

THE CRESCENT

OF GAMMA PHI BETA

Summer 1991

U.S. Secretary of Labor

*By Diane Tjaden
Thompson, Collegiate
Vice President*

My first question is addressed to Gamma Phi Beta alumnae: When a conversation turns to Greek life, is your response, "I was a Gamma Phi Beta," or do you respond, "I am a Gamma Phi Beta." The correct answer is that you are a Gamma Phi Beta and have been since the day you were initiated.

As collegians in the '60s, we saw alumnae take an active role as advisors and house corporation board members, and we knew that alumnae chapters existed. Alumnae wrote recommendations, provided refreshments during rush, maintained the chapter facility, and determined house rules. Province Collegiate Directors and Field Secretaries came to visit, giving us a link to international Gamma Phi Beta . . . but I don't ever remember being actively "rushed" to become a contributing Gamma Phi Beta alumna.

I believe that many of our members were never rushed to become enthusiastic alumnae. This concerns me a great deal because collegians who are not exposed to alumnae role models may not see the need to be contributing alumnae themselves.

There are many reasons why alumnae hesitate to continue their involvement after graduation. Some have always been active with our Sorority, and others, like myself, became reacquainted with Gamma Phi Beta after a long absence.

Since I am certain there are many alumnae who fall into the same category as I did, I want to share my story with you. I live in a small town about 50 miles from two Gamma Phi Beta collegiate chapters, too far away to be regularly involved with them. I received THE CRESCENT, and looked for familiar names and the mention of "my" chapter—but it never occurred to me to get involved as an international officer, or in areas other than with a collegiate chapter.

I also did not think about how our Sorority is funded.

And I didn't give much consideration to the future of Gamma Phi Beta until I had a daughter.

Through the recommendation of a chapter sister, I was asked to be a Province Collegiate Director. I saw that our Sorority could not thrive without two gifts from alumnae—money and time. I saw the need for alumnae to support collegiate chapters, alumnae chapters and the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

It became important to me for Gamma Phi Beta (and the Greek system) to exist when my daughter starts college in 2002. Believe me, there is no assurance that Gamma Phi Beta, or any other sorority, will exist 11 years from now.

In the '70s the Greeks faced many challenges, and in many cases the Greeks lost. We lost members, we lost chapters, and our members lost interest. From the outside we were viewed as elitists who were a negative force on campus.

Anti-Greek sentiment is growing among faculty and administrators. We all must stand up for the Greek system, its benefits and Gamma Phi Beta's standards of membership. Now is the time to remember and act on our belief that the Greek experience is an important part of college life. Greek life still provides students a home away from home, sisterhood, basic values, academic assistance and leadership opportunities.

For all of our challenges, I remain very optimistic. Our collegians are enthusiastic, talented achievers. Many of them have jobs during the school year in addition to campus activities, and they emphasize academic success to enhance their future careers. We can be proud of their many accomplishments.

My wish for our collegians is that they learn the importance of lifetime commitment and, as alumnae, become involved in alumnae groups and as advisors and house corporation board members. My wish for our collegiate chapters is that they all have enthusiastic alumnae to serve as advisors, house corporation board members and role models. My wish for all Gamma Phi Betas is that they support Gamma Phi Beta financially through regular donations to the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. My wish for Gamma Phi Beta is a long and successful future.

And most of all, I wish that all Gamma Phi Betas—whatever their age and wherever they live—will repledge themselves to the ideals and standards of Gamma Phi Beta. Gamma Phi Beta is a lifetime commitment and we are all Gamma Phi Betas!

U.S. SECRETARY OF LABOR

Lynn Morley Martin

Lynn Morley Martin (Illinois) was sworn in by President Bush as secretary of labor on February 22, 1991. President Bush said she would become "a powerful force for good" in the American work place. "I know that Lynn Martin is also committed to reaching out to America's workers," President Bush said.

A former U.S. Representative from the 16th District of Illinois from 1981 to 1991, Lynn said, "You have my commitment to the Department of Labor and the working men and women of America to do the best job I know how."

During her service in the House, Lynn held a series of leadership positions. She served one term on the House Rules Committee, two terms on the House Armed Services Committee, three terms on the House Budget Committee, and one term on both the Committee on Public Works and Transportation and the Committee on the District of Columbia.

Lynn was one of the first women to achieve an elective leadership post in the House when in 1982 her colleagues chose her for the position of vice chair of the House Republican Conference, a position she held for four years. In this position she attended weekly meetings with the president, vice president and other Congressional leaders.

In the 100th Congress, she led a successful bipartisan battle to extend to Congressional employees the same civil rights protection available to most other American workers. In the 101st Congress, she cochaired the Bipartisan Ethics Task Force set up to review standards of official conduct for members of Congress.

Lynn's political career began in 1972 when she was elected to and served four years on the Winnebago County board. She then served in the Illinois House from 1977-79 and in the Illinois Senate from 1979-81.

A native of Chicago, Lynn graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Illinois in 1960 and taught high school economics, government and English. She has two daughters and is married to the Honorable Harry Leinenweber, U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of Illinois, who administered the oath of office at the swearing-in ceremony. Commenting that protocol now places her ahead of her husband, Lynn said, "But he says he has a lifetime appointment."

