for members and chapters (SisterLink, International Rush Consultant program);
- to write and revise publications and manuals (Gamma Phi Beta History 1874-1984, the "Advisor's Advisor" newsletter for collegiate chapter advisors);
- to pay the expenses of more than 100 sisters who volunteer their time as international officers;
- to publish quarterly THE CRESCENT, the Sorority magazine every member receives for life;
- to partially fund the biennial International Convention;
- to cover Central Office operating expenses.

Payment of the alumnae tax is the most basic way an alumna can honor her lifelong commitment to Gamma Phi Beta. It is a responsibility of membership and should be accepted by all alumnae. Alumnae taxes ensure that the Gamma Phi Beta experience will be available to our younger sisters, both today and tomorrow. Alumnae taxes keep Gamma Phi Beta alive!

But it is gifts to the Opportunity Fund that help Gamma Phi Beta thrive! The Opportunity Fund was started in 1980 to attract gifts from alumnae who want to do more than simply pay their alumnae tax. Gifts to the Opportunity Fund mean the difference between just keeping up and moving ahead, between being a follower and being a leader. Opportunity Fund gifts ensure that Gamma Phi Beta's reputation for excellence will be enhanced.

In early fall, each alumna receives the Opportunity Fund mailer. For those living where there is an alumnae group, it is a reminder to pay their alumnae tax, along with local dues, through the local chapter. Those alumnae are encouraged also to support Gamma Phi Beta's programs and services by making a direct contribution to the Opportunity Fund.

For alumnae living in areas without an alumnae group, the Opportunity Fund mailer is their opportunity to demonstrate their loyalty and pride in Gamma Phi Beta and its programs. The first $12 of each gift is credited as the alumnae tax; the rest of the contribution is considered an Opportunity Fund donation.

The other side of the Gamma Phi Beta coin is the Foundation. It was incorporated in 1959 to fulfill the educational and philanthropic aims of the Sorority. Under the U.S. Internal Revenue code, gifts to the Foundation are tax deductible.

The Foundation is supported by endowments, bequests and gifts from members and chapters. In November, the Foundation begins its annual campaign for gifts by contacting all alumnae. It follows up with reminders in February and April.

The Sorority's financial aid program consists of scholarships, fellowships and grants-in-aid. Last year, 12 scholarships and 10 fellowships totalling $29,100 were awarded to deserving sisters. Foundation gifts are also used to fund educational programs, such as Personal and Chapter Enrichment (PACE) packets. These programs are available to Gamma Phi Beta members through their chapters, THE CRESCENT and at International Convention.

Gifts to the Foundation also support the sorority's international philanthropy, camping for "special girls." Gifts from across the continent provide memorable and enriching experiences for girls at Camp Sechelt, the Sorority's internationally owned and operated camp in Vancouver, British Columbia. Last year 109 special girls from the Vancouver area enjoyed the benefit of camping under the loving guidance of Gamma Phi Beta volunteer camp counselors and camp staff.

Also, funds are returned directly to communities where there are collegiate and alumnae chapters who have requested funds to add to their local camping related gifts. Last year 30 chapters received $8,330 to help 162 girls attend 36 local camps.

The two sides of the Gamma Phi Beta coin—the General Fund and the Foundation—support different facets of Gamma Phi Beta. Each is necessary to realize the ideals and purposes of Gamma Phi Beta. Each depends on YOU!

1985-86 Foundation Awards

Lindsey Barbee Fellowship

Dawn Becker (Bucknell) is a first year law student at Stanford who hopes to practice international corporate or tax law. She would also like to teach undergraduate law classes.

The recipient of a Bucknell University scholarship for her undergraduate studies, Dawn received a B.A. in economics. She was chapter vice president, Panhellenic president and John Marshall Pre-Law Society president. A member of the varsity softball team, Dawn was an East Coast Conference Scholar Athlete and received honorable mention as an Academic All American. Other honors include mortar Board, Dean's List, Omicron Delta Epsilon and Alpha Lambda Delta.

Audrey Weldon Shafer Fellowship

Gaye Gargiula (Fla. Inst. of Tech) is studying for a Ph.D. in molecular biology with a concentration on genetic engineering and immunology. After graduation, she hopes to do research and teach at a university. Gaye has a B.S. in molecular biology and was a member of Beta Beta Beta and vice president of Blue Key. An editor of the university newspaper, she was Panhellenic president and served as chapter social chairman.

Fern Holcomb Heath Fellowship

Suzan Zetterman (Kearney St.) is enrolled in the M.A. program in college student personnel at Bowling Green. She plans a career which will lead to a position as a university dean of students. A 1984-85 Collegiate Consultant, Suzan graduated cum laude in education from Kearney State, where she had a four year tuition scholarship. Suzan was chapter membership chairman and pledge director, and a member of the Student Senate and the university's Envoy program. She was a finalist for the outstanding senior award and a member of four honor societies.

