Gamma Phi Beta Membership Offers Opportunity for Developing Self Esteem

By Susan Genskow Mayer (Minnesota), Financial Vice President

Have you ever noticed someone across a room with an extra sparkle in her smile, an energetic posture, and spirit that permeates her conversation? Her positive energy helps her be noticed, motivates those around her and adds credence to what she says.

Somewhere, this woman has developed self esteem. Was it through a nurturing family, scholastic achievement, community service or success at work?

Our Sorority membership offers many opportunities to develop the foundation for self esteem in ourselves and in others. This improves our lives, not only as collegians, but as alumnae and in our chosen careers.

First, by practicing conversation skills at rush school, we learn to engage in meaningful dialogue that will help us feel comfortable talking to most anyone about most anything. Benefits are immediate during our first job interviews.

Second, as both alumnae and collegians, we have opportunities to participate and lead group activities, from chapter retreats and Personal and Chapter Enrichment (PACE) programs to campus events and community service. The interpersonal communication and planning skills we can test out will help us be better team players at home and at work.

Finally, we have established vehicles to recognize our members' achievements, with positive feedback through chapter scholarship nights, campus awards, and international recognition such as the listing of collegiate honors in this issue. By sharing your success, we let you know how proud we are of your efforts, and encourage you to keep reaching for the top.

This issue of The Crescent also features the alumnae donors who provide financial support to our Foundation. Perhaps it is the positive energy these women have found in Gamma Phi Beta that prompt them to contribute to the Foundation year after year. Their donations, in turn, make possible the Leadership Training School held every other summer for collegiate and international officers (see back cover of this issue). These and other training programs help us share Gamma Phi Beta energy with all our members through successful leadership programming.

What can you do today, this week, and this month to develop your own self esteem and that of those around you? Make time for yourself in your busy schedule to learn something new, develop a skill, support your favorite cause, or spend time with a friend. Reach out to others and give a compliment, actively listen to another's concerns, and show that you care.

As new members are recruited this fall and pledge classes fill across the country, Gamma Phi Beta collegians and alumnae will welcome new members into our circle of sisterhood. By treating our pledges with dignity and respect, we can do much to give our pledges the inner security to grow. They will be able to look beyond themselves, reach out to others, and will become that next person you notice across the room with that extra sparkle in her smile.

Thank you for sharing your own self esteem with others around you at home, at work, and in our Sorority.

Cinda Lucas gives $100,000 to Benefit Collegiate Leadership Development

Remember Gamma Phi Beta, remember when you're away . . .

A guiding force and inspiration to her only grandchild, Cinda, Lenore Markham convinced her husband, Maurice, to move from Kansas to Los Angeles in 1932 to become President and publisher of what is now the Daily News.

Just as the song says Cinda Keating Lucas (USC) remembered Gamma Phi Beta and honored her Grandmother's memory by establishing the Mae Lenore Markham and Cinda Keating Lucas Collegiate Leadership Endowment with a $100,000 gift to the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation's Leadership Development Endowment.

As Cinda often quotes, "When a door closes, a window opens."

Cinda presented her gift last spring to Foundation Chairman Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.) at the Southern California Benefit Luncheon and fashion show in Beverly Hills.

"I think we each have a responsibility to give back whenever we can," Cinda said in her address at the luncheon. "Each of us has gifts that we must give back to an organization that helped foster our growth. Helen, Frances, Adeline and Mary were deeply committed to seeing that their legacy lived on. They worked tirelessly until their deaths to see that women were given opportunities like going to college and taking classes with men — things that we take for granted today."

Cinda, who currently serves Gamma Phi as the Member-at-large on International Council, said that one of the reasons she wanted to give back to Gamma Phi Beta was because the Sorority taught her to live with life's many challenges. "I learned interviewing and conversation skills through rush, organization skills by serving as an officer and even learned a little about the real world when everything didn't always go my way."

"We all have important legacies to pass on," Cinda explained. "Helping young women reach their highest career potential, fostering personal growth and empowerment and financially committing to insure that unrestricted funds are available all help to maintain the high standards and growth of our Sorority."

Cinda's legacy, the new fund within the Leadership Development Endowment,

*Cinda Keating Lucas
Beta Alpha
University of Southern California*

will establish a program to help women learn the leadership skills necessary to successfully compete in today's corporate environment. The endowment will support programs addressing topics such as problem solving, interpersonal relationships and other growth-enhancing opportunities.

Cinda believes the Sorority can provide an environment for women to gain insight, take risks and be challenged to become the best they can be.

"My grandmother was a strong and ever present force in my life," said Cinda of Mae Lenore Markham for whom the endowment was named. "She knew how important my friends were to me and encouraged me to join a sorority knowing that it would fine-tune my leadership skills and give me the support of a 'family' that I so longed for as an only child."

"It is because of the values, dedication and commitment to making a difference, the high energy of a woman who gave me a tremendous foundation and the continuous support and encouragement of my Sorority sisters that I was able to create this new endowment."

Cinda closed her passionate speech with a quote from Kahlil Gibran: "All you have shall some day be given; therefore give now that the season of giving may be yours."

And so, as Cinda is enjoying her season, Gamma Phi Beta benefits from her vision and generosity.

Thank you, Cinda. ☺

After presenting her gift, Cinda was honored at the Southern California Benefit Luncheon last March at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel. California Gamma Phis hold the benefit every two years to raise funds for the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation's Leadership Development Endowment.

UC-Riverside sisters surround their bear.

Wichita State sisters celebrated their chapter's 35th anniversary last winter. Sisters gained an increased appreciation of the chapter's history as alumnae spoke about the founding and traditions passed down through the years. Four decades of scrapbooks and articles showed how the chapter evolved and grew through hard work.

Chapter philanthropy projects included bowling for Big Brothers/Big Sisters, painting over gang graffiti and holding a tug-of-war contest to benefit Camp Sechelt and diabetes. These endeavors won them the 1993 Alpha Tau Omega Award for Community Service.

Cal. State Fullerton collegians celebrated Valentine's Day with a heart-warming PACE. Each member pinned a paper heart on her back and then walked around and wrote notes to each other on the hearts. At the end of the evening, everyone took off their hearts and read the notes—a nice way to remember that each member has special friends in Gamma Phi.

Georgia sisters traveled to Atlanta to attend the first career seminar sponsored by the Atlanta Alumnae Chapter. Representatives from top corporations spoke on goal setting, writing career letters and resumes, research, networking and interviewing.