Editor's Note: For more information about Lynn, see the Fall 1990 issue of THE CRESCENT.

Epsilon Sigma Chapter

19, 1991 was a memorable day for the 41 women who were initiated as charter members of Epsilon Sigma Chapter at Morehead State University, Morehead, Ken. The women had been pledged last September at the conclusion of colonization rush activities.

Throughout their pledgship, the new initiates were involved in campus and colony activities while learning about Gamma Phi Beta. They participated in homecoming events, a seminar on eating disorders, and Greek Variety Show. Social events included mixers with sororities and fraternities and a holiday party.

More than 500 people attended the First Annual All-Greek Gamma Phi Beta Games, during which $700 was raised for charity. A pledge retreat and a rush retreat focused on sisterhood, goal setting and learning rush skills.

During Inspiration Week, colony members focused on Love, Labor, Learning, Loyalty and Laughter in anticipation of the Saturday afternoon initiation at the Newman Center. The ceremony was conducted by Beta Epsilon Chapter, Miami University, under the direction of International Ritual Chairman Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri). Local alumnae who attended were Joyce Friend Pinson (Kentucky), Belinda Howard Williams (Kentucky), Mary Flynn (Kentucky), Bernadette Gillet Long (Kentucky), Marsha Kirby (Bowling Green) and Marita Kilpatrick Mahan (Indiana St.).

That evening, Gamma Phi Betas, parents and friends gathered at the University of Kentucky Faculty Club for the installation banquet. International Public Relations Chairman Cyndy Meisner Howes (Indiana St.) served as mistress of ceremonies.

Assistant Dean of Students and Panhellenic Advisor Myron Doan welcomed Gamma Phi Beta to campus, as did Vice President for Student Life Michael Mincey, who read a letter from President Nelson Grote. Tammy Lee and Garrick Ratliff represented Panhellenic and InterFraternity Council.

International President Jolene Lessard Stiver (N. Dakota St.) presented a $1,000 Gamma Phi Beta Foundation donation to the Destination Graduation Program in honor of the new chapter. Ron Weaver accepted the donation on behalf of the camping program.

Gifts were received from Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Council, Beta Epsilon Chapter, Province XIV and the Sorority. The Outstanding Pledge Award was presented to Paige Burriss, Julie Howard received the Spirit Award and Natalie Brown was recognized with the Sisterhood Award.

After months of anticipation, it was an exciting moment when President Robin Roope accepted the Epsilon Sigma Chapter charter from International President Jolene Stiver, who welcomed the new initiates to Gamma Phi Beta.

Other international officers in attendance were Collegiate Leadership Consultant Mary Beth Holzbach (Florida St.) and New Chapter Director Marilyn Bachnik Callahan (Wis.-Oshkosh).

Morehead State University was established in 1887 as Morehead Normal School and gained university status in 1966. Nestled in the mountains of eastern Kentucky near the Daniel Boone National Forest and Cave Run Lake, university enrollment is 8,000. There are 96 undergraduate degree programs and 13 graduate degree programs. Gamma Phi Beta joins Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta and Kappa Delta on campus.

Members attending the installation banquet are Ruth Ann Baker Palumbo (Kentucky), Anne Kroboth (Kentucky), Mary Flynn (Kentucky), Joy Kinney (Morehead), Joyce Friend Pinson (Kentucky), Bernadette Gillet Long (Kentucky) and Belinda Howard Williams (Kentucky).

Miss USA

Kansas, USA, Universe. Put the title Miss in front of the first two to describe Kelli McCarty (Wichita St.), who was crowned Miss USA on February 24, 1991. On May 17, she will compete for the Miss Universe title.

More than 350 million people around the world, including her chapter sisters at Wichita State University, watched Kelli, the former Miss Kansas, crowned as Miss USA. "I was jumping off the ground screaming," said Heather Hodson (Wichita St.). "The whole chapter was just hoping for the top 11."

Kelli McCarty

Unknown to Kelli, who is from Liberal, Kan., she was in the lead going into the finals after winning the swimsuit and evening gown competitions. "I had my fingers crossed," she said, adding that she had hoped to be in the top 11.

As Miss USA, Kelli has a busy year ahead of her making personal appearances around the country. "She'll have two weeks of personal time the whole year," said Larry McKellips, state director for the Miss Kansas USA Pageant. "We won't be seeing her again until June."

Larry McKellips also said Kelli is different from past pageant winners. "It's refreshing to see someone who didn't expect to win," he said. "She was thrilled to be at every position."

Kelli plans to pursue a career in acting and has appeared in Cop Rock and Matlock.

Miss USA Kelli McCarty (Wichita St.) is crowned by her predecessor Carole Gist.

EARLY

By Rachel Kramer
(Rochester)

Attending the installation banquet are Ann Mowris Mulligan (Syracuse), Ellie Smith, Sue Bender Bloch, Karen Wander Kline and Martha Hunter.