Founders Fellowships

Maura Berkelhamer (Illinois) has a B.S. in biology and is a second year medical student at Rush Medical College in Chicago. After graduation she plans to study public health and health administration. Maura is a member of the Chicago Alumnae Chapter, Rush Faculty Council, Student Council and the Chicago Board of Education speaker program. Her honors include Mortar Board, Alpha Epsilon Delta and Phi Eta Sigma. She was president of her residence hall, secretary of the Hall Residents Council and vice chairman of the McKinley Health Center Board.

Laura Segal (Arizona) is a third year law student at UCLA where she has participated in the Moot Court honors program, been a member of the standards committee and a law clerk. She attended the University of Arizona and graduated from Occidental College with a B.A. in political science. Laura received the Phi Kappa Phi Certificate of Merit at Arizona. While at Occidental she was chairman of the Political Science Student Advisory Group, which included organizing colloquiums, internships and pre-professional programs for students.

Mary Rutchow (Miami) is enrolled in medical school at Ohio State with plans to become a family practice physician. She earned a B.A. in zoology with a 3.9 GPA and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Mary was active in the pre-medical club and symphony orchestra, and received the DeNardi Scholarship for study in Luxembourg.

Renee Rapa (LaSalle) is studying for an M.A. in international business or communications for a possible career in the diplomatic corps. She received a B.A. in Russian and Spanish. Instrumental in the founding of Epsilon Alpha Chapter, Renee served as its first president. She was treasurer of Orientation Leaders and a Residence Council member.

Foundation Fellowships

Teri Lederer (Northwestern) has a B.A. in economics and is studying for an M.A. in management at Northwestern. She plans a career in management consulting or management information systems, and is a research specialist for Blue Cross Blue Shield. Teri is International SisterLink Chairman, a member of the Chicago Alumnae chapter and rush advisor for Epsilon Chapter. She was president of her chapter, NU Friends and Allison Dorm Government. Teri is a volunteer for the Childhood Cancer Assistance Program.

Julie Scherer (Michigan) has her sights on a master's degree in electrical engineering from the University of Michigan and plans to specialize in digital communications and design. Her ultimate goal is to earn a Ph.D. and possibly an M.B.A., and then secure a technical management position with an electronics firm. As an undergraduate, Julie was awarded scholarships from the College of Engineering, Western Electric and Detroit Panhellenic. She was chapter social chairman and scholarship chairman, and a member of Eta Kappa Nu and Tau Beta Pi.

Elizabeth Itakura (Cal.-Berkeley) has a B.A. in history and is studying for an M.A. in international relations at Yale. Her career goal is to become a political risk analyst in the Asian division of a U.S. commercial bank. Her undergraduate honors include Mortar Board and Honor Student's Society, and she received the East Asian Student Institute Fellowship and a four year Alumni Scholarship. Elizabeth was president of the Oakland Youth Chorus, a director of the Oakland-Fukuoka Sister City Society, a representative of the San Francisco Cherry Blossom Festival and American vice chairman for the Japan-America Student Con-senior anthropology major. She is chapter vice president and a member of the Panhellenic board and the pom pon squad.

Alix Umen (Minnesota) is a senior design major. She is chapter president and was president of her pledge class.

Susan Malcolm Frazier, Helen McConnel Hoff and Agnes Ramstedt Hawkins were special guests at the banquet.

Xi Chapter sisters are Marcy, Meg and Julie Taylor, and Cecilia, Margie and Mary Jones.

Xi Chapter welcomed more than 160 alumnae to the celebration.

Xi Chapter 75 Years

Xi Chapter, University of Idaho, celebrated its 75th anniversary in February. The first sorority on campus, it began in 1901 as a sewing club which met in the Moscow City Hall furnace room. The club developed into a strong group that became Xi Chapter on November 22, 1909.

More than 160 members returned to Moscow for the weekend celebration. In attendance were Helen McConnel Hoff (class of 1928), Agnes Ramstedt Hawkins (class of 1932) and Susan Malcolm Frazier (class of 1933). Mrs. Hawkins's granddaughter, Nancy, is a Xi Chapter collegian.

What Miss Hoff and Mrs. Frazier noticed is the change in the behavior and aspirations of women students. "The girls all seem so independent, free and happy," said Mrs. Hoff. "I guess I mean they are so much more sure of themselves and portray more confidence." "The students are so friendly," said Mrs. Frazier, "and I think all of the girls at the Sorority are so much more poised than we were at their age."

The anniversary weekend began with a Friday evening open house complete with peanuts and olives and old yearbooks. At the Saturday afternoon banquet, collegians performed a song and dance skit in which each decade of the chapter was represented. Alumnae were then treated to a slide show accompanied by speeches and singing. Photos from old scrapbooks were used and whispers of "Oh, that's me!" and "That's our pledge class!" came from every corner of the room. Ceramic tile magnets made by the collegians were given to alumnae as a remembrance of the event.