Rochester collegians held their annual pie throwing philanthropy event. Students paid money to throw a pie at their favorite participant from a sorority, fraternity, or other student organization. The organization whose participant received the most pies in the face won a prize and all proceeds went to a local charity.

Riverside sisters experienced both smiles and tears at a workshop on personal and chapter self-esteem presented by International Council Member-at-Large Cinda Keating Lucas (U.S.C.). Cinda motivated them to share painful experiences from the past and aspirations for the future. They learned the importance of goal setting, the necessity of positive thinking and how to create fulfilling relationships.

Beta Alpha chapter members at U.S.C. participated in the first university sponsored formal spring rush. The chapter was excited to pledge four young women who are stand-outs on the tennis, ski and track teams.

Sacramento sisters mounted a tremendous display of sisterhood and spirit to win Lambda Chi Alpha's Watermelon Bust philanthropy event. They earned winning points from serenades, spirit, posters and, of course, watermelon events.

Marquette members participated in a city-wide clean-up to benefit hunger and the homeless in Milwaukee. The event was part of Greek Olympics. In addition to working alongside local residents to clean streets and neighborhoods, each member's goal was to raise $75 in pledges.

San Diego State sisters won the prestigious Dean's Trophy presented by Panhellenic and the Interfraternity Council. The trophy is awarded on the basis of scholarship, philanthropy and campus activities. The chapter also won Derby Days by raising approximately $3,000 for the Children's Foundation Network, and placed second in Greek Week for helping raise $11,000 for multiple sclerosis.

Irvine celebrated its 20th anniversary with the opening of the new chapter house last fall. The house is part of Greek Village. Alumnae and collegiate members are impressed with the elegance and spaciousness of the house and look forward to decorating and furnishing the house. The village is a unique project involving the cooperation of the university and alumni.

The Creighton chapter made history by pledging their largest pledge class ever—54 members! Members also earned campus and province recognition with its 3.269 average GPA. The chapter conducted a sports auction to raise $5,000 to help a four-year-old leukemia sufferer who needs a bone-marrow transplant, and their "Most Beautiful Eyes Contest" benefited the National Society to Prevent Blindness.

William and Mary collegians and alumnae celebrated their 60th anniversary with a tea. The afternoon was marked with the presentation of a 50-year pin to Mary Jane Howard.

Iowa State's spring activities revolved around a common theme—construction. They built kites and cooked out with children from a childrens' home. They placed second in their division with their VEISHEA celebration float titled "Building on Imagination" as the construction began on the addition to their chapter house.

The tea took place in conjunction with the university's tricentury celebration.

Boston sisters once again claimed first place in Greek Week. It was their sixth win in the last seven years - a Boston record! Sisters viewed our country's idea of "Founded Upon a Rock", when the chapter held a two-day retreat at Plymouth, Massachusetts. The retreat included workshops, goal setting, games and a fireside.

Idaho collegians joined other sororities and Panhellenic in adopting a position statement on alcohol and crowd control at social functions. By adopting the statement, they hope to reduce the illegal use of alcohol on campus and the risks associated with it. They will not support any function that does not honor the provisions of the statement and ultimately hope to change the reputation Greeks have as being "partiers". As a result of adopting the statement, the Idaho Panhellenic won the Panhellenic Risk Management Award at their regional conference.

Oregon State sisters celebrated their chapter's 75th anniversary with an alumnae luncheon where they shared memories and stories from the past. The chapter donated $300 to Camp Sechelt that it had received from Alpha Kappa Lambda for helping them recolonize.

Loyola's second annual softball tournament raised money for the Care Center of New Orleans. The chapter held a party in honor of former Chapter Advisor Kathy Novak who received the Elementary School Teacher of the Year award given by a local television station. Loyola sisters also made a commercial for "The

Florida Tech was proud to take first place in Greek Week and to install Epsilon Upsilon Chapter at the University of Miami. Their community service included walks for Multiple Sclerosis and the March of Dimes.

For the second straight year Northwestern collegians won the President's Award for Greek Excellence at the Greek Leadership Conference. Thirteen sisters volunteered for the Regional Track and Field Competition of Special Olympics.

Bridgewater State's team spirit and skill earned them first place in Greek Week. Activities included a frisbee golf tournament, a gladiator tourney, a waitress bowl, chariot race, egg toss and jeopardy game. They raised money for a children's physical therapy clinic with their fifth annual 24-hour rocking chair rock-a-thon.

Miami of Ohio's spring formal was an elegant affair held on a riverboat. Sisters danced under the stars as the moonlight reflected off the river.

Washington State collegians strengthened their sisterhood at an all-house retreat held at a camp. Mom's Weekend highlights included a brunch and a barbecue.

Jacksonville won the President's Spirit Trophy for homecoming and won Derby Days for their efforts for the Make-a-Wish Foundation.

Gettysburg had a fun spring semester with its local philanthropy, a nursing home. They delivered handmade Valentines to the residents and helped them celebrate the holiday by watching them crown their "King and Queen". In April they made cookies with the residents and enjoyed hearing stories and making new friends. This year, one Loyalty Circle each week spends an afternoon with their special older friends.

Florida State's activities included successful competition in Greek Week and a sponsored a campus-wide clothing drive for abused women.

Alabama Gamma Phis also collected baby items for infants with AIDS and participated in several Panhellenic-sponsored activities including a 12-hour run to benefit the American Cancer Society.

Rhodes College sisters raised money for a childrens hospital with a teeter-totter-a-thon.

Crescent Cookout for invited guests. During the intramural season they competed in racquetball, tennis and softball. Spring events included a scholarship dinner, Senior Celebration and their "Under the Sea" luau social.

Colorado State blew up and delivered 500 balloons during finals week as part of its Balloon Buy for the benefit of Camp Sechelt. Gamma Phi Beta dominated Greek Week and won first place. A fireside, a special dinner, cards and flowers made Senior Celebration Week one to remember.

During the spring semester, collegians at the University of Alabama held their fourth annual teeter-totter-a-thon to benefit a local camp and

Who Are They?

I thoroughly enjoy reading The Crescent and learning what is happening at Gamma Phi and my chapter as well as hearing news of those sisters I knew so many years ago. In the winter 1992-93 issue there was a picture of a 37-year reunion of Alpha Chapter. These women graduated from Syracuse University two years ahead of me and I recognized several of them immediately.