1990 a group of women formed Gamma Phi local sorority at the University of Rochester in Rochester, N.Y. Throughout the spring they participated in philanthropic events and campus activities, and held regular meetings. Gamma Phi Beta was invited to make a presentation to the group in the spring of 1990 and indicated a desire to form a colony in the fall.

During the summer of 1990 the Rochester women stayed in touch with Gamma Phi Beta international officers and each other to plan for their first real challenge—fall rush. They arrived on campus two weeks before the start of classes and worked hard preparing for a rush that would prove to be an exciting, yet exhausting, experience. In five days, the 13 women, with the help of Gamma Phi Betas from Colgate University, Union College and Syracuse University, rushed and achieved their ultimate goal: quota.

Led by Collegiate Leadership Consultant Martha Hunter (Washington), the 44 colony pledges participated in many campus and community activities such as Sigma Chi Derby Days, Ronald McDonald Open House and intramural sports. While representing Gamma Phi Beta on and off campus, they were involved in the pledge program and working as a group to reach one common goal: initiation and installation.

Inspiration Week soon arrived on January 28, 1991. The colony members wholeheartedly participated in the traditional days of Love, Labor, Learning, Loyalty and Laughter and anxiously awaited the 'big weekend.' On Saturday afternoon the pledges made their way to the First Presbyterian Church where Gamma Phi Betas from Syracuse University were ready to perform the initiation ceremony under the direction of International Ritual Chairman Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri). McGill University and Colgate University Gamma Phi Beta sisters also participated in the ceremony.

More than 160 guests attended the installation banquet at the Irondequoit Country Club, including these international officers: Member-at-Large Kris Brandt Riske (Wyoming), Director of Extension Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.), Province I Collegiate Director Joyce Hatch (Rutgers), Assistant to the Collegiate Vice President-Rush Patty Lazos Giese (San Diego St.), New Chapter Director Barbara Hurt-Simmons (Kearney St.), Audrey Weldon Shafer, Martha Hunter, Foundation Trustee Barbara Missert Wessel (Syracuse) and Foundation Coordinator Cheryl Broyles (Colorado St.).

Epsilon Tau Chapter

f Rochester

University of Rochester Vice President and Dean of Students Paul Burgett welcomed Gamma Phi Beta to campus and commended the group on its success. He spoke about the Greek system and its positive influence on university life.

Barbara Wessel presented a $1,000 Gamma Phi Beta Foundation donation in celebration of the new chapter to Ellie Smith, who accepted it on behalf of Hillside Children's Center Liberty Hill Farm. Liberty Hill Farm is a year-round camp for emotionally handicapped children.

Awards were presented to Tammy Kroll, Kaye Ishee, Rebecca Cole, Kate Rogers, Alex Howells and Leah Schierlitz for outstanding contributions during pledgship. Chapter gifts included a silver punch bowl from the Sorority, a silver tray from Province I and a framed photo of the group on bid night from the Rochester Alumnae Chapter.

The Epsilon Tau Chapter charter was presented by Kris Brandt Riske and accepted by President Krista Schlueter. The celebration ended with the singing of Love, Labor, Learning and Loyalty.

Chapter advisors are Sue Bender Bloch (Ohio Wesleyan), Louise MacDowell Battist (William and Mary), Peggy Steinkamp Allen (Iowa St.), Nancy Jenkins Kitt (Colorado), Lisa Wood Gutenberg (Syracuse), Jane Verbridge Cook (Syracuse), Karen Clark (Wittenberg), Renee Heiser (Purdue), Gwenan Attwell (Purdue), and Amanda Huntzinger (Syracuse).

Charter members Holly Lichterman and Tammy Kroll get acquainted with Becky Keene (N. Dakota St.), who was initiated in 1930.

Charter members are Carolyn Aaronson, Sabrina Baloun, Elizabeth Baumgartner, Cintra Bentley, Faith Bevitz, Stephanie Cheuk, Rebecca Cole, Erica Cranston, Emily Ehrenstein, Erica Friday, Meredith Hardy, Megan Healey, Jennifer Heller, Katherine Hornung, Alexandra Howells, Kaye Ishee, Ena Konjolka, Rachel Kramer, Tamara Kroll, Emily Kutner, Laura Lajos, Holly Lichterman, Melissa Luzung, Rachel Madden, Ann Michelini, Laurie Pedulla, Jennifer Pierce, Alisa Pinney, Serra Pradhan, Rola Rashid, Claudia Resch, Stephanie Richheimer, Holly Richmond, Katherine Rogers, Jennifer Rucker, Leah Schierlitz, Krista Schlueter, Corey Scott, Kristen Siudzinski, Andrea Stacy, Amy Stevenson, Lisa VanNamee, Marta Zaineddin and Sarabeth Zalkind. Sammie Broyles, mother of Cheryl Broyles, also was initiated.

February 2, 1991 was a day of celebration for Epsilon Tau Chapter charter members.

ALUMNAE NEWS

All across the continent, sisters honored their heritage and celebrated their sisterhood during Founders Day celebrations.

The Santa Fe, N.M. Crescent Circle honored Helen Dodd Winter, a 1915 initiate, and Marjory Etnyre, a 1917 initiate of Gamma Chapter at the University of Wisconsin. One of Helen's two Gamma Phi Beta daughters was present.