Gamma Rho returns

When a University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh local sorority petitioned Gamma Phi Beta last fall, it was the first step toward the rechartering of Gamma Rho Chapter. Inactive since 1976 (all sororities and fraternities had left campus by the late 1970s because of limited student interest), Gamma Phi Beta is the first sorority to return to campus. Three fraternities also have returned.

Soon after pledging, colony members earned third place in the university's Winter Carnival. They also participated in a campus blood drive and helped raise funds for the American Heart Association. Social functions were held with fraternities and the colony co-sponsored the All-Greek Spring Formal.

Required weekly study hours and a study buddie program promoted scholastic excellence. Personal and Chapter Enrichment (PACE) meetings emphasized scholarship, grooming and sisterhood, and colony members and local alumnae met for a luncheon.

On April 27, 1985, 37 new members of Gamma Rho Chapter were initiated at a local chapel. That evening, the new initiates and their friends and families gathered at a banquet to celebrate the rechartering of the chapter.

The Outstanding Pledge Award was presented to Kelly Walsh, colony president. Chapter advisors and Extension Supervisor Brooke Bailey (Cal.-Santa Barbara) received gifts of appreciation. Gamma Rho received the silver tea service and baby cup which had been presented to the chapter at its 1966 chartering. Other gifts were a silver pitcher from the Fox Valley Alumnae Chapter, a Gamma Phi Beta banner from Province V alumnae chapters, a plaque from Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity, a welcome banner from Province V collegiate chapters and a silver tray from the Sorority.

Delta Rho Chapter advisors are Laura Mayle (Illinois), financial; Paula Fox (Wis.-Oshkosh), PACE; and Kay Vogt (Wis.-Platteville), pledge.

International officers in attendance at the rechartering were Grand President Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.), Director of Extension Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.), Ritual Chairman Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri), Province V Alumnae Director Peggy Larson Stromer (Nebraska), Province V Collegiate Director Wanda Siegfried (Bradley), Extension Supervisor Brooke Bailey and Alumna Field Representative Diane Bean Fletcher (Wis.-Oshkosh).

New initiates are Joell Alberti, Brenda Berlowski, Sandy Bonnici, Dawn Brustman, Therese DeBlieck, Julie Ferrero, Marcie Fischer, Deneene Florino, Maureen Fontana, Mary Frickenstein, Ann Haasl, Lisa Kahn, Tina Hartmann, Holly Hetzel, Tina Hoffman, Anna Jiries, Lynda Klug, Karalyn Lepak, Michelle Lewis, Kristi Miller, Jayne Mueller, Jeanine Mueller, Ivette Paras, Chris Raihle, Mielna Rajnovic, Lisa Reilly, Lisa Roesch, Missy Schuh, Diane Stratil, Carrie Walsh, Kathy Walsh, Katie Walsh, Kathy Wenzel, Mary Wohlford, Marie Wycklendt and Ann Ziesemer.

New initiates of Gamma Rho Chapter display their banner which was a gift from Province V alumnae chapters.

A new beginning

Beta Delta officers participating in Greek Week activities are Janice Thompson, pledge director; Lisa Gatzke, standards chairman; Tracy Pointer, president; Janice Loughman, social chairman; and Jenny Dorow, treasurer.

"Old" and "new" Beta Delta members and pledges gather outside the chapel on initiation day.

It was a new opportunity for Gamma Phi Beta and Michigan State University last spring when Beta Delta Chapter was reorganized to ensure its successful future. Declining membership over a period of years had weakened the chapter, and in an effort to return it to a viable position on campus Grand Council made the decision to reorganize.

A reorganization rush was conducted by Director of Extension Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.) in much the same manner as a colonization rush. After informational, open house and preference parties, an outstanding group of pledges joined the remaining collegiate members of Beta Delta Chapter.

The Beta Deltas quickly put their enthusiasm to work, promoting Gamma Phi Beta around campus. Serenades, fraternity parties and participation in campus events created an awareness of the new Gamma Phi Beta.

Activities included painting toothbrushes for Camp Sechelt campers and participating in a telephone campaign to raise funds for the Performing Arts Coliseum on campus. Personal and Chapter Enrichment (PACE) programs were held on time management and color analysis and to practice for fall rush.

Much activity centered around Greek Week and Greek Sing practice. Teamed with the Tau Kappa Epsilons (also new on campus) for Greek Sing, the two groups generated much enthusiasm and excitement around campus. The Gamma Phi Betas attended Greek Week activities in full force, participating in every event.

Initiation was held April 13, 1985 at St. John's East Chapel and was conducted by Beta Delta members. That evening the "new" and "old" members and pledges welcomed their parents and friends to a banquet held at the Capitol Park Hotel.

Awards were presented to Jennifer Grossman (Outstanding Pledge), Patty Donnelly (Congeniality), Renae Ouillette and Judith Joslin (Highest GPA), and Suzanne Dickman and Ruthann Freeland (Highest Crescent Sister GPA).