However, other faces looked very familiar but I could not place the names and the ones I did come up with, I wasn't sure I was putting to the right faces.

The same thing happened with the spring issue. When looking at a picture of the Metro New Jersey alumnae, one of the faces looked very familiar but I can't come up with a name. Would it be possible to label the pictures you publish with names and chapters?

So many happy memories came back as I looked at the first picture and it was so frustrating not to be able to place the people.

Believe me, they haven't changed that much—it is just my memory failing.

Sigrid Johanson Tracy (Syracuse)

Good Work

My accolades on the last edition of The Crescent. The format was wonderful, especially the college names in bold type. It took me two years to figure out and remember that the chapter at the college that I advise for is Epsilon Gamma, but my husband went to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and I like to read about our chapter there, but could never figure out the chapter name.

Thank you for making The Crescent easier to read. I now find that I read it from cover to cover and read about all the colleges where Gamma Phi Beta is found.

Thank you. Keep up the good work!
Julie Hart-Lawson (Oregon)

How May I Become Involved?

I recently read Diane Thompson's article, "Gamma Phi Beta Wants You" in my spring 1993 issue of The Crescent. I have always been very interested in becoming involved in Gamma Phi Beta and your article prompted me to write this letter and get some assistance.

I am an alumna of the Gamma Kappa Chapter at the University of Nebraska at Kearney. I am now living in Grand Island, Nebraska, which is approximately 45 miles from Kearney. I did join the alumnae group in Kearney for one year, but I found that Kearney was too far away for me to make it to the activities. The article mentioned becoming an International Officer. Could you please send me some information? I would be interested to know what is involved in becoming an International Officer for Gamma Phi Beta.

My husband and I are also considering a move to Omaha, Nebraska within the year. Is there a collegiate chapter or an alumnae group in Omaha? If there is, I would also like some information on becoming an advisor to a collegiate chapter or just some information on the alumnae group.

Beta Eta Supports Camping

On behalf of the women of the Beta Eta Chapter at Bradley University, it is my pleasure to donate $485 to Camp Sechelt. The money was raised through a Halloween philanthropy, where members sold "ghost messages" to students at B.U.

An additional $50 was donated by Bradley's Panhellenic Council in recognition of Beta Eta winning the Scholarship Week for the fall semester. It is our hope that you will use these funds in whatever manner you deem necessary.

We commend the Foundation for its commitment to camping for special girls. Nothing can motivate these girls to greater heights than having someone truly believe in them! I hope this money can be of some assistance.

Thanks for Helping to Fight Discrimination in Rush

Remember the thrill of Bid Day, the nervous anticipation of initiation, the excitement of formals, the joy of shared secrets of being another kind of sister?

These are some of my most special memories of college life. Being a Gamma Phi taught me so many of the things about leadership and responsibility that I use in my daily life as a teacher and try to instill in the cheerleaders I sponsor.

When my younger sister decided to go to college last year we were all excited. As a learning disabled student, she never really enjoyed school but always tried. While at our local community college, she earned a good GPA as well as many honors for photography and photo-journalism. After two years of community college, she chose to pursue her bachelor's.

Upon her acceptance at the University of North Texas, we began to help Suzie prepare for formal rush. The ladies of the Garland Panhellenic Association were a huge help. It was a very exciting time for our family. I was almost as nervous as I was the time I rushed.

You can probably imagine the heartache I felt when Suzie called in uncontrollable sobs the morning following the second night of rush and said that she had been cut from rush. As a teacher of the learning disabled, I was appalled that this treatment of a documented learning disabled student was allowed and as a sister, I was furious.

It seems the University's Office of Disabled Students supplemented the documentation enclosed in Suzie's rush applications with a formal letter stating their involvement in her academic pursuit and the nature of her disability, profound dyslexia nervosa.

This letter explained the consequences this would have on her GPA as well as the measures required by law that this office would do to help ensure her success. The Panhellenic office refused to distribute the letter to the sororities.

I frantically searched through all of my back issues of The Crescent and called International Headquarters. It was suggested that I contact Betty Quick (Gamma Phi's National Panhellenic Delegate). After a few exchanged phone calls and MUCH support from Betty, Suzie was allowed to enter rush that night with her letter.

Two chapters at UNT chose not to discriminate against her because of her disability and invited her to their chapter rooms that night. This past weekend Suzie went to her first formal as an initiated member of Alpha Phi sorority.

I write this letter in the hope that our chapters show the same compassion for handicapped students that the sisters of Alpha Phi at UNT extended Suzie. They will have a better chapter with her as a member.

By looking beyond her resume and rush application, those girls learned a valuable lesson—another one of those great lessons the Greek system teaches that cannot be learned in any classroom.

It is my further hope that the chapters of Gamma Phi Beta will not only recognize this but will seek to make assurances that they will not discriminate on any level.

I noticed in my last issue of The Crescent that several sisters are making contributions in celebration of various events. I would like to make a contribution to the Foundation in the name of Betty Quick for her love of Gamma Phi Beta and support to a sister she may never meet but that will always remember her. Thank you Betty and Gamma Phi.

Epsilon Omega Installation

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

By Stephanie Duncan (Indiana St.) and Theresa Hanlon (Boston)

After overcoming quite a few obstacles along the way, including Hurricane Andrew and a challenging spring rush, the Epsilon Omega Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta was installed April 17, 1993 at the University of Miami in Florida.

The afternoon initiation ceremony, performed by Delta Sigma chapter from Florida Institute of Technology was followed by the installation banquet at the Biscayne Bay Marriott Hotel. Linda Daniel Johnson (Vanderbilt), Collegiate Vice President, presented the charter to chapter president Rochelle Rubin. Linda Lyons Malony (USC), Director of Extension, was the Mistress of Ceremonies.

"We overcame a few obstacles along the way," Linda said, acknowledging the hard work of many organizations and individuals since Gamma Phi Beta first made its presentation to the University of Miami Panhellenic council two years ago.

Also representing International Gamma Phi Beta at the banquet were Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri), International Ritual Chairman, Joanne Shaffer Meloro (Rutgers), New Chapter Director, Nancy Donovan Montgomery (Bowling Green), Province Alumnae Director, Laura Hatch (Colorado), International Rush Consultant, Stephanie Duncan (Indiana St.) and Theresa Hanlon (Boston), Collegiate Leadership Consultants.