Nashville, Tenn. alumnae and members of Alpha Theta Chapter at Vanderbilt University honored three 50-year members at their Founders Day dinner.

Dayton, Ohio alumnae held their Founders Day celebration at Miami University, where they toured Beta Epsilon's suite. Donna DeFabritus (Ohio Wesleyan) received the IIKE Award for her distinguished service to the chapter, and Anita Stewart Vieson (Ohio Wesleyan) spoke about the meaning the Sorority has for her.

Madison, Wis. alumnae and University of Wisconsin collegians welcomed guests from the Platteville chapter at their Founders Day celebration. Dinner was followed by a slide show, singing, reminiscing and a tour of the chapter house.

Oklahoma State collegians and Stillwater alumnae recalled the lives of the Founders at their celebration.

Tucson, Ariz. alumnae enjoyed a formal dinner at the University of Arizona chapter house, followed by the traditional candle lighting ceremony.

Terre Haute, Ind. alumnae and Indiana State collegians shared thoughts about Gamma Phi Beta at their Founders Day celebration.

Twelve chapters were represented on Founders Day in Jacksonville, Fla. Members of Epsilon Zeta Chapter at Jacksonville University helped make the occasion special.

Kathleen Pearce Villareal (Lamar) led the Houston, Tex. alumnae on a tour of the Circle Art Gallery as a fundraiser for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The group also earned $500 at Sorority Sampler and the new Mothers Club held a Christmas tea for collegians and their mothers.

Eighty alumnae from Houston and North Houston enjoyed

Founders Day at River Oaks Country Club where five alumnae presented a fashion show. Margaret Patterson Suttle (Texas) was honored as a 50-year member.

Ten members of the 1961-66 pledge classes of Beta Zeta Chapter held a reunion at Kent State during homecoming. They spent the weekend looking at old photographs and reminiscing about college days.

Although the Treasure Coast, Fla. Crescent Circle celebrated Founders Day a little late—in December—their enthusiasm was great. They report their sisterhood is strong despite being far from a collegiate chapter.

Ft. Collins, Colo. alumnae and Colorado State collegians celebrated the 75th anniversary of Tau Chapter with a Christmas brunch at the chapter house. Doris Wagner Hannah (Colorado St.) received her 50-year pin from Beall Julie Fay (Nebraska), alumnae chapter president.

A slide show developed by Virginia Jarell Burke (Colorado St.) and Maxine Mayhew McDermott (Colorado St.) was presented. Pictures of the campus in 1916 and the houses occupied by the chapter brought back many memories for alumnae.

Ft. Collins, Colo. alumnae and Colorado State collegians celebrate Tau Chapter's 75th anniversary.

Kathryn Allen Woodward (Denver) was honored for 85 years Gamma Phi Beta membership at the Greater Kansas City, Mo. Founders Day celebration.

Raleigh, N.C. alumnae enjoy a weekend at the beach home of Eunice Lundquist Toussant (N. Dakota St.).

Fresno alumnae Jana Gonsalves (Calif. Poly-San Luis Obispo), Janice Sanguinetti Graves (Pacific), Peggy Cate Bawden (Calif.-Berkeley), Esther Noreen Koch (Iowa), Sue Kapis (San Jose St.) and Janet Mackerras Sandstrom (San Diego St.) celebrate Founders Day.

Three charter members—Vera Carter Ault, Elizabeth Gage Murray and Faye Porter Hoffman—were recognized. Letters had been written to each charter member, and Faye and Vera received a bouquet of pink carnations. Elizabeth is a resident of Louisiana.

In January alumnae treated Tau Chapter pledges to a lasagna supper at the Sherwood Lake Club. Each pledge received a letter and a pink, heart-shaped jewel box from the alumnae chapter.

St. Louis, Mo. alumnae honored Susan Richter Krombach (Missouri) with the Elizabeth Woods Mize Award for Love, Labor, Learning and Loyalty at its Founders Day luncheon. Former Grand President Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri), who now serves as International Ritual Chairman, shared a personal look at the Sorority's Founders. In December the group helped staff a charity gift wrap store at a shopping mall and Nancy White Welton (Minnesota) hosted the annual holiday party.

Atlanta, Ga. alumnae celebrated their 50th anniversary at a Founders Day luncheon. Fifty-eight alumnae and collegians enjoyed a program entitled Through the Decades, which featured history and songs from each era. Holly Koons (Georgia) received the Atlanta Alumnae Scholarship and Sandra Rettke Nauman (Arizona) received the Outstanding Alumna of the Year Award. International President University of California-Berkeley alumnae attend a 30-year reunion.

Jolene Lessard Stiver (N. Dakota St.) was guest speaker at the event at which 30 chapters were represented.

Eight University of California-Berkeley alumnae enjoyed a 30-year reunion in Carmel, Calif. Molly Busch Brockmeyer reported, "Although many of us had not seen each other in 30 years, conversations just picked up as though we had been together the week before. There must be something in the bonding of Sorority life."

*Merit Roll

Service Roll

Proof of death must be submitted to International Headquarters before a member's name will be listed in the In Memoriam column. A newspaper obituary is preferred, but consideration will be given to a letter from a family member or executor of estate.