International officers who participated in the reorganization rush and attended initiation weekend activities were Director of Extension Karen Kline, Collegiate Vice President Randall Stevens Guerra (Cal. St.-Long Beach), Grand President Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.), Province IV Alumnae Director Jolene Lessard Stiver (N. Dakota St.), Province IV Collegiate Director Susan Smith (Indiana St.) and Extension Supervisor Diane Soderstrom (Idaho).

New Beta Delta initiates are Michelle Berrie, Tracy Blewett, Debbie Cook, Jessica Creasey, Marie Deratany, Suzanne Dickman, Patty Donnelly, Jennifer Dorow, Kim Eringaard, Betsy Froyd, Lisa Gatzke, Cathe George, Jennifer Grossman, Lisa Hosking, Janice Loughman, Teresa Lucey, Brenda Mayday, Chris O'Hara, Renae Ouillette, Maureen Pierce, Tracy Pointer, Pam Porter, Laura Sickterman, Janice Thompson, Lori Ann Thornhill and Vicky Trawczynski.

Problem Solving

Imagine attending a meeting where the main purpose is to deal with some significant challenges. Imagine further that the meeting is productive, creative and even renewing—that the challenges are constructively addressed and solutions reached. A chapter that chooses to follow an organized system of problem solving can deal with challenges in a timely, effective manner that guarantees short and long range results.

To ensure success, the leader must approach the situation with an open mind and truly want the solution to come from the group. All involved must be willing to listen and stay on task. A chalkboard or flip chart is helpful for listing ideas in clear sight of the whole group. If the group is larger than eight, it is wise to divide it and assign a leader for each small group. After working through the method in small groups, the large group may reassemble, share ideas and draw final conclusions.

A basic six step method yields the best results when each step is separately defined and specifically addressed. The leader's role is to guide the group through each step and keep members on the task at hand.

STEP ONE: Define the problem.

Don't assume that everyone knows exactly what the problem is. Define it specifically. For example, instead of saying generally, "We need to improve participation," say more specifically, "We need to increase attendance at our event."

STEP TWO: State the pertinent facts.

For this step to be effective, the group leader needs to be well informed about the problem. For example, the leader may tell the group how many invitations were sent, how many attended, the cost and location, and other facts.

STEP THREE: List advantages of solving this problem.

If there are no specific advantages to solving this problem, it is doubtful the problem as defined truly exists. The basic question here is, "How will the group and individual members benefit by solving this problem?"

STEP FOUR: List obstacles that stand in the way of solving the problem.

The group must be both thorough and honest when listing obstacles. For example, obstacles to increased participation at an event may range from relatively simple challenges, such as transportation difficulties, to more complicated challenges, such as a lack of a sense of belonging.

STEP FIVE: Suggest possible ways to overcome each obstacle.

Look at each obstacle individually and use the brainstorming approach explained in the teambuilding article on pages 24 and 25 of the spring, 1985 issue of THE CRESCENT.

STEP SIX: Decide what to do.

The processes of analysis, judgment and elimination of untenable solutions takes place only in this step. Now that the group has fully defined the problem, built a sense of common purpose, listened fully to the ideas of each member and listed possible solutions, it is ready to evaluate, analyze and reach a consensus.

A solution reached through this step-by-step method is likely to succeed because group involvement has guaranteed both a high level of awareness and a high level of commitment. This process also taps the often overlooked potential of creative thinking and the strength that is derived from a team effort.

Gamma Phi Beta

We once were fourteen rushees,
All lost, confused and dazed.
But then we found Gamma Phi Beta,
Where they promised we wouldn't be hazed.

We then all chose Gamma Phi Beta,
So our pledging period began.
Sisters were there to help us
prepare,
And alumnae were always at hand.

Six weeks were spent learning of love,
Labour and loyalty too.
And after our pledging was over,
We always knew just what to do.

Finally came initiation,
Pledges we'd be no more.
No one could make us deny it,
For we're Gamma Phis through to the core.

For time eternal, we'll be great friends,
Good cause for celebration,
And it's our wish that unto you,
We'll be an inspiration.

We hope you've enjoyed our story,
It was done as well as we could.
For Gamma Phi Beta is here to promote,
The highest form of womanhood!

Nominations Needed

Now is the time to submit names of capable Gamma Phi Beta alumnae to the International Nominating Committee. Every member is urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

Nominations are needed for the five Grand Council positions, four members of the Endowment-Loan Board and six delegates and alternates for the 1986-88 Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee would like to receive many nominations for each of these positions, and will study each nomination carefully in order to present a well qualified slate of officers at the 1986 Convention.

Nomination forms and position descriptions are available from Gamma Phi Beta Central office. The deadline for nominations, which may be submitted by members or collegiate or alumnae chapters, is February 1, 1986.

Members of the 1984-86 Nominating Committee elected at the 1984 Convention are Sheila McCarthy Hewitt (Area I), Mary Jean Lauvetz Hart (Area II), Vicki Savageau (Area III), Catherine Gardner Bowling (Area IV), Beverly Cummings Adams (Area V) and Martha Hall Todd (Area VI). Cathie Guthrie Lindauer is chairman.