International officers recapped the highlights of the colony's first semester on campus which included presenting a rendition of "Cinderella" for the Panhellenic Pledges on Parade skits; winning the coveted Spirit Trophy in their first homecoming competition; achieving the highest pledge class GPA on campus; participating in Sigma Chi Derby Days; executing UM's largest and most successful spring rush; and an award-winning showing in Greek Week and Greek Sing.

"Working with these women has not only been a challenge, but an absolute joy," remarked Stephanie and Theresa.

Celebrating 35 Years of Sisters Giving to Sisters

In its 35th year of sisters giving to sisters, the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation is celebrating the sisters who give from their hearts to help others in need.

The work of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation depends on the generous donations of all its members. We thank all of the alumnae and collegians who contribute to the Foundation's Annual Appeal in amounts from $1 to hundreds of dollars. These sisters are continuing their lifetime commitment to the Sorority.

Foundation donations by all members, giving at their own level, are crucial. It is your way of showing your pride in and love of Gamma Phi Beta.

All Gamma Phi Betas are encouraged to join the celebration this year by making a tax-deductible gift to the Foundation to help support the Sorority's international philanthropy, special camping for girls, financial aid and educational programs.

The following list recognizes sisters and friends who have donated to the Foundation from August 1, 1992 to July 31, 1993. In addition to sisters and friends listed in this issue, the Foundation also thanks members for contributions sent directly to individual chapters.

Foundation Income in 1992-93

Annual appeal

Each year alumnae are asked to support the Foundation with unrestricted gifts—large or small. Last year more than 4,000 sisters gave to the Foundation through the annual appeal.

Endowments

Investment income from restricted endowments provides income to finance grants, such as the interest income from the Leadership Development Endowment that funds Sorority educational programming. Members are encouraged to support existing endowments and/or create new ones.

The 1874 Society

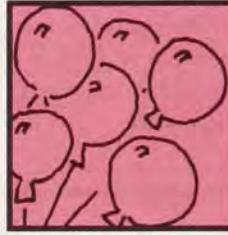

Members, chapters or friends giving at least $1,874 of unrestricted gifts in one year are honored by membership in the Foundation's 1874 Society. Last year 21 members and one alumnae chapter joined the 1874 Society.

In Memoriam and In Celebration gifts

Friends, families and sisters gave generously during 1992-93 in memory of lost loved ones and In Celebration of special events.

Chapter gifts

Collegiate and alumnae chapters donated more than $27,000 to the Foundation during 1992-93. This includes funds raised by campus Balloon Buys.

Why Is Foundation Giving Important?

Since 1874, Gamma Phis have always helped and supported each other because of the belief in developing the highest type of womanhood. Members have given in love their time, talent and treasures.

Member and chapter dues and fees, alone, do not fund the programming and philanthropic services of Gamma Phi Beta. With tax-deductible gifts to the Foundation, sisters can share their treasures to insure the future of Gamma Phi sisterhood.

The generosity of sisters in the 1992-93 Foundation fiscal year made it possible to finance the following programs:

Sorority educational programming

Educational programs at Leadership Training School, training of officers and Collegiate Leadership Consultants, scholarship programs and PACE programming were funded with $41,210 from the Foundation.

Special camping for girls

Special camping for girls, our international philanthropy, and Camp Sechelt provided camping experiences for more than 300 girls during the summer of 1993. Camp Sechelt and 44 other camps located throughout the United States and Canada received $37,000 from the Foundation.

Financial aid

The Foundation received 76 applications for scholarships and fellowships in 1993 and made 42 awards totaling $42,150 to help with educational expenses. Emergency Grants-in-Aid totaling $2,600 were awarded to six sisters with critical, unforeseen needs.

Tau Epsilon Pi Society Welcomes New Members

The Gamma Phi Beta Foundation proudly welcomes 19 sisters to membership in Tau Epsilon Pi, a special recognition society honoring members and friends who have included the Sorority in their estate planning. These 19 sisters join the 44 founding members in the Society named for our open motto: tethemeliemeneae epi petran; founded upon a rock.

The Tau Epsilon Pi Society is the foundation upon which the future of Gamma Phi Beta is built. Providing a planned gift today enables the Foundation to continue to offer quality educational programming, leadership development and camping experience tomorrow. Planned gifts allow the Foundation to plan for future growth, while using funds from other sources for current programs and operations. There are several ways to make a planned gift. Perhaps the simplest is a bequest which can be accomplished by adding a codicil to your will. Trusts, annuities and gifts of life insurance are other types of planned gifts. Gifts may take the form of cash, securities, real and personal property. In all cases, the Foundation advises that Gamma Phis seek professional advice before making a planned gift. If you would like to join these caring and far sighted sisters in the Tau Epsilon Pi Society, contact Stephanie Hearn, Foundation Director, International Headquarters, 12737 E. Euclid Dr., Englewood, CO 80111-6445; (303) 799-1874.

How was the Foundation logo created and what does it stand for?

A Denver-based marketing and design firm designed the dramatic logo as a gift to the Foundation in 1976. The logo represents the heart of a woman and the colors, orange and red, communicate warmth and love.

Jolene Stiver Named Foundation Chairman

Immediate past International President, Jolene Lessard Stiver (N.Dakota St.) has been appointed Chairman of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

Joey, who has also served the Sorority and Foundation as Collegiate Vice President, Endowment-Loan Board member, Province Alumnae Director, International Rush Consultant, Foundation Trustee and Camp Counselor, said, "The Foundation is in the unique position of directly helping women—young and old—both within and outside of Gamma Phi Beta and the Greek world. Through the efforts of Gamma Phis working with the Foundation, lives can be touched in positive and long-lasting ways."

"In a world that often criticizes Greek membership," Joey continued, "the Foundation can serve as an example of the good that Greeks accomplish through promotion of high educational pursuits."

Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.), Foundation Chairman from 1986 to July, 1993, said, "It's a pleasure to turn over the Foundation Chairmanship to Joey. She understands the Foundation's vision and her values and ethics are impeccable. She truly cares about philanthropy."

A founding member of both the Foundation's 1874 and TEII Societies, Joey said, "The Foundation touched my life as a collegian and it is a privilege to now be in the position to lead the organization which can do the same for others. It is my goal to continue the vision of those who worked with the Foundation before me and to make the Foundation a living part of each of our members' lives—now and forever."