The Sorority appreciates the return of a deceased member's badge, when possible, so that it might be preserved and bring joy to others as a special chapter badge.

The name of Charlotte Hein Stafford, Omega Chapter, was incorrectly listed in In Memoriam in the spring 1991 issue. Apologies are extended to Mrs. Stafford, who is a resident of Houston, Tex.

Recommendations required for pledges

- Recommendations are required for all women voted into Gamma Phi Beta membership. Each recommendation provides vital information which helps collegiate chapters during membership selection.
- All alumnae are encouraged to write recommendations for prospective members going through rush at any college or university with a Gamma Phi Beta chapter.
- To recommend a woman for Gamma Phi Beta membership, complete the form on page 16. Locate the Area Recommendations Chairman for the appropriate college or university and mail the completed form to her.

Note: On many campuses, rush week is in August; mail early so the chapter has ample time to review information before rush begins.

Gamma Phi Beta Legacy Policy

There are always many questions and concerns about legacies. Who are they? Are they given special consideration? Who notifies the relative?

Granddaughters, daughters and sisters of Gamma Phi Betas are legacies. Step-sisters, step-daughters and step-granddaughters may be considered legacies if desired by the Gamma Phi Beta relative.

Legacies are given special consideration during rush. This means they are to be invited to the second round of rush parties as a courtesy and are to be given courteous, fair and serious deliberation during membership selection. However, legacy status is not a guarantee of membership. At many older chapters the number of legacies going through rush sometimes exceeds the number of openings in the pledge class.

A collegiate chapter does not have to compromise any of its standards for a legacy. Scholastic ability, character and financial responsibility will be assessed the same for legacies as for other rushees and the final decision in membership selection is the privilege and responsibility of the collegiate chapter. If a legacy is invited to and attends the final round of rush parties, her name is placed alphabetically on the first bid list.

If a legacy is pledged, the chapter will notify her relative(s) of her initiation date. If she is not invited back to Gamma Phi Beta, notification of the relative(s) is left to the discretion of the legacy.

Relatives can help legacies have a pleasant rush experience by discussing Gamma Phi Beta and the entire Greek system. Because all National Panhellenic Conference sororities have similar goals and ideals, it is a disservice to pressure a legacy to the extent she feels only Gamma Phi Beta will provide a meaningful sorority experience.

Some collegiate chapters have legacy weekends or special events. Some do not and/or cannot because of rushing regulations. Investigate the policy at your legacy's campus and encourage her to attend if that opportunity is available. It is an ideal way to get acquainted prior to rush.

COLLEGIATE NEWS

Courtney Goss, Deanna Halpin and Sue Lee are Delta Chapter sisters at Boston University.

Bright costumes and colorful decorations contrasted the night darkness during the Puget Sound Wizard of Oz rush party. The chapter also participated in a ski challenge to benefit multiple sclerosis and held a Valentine Balloon Buy for the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. To improve communication, newsletters were sent to alumnae and parents. Parents started a Parents Club and mothers were honored on Mom's Weekend.

Sharon McLaughlin welcomes alumnae Ann Nelson Hawkins (Michigan), Cherie McElhinney Olsen (Iowa) and Martha Poe Egger (Michigan) to the University of Michigan.

University of Kansas Gamma Phi Betas eagerly anticipate their Preference Party.

Vanderbilt collegians welcomed new pledges in January, and in February passed out candy and hearts at a children's hospital and attended the Pink Carnation Ball. Chapter families began journals and record books with family trees during a PACE activity.

California State-Fullerton members opened their new television room and kitchen with a ribbon cutting ceremony. They held a canned food drive, made visors for Camp Sechelt, filled Christmas stockings for a nursing home and wrote to military personnel in Saudi Arabia.

Alumnae from Lawrence, Kan. and the surrounding area joined University of Kansas collegians for Founders Day. The chapter awarded its annual $500 scholarship to a legacy who exemplifies the Sorority's ideals and purposes.

Colorado State Gamma Phi Betas raised chapter spirit and $1,250 for battered women and children at their annual spaghetti dinner. To fund house improvements they sold sportswear imprinted with the names of Greek groups.

More than 100 University of Alabama collegians celebrated Founders Day with area alumnae. They recognized Chapter Advisor Rhoda Richardson as Outstanding Alumna of the Year.

Excitement, sisterhood and learning described Inspiration Week at Kansas State. A pizza party, sharing feelings, roller skating and studying together were all part of the week's activities. After initiation they enjoyed Celebration Day with movies, lunch and a disco party.

Big and little sisters share sisterhood at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Greek Week brings out the smiles at California State-Fullerton.

Beta Beta Chapter at the University of Maryland celebrated its 50th anniversary with a reunion on homecoming. Alumnae enjoyed looking at composites from years past and visiting the rooms where they once lived. They reminisced and helped give the members a sense of their chapter's history.

Charlotte White, a charter member, spoke at the Reunion Ball.