Camping Corner

Iowa State University Panhellenic raised more than $7,500 for scholarships for Camp Superkids. The camp is for children with lung diseases and is sponsored by the American Lung Association of Iowa.

Members of the 16 Iowa State sororities invited friends and relatives to join them for a "make-believe tea." Enclosed in each invitation were a tea bag and an explanatory poem about the "non-event."

More than 1,000 guests didn't dress up, find time on their calendars or R.S.V.P. They did, however, make donations to send many children to camp.

Places in the Heart

There are places in the heart reserved,
For a love that never falters.
Be you glad, frightened or perturbed,
The loyalty ne'er alters.

There are places in the heart indeed,
That no force can disturb,
The learning and the labour have no need
From the outside to be heard.

There are places in the heart that stay,
Steadfast and holding true,
To the bonds that which each day
Gather it in sisterhood.

There are secret places in the heart,
That few moments can break through.
Within the sacred chambers lie
That which is held dearest in Gamma Phi.

Helen Silveira

June Meader

A paragon of loyalty, commitment and altruism is the way many Gamma Phi Betas regard June Mahon Meader (Stanford). She is a person who involves herself in such a way that it enhances the lives of others.

Long active in many aspects of the Sorority, June received her 50 year pin at a dinner held in her honor. She served as alumna advisor, rush advisor and house corporation president for Beta Alpha Chapter at USC, and as president of the Pasadena Alumnae Chapter. June was secretary, vice president and president of the USC Panhellenic Alumnae Advisory Council.

On the international level, she served as Chairman of Special Funds and rewrote the pledge manual. June was named to the Sorority's Service Roll in 1964 and selected Southern California Intercity Council Woman of the Year in 1970.

Her service goes beyond Gamma Phi Beta to the community where she was director of volunteer services at Las Encinas Hospital and case work director for the Convalescent Aid Society. Her degrees are in the field of social psychology.

June's half century of service to Gamma Phi Beta and community add up to a most remarkable lady. Those who honored her at the dinner all agree, "June, we salute you. You have truly been an inspiration."—L'Cena Brunskill Rice (USC)

Translating in Venezuela

Elizabeth Taylor Aguerrevere (Illinois) has used her college degree in a rewarding career as manuscript translator and editor, while working as an executive secretary for an international company in Caracas, Venezuela.

As a Spanish major who minored in English and Portuguese, Elizabeth first took her language skills to the Organization of American States in Washington, D.C., where she translated a book on Brazilian music from Portuguese to English.

Three other translations have been done in Caracas, her home for the past 30 years. At the request of author Luis Vallenilla, she improved a poor English translation of his book, Oil, the Making of a New Economic Order. The second translation was more ambitious, a 600 page biography of Simon Bolivar, The Liberator.

Her latest translation is Canaima, a novel about the Venezuelan jungle written in 1935 by renowned author

Elizabeth Tylor Aguerrevere
(Illinois)

Romulo Gallegos, whom she had studied when she was a student. Elizabeth reported she had the "happy opportunity of meeting him in Washington when, as president of Venezuela, he made a state visit." She is proud that the current president of Venezuela, Jaime Lusinchi, personally presented copies of The Liberator and Canaima to President Reagan and San Francisco Mayor Dianne Feinstein.

Elizabeth enjoys travel and has added some French and Italian to her list of languages. Her hobbies are bridge (she has represented Venezuela internationally), music (she plays piano and string bass), writing (bridge columns for a local newspaper), archery and swimming.

She describes life in Caracas as pleasant, particularly because of the "wonderful climate that is about 75° year round. Golfers never miss a weekend!" Located by air three hours from Miami and four hours from New York, the city of 3 million inhabitants is very cosmopolitan with constant cultural activity. "The city has a plethora of excellent restaurants with cuisine from all parts of the world, and the ocean is only about 40 minutes away. Best of all, household help is still reasonable!" —Talie McKenzie

Bank officer is VIP

Pamela A. Bruce (Colorado) was named Distinguished Alumnus of Glenbrook South High School in Illinois. She is a vice president of the First National Bank of Chicago, having moved quickly through its management levels after earning a masters degree in business administration from the University of Chicago.

As the first female division head at First National, her responsibilities included supervision of all branch banking centers throughout the city. In 1982 she was promoted to her present position, where she has direct responsibility for and managerial authority over a loan portfolio in excess of $225 million and deposits of more than $100 million.

Pamela has been in much demand as a national and local television show guest because of her expertise in personal finance. She has appeared on Two on Two, the Lee Phillip Show and the Phil Donahue Show.

Pamela is vice president of the board of directors of the Y.W.C.A. of Metropolitan Chicago and is a member of Chicago Finance Exchange, National Association of Bank Women, Young Executive Club and the University Club.