Foundation Supplements Chapter Gifts to Camps

During the past year, 32 alumnae chapters and two collegiate chapters applied to the Foundation for supplemental funds to add to their support of 44 camps for girls. Local funds, combined with Foundation funds, enabled 202 campers to experience 1,514 days of camping.

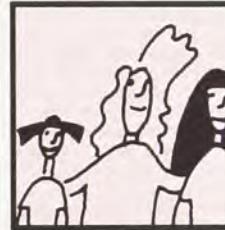

Has your chapter taken advantage of this opportunity? If not, you're missing a chance to bring Gamma Phi Beta's international philanthropy to your community.

Applications for supplemental campership funds may be submitted at any time, with a deadline of April 15 for the 1994 summer season. Funds must be used for special camping for girls, such as those with specific illnesses or those who are physically disabled, emotionally disturbed or mentally retarded. For more information, contact International Headquarters.

The following chapters received supplemental funds for camperships during the past year:

Albuquerque, New Mexico
Alpha Phi (Colorado College)

Why is special camping our international philanthropy?

Originally adopted in 1929 as Gamma Phi Beta's international philanthropy, special camping for girls has grown and adapted to the changing times and needs of society as well as local needs and interests. Camping provides diversity, preventive programming, local involvement and environmental appreciation. It is a positive way to impact the lives of young girls—our future leaders.

Seniors Answer Appeal to Become Members of Foundation's Carnation Giving Circle

Started just three years ago, the Senior Carnation Appeal supports the Foundation's Leadership Development Endowment, which provides leadership programming for the Sorority workshops at Conventions and Leadership Training Schools, Collegiate Leadership Consultant and International Rush Consultant visits and PACE programs.

Each year, seniors are asked to make a five-year commitment to support this appeal. The first year after graduation each participant is asked to let International Headquarters know her new address, the second year she makes a gift to the Foundation

1874 Society Celebrates Third Year

In its third successful year, the 1874 Society of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation is proud to count 21 loyal Gamma Phis and one alumnae chapter among its 1992-93 members.

The 1874 Society is composed of Gamma Phis who have each provided unrestricted gifts of at least $1,874 to help the Foundation continue its important philanthropic work for the Sorority. Foundation Special Gifts Chairman Randall Stevens Allard (Calif. St.-Long Beach) said, "The Society members have shown their dedication and love for our sisterhood in a tangible and important way. By giving an unrestricted gift of $1,874, these sisters allow the work of the Foundation to go full - steam ahead. Their generosity serves as a model for all of us."

In 1990-91, 28 Gamma Phi Betas answered the call to become charter members of the 1874 Society of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. In its second year, we recognized the wonderful leadership support that we received from 23 sisters.

The 1992-93 members are:

Corporations Recognize Employees' Sorority Service with Grants to the Foundation

By Phyllis Donaldson Cboat (Nebraska-Lincoln)

More than 90 percent of American companies have formal programs to encourage employees to volunteer, according to a survey conducted by the Points of Light Foundation. The vast majority of company executives believe that volunteering makes employees more productive and improves morale. Companies believe that volunteer incentive programs enable them to attract better employees, and keep them longer. Volunteering also enhances corporate training programs.

Companies encourage employees to volunteer through recognition programs, publicizing volunteer opportunities, encouraging board membership, providing release time or lending personnel to non-profits for a specific project. Some companies give financial support directly to the not-for-profits for which their employees volunteer.

Janice Hiller (U.C.-Irvine) and Kathy Kempf (Nebraska-Kearney) are two Gamma Phi Betas whose volunteer efforts have resulted in corporate donations to the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

Janice's service to Delta Eta Chapter made her eligible to submit her name for the Spirit of Giving drawing sponsored by her employer, Bank of America. She was among 1,000 employees

Kathy Kempf
(Nebraska-Kearney)

Janice Hiller

system-wide to submit their name for a chance to win $1,000 for their favorite charity. Janice was one of the 25 lucky winners. In fact, she was number 25! She met the requirement of having volunteered at least 35 hours in the last six months by serving as chapter advisor and president of the house corporation board. With the construction of the new chapter house, her house board responsibilities easily qualified her for the drawing. Janice has been with Bank of America for 14 years, and is manager of the Corona del Mar Branch. The Spirit of Giving drawing is part of Team America, the bank's volunteer program.

Kathy Kempf's service as a counselor at Camp Sechelt, as a Collegiate Leadership Consultant and most recently as a member of the Foundation Camping Committee helped her secure a $1,000 grant for Camp Sechelt from the GTE Corporation Foundation. The grant was made as part of the Volunteer Initiatives Program that encourages employees to become involved in worthwhile community services and agencies. Taking her cue from her sister Kimberly Kempf Leonard, Kathy was accepted as a Camp Sechelt counselor after her freshman year in 1987. She continues to be an advocate of the camping program by speaking to alumnae chapters and Leadership Conferences, and writing letters to chapters in her province. Kathy was an exercise physiologist at GTE's fitness center in Stamford, Connecticut until her recent move to St. Louis.

Kathy and Janice both encourage other Gamma Phis to check with their employers to find out if they have giving programs that could benefit the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

How many campers attend Camp Sechelt, the Foundation-owned camp in Vancouver, British Columbia, each year?

More than 100 girls from 8 to 10 years old attend Camp Sechelt in one summer. The camp, run by Gamma Phi Betas, offers three two-week sessions each summer. Camp Sechelt, the girls who attend and the staff are totally supported by donations from Gamma Phi's friends.

State College alumnae enjoyed a busy year. Activities included a dessert party for Penn State pledges, a holiday party, a "share-your-valuables" auction, a program on nutrition, and a reception for graduating seniors. They concluded their year with a salad supper in June. As part of rush week preparations, the collegians practiced their rushing skills by "rushing" their alumnae sisters.

Denver alumnae are working toward implementing a common project that will unite their diverse membership. While many "special interest" groups exist to meet the varying needs of the members, the chapter has decided that a philanthropy project is needed to unite these groups. The chapter is conducting a study to identify an annual philanthropy project that would attract the participation of the entire chapter, as well as the support and contributions of the community.