More than 400 alumnae were contacted through the efforts of Lori Ann Baker at Western Ontario, who sent them letters and information cards. The response was tremendous with many alumnae returning the cards and names of additional alumnae to contact. Alumnae received special invitations to a homecoming tea and Founders Day. The chapter also started a collegiate-alumnae pen pal program.

Beta Psi Chapter at Oklahoma State raised more than $1,000 with a campus-wide event called Lescapade, a benefit held in honor of chapter member Diana Lescarbours. Diana sustained severe head injuries in a car accident last year. After being in a coma and close to death, she has improved greatly and is being cared for at a rehabilitation center in Dallas.

Social Chairman Stephanie Wright said, "We felt that the most suitable way to raise money for Diana would be a campus-wide function. It suits her personality for she is so well-liked." Of Diana, another sister said, "Diana never has to make friends; people want to be her friend."

North Dakota collegians enjoyed the Holiday Ball and honored their busboys at a Christmas party. On Halloween, they delivered carved pumpkins to each sorority and fraternity and in December gave each group an ornament decorated with its letters. A Valentine Balloon Buy benefitted the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

Kari Ragnes and Charmain Looper admire their masks before the University of Oregon Masquerade Ball.

Clemson Gamma Phi Betas kicked off the Christmas season with their Destination Unknown Semi-Formal that took members and dates to the Peachtree Hotel in Atlanta. Santa made a guest appearance at the Crescent Sis Christmas party where they exchanged gifts. They also sent Christmas cards and magazines to military personnel in Saudi Arabia.

Poodle skirts and ice cream sodas set the tone for Union College's '50s Night during rush. Hollywood Night also captured the attention of rushees.

Vanderbilt University collegians celebrate bid day.

Catherine Byrd, Charla Cusinato and Robin Molyneau are all smiles for Gamma Phi Beta at the University of Western Ontario.

George Mason Gamma Phi Betas hold a surprise wedding shower for a sister.

Gamma Phi-esta, Tea Party with Gamma Phi Beta and Jersey Night helped Chapman College collegians pledge quota. Pledges found their big sisters at a special candle passing ceremony. Movies and scavenger hunts were among their Girls Night Out activities. The holidays brought a semi-formal party and a function with alumnae, and the chapter collected canned goods.

University of Southern California members celebrated Founders Day with more than 200 sisters at a luncheon at the Hyatt Regency Long Beach. Chapters as far north as San Luis Obispo and as far south as San Diego attended the event at which chapter and individual awards were given. Members also participated in a week-long morning television news show segment.

It was an unforgettable evening for Delta Chapter at Boston University when collegians and alumnae gathered at the Lenox Hotel to celebrate the chapter's fifth anniversary since its rechartering. A slide show and a presentation by Mark Nahorney, director of student activities, were highlights of the event.

COLLEGIATE NEWS

Alumnae from several chapters joined University of Michigan collegians for the traditional Founders Day ritual and a buffet supper and were surprised to discover that what looked like a pot of flowers was dessert. Fifty-year members Martha Poe Egger, Jane Honey Harrelson and Dorothy Brooks Darling (all Michigan) were honored.

Decorated masks and white limos added a touch of class to the Masquerade Ball at the University of Oregon. Sisters dressed in black serenaded their dates and presented them with beribboned carnations.

East Texas State Gamma Phi Betas made regular visits to a nursing home and participation in a canned food drive brought them newspaper recognition. They also hosted an alumnae reception.

Kappa Chapter at the University of Minnesota answered phones for the Gulf Line, a service of a television station that provided up-to-date information on the war. It was a learning experience for them and good public relations for the chapter. The chapter also participated in a blood drive and held a silent auction.

Kearney State's philanthropic activities included Honey Sunday, trick-or-treating for canned goods, and sponsoring a teeter-totter-a-thon for Hospice. The chapter invited two former Camp Sechelt counselors to present a PACE program, and alumnae and mothers donated items for an auction for the new International Headquarters.

Members of Alpha Epsilon Chapter at the University of Arizona hosted sisters from Arizona State and Northern Arizona at the 1991 Leadership Conference.

Chapter unity was the focus of a pledge-initiate party at UCLA.

University of Puget Sound Gamma Phi Betas perform their Wizard of Oz rush skit.

Sisters from the three Arizona chapters attend Leadership Conference.

To break the ice and introduce themselves, they went on a scavenger hunt and also enjoyed raffling t-shirts from each chapter.

The weekend also had a serious side, with speakers on Sorority issues. Member-at-Large Kris Brandt Riske (Wyoming), Collegiate Leadership Consultant Mary Beth Holzbach (Florida St.), Assistant to the Financial Vice President-Operations Kathleen Sage (Arizona) and Province XI Collegiate Director Vicki Carlson Read (Arizona) were on hand to answer questions and concerns about Sorority operations.

Carol Thompson, acting director of student activities at the University of Arizona, led a discussion about leadership skills. She asked small groups to draw the ideal Gamma Phi leader, and they created members with characteristics such as big ears for listening, a big heart for generosity and mismatched clothes for diversity.

Kathleen Sage presented a workshop on financial responsibility, and Vicki Read showed a video made by a university police officer in which he explained the consequences of underage drinking, excessive alcohol consumption and the chapter's liabilities at alcohol-related events.