After earning a bachelors degree in Spanish and political science and a masters degree in linguistics, Pamela taught high school Spanish in Thornton, Colo. She then moved to Washington, D.C. and worked as an intern for Donald Rumfield in the office of Economic Opportunity. Pamela then returned to Illinois and was accepted for the management training program at First National Bank of Chicago.

The best in sales

The philosophy of Beverly Stein Kievman (Rollins), named one of Georgia's Five Most Influential Women, is "If you want something, go for it. Believe in yourself and you can have whatever you want, and you can do whatever you want to do."

Beverly parlayed this philosophy into a multimillion dollar business, Marketing Innovations Corp., an Atlanta firm that helps women in sales related areas. What she tries to do is bring out the latent abilities in people. "I teach a woman to be herself when she's dealing with powerful people," Beverly said. A woman's number one problem is how far to push before she has pushed too far. "I teach them if gut feeling tells you to do something, do it. If you go too far, laugh at yourself."

One of her products is a sales seminar, which she teaches to men and women across the country. The seminar led to publication of her first book, The Complete Success Workbook for Today's Saleswoman, published by Prentice-Hall after three rejections.

Beverly started her first business

20 years ago. Resigning as company president after 10 years, she started a public relations consulting firm that specialized in promoting the state of Georgia in the motion picture industry. For three years she traveled to New York and California selling her state, and then switched gears by answering a newspaper ad for a salesman. After a year with Research Institute of America selling business services to corporations, she found herself number one in new business development competing against 97 male district managers. She was promoted to regional sales manager, and left the company to form Marketing Innovations in 1979.

Beverly handles a full professional life by balancing it with travel, tennis and civic activities—the latter satisfying her need to contribute to the community and make professional contacts that are invaluable to working women. A founder of the Women's Commerce Club, she is the only woman on the National Bank of Georgia board, serves on the boards of four other companies, and is past president of the Leukemia Society.

Final words of advice to women: "Now to succeed women are going to have to do so entirely on ability—which is the way it should have been all along." —Talie McKenzie.

A career in housing

Women in Community Development honored Edith Wells Simonds (Illinois) by naming her Person of the Year. The award recognized her many years of effort to bring about equitable housing for the elderly, the disabled, low income people, single women with children and minorities.

She earned a master's degree in social work and was a housing planner for the Urban League of Pittsburgh. She also served as director for Turtle Creek Valley Housing Development and the Mini-Corporation Association, and as president of Better Community Services. The firms stimulated the development and rehabilitation of housing and provided related services, much of which were in Turtle Creek, Rankin, Braddock and Carnegie, Penn. In recent years, she was a private developer and president of Simonds, Inc., a housing consultant and development firm.

She was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Bronze Tablet at the University of Illinois. She served on the Governor's Advisory Committee on Housing and as a member of the Mt. Lebanon, Penn. Property Maintenance Code ad hoc committee. Ed. Note: Mrs. Simonds died May 6, 1985, as this article was being prepared for the fall issue.

Coasters and Nametags

Gamma Phi Betas looking for gifts for pledge moms, special sisters or graduating seniors may be interested in two items offered by Atlanta alumnae. They are practical 4"x4" coasters with either a light and dark brown  $\Gamma\Phi\beta$  or a pink carnation needlepointed in the center. They have a cork backing and sell for \$5 per set of four, plus 60 cents postage.

Atlanta alumnae also are selling nametags for meetings, Founders Day, rush and other Gamma Phi Beta events. They are white with a pink carnation and pink lettering and have a peel-off backing. The nametags sell for $8 per 100, plus 60 cents postage. Order both items from Pegg Marlatt, 2428 Windon Ct. N.E., Atlanta, GA 30360.

Ladyfood

A great cookbook and a fundraiser for the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation is Ladyfood. A comprehensive collection of the yummiest recipes from Gamma Phi Betas all over the country, Ladyfood makes a perfect gift for any occasion. For each copy ordered, $2 will be sent to the Foundation. It sells for $8.95 per copy and is available from the Dallas Alumnae Chapter. Order from Barb Tallman, 406 High Brook, Richardson, TX 75080 and include $1.05 postage and handling per book. Texas residents must add 45¢ sales tax. Contact Barb for special rates for chapter sales.

Tunic Apron

An attractive tunic apron, appliqued with pale yellow crescent, pink carnation, green stem and dark brown Greek letters is the offering of the North Harris County, Tex., Alumnae Chapter. The background is khaki and features two large pockets. Perfect for rush for collegians and alumnae, the cost is $16.95 plus $1.50 postage and handling. Special postage arrangements can be made for group buys. Send orders to Sharon Graham, 7927 Battlecreek, Houston, TX 77040.

Needlework Patterns

Bakersfield, Cal. alumnae are offering needlework designs featuring the Gamma Phi Beta badge design, a crescent moon and carnation or four stylized carnations with Greek letters. They are suitable for use on clothing, linens, boutique items, pillows and wall hangings. The set of four charted designs with instructions and color suggestions is available for $3 per set, postpaid. Send orders to Mrs. Kathy Hanna, 256 Las Flores, Bakersfield, CA 93305.