St. Louis alumnae concluded their year with a potluck dinner and installation of officers. Alison Shafer Bond's (Missouri) husband, Denny, who is the Alumnae from Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal braved a snowstorm and freezing weather for McGill's reunion in February. On Friday the chapter open house gave alumnae an opportunity to see old friends and catch up. The next evening, alumnae joined collegians for a black-tie dinner and dancing at the annual Pink Carnation Ball. On Sunday Grace Lin, Lee Ann Mangin, Susan Guterman and Suzanne Slinn-Higgins hosted a brunch for their sisters. The reunion was so much fun that they are already planning next year's.

The Albuquerque Alumnae Chapter honored JoAnne Anderson Abbott (North Dakota State) upon completion of her tenth non-consecutive term as president. They credit JoAnne for being the driving force behind the chapter and responsible for its success.

After having to cancel their holiday party due to a major snow storm, everyone turned out for the annual summer patio party for husbands and friends hosted by Judy Hansard Campbell (Midwestern State).

Gamma Phi Betas from San Diego to San Luis Obispo gathered for Province XVI's Leadership Conference last spring, at the Waterfront Hilton Resort in Huntington Beach. Collegiate workshops centered around rush, chapter programming and Greek issues. The Financial Department discussed issues of interest to house corporation boards and alumnae focused on area recommendations, Panhellenic and idea sharing.

The Greater Kansas City alumnae joined forces with KCPT, the local educational TV station, to prepare for their first Antiques and Garden Show, a restructuring of their annual Arts and Antique Show. The show's new format was presented at their April meeting.

Florence Baxter Snyder
(Illinois), 1890-1992

A Part of Our Heritage

By Marjory Mills Shupert
(Colorado St.)

Florence Baxter, born in Nauvoo, Illinois in 1890, was the youngest of four children. She graduated from the University of Illinois in 1911 and earned her master's degree a year later. Alden E. Snyder fell in love with her spirit and wit. After teaching for a year, she married in 1913 and moved to Hillsboro, Illinois.

A charter member of Omicron Chapter, Florence attended the University of Illinois at a time when few young women graduated from high school. Education was not deemed necessary, yet Florence excelled in math and wrote her master's thesis on binary numbers. She was captain of the university's first women's basketball team and was awarded an athletic letter for her efforts.

Florence was treasurer of Omicron chapter; elected to Sigma Xi, the scientific honorary society; served on the board of the YWCA and was an officer of the literary society.

Florence served as president of the community Health Improvement Association, the PTA, was a leader in forming the Icarian Heritage Society, was involved with Girl Scouts and taught Sunday School.

In 1914, she was the first woman in her community to vote, an act for which she was later recognized by the League of Women Voters.

She left a legacy of excellence and involvement to all Gamma Phi Beta's. We take pride in sharing with you the accomplishments of this Gamma Phi Beta.

Bosnia . . . "The Whole World Must Look at How They Treat Women"

By Kristyn Wiggin Golberg (Kansas)

Bosnia. Americans are divided. Some say U.S. intervention is not only an option, it's our duty as a world leader. Others say it's not our war. Regardless of the involvement issue, the atrocities that continue to occur in Bosnia leave many of us with a sense of helplessness for the innocent victims there.

Susan Conley (Washington), a 29-year-old Washington state native, could not sit back and feel helpless any longer.

After reading a front-page article about a 60-year-old woman in Bosnia who had been gang-raped by Serbian soldiers and then left in despair, Susan felt her calling. She contacted a church in Scottsdale, Arizona that was soliciting aid for Bosnian and Croatian victims.

On December 10, 1992, Susan and three others were on their way to Bosnia, just 20 miles from the front line, with relief supplies for the war victims.

"The moment I decided to go to Bosnia, I was panicked," Susan said. But support from family and friends gave her the strength she needed. Susan took $5,000 in cash and enough antibiotic medicine to treat 4,500 Bosnian refugees.

"I went to Bosnia because I knew that I could help. I felt that even if I only helped a few people, that it would be worthwhile.

My goal was to offer love to people whose lives had been shattered by hatred," Susan said.

My goal was to offer love to people whose lives had been shattered by hatred.

After returning home from Bosnia, Susan felt there was much more work to be done. It is estimated by the Bosnian government that 50,000 to 70,000 women and girls have been systematically raped and brutalized by Serbian soldiers. There is very little help for these victims. Most rape victims do not receive even rudimentary physical examinations for injuries and there are virtually no counseling services to help with their struggle to survive.

Susan decided that she could help the rape survivors by writing a pamphlet that offers counseling advice, information on coping skills and understanding.

"I thought of a pamphlet because I know that the women do not want to talk to anyone about what has happened to them. The pamphlet offers the women privacy and empowerment because they do not have to make themselves vulnerable again to get information about what they are experiencing.

Susan has completed the first draft of the pamphlet and is planning to produce 30,000 copies in the native language for distribution in Bosnia. "I hope to offer a little bit of comfort and understanding so these women can begin healing," Susan explained.

Susan believes that the atrocities being committed in Bosnia and against the thousands of women there point to the need for increased awareness of women's concerns. "I think the whole world is going to have to look at how they treat women," Susan said. "In Bosnia, the men make the rules and then the men break them—and it's ruining women's lives."

And if one woman finds a glimmer of hope in the devastation and grief in Bosnia, then Susan's efforts have been worthwhile.

If you would like more information on Susan's project, call (206)364-8372. ☩

Alyce Martin Chism (Texas Tech)

Gamma Phis Honored and Promoted

Former U.S. Secretary of Labor Lynn Morley Martin (Illinois) received the 1993 Illinois Association Achievement Award at University of Illinois commencement in May. Lynn's political career began in 1972 when she attended an informal neighborhood meeting in Rockford. The group of young Republicans was looking for a "neat young man" to serve on the county board. That neat man turned out to be Lynn. After the county board, she served in both houses of the Illinois legislature and was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives where she served for 10 years.

In 1988 she co-chaired the Bush-Quayle campaign. Two years later President Bush nominated her for Secretary of Labor, which she considered "the best job in America." She brought a hands-on approach to her position, actually going out and working along side Americans in factories, stores, hospitals, schools and construction sights.

Lynn was honored with Gamma Phi Beta's Carnation Award at the 1992 convention in St. Louis.

Alyce Martin Chism (Texas Tech) received the 1992 Elementary Social Studies Teacher of the Year Award at the annual Texas Council for Social Studies Conference. She has previously been chosen the outstanding Elementary Social Studies Teacher of Lubbock, which allowed her to compete in the state competition.