Every Gamma Phi Beta in attendance made a new friend. Every chapter drew upon the strengths of another. Everyone present learned something new about the Sorority. Most importantly, the women all worked together to bond as sisters in Gamma Phi Beta. It was a special weekend filled with love, labor, learning and loyalty.—Mattie McVey (Arizona)

Position Statement on Alcohol

Because of our concern for the health and well-being of our members, the presidents of all 26 National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) groups have agreed to the following:

1. that we are opposed to the misuse of alcohol;
2. that all college chapters, all individual members, and all guests must abide by federal, state/provincial, local, college/university laws and regulations;
3. that it is inadvisable to host a party involving alcohol when the majority of guests attending are under the legal drinking age;
4. that no college chapter funds may be used to purchase alcohol. (Co-sponsors of social events are potentially liable regardless of how the expenses are shared.)

Each NPC group has an alcohol policy and is expected to abide by it. In addition, the presidents expect their chapters to respect the regulations of any NPC co-sponsoring group.

We hope that this agreement will give college chapters the courage and ability to initiate discussion and formulate a Panhellenic stand on the subject of alcohol.

PROFILES

As a child growing up in Wahoo, Neb., Mary Jean Lauvetz Hart (Nebraska) lived and breathed Camp Fire Girls. She would explore the Indian cemetery at the edge of town and look for arrowheads.

Today the Philadelphia mother of eight and grandmother of 24 still lives and breathes Camp Fire. She is a Camp Fire leader, the vice chairman of the National Catholic Committee for Girl Scouts and Camp Fire, and the Northeast Regional finance officer for Camp Fire. She proudly displays her beaded Indian gown that represents a lifetime of service to the community and the church.

While at Nebraska, Mary Jean earned degrees in chemistry and psychology and was chapter president. She said, "Gamma Phi Beta and Camp Fire have a great deal in common. Their goal is to help each member become the best person she can be."

Mary Jean has continued to serve the Sorority as an Area Financial Advisor for eight years and presently as financial advisor to the chapter at LaSalle University. Her name is listed on the Merit and Service Rolls.

A pledge sister fixed them up with a blind date. On the second date they went flying—her first flight. Little did Marilyn Krebs Culwell (Texas Tech) know then that she would, literally, spend her lifetime "up in the air" with husband Cully Culwell.

Soon after their marriage he began fixing up a two-seater plane which they flew around Texas to visit Gamma Phi friends. By this time Marilyn could see the handwriting on the wall and decided to get her pilot's license. Her first solo was in 1961. A succession of planes followed—advancing to four-seaters when children, Mike and Karen were added to the family. There were adventures, such as a forced landing inside a county penal farm, but it was a good way for a young family to get around quickly.

In 1971 Cully bought a wrecked 1953 Piper Super Cub—a two-seater, one behind the other—to work on as a father-son project with Mike. In 1985 the Cub was due for another overhaul, and during the renovation, long range fuel tanks and large tundra tires, along with sophisticated navigation and radio gear, were added. Cully and Marilyn did all the rib stitching of the fabric on the wings, painted it bright yellow and christened the modified "Yellow Bird" with a trip to Alaska. "It's a long way from Dallas to Alaska at 100 miles per hour," said Marilyn.

They then decided a trip around the world had a lot of appeal. After much studying, planning and arranging, the plane was dismantled and shipped to Nairobi, Kenya to be reassembled for the first leg of their around-the-world adventure. Talk about an unusual safari! They saw animals they'd never seen before, Mt. Kilimanjaro and all the usual and unusual African sights. But Yellow Bird offered them sights unknown to others—particularly birds. "We were able to fly quite close and get some excellent footage on a video camera we'd mounted on a wing."

After many adventures and a very thorough tour of the area, the Culwells disassembled their plane to send it off to Australia, for the next leg of their journey—after a long trip home to regroup, plan and study for the next segment. If you're overseas somewhere and look up and see a yellow Cub, it's probably the Culwells, on yet another leg of their adventure.

Cully and Marilyn Krebs Culwell (Texas Tech) visit Tanzania in their Piper Cub.

Foundation elects Trustee

Barbara Missert Wessel (Syracuse) has been named Development Chairman for the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

To her new position as a Foundation Trustee, she brings her professional experience as director of development for Syracuse University. Previously she had parlayed her 20 years experience as a volunteer fund raiser into a position with a small private college as director of alumni affairs and assistant director of development.

A Merit Award winner, Barbara also serves on the Sorority's Endowment-Loan Board.

Doris B. Gorden Special Sister Grant

Doris Bird Gorden (Bowling Green) has never let her wheelchair stop her from doing anything.