Note Cards

Note cards (4"x5") featuring a pink carnation with light and dark brown ribbon encircling it are offered by Minneapolis-St. Paul alumnae. Designed by Mary Drake Mugg (Iowa St.), they are $4.25 per box of 10, plus shipping. (UPS rate for one to three boxes is approximately $1.75) Due to varying prices, the chapter would prefer to bill for shipping costs. Order from Beverly Edwards, 5201 W. 96th St., Bloomington, MN 55437.

Ceramic Tiles

Ceramic tiles are a Christmas idea offered by the Bloomington, Ind. Alumnae Chapter. The 4 1/2" tiles have a gold border and green felt backing with a centered brown 1896 monogram. Chapter year and name can be inscribed on the bottom. They can be ordered individually for $5 each, but orders of 10 or more are preferred for initiation or senior gifts. For orders of 10 or more, the cost is $3.50 per tile, plus 10 percent postage and handling. Allow three weeks for delivery, and order from Myra Baker, 2717 Spicewood Ct., Bloomington, IN 47401.

Eta Chapter Scholarship

A scholarship for one academic year for tuition, board and room will be given to an Eta Chapter alumna or collegiate member in good standing. The scholarship is for graduate or undergraduate study at the university of the applicant's choice. Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of merit, scholastic achievement, activities and need.

For further information and an application contact President, Board of Directors, Eta of Gamma Phi Beta Scholarship Fund, 2732 Channing Way, Berkeley, CA 94704. Please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Applications must be submitted by February 15, 1986 to be considered for the 1986-87 academic year.

Charter Returned

With deep regret, Grand Council has accepted the charter of Beta Iota Chapter, Idaho State University. Because of limited student interest in sororities, Gamma Phi Beta was one of two sororities remaining on campus during the 1984-85 school year. It is the hope of Grand Council that future campus conditions will warrant Gamma Phi Beta returning to Idaho State.

ALUMNAE

The Milwaukee Alumnae Chapter presented a quilted wall hanging to the Milwaukee Ronald McDonald House. Twelve 50 year members received the Golden Crescent Award on Founders Day.

Jackson, Mich. alumnae celebrated Founders Day with a dinner at the Women's City Club. After the traditional ceremony, 50 year pins were given to Sara Rachel Lineburg (Lake Forest) and International Historian Charlotte Hamilton Mason (Michigan).

The Philadelphia West Suburban Alumnae Chapter concluded its 50 year celebration with a banquet in June. Highlights of the year's activities included a Chinese dinner and personal and chapter enrichment.

Colorado held a State Day in Colorado Springs, while alumnae and collegians in the San Francisco area gathered at the Eta Chapter house for Area Leadership Conference. Ideas and songs were shared and workshops on using the media, group dynamics, campus and community relations, and fundraising were featured.

Phoenix and Beta Kappa Chapters served as hostesses for the Arizona State Day. This day of learning and meeting Gamma Phi Betas from throughout the state was highlighted by a luncheon presentation by Marilee Wilson Miller, manager with The Broadway stores.

goods to a thrift shop as an extra fund raising activity.

For their annual fundraiser, Grand Forks, N.D. alumnae again hosted a seminar on time management. The speaker pointed out ways to manage time and lifestyle physically, mentally and spiritually. The chapter also sells Goal Planner Appointment Books. Alpha Beta collegians treated alumnae to an appreciation dinner, and the alumnae chapter, along with the house improvement fund drive. They hope to receive gifts from Alpha Beta alumnae to help with house improvements for the "pink castle."

The results are in again for Kansas City's Antiques and Arts Show. Proceeds totaling $9,000 were to be distributed among the Harvesters (a community food bank), KCPT-TV (to underwrite Mister Rogers' Neighborhood for a year), Kansas City Eye Bank, Mattie Rhodes Memorial Society (camperships for inner city youth) and WDAF Love Fund for Children. Plans are already underway for the 25th anniversary show. Over the years $117,000 has been raised for the community—to say nothing of the great publicity for Gamma Phi Beta. Kansas City's monthly programs have included a demonstration of culinary skills, a party featuring the Kansas City Museum and its exhibits and treasures, "The Best of Kansas City" and "K.C. Trivia," and a "History of Kansas City Jazz." It's obvious the theme for the year has focused on their home town.

Grand President Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.) was a surprise guest at Washington, D.C.'s mother-child brunch. (Yes, some little boys did come and thoroughly enjoyed the mime present for the occasion.) She was on her way to Richmond to install the new Richmond-Williamsburg Alumnae Chapter and to visit William and Mary. Many members of Beta Beta Chapter at the University of Maryland came with their mothers. A speaker on Hollywood's Golden Years brought nostalgia to one slides of Bette Agnew Alburger's (Penn St.) trip to China. In December the group had Christmas dinner and an ornament exchange, and January featured a Super Bowl party.