Alyce, who has taught for 22 years, was honored for integrating fourth grade social studies into other curriculum areas such as reading and writing. She likes to have special events such as an historically correct "Pilgrim School" day, for which students research all aspects of the time period and then recreate a school day. Alyce has also coached Odyssey of the Mind teams, two of which have reached the world competition. She has been an active member of the Lubbock Alumnae Chapter, serving in many capacities, including president.

Cecilia Hoffman Eifert (USC)

Cecilia (Cele) Hoffman Eifert (USC) of Tampa Bay, Florida was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Air Force. As an Intelligence Officer, she is responsible for tracking and analyzing intelligence reports from South America. She focuses much of her work on the countries involved in drug trafficking where terrorism is a problem.

Cele began her military career when, at the urging of her father, she entered U.S.C.'s ROTC program to take advantage of the scholarship opportunities. By the time she was a junior she knew that her interest in being in the air force went far beyond the scholarship. That was the same year that she pledged Gamma Phi Beta, where she found acceptance and encouragement for her military career.

Her 16 1/2 year Air Force career has taken her to Panama, Korea, Japan and the Philippines, as well as bases in this country. While in Korea, she met her husband Ron, who was a fighter pilot. He now flies for Delta Airlines. Ron and Cele have a one-year-old son, Carl.

Cele firmly believes that women should be able to serve in combat and that women should not be excluded from the draft. "Everybody should be responsible for defending our country," she said. As a woman she believes that she has not had the same opportunities as a man. She is, however, pleased to see more areas opening up for women.

She has remained involved with the Sorority, including three years as a member of the St. Louis Alumnae Chapter. She is presently active in the Tampa Bay Alumnae Chapter and has just completed her second year as president. She is also special services chairman for the 1994 Convention.

The Lincoln-Lancaster County Commission in Nebraska on the Status of Women honored Beatty Brasch (Washington) with the 1992 Alice Paul Award for her political work on behalf of women. Beatty has worked on campaigns for many women over the years, and as Lancaster County Election Commissioner, she made voter registration more accessible to single parents and low income people.

When she was director of the Lincoln Action Program, she changed the agency's focus from community development to human services, adding programs for low-income women. She also established the Lincoln Action Program's Phoenix Award, presented to women who have pulled themselves out of poverty and dependence on public assistance to independence.

Award winning writer/director Ginger Kathrens (Bowling Green) contributed her research, writing, and filmmaking expertise to three of the programs in the new "Wild America" series on public television. Work for the programs took her to Florida and Wyoming. One program dealt with the urgent need to preserve habitat if we hope to save life on earth. Ginger is president of her own production company, Taurus Productions, which she founded 20 years ago.

Virginia Gose Febinger (Colorado St.)

Jo McLelland Garey (Maryland), an associate broker with Virginia Properties in Richmond, Virginia, is the state president of the Certified Residential Specialists. Only 2 percent of all brokers nationally received this designation.

After just two weeks of training on the short track, Hillary Mills (Marquette) won first place in the National Short Track Speed Skating Championships at the Petit National Ice Center. With her sights clearly set on Lillehammer, Norway, site of the 1994 Winter Olympics, she has begun training for the U.S. Olympic speed skating trials in December. In addition to skating, her rigorous training includes weight lifting, running, and cycling. A marketing major, Hillary is president of Epsilon Chi Chapter.

Nora Colton (Arizona St.) received a PhD from Oxford University, St. Anthony's College, England in August 1992. The following fall she was appointed assistant professor of economics at Drew University in Madison, New Jersey.

Nancy Nagle Zinsmeister (Southern Methodist) is Planning Manager for Lincoln-Mercury and is responsible for planning marketing for all future Ford Motor Company luxury cars.

Elizabeth V. Goode's (Cal. State Bakersfield) artwork was displayed at two southern California art shows. Her etching titled "B.T. - In Memory" was shown in the Art Beat Student Art Show in Costa Mesa and at the Cal. State Long Beach student art show during graduation week. She recently received her BA in art from Long Beach and is SisterLink/TranSISter Chairman for the Greater Orange County Alumnae Chapter.

Retirement Brings New Involvements

Two Fort Collins Virginias—Virginia Jarrell Burke and Virginia Gose Febinger, have each, in their own way, served their community and Tau Chapter.

When Virginia Burke (Colorado St.) retired after 38 years as a teacher and counselor in Poudre R-1 Schools, she promised herself she wasn't going to tie herself down to any one thing. She wanted to come and go as she pleased. That resolve only lasted until a friend told her how desperate the Red Cross was for a volunteer to do secretarial work. Since January 1987, Virginia has worked at the Red Cross on day a week. She says that her volunteer day organizes the rest of her week, and her other activities revolve around it. Her other activities include travels both near and far. She enjoys the nearby Poudre Canyon and the Rocky Mountains, and has traveled the world places like Australia, Ireland, Guatemala and Yugoslavia. Virginia is presently secretary for the Tau Chapter House Corporation Board and has spent hours sewing pillows, draperies and initiation robes for the chapter.

Virginia Febinger's (Colorado St.) story is in some ways parallel to Virginia Burke's. She, too, retired from the Poudre R-1 Schools. As she was trying to decide what to do, a friend persuaded her to take a clowning class. Reluctant at first, Virginia found herself developing the character of Ginger the Clown. Ginger, who has blue hair, a big red nose, and glitter on her half-moon eyebrows, is one of Ft. Collins most recognizable faces and is a hit at birthday parties, picnics, benefits and nursing homes.

Virginia has also created two other clown characters, Pepper (Ginger's sister) and Ginger's Granny. In 1987 Virginia received an award for contributing to the quality of life in Fort Collins, and was named Colorado Clown of the Year. When not "clowning around," Virginia has served as president of the House Corporation Board and the alumnae chapter.

Kathryn Allen Woodward (Denver)

Kathryn Celebrates 105th Birthday

The Afternoon Group of the Greater Kansas City Alumnae Chapter honored Kathryn Allen Woodward (Denver) on the very special occasion of her 105th birthday. Hannah Schooler Foreman (Washington University) hosted a luncheon in her honor. Kathryn is an active member of the Afternoon Group which presented her with a bouquet of traditional pink carnations and a not-so-traditional surprise.