Last year she traveled to Thailand, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Germany, Austria, Yugoslavia, Italy, Lichtenstein, Switzerland, Nova Scotia, Florida and Denver. She's been an inspiration to many a Gamma Phi through her indomitable spirit and her lifelong commitment to Gamma Phi Beta; she has just concluded eight years as Assistant to the Alumnae Vice President-Bylaws. She also serves on the board of directors of a local rehabilitation clinic, and swims daily "to keep fit so I can handle all these things." That includes keeping up with four grown children and 10 grandchildren and serving as vice president and treasurer of her husband's consulting business. She also is Province II Alumnae

Doris Bird Gorden and daughter Janet Gorden Rhodes (LaSalle)

Special Sister Grant

Since 1984, Doris and her husband Bill have offered Gamma Phi Betas not only inspiration, but concrete help as well through the Doris B. Gorden Special Sister Grant. Intended to help alumnae who are facing special challenges return to school for additional education, the fund has been tapped on several occasions for other than educational reasons; "personal matters that couldn't be announced," according to Doris.

The grant was the brainchild of Doris' husband, who wanted to show his gratitude for all the help the family received when Doris was suddenly confined to an iron lung after contracting polio in 1954. They had two young children and another on the way. "Our friends rallied," and Doris was able to take over again after a few years. "It is impossible for us to ever repay our friends for their help... except through our efforts to help others," Bill said.

His thought was that a scholarship could cover the cost of refresher courses or courses geared toward a career change for Gamma Phi Beta alumnae facing major challenges. "Bill deserves the credit. It was his idea and his generosity which made it possible," said Doris.

Recipients

He hadn't envisioned some of the unusual challenges that appeared, but the grant criteria were broadly interpreted to help Laura Winslow Kershaw (Colorado), a victim of multiple sclerosis, purchase a van with a wheelchair lift. "It has made it possible for me, with the help of a driver, to get out of the house. It is one of my few remaining activities," writes Laura, who also has the challenge of a five-year-old son. "I wish you to know how grateful I am for the small pleasures and necessities made available to me through the generosity of the Doris Gorden Special Sister Grant." Her husband Nick adds, "My thanks to you and your many sisters, especially the University of California-Berkeley chapter, who call and come to our home to help on a regular basis. I'm lucky to be her husband."

In a more conventional vein, another alumna used her grant for tuition to prepare for employment after a divorce, when she was called upon to support herself and two children. "More than the boost to my ego that obtaining A's in those courses means to me, there is an even bigger boost that comes from having someone say, 'I believe in your dream.' That's what Doris Gorden and all the sisters seemed to be saying." She adds, "I'd like to talk face-to-face with Doris Gorden and say 'Thank you for showing us all that truly successful women reach out to each other when the need is the greatest.'"

Another recipient returned to school to earn a master's degree in early childhood education to enhance her ability to support herself and a child after a divorce. She's showing her gratitude by serving as president of an alumnae chapter while she's finishing her degree. "It's an honor for me to be able to give back to Gamma Phi Beta my support and time, knowing that the Sorority has always been there to support me." She added, "I would not have had the opportunity to go to school for my final semester had it not been for the financial support."

Application

The special Sister Grant is administered by the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. An applicant must be a Gamma Phi Beta alumna in good standing with a special need because of handicap, illness or disability of her own, her spouse or children; or because of divorce or widowhood. Financial need is a consideration. Application forms are available through alumnae chapters or the Foundation (7395 E. Orchard Road, Suite 200, Englewood, CO 80111), and each must be submitted along with two letters (one from a Gamma Phi Beta alumna) stating the necessity for funds.

Donations

Members wishing to donate to increase available funds for the grant may contribute to the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. "I know it is important for the Foundation to receive unrestricted funds, but we would also encourage others to contribute to this special fund because there is so much need when the unexpected happens," said Doris.

Bliss Endowment

Helen E. Bliss (Illinois) is a part of two significant events in Gamma Phi Beta history: she was a charter member of Omicron Chapter at the University of Illinois and a charter member of the Washington, D.C. Alumnae Chapter.

But it is through her will that she will live on as a major figure in the history of the Sorority. Helen left one-quarter of her estate to the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. To honor this loyal and dedicated member, the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation office in the new International Headquarters will be named the Helen E. Bliss Foundation Office.

Helen's generous bequest will be distributed as follows: $100,000 for the Leadership Development Endowment, $200,000 to create the new International Philanthropy Endowment, and $250,000 for the Foundation offices in the new International Headquarters building.

Described by those in the Washington, D.C. Alumnae Chapter who remember her well as "quick, self-effacing, very loyal," Helen was a legal secretary in Washington, D.C.—a career woman before there were career women. She had many close friends in the alumnae chapter and served as president of the group in 1930, five years before it was chartered. She lived in a fashionable Washington, D.C. apartment building, traveled extensively and enjoyed cultural events. She never married.

Initiated into Omicron Chapter in 1913, Helen received her 50-year pin and certificate in 1963. She died in January, 1988 at 93, a member of Gamma Phi Beta for 75 years.

"This member's generosity to her Sorority has enabled the Foundation to do some rather remarkable things, such as loaning the Sorority funds for the International Headquarters. Her major contributions will enable the Foundation to do some very important work for the benefit of current and future members, as well as our philanthropies," said Foundation Chairman Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.).

Gifts, bequests, securities and real property are welcome from individuals, chapters, provinces, companies and other foundations, provided the gifts can be administered in accordance with the Foundation purposes and policies. For more information, contact the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation, 7395 E. Orchard Road, Suite 200, Englewood, CO 80111.