Among states planning State Days was New Mexico. Members traveled to Joan Hogan Laney's (McGill) home for brunch, a seminar and discussion groups, culminating with a clothing and accessory demonstration by a local fashion consultant. Theme for the meeting was

Denver alumnae held their annual formal. Other meetings featured a potluck pasta bar, a networking program with Theta Chapter and a salad and bridge luncheon.

Northern Virginia had a contest to rename its newsletter, now known as the "Crescent Connection." Members attended an exhibit at Washington D.C.'s Textile Museum to see "The Artist and the Quilt," and toured the "Flower Mart" at Washington National Cathedral. They are contributing meeting of the alumnae chapter and all listened well, for their previous meeting had featured a speaker on the art of listening.

Dallas alumnae were kept busy with a tour of the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts, and their annual spring luncheon and style show at the Alpha Xi Chapter house. They also attended Area Leadership Conference in Austin and helped Alpha Xi Chapter with rush.

Lincoln alumnae planned surprise awards for three always reliable members, but the surprise was on them—none of the three was able to be present for the planned awards ceremony. The chapter thought it was a safe bet because none of the three ever misses a meeting. Never say never. JoAnne Armstrong Bettenhausen, Sue Ellen Thompson and Cay Lietschuck Lacey (all Nebraska) finally received their awards at Pi Chapter's initiation banquet.

Edith Doughty Hindley (Stanford) received the Woman of the Year Award from the Long Beach Alumnae Chapter. The first rush advisor for Gamma Eta Chapter, she has also served the chapter as president, vice president, ways and means chairman, publicity chairman, and Southern California Intercity delegate and president. She has also served on the international level as National Panhellenic Conference Alternating Delegate. Also receiving recognition were Virginia Gustafson Drew (Northwestern) and Jeanne Lupton Leisy (Oregon St.), both past Women of the Year.

Tampa Bay, Fla. alumnae have adopted an ongoing philanthropic project for children living at a local shelter for battered, abused and abandoned children. Children's Home, Inc. is a non-profit organization providing care for children or adolescents who either have no home or have been removed from their home environment by public agencies. The chapter sponsored a group of the children at a local summer camp. In February, the chapter provided hundreds of valentines for the younger residents of the home so they could participate in their public school valentine exchanges. An ice cream social was planned for older residents.

St. Louis alumnae had so many Gamma Phi Beta dates on their calendars they must not have had time to do anything else. In addition to watching indoor soccer at a St. Louis Steamers game, dinners out, and playing Trivial Pursuit with Phi Chapter collegians, they also managed a potluck dinner and a slide show of Washington University's first 100 years. They viewed 1985 style wallcoverings, carpeting and fabrics at an interiors gallery with interior designer Ellen Endres Spengemann (Missouri), and hosted two informational forums to which they invited members from all National Panhellenic Conference sororities in St. Louis. The topics were "Parenting Your Aging Parent" and "PMS and Menopause." The sessions were arranged at two different area hospitals. Their young alumnae group, "The Moonlighters," had a chocolate rendezvous for chocoholics, went to a comedy show and had a tour and luncheon at a nearby winery.

A rummage sale was on the agenda for San Antonio alumnae to benefit Santa Rose Children's Hospital. They also participated in a tea, and a Panhellenic style show and lunch.

Wichita, Kan. alumnae feted Beta Chi seniors at a special brunch in the spring, as did many alumnae groups, as they welcomed seniors to lifelong alumnae membership.

High on Atlanta's priorities are fundraising projects to enable the chapter to send at least one child to Camp Sunshine, a camp for children with cancer. They had a mother-daughter caravan to Athens, to tour the Gamma Phi Beta house at the University of Georgia, and a tour of an historic theater.

Berkeley alumnae held two functions for graduating seniors. Alumnae went to the chapter house to initiate seniors into the alumnae chapter and the Cal Men's Octet performed after dinner. Later, the group held a senior brunch, where the traditional meal of quiche, fruit, muffins, orange juice, coffee and tea was served. Alumnae from other areas were invited to the event.

Omaha had a Saturday morning potluck brunch and style show featuring Gamma Phi Beta models. They invited Lincoln and Kearney alumnae and the new Creighton University colony. Their annual Garden Party was its usual smashing success.

Houston designated gifts for 1985: $900 to the Easter Seal Society to sponsor six campers for a two week session, $300 to Alpha Zeta Chapter for rush and $250 to Beta Tau Chapter for electric candles for initiation.

SisterLink

Gamma Phi Betas didn't need John Nasbitt to tell us that networking is among the new Megatrends. Our career network—SisterLink—is saying it all. But we need your help!

A career information survey will be in the fall Opportunity Fund mailing. Your response will help to create a computer data base so members can "link" up to share career information. Responding imposes no obligation on you. It merely means you are willing to be contacted by sisters who want your advice.

Help us provide this new opportunity for all Gamma Phi Betas!