It seems that many years ago Kathryn had a dear friend, Elsie Frisbie Norman who was extremely active in the Sorority, and had lost her badge. Kathryn "loaned" Elsie her badge because she felt that Elsie would outlive her. Emily Margaret (E.M.) Allen Witham (Kansas) thought it would be a wonderful surprise to return Kathryn's badge on her birthday. After some super sleuthing, E.M. tracked down the badge. Kathryn put it on right away and said she would wear it every day. Kathryn also said that she plans to one day give her badge to International Gamma Phi Beta Headquarters for the archives.

Texas—Where the Horses Are MINIATURE?

By Terri McMurray Nieser (Texas Tech)

In the rolling green hills of central Texas, horses graze peacefully in the shadow of a beautiful farmhouse, but these are not the horses often associated with the state where everything comes big. This is Freedom Hills Farm, a nationally-recognized breeder of miniature horses. And the owner and lady of the house is horse aficionado Linda Clarke Anderson (Oklahoma). Freedom Hills Farm is located in historic Washington-on-the-Brazos, where the Texas Declaration of Independence over Mexico was signed. The farm has qualified to compete in the National Miniature Horse Show every year since the Anderson clan began showing horses in 1988.

This success story began in 1984, when Linda and her husband Kent bought their beautiful property as a weekend retreat from their busy lives in Houston. Unable to find an historic house to restore, they worked with architect Barry Moore to create a vintage 1800s Texas farm house, designed to appear authentic and as though it had been enlarged several times throughout the years. This beautiful home, complete with a rock pool designed to resemble the "old swimming hole" has been featured in the May, 1988 issue of Southern Living Magazine, the August, 1987 issue of Houston Home and Garden, and in a June, 1987 article in the Houston Chronicle.

When their home was complete, Linda and Kent were content to rock on the porch and enjoy the beautiful view, however they knew they would need an added attraction to keep the interest of their three children, Whitney, Huntley and Clarke—ages 8 to 13. So in December 1986, Kent presented Linda with a picture of a miniature horse in a silver frame, with instructions to exchange this memento for a living, breathing horse. Two months later, the entire family headed to Oklahoma to select their horse, but instead they returned with five pregnant mares, one filly and one stallion—the beginnings of a herd.

By Easter the following year, the children entered their first miniature horse show and each child won first place in their age group. The family was hooked. At the end of 1988, the family voted to turn their love for the playful, affectionate horses into a business, and Linda began showing horses in 1989—also winning first place in her class in her very first show. In the 1990-91 season, son Clarke was high point youth in the nation, and Linda was amateur high point in the nation.

Linda is special beyond her success with Freedom Hills Farm. She has been active in and supportive of the Houston community, the University of Oklahoma, and Gamma Phi Beta. Her Gamma Phi heritage is strong, beginning with mother Fay Louise "Toadie" Todd Clarke, Psi 1921, and continuing with daughter Whitney Anderson, Psi - 1992. When the Psi chapter recently renovated their house, Linda provided all the art for the living rooms, in memory of her mother who had a love for both Gamma Phi Beta and beautiful art. Linda is also a past president of the Houston Alumnae Chapter. ●

Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta's first chapters organized and became involved in 1892—101 years ago! To celebrate this landmark anniversary, and to kick off the second 100 years of alumnae involvement, Gamma Phi Beta has declared the 1993-94 program year as a Reunion Year.

What is a reunion?

According to Webster, a reunion is a time to come together after a period of separation. How long has it been since you've seen your pledge sisters or your chapter sisters? This would be a great opportunity for Gamma Phi Betas throughout the United States and Canada to get together to renew those special friendships formed at collegiate chapters or during the many years in alumnae chapters.

A reunion is a time for fun, reminiscing and catching up since the last time you were together. And it's also a time to rediscover the feelings of sisterhood, support and sharing from those special times in the past.

The ultimate reunion would be for groups to take the Gamma Phi Beta cruise

Celebrate the 2nd 100 Years of Alumnae Involvement by Planning a Chapter or Pledge Class Reunion!

By Jacki Falkenroth (Nevada-Reno),
Assistant to the Alumnae Vice President

aboard the Windward November 28 through December 5, 1993 or to meet at Convention in Naples, Florida next July! However, an informal get together or special Founders Day program, a year-long alumnae program or a weekend spent at your chapter house or in your college town would also be great fun.

How can we plan a reunion?

All alumnae chapter presidents will receive a Reunion Packet this fall containing ideas and suggestions for planning reunions. But you don't have to be in an alumnae group to have a reunion! Collegiate chapters, pledge classes, mothers/parents clubs and house corporation boards may all plan and participate in reunions. The packet will be available by sending in the "International Headquarters Request Form" printed in each issue of The Crescent. Reunion opportunities are endless. The idea is to focus on renewing ties with Gamma Phi Beta friends and making a commitment to continue involvement to ensure that our Sorority experience will be available to young women for the next 100 years! ●

Happy 100th to Eta

The University of California-Berkeley chapter will celebrate its 100th birthday with an alumnae reunion April 29 through May 1, 1994. For more information, please contact Roxane Rockwell Bomersine (415) 752-2480 or Corinne Martinez (415) 668-4802.

Chapter sisters Verona Dilbeck Lynam and Clarice Braker Morrison (Oklahoma City) were reunited at Gamma Phi Beta's Leadership Training School last June after not seeing each other for more than 20 years!

Now on Tour...

She's energetic, enthusiastic, and extremely dedicated to Gamma Phi Beta. She also has strong leadership skills, a dynamic personality, and a tremendous desire to help collegiate chapters grow. She's a Collegiate Leadership Consultant!

Collegiate Leadership Consultants are recent graduates who travel for a year to Gamma Phi Beta chapters throughout the United States and Canada. The consultants are available to assist with chapter programming, rush, motivation and leadership development. They link collegians to International Gamma Phi Beta, and are highly trained and valuable chapter resources.

So when Collegiate Leadership Consultants arrive with 200 pounds of luggage and a smile, they are there as a sister, friend, confidant and counselor. They are continuing the traditions established by our founders, and they want to help chapters reach full potential.

Leadership Training in Action

In June, 1993, more than 200 Gamma Phi Betas benefitted from three days of Leadership Training School on the Colorado State University campus in Fort Collins. Leadership Training School, which is partially funded by the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation's Leadership Development Endowment, is held in odd-numbered years to educate collegiate officers and International Officers about the Sorority—its programming, policies and procedures. The informal atmosphere also provides an excellent forum for idea-sharing.
